General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

- (a) General Introduction
- (b) List of Abbreviations
- (c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO; etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

UN
United Nations

1. The information below applies to documents and publications of all organs of the United Nations with the exception of the International Court of Justice.

Place of Original Distribution

2. The place of original distribution or publication is given only for documents and publications issued overseas, whether or not they have also been re-issued at New York. Where no place is given, New York is understood to be the place of original distribution or publication.

Distribution Classification

3. The following classification applies to documents of the United Nations:

- (a) General is applied to documents receiving full circulation.
- (b) Limited is applied to documents for which wide circulation is unnecessary for any reason other than that given under (c), and, generally, for documents of a provisional nature, such as draft resolutions and amendments thereto, and similar action documents prepared for use at some meetings. Usually such documents are not distributed until they are published in final form as Annexes to the Official Records.
- (c) Restricted is applied exclusively to documents whose content requires that they be treated as confidential or withheld from public circulation.

4. All printed Official Records of main organs are published in fascicle form. Official Records of any session are not issued in bound volumes after the close of the session; instead, the record of each meeting is published separately, as an individual booklet or fascicle, immediately after the close of the meeting. At the end of each session there is issued to each recipient of the records a prefatory fascicle which contains the following reference material - a title page, a table of contents, a list of members attending, the agenda, and other "preliminary matter". For ease of recognition, the fascicles of the opening and closing meetings are so identified in the masthead, and the prefatory fascicle is to be placed before the record of the opening meeting. Meeting records and prefatory fascicles of the Official Records of the General Assembly, the Economic and Social Council and the Trusteeship Council are bound together, in sessional volumes, for sales purposes. Meeting records of the Security Council and Disarmament Commission are available for sale as individual records of meetings.

5. Prices of printed documents and publications are indicated. All sales documents and publications are available in national currencies through authorized sales agents. A list of authorized sales agents to whom all orders and inquiries should be sent is to be found on the back cover of this publication. A list of United Nations sales agents also appears in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953). Orders and inquiries from countries where sales agents have not yet been appointed may be sent to:

Sales and Circulation Section,
United Nations,
New York

or Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations,
Palais des Nations,
Geneva, Switzerland

6. Certain periodical publications, such as the United Nations Bulletin and the Monthly Bulletin of Statistics, are offered at a fixed annual subscription. Other publications, such as the Treaty Series and the various Official Records appear at intervals in numbered series, but there is, at present no established annual subscription price for them. For the convenience of subscribers, authorized sales agents do accept standing orders for the Treaty Series or for any series of Official Records. Under this arrangement, publications will be mailed to subscribers immediately upon issue and an invoice will be rendered periodically for publications despatched, plus postal charges.

7. The studies and reports prepared by the Secretariat cover a variety of fields. For the convenience of purchasers, the United Nations has established a series of numbered categories for its publications other than periodicals, the Treaty Series and the various Official Records. The following categories have been established.

- I. General Publications (includes Rules of Procedure, Delegation Lists, general informational books and pamphlets, etc.).
- II. A. Economic Stability and Employment Studies.
- II. B. Economic Development Studies.
- II. C. Economic Reports (World).
- II. D. Trade, Financial and Commercial Studies.
- II. E. Reports of the Secretariat of the Economic Commission for Europe.
- II. F. Reports of the Secretariat of the Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East.
- II. G. Reports of the Secretariat of the Economic Commission for Latin America.
- II. H. Technical Assistance Studies and Reports.
- III. Health Publications.
- IV. Social Welfare Publications.
- V. Legal Publications.
- VI. A. Trusteeship Publications.
- VI. B. Studies and Reports on Non-Self-Governing Territories.
- VII. Publications on Political Affairs.
- VIII. Transport and Communications Publications.
- IX. Publications on Atomic Energy and Armaments Control.
- X. Publications on International Administration.
- XI. Publications on Narcotic Drugs.
- XII. Publications on Educational, Scientific and Cultural Affairs.
- XIII. Demographic Publications.
- XIV. Human Rights Publications.
- XV. Relief and Rehabilitation Publications.
- XVI. Fiscal Publications.
- XVII. Statistical Publications.

8. Each printed publication, with the exception of periodicals, the Official Records and the Treaty Series, carries on the inside front cover or on the reverse of the title page a box containing a United Nations publication sales number consisting of the year of publication, the category number of the publication (in roman numerals) and the number of the publication in this particular category (in arabic numerals) issued during the year. The official document number should not be confused with the publication sales number, and need not be quoted unless the document does not bear a publication sales number.

9. Many sales agents will arrange an annual standing order subscription for persons interested in books or pamphlets in any of the categories listed above. It is at present impossible to establish an annual subscription price in advance for publications in any of these categories.

10. Libraries or individuals desiring a copy of every printed publication issued by the United Nations may arrange with sales agents for an "overall" standing order, whereby all Official Records, Secretariat studies and reports, etc. (except periodicals), will be mailed to them upon publication. Subscriptions to United Nations periodicals must be entered separately, even by libraries and individuals placing an "overall" standing order.

Sales Distribution: Mimeographed Document Series

11. Certain mimeographed document series are available by subscription. Further information can be obtained from Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York.

Free Distribution

12. Documents and publications are distributed to Member States, specialized agencies, non-governmental organizations, and depository libraries, under agreed arrangements. It should be noted that documents published in Geneva by ECE, in Bangkok by ECAFE or in Santiago by ECLA, cannot be distributed to some recipients as quickly as those originating at Headquarters. Documents of missions in the field are not distributed to depository libraries.

13. The Department of Public Information issues many publications which may be obtained on request by the press, schools, centres of international study, public libraries, and non-governmental organizations. Some other United Nations documents and publications may also be obtained through the Department. Inquiries should be directed to the Department of Public Information, United Nations, New York, or to United Nations Information Centres.

14. For information concerning free publications of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) and the United Nations Appeal for Children (UNAC), address the Information Section, United Nations Children's Fund, United Nations, New York.

Depository Libraries

15. A network of depository libraries has been established by the United Nations Library, so that throughout the world there are reference collections of documents of the United Nations accessible to the public. A consolidated list of depository libraries of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appears in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

16. The Library is authorized to designate at least one depository library in each Member State. In States of very large area or population, additional depository libraries may be designated. These depository libraries are entitled to receive all generally distributed mimeographed and printed documents and in return are expected to make the collection available to the public. Many of these depositories send their own publications in exchange.

17. Centres of international study may also qualify to receive United Nations documents. A few libraries receive United Nations documents on an exchange basis, in return for extensive services and for publications made available to the United Nations Library.

ICAO

International Civil Aviation Organization

A. CATEGORIES OF PUBLICATIONS

1. The publications of the International Civil Aviation Organization comprise the Convention on International Civil Aviation and Annexes thereto; summaries of proceedings and action of the Assembly and the Council; special records of certain sessions of commissions of the Assembly, constituted committees of the Organization, or other representative bodies; regional and technical manuals; reports of Air Navigation Conferences, and of divisional, regional, and special meetings; ICAO Circulars; the Index of ICAO Documents; tables of agreements and arrangements; Digests of Statistics; the ICAO Monthly Bulletin, and others. For a detailed list and the pricing of Salable Publications of ICAO: See the Catalogue of Salable Publications, 3rd ed., 1946-1953, Montreal, 1954.

2. a) Except as otherwise indicated, these publications are issued either as Documents or Working Papers.

b) A document (Symbol: Doc) is a publication which is considered to have permanent character or special importance. All salable publications are in the category of documents. Some documents may, at the discretion of the Secretary-General, be issued free of charge to individuals requesting them; these non-salable documents include, for instance, the minutes, rules of procedure and ad hoc reports of the Assembly, the Council, and other deliberative bodies of the Organization, lists of agreements and arrangements registered with ICAO, and the weekly list of documents and working papers produced by the Organization.

c) A working paper (Symbol: WP) is any publication, other than a document, intended to serve primarily as a basis for discussion at a meeting, and is normally distributed only to those attending the meeting, for which it was prepared. Copies of working papers may, however, be supplied on specific request, at the discretion of the Secretary-General, within one year after the date of their issue.

B. SYMBOLS OF ICAO DOCUMENTS AND WORKING PAPERS

3. ICAO documents are identified by their title and by a reference symbol. The reference symbol consists of two groups of figures separated by a hyphen, a letter code symbol and an oblique stroke. For example:

Doc 500-AT/200

The first figure (500 in the example given) is the serial number in the general list of ICAO documents. The code letters (AT in this example) indicate the category of activity concerned (in this case, Air Transport). The second figure (in this case 200) is the serial number allotted to the document within that particular category.

4. For purposes of grouping by category of activity, the United Nations Documents Index lists documents, with symbol components reversed, the category element of the symbol first. However, citation of documents should be made with the symbol in proper order.

5. References to ICAO documents in the United Nations Documents Index are general and serve as a quick finding aid. For detailed analyses of ICAO documents the reader should consult the Index of ICAO Documents which that Organization issues monthly and cumulates annually.

ILO

International Labour Organisation

1. International Labour Organisation documents are listed by the staff of the International Labour Office in Geneva and copy is forwarded for inclusion in the United Nations Documents Index. As it is the practice of the I.L.O. to reissue processed documents of permanent interest in one of its series of publications, processed documents are not included in the Index. An exception to this rule is made in the case of Governing Body documents and of reports prepared for discussion by Industrial Committees, regional Conferences and certain other Conferences, which were formerly printed, but which are now issued in offset form with printed covers.

2. Documentation System. There is no general document numbering system for I.L.O. documents. On the whole, however, they follow a fairly simple pattern, and fall into a few easily identifiable groups. These are as follows:

- Governing Body documents
- Documents of the International Labour Conference
- Documents of regional and technical conferences
- Documents of independent committees, of which the industrial committees, first created in 1945, form a distinct group.
- Studies and Reports Series
- Annuals and Periodicals
- Special publications, such as the International Labour Code, Inter-governmental Commodity Control Agreements, etc.

Governing Body documents in their final form appear as Minutes of the Governing Body. These contain the minutes of the debates, and as annexes the reports and other documents of importance submitted for discussion. The printed documents are at present over a year in arrears but it is hoped that this series will be brought up-to-date in 1954. The provisional documents, in mimeographed form, are, however, listed in the Index. These documents have as documents symbol, the letters "G. B.", the number of the session, the number of the item of the agenda, and finally the number of the document within the series for the session in question. For convenience in checking the completeness of the documentation of any given session, the agenda item number is disregarded in the arrangement of documents listed in the United Nations Documents Index.

The documents of the International Labour Conference consist of reports prepared by the International Labour Office and the proceedings of the Conference. Reports have lettered in the upper right corner the words "Report I [II, III, etc.]" and following the title the corresponding annotation, "First [second, third] item of the agenda". A similar presentation is adopted in the case of reports prepared for other conferences and for Industrial Committees.

Studies and Reports, which consists of monographs on various topics, was formerly divided according to subject into separate series designated by the letters A to P; the volumes now bear numbers only, with the designation, New Series.

Most documents in recent years are issued in English, French and Spanish.

3. Sales distribution. An inclusive subscription to all ILO publications per year is $45.00, £13.10s. Any publication can be purchased individually. Prices are fixed in the currency of each country; full information and publications may be obtained from Branch Offices and national Correspondents of the ILO who act as sales agents in most countries.

4. Free distribution. Processed documents have limited distribution and are not for sale. Those which are considered to have permanent value are reissued later in printed form. Working papers, that is, reports submitted to committees, special conferences, etc., now issued in offset form with a printed cover, are available for limited distribution free of charge so far as stocks permit.

5. Sources of information. Information about the documents may be obtained from the Headquarters of the International Labour Office in Geneva, or from any of the branch offices or correspondents. Printed sales catalogues in English, French and Spanish editions which contain helpful descriptions of the contents of the documents, are issued by the Office in Geneva from time to time. The latest catalogue, listing all documents still in print, was issued in 1953, and was entitled: Catalogue of Publications of the International Labour Office. A printed circular entitled ILO: New Publications was started in May 1952 and is issued at intervals of about two months.

The Library of the International Labour Office has prepared and issued mimeographed catalogues of all printed documents issued from 1919 to the end of 1950, in English and French. These catalogues are in two parts, the first an alphabetical arrangement by author, subject and title, the second, a checklist classed as suggested in paragraph 2 of this note. They are entitled: Catalogue of Publications in English of the International Labour Office, 1919-1950. (International Labour Office. Library. Bibliographical Contributions, no. 5; and Catalogue des Publications en Langue Française du Bureau International du Travail, 1919-1950.) (Bureau International du Travail. Bibliothèque. Contributions bibliographiques, no. 6.)

ICITO-GATT

Interim Commission of the International Trade Organization - General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade

1. The Interim Commission for the International Trade Organization (ICITO) is responsible for the publication of documents of the Interim Commission and also for the publication of documents on behalf of the Contracting Parties to General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT). Documents in the ICITO series are unrestricted. Documents in the GATT series are nearly all restricted at the time of issue.

Most of the documents issued during the Sessions of the Contracting Parties to GATT are derestricted a certain time after the end of each Session. Other documents pertaining to no particular Session or issued between Sessions are also derestricted from time to time. The derestricted documents may be consulted at the headquarters of the GATT Secretariat, Geneva.

The Decisions, Declarations and Resolutions of the Contracting Parties are usually derestricted at the close of each Session. In respect of each Session, a mimeographed paper setting out the Decisions, etc., taken at that Session is available on request from the Secretariat.

2. Sales distribution. ICITO and GATT unrestricted documents may be obtained from the GATT Secretariat at Geneva. Printed GATT publications may also be purchased from agents of United Nations publications (see list on back cover), excluding the monthly International Trade News Bulletin, which is obtainable on subscription from the GATT Secretariat only.

3. Free distribution. Unrestricted and restricted ICITO and GATT documents are distributed free to Governments, the United Nations, the specialized agencies, and some inter-governmental organizations. Unrestricted documents only are distributed free to a small group of non-governmental organizations and libraries.

4. Depository libraries. There are no ICITO-GATT depository libraries as such; but some libraries receive documents free on request.

5. Requests for documents and further information.

UNESCO

United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

1. United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization documents are listed and indexed by the staff of United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization in Paris, and copy is forwarded for inclusion in the United Nations Documents Index. The documents listed are those distributed in Paris during the period covered.

2. Documentation system: UNESCO documents are divided into three categories: I) Publications; II) Main Series documents; III) Working Series documents. The Working Series documents are not listed in the United Nations Documents Index.

I. PUBLICATIONS

The term "publication", for the purpose of this statement of policy and procedure, applies to all UNESCO printed-works published for sale or other general public distribution.

II. MAIN SERIES DOCUMENTS

Definitions and categories: Main series documents are these which are produced in direct application of programme resolutions, as explained in each case by a brief introductory paragraph stating objective and genesis. They comprise the following categories and are designated as shown in example at right:

a. Executive Board and General Conference documents: code.
e.g. EX/CF/17
5C/PRG/23

b. Departmental documents: general codes consisting of Department symbol, followed by a series number.
e.g. CUA/52

c. Sub-departmental documents: same as 2, except that additional permanent sub-elements, may be established.
e.g. MC/P/231

d. Jointly sponsored documents: same as 3, except that secondary element will identify co-sponsoring organization, and document will be produced under a joint masthead.
e.g. NS/IIAZ/14

e. Serially titled documents: special arrangements may be made of each such series under its own serial title and a special code consisting of Department symbol, abbreviated title, year and continuity number.
e.g. ED/FE/abstracts/50-14

f. Exceptionally, temporary discussion papers. General code is followed by "Temp".
e.g. SS/21/Temp

g. Final reports of conferences, committees or meetings of experts.
e.g. PHS/Conf. 6/13

III. WORKING SERIES DOCUMENTS

Working Series documents comprise the four categories listed below. The purpose of each document is expressed in its introductory paragraph.

a. Documents for conferences, meetings or Committees of Experts - and summary records or minutes of such conferences. (General final reports are matters for Main Series release.)

b. Discussion papers sent by sponsoring Department, for information or comment, to a limited number of specialists.

c. Short-lived bibliographical or Clearing House data not suitable for Main Series.

d. Administrative Memoranda, if the necessary internal distribution requires reproduction.

3. Sales distribution. With a very few exceptions, all UNESCO publications are freely available for purchase. Distribution in each country is carried out through a "national distributor"; orders may be placed with any good bookseller or forwarded direct to the national distributor. Payment is made in the currency of the country of the buyer. A general catalogue is available on application to the appropriate national distributor. A list of national distributors appeared in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

Subscriptions can be accepted to any of the ten periodicals published. In addition, the following special subscription services are offered:

Documents Subscription Service. One copy of each Main Series document (as opposed to publication) sent direct from Paris in the language selected by the subscriber.

Annual rate: $30. £10.0.0 Fr. fr. 10,000

Comprehensive Periodicals Subscription Service. A combined subscription to all 11 UNESCO periodicals offering a considerable reduction over the total cost of separate subscriptions.

Annual rate: $25. £7.7.0 Fr. fr. 7,000

Book Subscription Scheme. One copy of each new book or pamphlet in any one language sent on publication. Available only to subscribers to the two services described above. Cost: Value of the books despatched, plus postage. Payment is made in one sum every six months.

Subscriptions to the above three special services will cover all UNESCO material issued (with the exception of Working Series documents which are not available for general distribution).

4. Free distribution. Documents in the Main Series, which bear in the top right-hand corner a reference consisting of the word "UNESCO", followed by the code letters of the department of origin and a serial number (e.g.; UNESCO/ED/80), are distributed to Member States and National Commissions, and to certain specialists whose names appear on lists drawn up by the department of origin. These documents are, in principle, final issues, constituting a report on a given stage in the implementation of some item in the programme.

Documents in the Working Series, which are identified by the code letters WS in the bottom left-hand corner, are handed over to the department of origin, which is responsible for transmitting them to the experts or specialists directly concerned. The number of copies produced varies according to the purpose for which they are required, but is kept as low as possible. Working Series documents are for a limited distribution only and no copy can be obtained in addition to those distributed as indicated above.

5. Depository libraries. Publications and Main Series documents may be consulted in the depository libraries in all UNESCO Member States. A list of these depository libraries can be obtained on request.

A list of UNESCO depository libraries also appears in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

6. Requests for further information. Address:

WHO

World Health Organization

1. World Health Organization documents are listed and indexed by the staff of the Organization in Geneva, and copy is forwarded for inclusion in the United Nations Documents Index.

As it is the practice of WHO to re-issue mimeographed documents of permanent interest in one of its series of publications, mimeographed documents are considered as working documents, are not available for general distribution and are not included in the Index. An exception to this rule is made in the case of documents of the World Health Assembly and of the Executive Board. Original papers, written by WHO experts and consultants on medical and health subjects although published in the Bulletin of the World Health Organization, the Epidemiological and Vital Statistics Report or the International Digest of Health Legislation, are listed in the Index.

The Division of Public Information publishes monthly a WHO Newsletter intended for non-specialized readers and distributes, at irregular intervals, press releases and articles in the series Special Features. These can be obtained free of charge on application to:

Division of Public Information
World Health Organization
Palais des Nations
Geneva, Switzerland

2. Sales distribution. The list of sales agents of WHO publications appears in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953). All publications, as well as information about the publishing programme, are obtainable through these sales agents or, where sales agents have not yet been designated, directly from:

Distribution and Sales Unit
World Health Organization
Palais des Nations

General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

(a) General Introduction

(b) List of Abbreviations

(c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO; etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

(a) General Introduction

(b) List of Abbreviations

(c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

iffs and Trade (GATT). Documents in the ICITO series are unrestricted and infrequently issued. Documents in the GATT series are nearly all restricted at the time of issue.

Most of the documents issued during the Sessions of the Contracting Parties to GATT are derestricted a certain time after the end of each Session. Other documents pertaining to no particular Session or issued between Sessions are also derestricted from time to time. The derestricted documents may be consulted at the headquarters of the GATT Secretariat, Geneva.

2. Sales distribution. GATT unrestricted documents may be obtained from the GATT Secretariat at Geneva. Printed GATT publications may be purchased from agents of United Nations publications (see list on back cover), excluding the monthly International Trade News Bulletin, which is obtainable on subscription from the GATT Secretariat only.

3. Free distribution. Unrestricted GATT documents are distributed free to Governments, the United Nations, the specialized agencies, some inter-governmental organizations and to a small group of non-governmental organizations and libraries. Restricted GATT documents have a limited distribution and are generally issued only to Contracting Parties.

4. Depository libraries. There are no ICITO-GATT depository libraries as such; but some libraries receive documents free on request.

General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

(a) General Introduction

(b) List of Abbreviations

(c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

CONSOLIDATED LIST OF DEPOSITORY LIBRARIES

Introduction

1. UN The United Nations Library has established a network of depository libraries, so that throughout the world there will be reference collections of documents and publications of the United Nations. The Library is authorized to designate at least one depository library in each Member State. In States of very large area or population, additional depository libraries may be designated. These libraries receive documents and publications of general interest, and make them available to the public. Many of these depositories send their own publications in exchange. Parliamentary libraries may, on request, be designated as depositories. Centres of international study may also qualify to receive United Nations documents and publications. A few libraries receive substantially all of the generally distributed United Nations documents on an exchange basis in return for extensive services and publications made available to the United Nations Library. Libraries in all of the above categories are listed in the table which follows.
2. INT. COURT The International Court of Justice has designated a number of depository libraries to receive all of its publications, but there are other libraries, institutions, etc. receiving certain series only, whose names do not appear in the following list.
3. BANK All depository libraries of the United Nations are on the mailing list of The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development to receive all press releases, general publications, and loan agreements issued by the Bank, although the Bank has designated no depository libraries as such. In addition, the Bank sends its publications to a large number of Government financial and statistical agencies, investment institutions, and financial, economic and statistical organizations, as well as libraries and universities.
4. FAO The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations sends free of charge its documents and publications to its depository libraries. In addition FAO sends on a complimentary or exchange basis a limited number of its publications and documents to some institutions and libraries.
5. FUND The International Monetary Fund has designated no depository libraries as such, but through its extensive mailing list and exchange arrangements, the Fund sends regularly both free and sales publications to a large number of Government financial and statistical agencies, banks, and financial, economic and statistical organizations, including libraries and universities.
6. ICAO The International Civil Aviation Organization sends free its full documentation, with the exception of restricted materials, to a small number of depository libraries.
7. ILO The International Labour Organisation has designated no depository libraries as such, but it supplies all its printed papers (excluding those marked "confidential") to the national libraries of a number of countries.
8. IMCO The Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization is not yet fully established. The Preparatory Committee has not designated any depository libraries.
9. IRO The International Refugee Organization designated no depository libraries; but depository libraries of the United Nations (indicated in column 1 above), and other organizations and institutions, may have received IRO documents and publications on request.
10. ITO-GATT The establishment of the International Trade Organization has been postponed indefinitely. The Interim Commission has designated no depository libraries, but libraries may obtain ICITO publications from the Secretariat on request.
11. ITU The International Telecommunication Union has not designated any depository libraries.
12. UNESCO The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization has established a network of depository libraries, so that throughout the world there will be reference collections of UNESCO documents and publications available to the public.
13. UPU The Universal Postal Union has not designated any depository libraries.
14. WHO In order to make reference collections of its publications accessible to the general public, the World Health Organization has designated a number of depository libraries throughout the world. Such depository libraries receive all printed materials of WHO, with the exception of the weekly epidemiological publications, and in return are expected to make the collections available to the public.
15. WMO The World Meteorological Organization has not designated depository libraries.

CONSOLIDATED LIST OF DEPOSITORY LIBRARIES

The following table lists by brief title only those institutions designated as depository libraries by the United Nations and the Specialized Agencies. It does not include the names of institutions which may be receiving selected documents and publications by subscription or exchange, or which may be supplied with these materials by the Governments of States which are members of the United Nations or the Specialized Agencies.

Specialized Agencies without a system of depository libraries are not included in the table.

General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

- (a) General Introduction
- (b) List of Abbreviations
- (c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

(a) General Introduction

(b) List of Abbreviations

(c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO; etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

- (a) General Introduction
- (b) List of Abbreviations
- (c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO; etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

/INTRODUCTION GENERALE

INTRODUCTION GENERALE

1. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies, établi par le Service de l'index analytique des documents (Bibliothèque des Nations Unies), donne la liste de tous les documents et publications de l'Organisation des Nations Unies et des institutions spécialisées, à l'exception des documents à distribution restreinte (documents confidentiels) ou qui n'intéressent que le Secrétariat. Chaque fascicule mensuel énumère les documents et publications que la Bibliothèque a reçus dans le courant du mois. Cependant, certaines institutions spécialisées se chargent de rédiger les parties de l'Index qui leur sont consacrées ainsi que de classer et d'indexer leurs propres documents; elles indiquent les documents publiés à leur siège au cours de la période considérée, parfois avant même qu'il ne soit possible de se les procurer au Siège des Nations Unies à New York. Les périodiques et les communiqués de presse ne sont énumérés dans l'Index qu'une fois par an, dans le fascicule de février.

2. Chaque index mensuel comprend:

- a) Une introduction générale.
- b) Une liste des abréviations.

c) Des listes des documents et des publications, classés par organisation, les documents de l'ONU précédant ceux des diverses institutions spécialisées, rangés dans l'ordre alphabétique anglais de leurs abréviations (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Pour chaque organisation trois listes sont prévues: 1) documents et publications; 2) révisions, additifs, rectificatifs et éditions dans des langues autres que l'anglais; 3) rééditions. Dans chacune de ces trois listes les documents sont classés autant que possible dans l'ordre alphabétique et numérique de leurs cotes. Il n'est donné de renseignements bibliographiques détaillés que pour la liste 1), où les divers documents sont numérotés les uns à la suite des autres, par séries, chaque institution spécialisée ayant la sienne. Les 2) et 3) (révisions, etc., et rééditions) sont présentées sous forme de tableaux et ne donnent que les renseignements indispensables pour identifier les documents et les publications énumérés.

Pour aider le public à se tenir au courant des travaux des organisations et à suivre la documentation qui s'y rapporte, on a fait précéder d'un astérisque la cote des documents et publications qui résument les travaux d'un organe, exposent les résultats de conférences internationales ou de travaux de recherches ou sont des ouvrages de référence, tels que bibliographies, manuels et annuaires.

d) Un index général: index unique, par auteur et par sujet, de tous les documents et publications énumérés dans chaque liste. Dans tous les cas, cet index renvoie aux numéros figurant dans les différentes listes. Tous les index mensuels sont groupés à la fin de l'année en un index général annuel. Il est recommandé de supprimer les index mensuels lorsqu'ils sont remplacés par l'index annuel, qui peut alors être relié en un seul volume avec les douze listes mensuelles.

3. La note qui, dans l'introduction aux parties les concernant dans le fascicule de janvier, précède la liste des documents et des publications de l'ONU et de chacune des institutions spécialisées donne tous renseignements utiles sur les systèmes de classement employés et sur la possibilité de se procurer les textes en question. La liste des bibliothèques et librairies dépositaires des publications de l'ONU et des institutions spécialisées figure dans le volume 5, no. 4, partie 2 (avril 1954).

4. Les commandes de documents et de publications ou les demandes de renseignements doivent être adressées aux organisations qui les publient. Ainsi, les demandes concernant les documents publiés par les institutions spécialisées doivent être adressées à l'institution compétente (Banque, FAO, Fonds, OACI, etc.), et non à l'Organisation des Nations Unies. Dans toute demande de documents établie d'après l'Index il y a lieu de mentionner également les révisions, les additifs et les rectificatifs.

5. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies est publié mensuellement. Le prix de l'abonnement annuel est de 7,50 dollars; 50 shillings; 30 frs suisses, franco de port. Le numéro coûte 0,75 dollar; 5 shillings; 3 frs suisses. Les abonnements peuvent être souscrits auprès des librairies dépositaires des publications des Nations Unies (voir liste au verso de la couverture). Les commandes et demandes de renseignements provenant de pays où il n'y a pas de librairie dépositaire peuvent être adressées à la Section des ventes et de la distribution, Organisation des Nations Unies, New-York ou à la Section des ventes, Office européen des Nations Unies, Genève (Suisse).

General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

(a) General Introduction

(b) List of Abbreviations

(c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

INTRODUCTION GENERALE

1. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies, établi par le Service de l'index analytique des documents (Bibliothèque des Nations Unies), donne la liste de tous les documents et publications de l'Organisation des Nations Unies et des institutions spécialisées, à l'exception des documents à distribution restreinte (documents confidentiels) ou qui n'intéressent que le Secrétariat. Chaque fascicule mensuel énumère les documents et publications que la Bibliothèque a reçus dans le courant du mois. Cependant, certaines institutions spécialisées se chargent de rédiger les parties de l'Index qui leur sont consacrées ainsi que de classer et d'indexer leurs propres documents; elles indiquent les documents publiés à leur siège au cours de la période considérée, parfois avant même qu'il ne soit possible de se les procurer au Siège des Nations Unies à New York. Les périodiques et les communiqués de presse ne sont énumérés dans l'Index qu'une fois par an, dans le fascicule de février.

2. Chaque index mensuel comprend:

- a) Une introduction générale.
- b) Une liste des abréviations.
- c) Des listes des documents et des publications, classés par organisation, les documents de l'ONU précédant ceux des diverses institutions spécialisées, rangées dans l'ordre alphabétique anglais de leurs abréviations (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Pour chaque organisation trois listes sont prévues: 1) documents et publications; 2) révisions, additifs, rectificatifs et éditions dans des langues autres que l'anglais; 3) rééditions. Dans chacune de ces trois listes les documents sont classés autant que possible dans l'ordre alphabétique et numérique de leurs cotes. Il n'est donné de renseignements bibliographiques détaillés que pour la liste 1), où les divers documents sont numérotés les uns à la suite des autres, par séries, chaque institution spécialisée ayant la sienne. Les 2) et 3) (révisions, etc., et rééditions) sont présentées sous forme de tableaux et ne donnent que les renseignements indispensables pour identifier les documents et les publications énumérés.

Pour aider le public à se tenir au courant des travaux des organisations et à suivre la documentation qui s'y rapporte, on a fait précéder d'un astérisque la cote des documents et publications qui résument les travaux d'un organe, exposent les résultats de conférences internationales ou de travaux de recherches ou

sont des ouvrages de référence, tels que bibliographies, manuels et annuaires.

d) Un index général: index unique, par auteur et par sujet, de tous les documents et publications énumérés dans chaque liste. Dans tous les cas, cet index renvoie aux numéros figurant dans les différentes listes. Tous les index mensuels sont groupés à la fin de l'année en un index général annuel. Il est recommandé de supprimer les index mensuels lorsqu'ils sont remplacés par l'index annuel, qui peut alors être relié en un seul volume avec les douze listes mensuelles.

3. La note qui, dans l'introduction aux parties les concernant dans le fascicule de janvier, précède la liste des documents et des publications de l'ONU et de chacune des institutions spécialisées donne tous renseignements utiles sur les systèmes de classement employés et sur la possibilité de se procurer les textes en question. La liste des bibliothèques et librairies dépositaires des publications de l'ONU et des institutions spécialisées figure dans le volume 5, no. 4, partie 2 (avril 1954).

4. Les commandes de documents et de publications ou les demandes de renseignements doivent être adressées aux organisations qui les publient. Ainsi, les demandes concernant les documents publiés par les institutions spécialisées doivent être adressées à l'institution compétente (Banque, FAO, Fonds, OACI, etc.), et non à l'Organisation des Nations Unies. Dans toute demande de documents établie d'après l'Index il y a lieu de mentionner également les révisions, les additifs et les rectificatifs.

5. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies est publié mensuellement. Le prix de l'abonnement annuel est de 7,50 dollars; 50 shillings; 30 frs suisses, franco de port. Le numéro coûte 0,75 dollar; 5 shillings; 3 frs suisses. Les abonnements peuvent être souscrits auprès des librairies dépositaires des publications des Nations Unies (voir liste au verso de la couverture). Les commandes et demandes de renseignements provenant de pays où il n'y a pas de librairie dépositaire peuvent être adressées à la Section des ventes et de la distribution, Organisation des Nations Unies, New-York ou à la Section des ventes, Office européen des Nations Unies, Genève (Suisse).

General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

(a) General Introduction

(b) List of Abbreviations

(c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO; etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

INTRODUCTION GENERALE

1. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies, établi par le Service de l'index analytique des documents (Bibliothèque des Nations Unies), donne la liste de tous les documents et publications de l'Organisation des Nations Unies et des institutions spécialisées, à l'exception des documents à distribution restreinte (documents confidentiels) ou qui n'intéressent que le Secrétariat. Chaque fascicule mensuel énumère les documents et publications que la Bibliothèque a reçus dans le courant du mois. Cependant, certaines institutions spécialisées se chargent de rédiger les parties de l'Index qui leur sont consacrées ainsi que de classer et d'indexer leurs propres documents; elles indiquent les documents publiés à leur siège au cours de la période considérée, parfois avant même qu'il ne soit possible de se les procurer au Siège des Nations Unies à New York. Les périodiques et les communiqués de presse ne sont énumérés dans l'Index qu'une fois par an, dans le fascicule de février.

2. Chaque index mensuel comprend:

- a) Une introduction générale.
- b) Une liste des abréviations.

c) Des listes des documents et des publications, classés par organisation, les documents de l'ONU précédant ceux des diverses institutions spécialisées, rangées dans l'ordre alphabétique anglais de leurs abréviations (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Pour chaque organisation trois listes sont prévues: 1) documents et publications; 2) révisions, additifs, rectificatifs et éditions dans des langues autres que l'anglais; 3) rééditions. Dans chacune de ces trois listes les documents sont classés autant que possible dans l'ordre alphabétique et numérique de leurs cotes. Il n'est donné de renseignements bibliographiques détaillés que pour la liste 1), où les divers documents sont numérotés les uns à la suite des autres, par séries, chaque institution spécialisée ayant la sienne. Les 2) et 3) (révisions, etc., et rééditions) sont présentées sous forme de tableaux et ne donnent que les renseignements indispensables pour identifier les documents et les publications énumérés.

Pour aider le public à se tenir au courant des travaux des organisations et à suivre la documentation qui s'y rapporte, on a fait précéder d'un astérisque la cote des documents et publications qui résument les travaux d'un organe, exposent les résultats de conférences internationales ou de travaux de recherches ou

sont des ouvrages de référence, tels que bibliographies, manuels et annuaires.

d) Un index général: index unique, par auteur et par sujet, de tous les documents et publications énumérés dans chaque liste. Dans tous les cas, cet index renvoie aux numéros figurant dans les différentes listes. Tous les index mensuels sont groupés à la fin de l'année en un index général annuel. Il est recommandé de supprimer les index mensuels lorsqu'ils sont remplacés par l'index annuel, qui peut alors être relié en un seul volume avec les douze listes mensuelles.

3. La note qui, dans l'introduction aux parties les concernant dans le fascicule de janvier, précède la liste des documents et des publications de l'ONU et de chacune des institutions spécialisées donne tous renseignements utiles sur les systèmes de classement employés et sur la possibilité de se procurer les textes en question. La liste des bibliothèques et librairies dépositaires des publications de l'ONU et des institutions spécialisées figure dans le volume 5, no. 4, partie 2 (avril 1954).

4. Les commandes de documents et de publications ou les demandes de renseignements doivent être adressées aux organisations qui les publient. Ainsi, les demandes concernant les documents publiés par les institutions spécialisées doivent être adressées à l'institution compétente (Banque, FAO, Fonds, OACI, etc.), et non à l'Organisation des Nations Unies. Dans toute demande de documents établie d'après l'Index il y a lieu de mentionner également les révisions, les additifs et les rectificatifs.

5. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies est publié mensuellement. Le prix de l'abonnement annuel est de 7,50 dollars; 50 shillings; 30 frs suisses, franco de port. Le numéro coûte 0,75 dollar; 5 shillings; 3 frs suisses. Les abonnements peuvent être souscrits auprès des librairies dépositaires des publications des Nations Unies (voir liste au verso de la couverture). Les commandes et demandes de renseignements provenant de pays où il n'y a pas de librairie dépositaire peuvent être adressées à la Section des ventes et de la distribution, Organisation des Nations Unies, New-York ou à la Section des ventes, Office européen des Nations Unies, Genève (Suisse).

General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

(a) General Introduction

(b) List of Abbreviations

(c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

INTRODUCTION GENERALE

1. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies, établi par le Service de l'index analytique des documents (Bibliothèque des Nations Unies), donne la liste de tous les documents et publications de l'Organisation des Nations Unies et des institutions spécialisées, à l'exception des documents à distribution restreinte (documents confidentiels) ou qui n'intéressent que le Secrétariat. Chaque fascicule mensuel énumère les documents et publications que la Bibliothèque a reçus dans le courant du mois. Cependant, certaines institutions spécialisées se chargent de rédiger les parties de l'Index qui leur sont consacrées ainsi que de classer et d'indexer leurs propres documents; elles indiquent les documents publiés à leur siège au cours de la période considérée, parfois avant même qu'il ne soit possible de se les procurer au Siège des Nations Unies à New York. Les périodiques et les communiqués de presse ne sont énumérés dans l'Index qu'une fois par an, dans le fascicule de février.

2. Chaque index mensuel comprend:

a) Une introduction générale.

b) Une liste des abréviations.

c) Des listes des documents et des publications, classés par organisation, les documents de l'ONU précédant ceux des diverses institutions spécialisées, rangées dans l'ordre alphabétique anglais de leurs abréviations (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Pour chaque organisation trois listes sont prévues: 1) documents et publications; 2) révisions, additifs, rectificatifs et éditions dans des langues autres que l'anglais; 3) rééditions. Dans chacune de ces trois listes les documents sont classés autant que possible dans l'ordre alphabétique et numérique de leurs cotes. Il n'est donné de renseignements bibliographiques détaillés que pour la liste 1), où les divers documents sont numérotés les uns à la suite des autres, par séries, chaque institution spécialisée ayant la sienne. Les 2) et 3) (révisions, etc., et rééditions) sont présentées sous forme de tableaux et ne donnent que les renseignements indispensables pour identifier les documents et les publications énumérés.

Pour aider le public à se tenir au courant des travaux des organisations et à suivre la documentation qui s'y rapporte, on a fait précéder d'un astérisque la cote des documents et publications qui résument les travaux d'un organe, exposent les résultats de conférences internationales ou de travaux de recherches ou

sont des ouvrages de référence, tels que bibliographies, manuels et annuaires.

d) Un index général: index unique, par auteur et par sujet, de tous les documents et publications énumérés dans chaque liste. Dans tous les cas, cet index renvoie aux numéros figurant dans les différentes listes. Tous les index mensuels sont groupés à la fin de l'année en un index général annuel. Il est recommandé de supprimer les index mensuels lorsqu'ils sont remplacés par l'index annuel, qui peut alors être relié en un seul volume avec les douze listes-mensuelles.

3. La note qui, dans l'introduction aux parties les concernant dans le fascicule de janvier, précède la liste des documents et des publications de l'ONU et de chacune des institutions spécialisées donne tous renseignements utiles sur les systèmes de classement employés et sur la possibilité de se procurer les textes en question. La liste des bibliothèques et librairies dépositaires des publications de l'ONU et des institutions spécialisées figure dans le volume 5, no. 4, partie 2 (avril 1954).

4. Les commandes de documents et de publications ou les demandes de renseignements doivent être adressées aux organisations qui les publient. Ainsi, les demandes concernant les documents publiés par les institutions spécialisées doivent être adressées à l'institution compétente (Banque, FAO, Fonds, OACI, etc.), et non à l'Organisation des Nations Unies. Dans toute demande de documents établie d'après l'Index il y a lieu de mentionner également les révisions, les additifs et les rectificatifs.

5. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies est publié mensuellement. Le prix de l'abonnement annuel est de 7,50 dollars; 50 shillings; 30 frs suisses, franco de port. Le numéro coûte 0,75 dollar; 5 shillings; 3 frs suisses. Les abonnements peuvent être souscrits auprès des librairies dépositaires des publications des Nations Unies (voir liste au verso de la couverture). Les commandes et demandes de renseignements provenant de pays où il n'y a pas de librairie dépositaire peuvent être adressées à la Section des ventes et de la distribution, Organisation des Nations Unies, New-York ou à la Section des ventes, Office européen des Nations Unies, Genève (Suisse).

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

(a) General Introduction

(b) List of Abbreviations

(c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr. 3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

INTRODUCTION GENERALE

1. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies, établi par le Service de l'index analytique des documents (Bibliothèque des Nations Unies), donne la liste de tous les documents et publications de l'Organisation des Nations Unies et des institutions spécialisées, à l'exception des documents à distribution restreinte (documents confidentiels) ou qui n'intéressent que le Secrétariat. Chaque fascicule mensuel énumère les documents et publications que la Bibliothèque a reçus dans le courant du mois. Cependant, certaines institutions spécialisées se chargent de rédiger les parties de l'Index qui leur sont consacrées ainsi que de classer et d'indexer leurs propres documents; elles indiquent les documents publiés à leur siège au cours de la période considérée, parfois avant même qu'il ne soit possible de se les procurer au Siège des Nations Unies à New York. Les périodiques et les communiqués de presse ne sont énumérés dans l'Index qu'une fois par an, dans le fascicule de février.

2. Chaque index mensuel comprend:

a) Une introduction générale.

b) Une liste des abréviations.

c) Des listes des documents et des publications, classés par organisation, les documents de l'ONU précédant ceux des diverses institutions spécialisées, rangés dans l'ordre alphabétique anglais de leurs abréviations (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Pour chaque organisation trois listes sont prévues: 1) documents et publications; 2) révisions, additifs, rectificatifs et éditions dans des langues autres que l'anglais; 3) rééditions. Dans chacune de ces trois listes les documents sont classés autant que possible dans l'ordre alphabétique et numérique de leurs cotes. Il n'est donné de renseignements bibliographiques détaillés que pour la liste 1), où les divers documents sont numérotés les uns à la suite des autres, par séries, chaque institution spécialisée ayant la sienne. Les 2) et 3) (révisions, etc., et rééditions) sont présentées sous forme de tableaux et ne donnent que les renseignements indispensables pour identifier les documents et les publications énumérés.

Pour aider le public à se tenir au courant des travaux des organisations et à suivre la documentation qui s'y rapporte, on a fait précéder d'un astérisque la cote des documents et publications qui résument les travaux d'un organe, exposent les résultats de conférences internationales ou de travaux de recherches ou

sont des ouvrages de référence, tels que bibliographies, manuels et annuaires.

d) Un index général: index unique, par auteur et par sujet, de tous les documents et publications énumérés dans chaque liste. Dans tous les cas, cet index renvoie aux numéros figurant dans les différentes listes. Tous les index mensuels sont groupés à la fin de l'année en un index général annuel. Il est recommandé de supprimer les index mensuels lorsqu'ils sont remplacés par l'index annuel, qui peut alors être relié en un seul volume avec les douze listes mensuelles.

3. La note qui, dans l'introduction aux parties les concernant dans le fascicule de janvier, précède la liste des documents et des publications de l'ONU et de chacune des institutions spécialisées donne tous renseignements utiles sur les systèmes de classement employés et sur la possibilité de se procurer les textes en question. La liste des bibliothèques et librairies dépositaires des publications de l'ONU et des institutions spécialisées figure dans le volume 5, no. 4, partie 2 (avril 1954).

4. Les commandes de documents et de publications ou les demandes de renseignements doivent être adressées aux organisations qui les publient. Ainsi, les demandes concernant les documents publiés par les institutions spécialisées doivent être adressées à l'institution compétente (Banque, FAO, Fonds, OACI, etc.), et non à l'Organisation des Nations Unies. Dans toute demande de documents établie d'après l'Index il y a lieu de mentionner également les révisions, les additifs et les rectificatifs.

5. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies est publié mensuellement. Le prix de l'abonnement annuel est de 7,50 dollars; 50 shillings; 30 frs suisses, franco de port. Le numéro coûte 0,75 dollar; 5 shillings; 3 frs suisses. Les abonnements peuvent être souscrits auprès des librairies dépositaires des publications des Nations Unies (voir liste au verso de la couverture). Les commandes et demandes de renseignements provenant de pays où il n'y a pas de librairie dépositaire peuvent être adressées à la Section des ventes et de la distribution, Organisation des Nations Unies, New-York ou à la Section des ventes, Office européen des Nations Unies, Genève (Suisse).

General Introduction

1. The United Nations Documents Index is prepared by the Documents Index Unit of the United Nations Library. In general, it lists all documents and publications of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, except restricted (confidential) materials and internal papers. Each monthly issue covers the documents and publications received by the Library during that month. However, some specialized agencies have assumed responsibility for the information contained in their sections and for the listing and indexing of their documents; the documents listed by these agencies are those published at their headquarters during the period covered and are not necessarily available at United Nations Headquarters in New York at the time of their listing. Periodicals and press releases are listed annually in the February issue.

2. Each monthly issue comprises:

(a) General Introduction

(b) List of Abbreviations

(c) Lists of Documents and Publications: arranged by issuing agency, the first section being given to United Nations documents, and succeeding sections to the specialized agencies documents in the alphabetical order of the abbreviated names of the agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Each section is arranged in three parts: (1) a list of documents and publications; (2) revisions, addenda, corrigenda, and non-English language editions; and (3) republications. In each part, materials are arranged, so far as possible, in alphabetical-numerical order by symbol. Complete bibliographical details are given only in part (1), where each entry is numbered in a consecutive series, separate series of such entry numbers being assigned to each agency. Parts (2) and (3), the revisions, etc., and the republications, are arranged in tabular form with only enough information to identify the documents and publications in these categories. An asterisk (*) distinguishes those documents and publications which summarize the work of an organ, represent the final results of international conferences or research projects, or are works of reference such as bibliographies, handbooks and yearbooks, a selection intended to assist the general user in understanding the current work of the organizations and the relevant documentation.

(d) General Index: a combined author and subject index of all documents and publications listed in each section. All references in this index are to the entry numbers in the respective sections. The indexes in the monthly issues are cumulated in an annual index at the end of the year. It is suggested that the monthly indexes be discarded when replaced by the annual cumulative index which then can be bound with the twelve monthly lists comprising one volume.

3. Information concerning the documentation systems of the United Nations and the specialized agencies, and the availability of their documents and publications is contained in the note preceding the list of Documents and Publications of the United Nations and each of the specialized agencies in the introductions to their respective sections in the January issue. Consolidated lists of depository libraries and sales agents of the United Nations and the specialized agencies appear in Volume 4, No. 4, Part 2 (April 1953).

4. Requests for documents and publications or for information about them should be addressed to the issuing agency. Thus, inquiries concerning materials published by the specialized agencies should be addressed to the respective agencies (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.), and not to the United Nations. Requests for documents based on information supplied by this publication should stipulate that the request includes revisions, addenda and corrigenda.

5. The United Nations Documents Index is published monthly at an annual subscription rate of $7.50, 50/Stg., Sw.fr. 30.00, post-free. Single copies are available at $.75, 5/Stg., Sw.fr.*3.00. Subscriptions may be placed with the sales agents of United Nations publications (listed on back cover). Orders and inquiries from countries without a sales agent may be addressed to the Sales and Circulation Section, United Nations, New York, or to the Sales Section, European Office of the United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland.

Introduction Generale

1. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies, établi par le Service de l'index analytique des documents (Bibliothèque des Nations Unies), donne la liste de tous les documents et publications de l'Organisation des Nations Unies et des institutions spécialisées, à l'exception des documents à distribution restreinte (documents confidentiels) ou qui n'intéressent que le Secrétariat. Chaque fascicule mensuel énumère les documents et publications que la Bibliothèque a reçus dans le courant du mois. Cependant, certaines institutions spécialisées se chargent de rédiger les parties de l'Index qui leur sont consacrées ainsi que de classer et d'indexer leurs propres documents; elles indiquent les documents publiés à leur siège au cours de la période considérée, parfois avant même qu'il ne soit possible de se les procurer au Siège des Nations Unies à New York. Les périodiques et les communiqués de presse ne sont énumérés dans l'Index qu'une fois par an, dans le fascicule de février.

2. Chaque index mensuel comprend:

a) Une introduction générale.

b) Une liste des abréviations.

c) Des listes des documents et des publications, classés par organisation, les documents de l'ONU précédant ceux des diverses institutions spécialisées, rangées dans l'ordre alphabétique anglais de leurs abréviations (Bank, FAO, Fund, ICAO, etc.). Pour chaque organisation trois listes sont prévues: 1) documents et publications; 2) révisions, additifs, rectificatifs et éditions dans des langues autres que l'anglais; 3) rééditions. Dans chacune de ces trois listes les documents sont classés autant que possible dans l'ordre alphabétique et numérique de leurs cotes. Il n'est donné de renseignements bibliographiques détaillés que pour la liste 1), où les divers documents sont numérotés les uns à la suite des autres, par séries, chaque institution spécialisée ayant la sienne. Les 2) et 3) (révisions, etc., et rééditions) sont présentées sous forme de tableaux et ne donnent que les renseignements indispensables pour identifier les documents et les publications énumérés.

Pour aider le public à se tenir au courant des travaux des organisations et à suivre la documentation qui s'y rapporte, on a fait précéder d'un astérisque la cote des documents et publications qui résument les travaux d'un organe, exposent les résultats de conférences internationales ou de travaux de recherches ou

sont des ouvrages de référence, tels que bibliographies, manuels et annuaires.

d) Un index général: index unique, par auteur et par sujet, de tous les documents et publications énumérés dans chaque liste. Dans tous les cas, cet index renvoie aux numéros figurant dans les différentes listes. Tous les index mensuels sont groupés à la fin de l'année en un index général annuel. Il est recommandé de supprimer les index mensuels lorsqu'ils sont remplacés par l'index annuel, qui peut alors être relié en un seul volume avec les douze listes mensuelles.

3. La note qui, dans l'introduction aux parties les concernant dans le fascicule de janvier, précède la liste des documents et des publications de l'ONU et de chacune des institutions spécialisées donne tous renseignements utiles sur les systèmes de classement employés et sur la possibilité de se procurer les textes en question. La liste des bibliothèques et librairies dépositaires des publications de l'ONU et des institutions spécialisées figure dans le volume 5, no. 4, partie 2 (avril 1954).

4. Les commandes de documents et de publications ou les demandes de renseignements doivent être adressées aux organisations qui les publient. Ainsi, les demandes concernant les documents publiés par les institutions spécialisées doivent être adressées à l'institution compétente (Banque, FAO, Fonds, OACI, etc.), et non à l'Organisation des Nations Unies. Dans toute demande de documents établie d'après l'Index il y a lieu de mentionner également les révisions, les additifs et les rectificatifs.

5. L'Index des documents des Nations Unies est publié mensuellement. Le prix de l'abonnement annuel est de 7,50 dollars; 50 shillings; 30 frs suisses, franco de port. Le numéro coûte 0,75 dollar; 5 shillings; 3 frs suisses. Les abonnements peuvent être souscrits auprès des librairies dépositaires des publications des Nations Unies (voir liste au verso de la couverture). Les commandes et demandes de renseignements provenant de pays où il n'y a pas de librairie dépositaire peuvent être adressées à la Section des ventes et de la distribution, Organisation des Nations Unies, New-York ou à la Section des ventes, Office européen des Nations Unies, Genève (Suisse).
