Organization of work

1. The CHAIRMAN informed the Special Political Committee that consultations were proceeding with respect to the draft resolution on the report of the Director of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East. He understood that a compromise might be reached in the course of the morning. Consultations on the question of the composition of the General Committee of the General Assembly were also under way. No draft resolution on that item had yet been submitted. In the circumstances, he suggested that the Committee should adjourn until the afternoon.

It was so decided.

The meeting rose at 10.40 a.m.
