eight session of the General Assembly were made by the following members of the Committee: Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, China, United States of America, Indonesia, Colombia and Portugal. Statements in connection with the participation of the representatives of Afghanistan in the thirty-eighth session of the Assembly were made by the representatives of China, the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. The representatives of Colombia, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America also made statements relating to the credentials of the representatives of Chile.

7. The representative of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics stated that it was necessary for his delegation to reiterate its position with regard to the credentials of the representatives of so-called "Democratic Kampuchea". There was no country called "Democratic Kampuchea" on any geographical map or in international political life. There was the State—the People's Republic of Kampuchea. The constitutional Government of the People's Republic of Kampuchea, which had been set up on the basis of free, democratic general elections, was expressing the will of the Kampuchean people to revive their homeland, which had endured the barbarous bombing attacks carried out by American aircraft and the atrocities and genocide perpetrated by the Pol Pot clique. Overcoming numerous difficulties and relying on the support of friendly countries, the People's Republic of Kampuchea had achieved indisputable success in restoring the national economy and in peaceful reconstruction, making the process of social change in Kampuchea irreversible. The People's Republic of Kampuchea had consistently advocated peace, friendship and good-neighbourliness in relations with neighbouring countries, had favoured the strengthening of peace and stability in South-East Asia and had supported the struggle for national independence, democracy and social progress. The international prestige of the People's Republic of Kampuchea was steadily growing. The foreign and domestic policy of the Government of the People's Republic of Kampuchea enjoyed the full support of the Kampuchean people. As at all preceding sessions of the General Assembly when the same question was considered, it was still the position of the Soviet delegation that only the representatives of the People's Republic of Kampuchea could speak on behalf of the Kampuchean people in the United Nations and other international organizations. As for the persons who had up to the present time appeared within the confines of the United Nations as delegates of so-called "Democratic Kampuchea", it was time to admit that they represented no one aside from the elements that had been repudiated by the Kampuchean people themselves during the struggle for liberation. Their presence in the United Nations was incompatible with its Charter, was an affront to the memory of the millions of Kampucheans who had fallen victim to the genocide carried out by the followers of Pol Pot, and was detrimental to the prestige of the United Nations. The "Coalition Government of Democratic Kampuchea" was nothing more than a mask for the Pol Pot clique which had been manufactured in order to hide the faces of butchers and maintain their presence in the United Nations. The followers of Pol Pot, who were expelled from the country by their own people, must also be expelled from the United Nations. The granting of the legitimate right to speak on behalf of the People's Republic of Kampuchea to the representative of that country would be the only just solution that would meet the requirements of the United Nations Charter and the need to uphold the authority of the Organization. On the basis of those considerations, the Soviet delegation was opposed to recognizing the credentials of the representatives of so-called "Democratic Kampuchea".

8. The same representative reaffirmed the position of the delegation of the Soviet Union with regard to the non-recognition of the credentials of the representatives of the fascist régime in Chile.

9. The representative of China stated that his delegation had on many occasions stated its position on the credentials of the delegation of Democratic Kampuchea. It was necessary for him to reiterate that position since the representative of the Soviet Union had once again raised that question. Democratic Kampuchea was an independent, neutral and non-aligned sovereign State; it was also a Member of the United Nations. The Government of Democratic Kampuchea was the sole legitimate government that represented the Kampuchean people. Its legitimacy had been confirmed repeatedly by the General Assembly at its previous sessions, including the thirty-seventh session which had just concluded, and by many international conferences. Many had witnessed the warm reception given by a broad cross-section of Member States to the delegation of Democratic Kampuchea to the current session, which was led by its President, Prince Norodom Sihanouk. The credentials of the delegation of the Coalition Government of Democratic Kampuchea to the thirty-eighth session had been submitted in accordance with the stipulations of the United Nations and the rules of procedure of the General Assembly. They were absolutely legitimate and valid. Therefore, the Chinese delegation suggested that the credentials of the delegation of Democratic Kampuchea be accepted. The so-called "People's Republic of Kampuchea", that is, the Heng Samrin régime, was no more than a puppet régime installed by foreign aggressor troops and could in no way represent the Kampuchean people. The United Nations, as an international organization upholding international peace and security, should under no circumstances legitimize foreign aggression against Kampuchea and accept the puppet régime propped up by the bayonets of foreign aggressor troops.

10. The same representative added that his delegation wished to reiterate that the fact that the Afghan representative had been permitted to participate in the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly and to take the floor should by no means be interpreted as an acquiescence in the situation created by foreign armed aggression and occupation.

11. The representative of the United States of America stated that his delegation continued to support the credentials of Democratic Kampuchea on technical grounds, since they were in conformity with rule 27 of the rules of procedure. That support did not imply United States support for the Khmer Rouge. The United States, unlike those who now sought to reject Democratic Kampuchea's credentials, had repeatedly spoken out in a timely fashion against the atrocities and misrule of the Khmer Rouge era. Democratic Kampuchea's credentials had been accepted since 1975, and there was no basis for rejecting them now in the absence of a superior claimant. The régime created by Viet Nam's invasion of Kampuchea, and sustained by Viet Nam's occupation force, was certainly not a superior claimant. The United States had welcomed the broadening of the governmental structure of Democratic Kampuchea as a result of the formation of the Coalition Government of Democratic Kampuchea. The current session, like the preceding one, had benefitted from the participation of Prince Norodom Sihanouk and Prime Minister Son Sann. That was a very positive result of the formation of the coalition. His delegation associated itself with the recommendation that Democratic Kampuchea's credentials be accepted.

12. The United States representative added that his delegation would raise no formal objection to the credentials of the representatives of Afghanistan, but its position did not imply acceptance of the régime in that country nor acquiescence in the installation of Soviet-directed authorities as a result of the military invasion and continuing occupation of Afghanistan by Soviet forces.

13. The same representative also stated that the Soviet delegation's remarks concerning the credentials of the representatives of Chile were groundless. Those credentials were in order, and there was no basis whatever for questioning their acceptance by the Credentials Committee.

14. The representative of Indonesia stated with regard to the credentials of Democratic Kampuchea that it should be recalled that, during its four previous sessions, the General Assembly had affirmed, by overwhelming majorities, the validity of the credentials of Democratic Kampuchea, as they were in full accord with the relevant provisions of the rules of procedure of the Assembly. Despite that fact, an objection had been expressed in the Credentials Committee to the credentials of that delegation. It had been contended that the occupation régime in Kampuchea was the legitimate Government, as it purportedly exercised effective authority. However, that régime was non-existent until after the invasion and occupation of Phnom Penh by foreign forces, which had forced the legitimate Government to withdraw into the countryside. Indeed, to exercise that authority the régime in Phnom Penh must continue to rely on well over 100,000 foreign troops. That régime, therefore, lacked any semblance of legitimacy. Moreover, the norms and principles of international law did not accord recognition to a régime installed by foreign military occupation, even if that régime were to control a greater part of the country. It was also pertinent to note that the Coalition Government of Democratic Kampuchea, which had been formed the preceding year under the Presidency of Prince Norodom Sihanouk and which represented the genuine national will of the Kampuchean people to free their country from foreign occupation and to restore their right to determine their own destiny, had enjoyed increasing support of the international community. This was clearly reflected in the voting record of the General Assembly on the credentials of Democratic Kampuchea in 1982. As the credentials of the representatives of Democratic Kampuchea to the thirty-eighth session were in full accord with the relevant provisions of the rules of procedure and in line with the previous decisions of the General Assembly, the Indonesian delegation was of the firm view that their validity should be beyond further question.

15. The representative of Colombia stated that his country's position on the credentials before the Committee was based strictly on legal principles. The competence of the Credentials Committee was of a purely technical and legal nature, and its actions must therefore be completely impartial. The credentials submitted in respect of the representatives of Democratic Kampuchea were in conformity with the rules of procedure and were therefore fully in order.

16. The same representative added that his delegation disagreed with the representative who had spoken against the credentials of the representatives of Chile; those credentials were legitimate and valid. It was not proper to oppose the acceptance of credentials on the basis of one's opinion regarding the country concerned. The Credentials Committee had no basis for not accepting credentials that satisfied the legal requirements.

17. The representative of Portugal stated that his delegation always supported the view that the Credentials Committee should confine itself to its mandate, which was to ensure that credentials submitted were in accordance with rule 27 of the rules of procedure. The credentials submitted for the representatives of Democratic Kampuchea conformed to that rule.

18. The representative of the Soviet Union stated that the remarks made in the Credentials Committee with regard to the Democratic Republic of Afghanistan, a sovereign, non-aligned country which was a full and equal Member of the United Nations, were totally out of place. They were based on a deliberate distortion of events in that country and on a misconception of the situation surrounding it. The remarks made by the representatives of China and the United States could only be interpreted as an inadmissible attempt to interfere in the internal affairs of a State Member of the United Nations, an attempt which blatantly contradicted the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations and did not respond to the need to normalize the situation in South-West Asia by means of negotiations.

19. The Chairman proposed that, taking into account the statements that had been made by the Legal Counsel and by the members of the Committee, which would be reflected in the Committee's report, the Committee should adopt the following draft resolution:

"The Credentials Committee,

"Having examined the credentials of the representatives to the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly of the Member States referred to in paragraph 4 of this report,

"Taking into account the various reservations expressed by delegations during the debate,

"Accepts the credentials of the representatives of the Member States concerned."

20. The draft resolution proposed by the Chairman was adopted without a vote.

21. The Chairman then proposed that the Committee should recommend to the General Assembly the adoption of a draft resolution (see para. 23 below). The proposal was adopted without a vote.

22. In the light of the foregoing, the present report is submitted to the General Assembly.

DOCUMENT A/BUR/38/1

Organization of the thirty-eighth session, adoption of the agenda and allocation of items:
memorandum by the Secretary-General

[15 September 1983]

1. The Secretary-General has the honour to place before the General Committee, for its consideration, the following observations and proposals in connection with the report to be made to the General Assembly by the General Committee regarding the organization of the thirty-eighth regular session, the adoption of the agenda and the allocation of items.

2. By its decision 34/401, the General Assembly adopted a number of provisions aimed at rationalizing the procedures and organization of the Assembly, the text of which is reproduced as annex VI to the Rules of Procedure of the General Assembly (A/520/Rev.14). Many of these provisions, such as those relating to the time-limit for explanations of vote (para. 6), the right of reply (paras. 8 to 10) and the balloting procedure (para. 16), were already implemented at the thirty-fourth to thirty-seventh sessions and are therefore not referred to in the present document.

3. The General Committee may wish however to draw the General Assembly's attention to those provisions which have not yet been or have been only partly implemented; those provisions have been reproduced below under the relevant headings.

ORGANIZATION OF THE SESSION

General Committee

4. The Secretary-General wishes to draw the General Committee's attention to paragraphs 1 and 2 of its decision 34/401, which read as follows:

"1. The General Committee should, at the outset of each session, consider how the work of the session can best be rationalized.

"2. The General Committee should also meet periodically throughout the session to review the progress of work and to make recommendations to the General Assembly on the general programme of the session and on measures aimed at improving its work."

Schedule of meetings

5. The General Committee may wish to draw the General Assembly's attention to paragraph 3 of its decision 34/401, which reads as follows:

"3. Both plenary and committee meetings should begin at 10.30 a.m. and 3 p.m. and, in order to expedite the work of the General Assembly, all meetings should begin promptly at the scheduled time."

General debate

6. Taking into consideration the number of delegations already inscribed on the list of speakers, the Secretary-General suggests that the general debate should begin on Monday, 26 September and end on Friday, 14 October 1983.

7. In accordance with the established practice, the Secretary-General also suggests that the list of speakers wishing to take part in the general debate should be closed on Wednesday, 28 September, at 6 p.m.

Explanations of vote

8. The General Committee may wish to draw the General Assembly's attention to paragraph 7 of its decision 34/401, which reads as follows:

"7. When the same draft resolution is considered in a Main Committee and in plenary meeting, a delegation should, as far as possible, explain its vote only once, i.e., either in the Committee or in plenary meeting unless that delegation's vote in plenary meeting is different from its vote in the Committee."

Closing date of the session

9. In accordance with the provisions of rule 2 of the rules of procedure and in the light of the recommendation of the Special Committee on the Rationalization of the Procedures and Organization of the General Assembly that the General Assembly should meet for a period of 13 weeks (A/520/Rev.14, annex V, para. 4), the Secretary-General wishes to suggest that the closing date of the thirty-eighth session should be Tuesday, 20 December 1983.

Records of the Main Committees

10. The Secretary-General wishes to draw the General Committee's attention to the fact that under rule 58 of the rules of procedure the First Committee shall be provided with verbatim records. That rule also stipulates that no organ of the General Assembly shall have both verbatim and summary records. As previously, the General Committee may therefore wish to recommend that the verbatim records should be the official records of the First Committee and the summary records should remain the official records of all other Main Committees. In accordance with the recommendation of the Special Committee (ibid., para. 108 (b)), the General Committee may wish to recommend that the General Assembly should maintain for the thirty-eighth session the practice whereby the Special Political Committee may obtain, on specific request, transcriptions of the debates of some of its meetings, or portions thereof. Furthermore, the General Committee may wish to draw the General Assembly's attention to paragraph 10 (e) of its resolution 2538 (XXIV) of 11 December 1969, which reads as follows:

"Speeches or statements by representatives, by the Secretary-General or his representatives, or by persons presenting reports on behalf of committees or other bodies, may be reproduced in extenso in summary records or in official documents only if they serve as bases for discussion, provided that the relevant decision is taken by the body concerned after a statement of the financial implications has been submitted in accordance with regulation 13.1 of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations."

In this connection, the General Committee may also wish to recommend to the General Assembly that the practice not to reproduce in extenso statements made in a Main Committee should be maintained for the thirty-eighth session.

Seating arrangements

11. In accordance with the established practice, the Secretary-General has caused lots to be drawn for the purpose of choosing the Member to occupy the first desk on the Assembly floor from which the alphabetical seating order will begin. The name drawn was Afghanistan. Consequently, the delegation of that country will sit at the first desk at the right of the President and the other countries will follow in the English alphabetical order. The same order will be observed in the Main Committees.

Election of the Chairmen of the Main Committees

12. The General Committee may wish to draw the General Assembly's attention to paragraphs 18 and 19 of its decision 34/401, which read as follows:

"18. Before the conclusion of a session of the General Assembly, regional groups should agree on the distribution of chairmanships among them for the following session.

"19. Candidates for the chairmanships of the Main Committees should be nominated as soon as possible."

Concluding statements

13. The General Committee may wish to draw the General Assembly's attention to paragraph 17 of its decision 34/401, which reads as follows:

"17. To save time at the end of the session, the practice of making concluding statements in the General Assembly and its Main Committees should be dispensed with except for statements by the presiding officers."

Questions related to the programme budget

14. The Secretary-General would like to draw the attention of the General Committee to rule 153 of the rules of procedure which reads as follows:

"No resolution involving expenditure shall be recommended by a committee for approval by the General Assembly unless it is accompanied by an estimate of expenditures prepared by the Secretary-General. No resolution in respect of which expenditures are anticipated by the Secretary-General shall be voted by the General Assembly until the Administrative and Budgetary Committee (Fifth Committee) has had an opportunity of stating the effect of the proposal upon the budget estimates of the United Nations."

In this connection, the General Committee may wish to draw the General Assembly's attention to paragraph 12 of its decision 34/401, which reads as follows:

"12. It is imperative that Main Committees should allow sufficient time for the preparation of the estimate of expenditures by the Secretariat and for its consideration by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions and the Fifth Committee and that they should take this requirement into account when they adopt their programme of work."

The General Committee may also wish to draw the General Assembly's attention to regulation 4.9 of the Regulations Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation (resolution 37/234, annex), which reads as follows:

"Regulation 4.9. No Council, Commission or other competent body shall take a decision involving either a change in the programme budget approved by the General Assembly or the possible requirement of expenditure unless it has received and taken account of a report from the Secretary-General on the programme budget implications of the proposal."

15. The General Committee may also wish to recall paragraph 13 of decision 34/401, which reads as follows:

"13. Furthermore:

"(a) A mandatory deadline, not later than 1 December, should be established for the submission to the Fifth Committee of all draft resolutions with financial implications;

“(b) The Fifth Committee should, as a general practice, consider accepting without debate the recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions on the financial implications of draft resolutions up to a prescribed limit, namely, $25,000 on any one item;

“(c) Firm deadlines should be set for the early submission of the reports of subsidiary bodies which require consideration by the Fifth Committee;

“(d) A minimum period of 48 hours should be allowed between the submission and the voting of a proposal involving expenditure in order to allow the Secretary-General to prepare and present the related statement of administrative and financial implications.”

Documentation

16. The General Committee may wish to draw the General Assembly's attention to paragraph 28 of its decision 34/401, which reads as follows:

“28. The General Assembly, including its Main Committees, should merely take note of those reports of the Secretary-General or subsidiary organs which do not require a decision by the Assembly and should neither debate nor adopt resolutions on them, unless specifically requested to do so by the Secretary-General or the organ concerned.”

17. The Secretary-General feels obliged to emphasize once again that the increase in documentation has been one of the most critical issues with which Member States and the Secretariat are confronted. In this connection, the General Committee may wish to recommend that the General Assembly should urge all Member States and subsidiary organs to exercise maximum restraint in requesting circulation of material as official documents of the Assembly.

Resolutions

18. The General Committee may wish to draw the General Assembly's attention to paragraph 32 of its decision 34/401, which reads as follows:

“32. Whenever possible, resolutions requesting the discussion of a question at a subsequent session should not call for the inclusion of a separate new item and such discussion should be held under the item under which the resolution was adopted.”

Special conferences

19. The General Committee may wish to draw the General Assembly's attention to recommendation 6 of the Committee on Conferences, adopted by the Assembly in paragraph (b) of its decision 34/405, which reads as follows:

“The Committee, taking into account difficulties encountered in ensuring adequate preparation of meetings, including timely distribution of documentation, as well as the ability of Member States to participate fully, recommends that the General Assembly should instruct the Main Committees to review the number of special conferences of the United Nations already proposed and scheduled in their respective fields of activity prior to deciding upon the scheduling of new and additional special conferences, thus bearing in mind the relevant portions of General Assembly resolution 33/55.”

Meetings of subsidiary organs

20. In accordance with paragraph 34 of General Assembly decision 34/401, no subsidiary organ of the Assembly should be permitted to meet at United Nations Headquarters during a regular session of the Assembly, unless explicitly authorized by the Assembly. In this connection, the Secretary-General wishes to draw the attention of the General Committee to a letter dated 15 September 1983 (A/38/414) in which the Chairman of the Committee on Conferences informed the President of the General Assembly that, in view of special circumstances, the Committee had recommended that the following subsidiary organs should be authorized to meet during the thirty-eighth session:

- (a) Ad Hoc Committee on the Indian Ocean;
- (b) Advisory Committee on the United Nations Educational and Training Programme for Southern Africa;
- (c) Committee on Relations with the Host Country;
- (d) Group of Experts on the Supply of Oil and Oil Products to South Africa;
- (e) Intergovernmental Committee on Science and Technology for Development;
- (f) International Civil Service Commission;
- (g) Meeting of permanent representatives to the United Nations of the oil-producing and oil-exporting countries committed to the oil embargo against South Africa;
- (h) Special Committee against Apartheid;
- (i) United Nations Council for Namibia;
- (j) Working Group on the Financing of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East.

Question of smoking in conference rooms

21. The Secretary-General wishes to draw the attention of the General Committee to a letter dated 2 May 1983 in which Dr. H. Mahler, Director General of the World Health Organization, referred to that organization's fight to stem the rising tide of tobacco smoking which, in its view, had caused widespread illness and rising medical costs. In that letter, the Director General suggested that smoking should not be permitted at any United Nations meeting in New York and Geneva and other United Nations centres. He concluded by saying:

“I sincerely hope that you will find it possible to take any concrete measures which would give effect to the implementation of this suggestion.”

In the course of preliminary consultations on this subject with the regional groups, several views were expressed but no consensus was reached. It was suggested during these consultations that an appeal to refrain from smoking in conference rooms might be considered as an experimental measure for a period of one year. The idea of a ban on smoking in small conference rooms (such as rooms 5 to 10 and A to E) and a possible restriction of smoking to the sides and rear of large conference rooms (such as rooms 1 to 4) was also expressed. The General Committee may wish to consider whether to make any recommendations in this regard.

ADOPTION OF THE AGENDA

22. All proposals for the inclusion of items in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session have been communicated to Member States in the following documents:

(a) Provisional agenda of the thirty-eighth session (A/38/150);

The items proposed for inclusion are listed in the draft agenda, which appears in paragraph 26 below.

23. With regard to item 12 of the draft agenda (Report of the Economic and Social Council), the Secretary-General wishes to draw the attention of the General Committee to General Assembly resolution 37/225, entitled "New international human order: moral aspects of development". In paragraph 3 of that resolution the Assembly decided "to take up this question at its thirty-eighth session on the basis of the report of the Economic and Social Council". The question was therefore included in the provisional agenda under item 12. In this connection, the Permanent Representative of the Philippines, in a letter dated 12 August 1983 (A/38/360), requested that the question be included again as a sub-item of item 78 of the agenda (Development and international economic co-operation).

24. In connection with item 17 (f) of the draft agenda (Appointment of the members of the Peace Observation Commission), the Secretary-General wishes to draw the General Committee's attention to the fact that by its decision 36/323 the General Assembly appointed 12 States as members of the Peace Observation Commission for 1982 and 1983. In this regard it should be noted that in paragraph 314 of the report on the work of its twenty-second session² the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination recommended that the mandate of the Peace Observation Commission should be terminated and, in consequence, the reference to it in paragraph 1.8 (i) should be deleted from the proposed medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989. At its thirty-seventh session, the General Assembly adopted the medium-term plan as revised by the recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination at its twenty-second session (resolution 37/234, sect. I). However, since resolution 37/234 contains no specific reference to the Peace Observation Commission, it would be desirable to ascertain conclusively whether the General Assembly intended formally to abolish that organ.

25. In view of the large number of items on the draft agenda, the Secretary-General wishes to recall the recommendation of the Special Committee on the Rationalization of the Procedures and Organization of the General Assembly that Member States should examine the agenda with a view to eliminating items which have lost their urgency or relevance, are not ripe for consideration or could be dealt with and even disposed of equally well by subsidiary organs of the General Assembly, and to referring specific items to other United Nations organs or to specialized agencies, taking into account the nature of the question (A/520/Rev.14, annex V, paras. 19 and 22). In this connection, the General Committee may wish to consider:

(a) The grouping of related items under a single heading;

(b) The staggering of more items over two or more years.

26. Subject to the recommendations of the General Committee regarding paragraphs 23 to 25 above, the draft agenda of the thirty-eighth session would consist of the following items:³

ALLOCATION OF ITEMS

27. The allocation of items described in paragraph 37 below is based on the pattern adopted by the General Assembly for those items in previous years. However, the Secretary-General trusts that delegations will consider allotting items in a manner which will best enhance the effectiveness and the impact of the Assembly's work. In this connection, the General Committee may wish to draw the Assembly's attention to paragraph 4 of its decision 34/401, which reads as follows:

"4. Substantive items should normally be discussed initially in a Main Committee and, therefore, items previously allocated to plenary meetings should henceforth be referred to a Main Committee unless there are compelling circumstances requiring their continued consideration in plenary meeting."

28. The following items of the draft agenda have not been considered previously by the General Assembly:

140. Implementation of the conclusions of the Second Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and establishment of a preparatory committee for the Third Review Conference (S.2).

141. Question of Antarctica (S.3).

142. Conclusion of a treaty on the prohibition of the use of force in outer space and from space against the Earth (S.4).

The sponsors of the requests for the inclusion of items 140 and 141 have suggested that they should be allocated as follows:

Under resolution 36/166, adopted on the recommendation of the Third Committee, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Assembly at its thirty-eighth session a report on the exchange of information on banned hazardous chemicals and unsafe pharmaceutical products. In view of the subject-matter and of the fact that, at its thirty-seventh session, the Assembly adopted a closely connected resolution (resolution 37/137) on the recommendation of the Second Committee, the General Committee may wish to recommend that the above-mentioned report⁷ should be referred to the Second Committee.

30. With regard to item 18 of the draft agenda (Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples), the General Committee may wish to consider referring to the Fourth Committee, as was done at previous sessions, all the chapters of the report of the Special Committee⁸ relating to specific Territories. This would again enable the General Assembly to deal in plenary meeting with the question of the implementation of the Declaration as a whole.

31. In connection with item 32 of the draft agenda (Policies of apartheid of the Government of South Africa), the Secretary-General wishes to remind the General Committee that at the 4th plenary meeting of its thirty-seventh session the General Assembly decided to consider this item directly in plenary meeting, on the understanding that the representatives of the Organization of African Unity and of national liberation movements recognized by that organization would be permitted to participate in the discussion in plenary meeting and that organizations and individuals having a special interest in the question would be permitted to be heard by the Special Political Committee.

32. With regard to item 36 of the draft agenda (Question of Namibia), the General Committee will recall that at the 4th plenary meeting of its thirty-seventh session the General Assembly decided to consider this item directly in plenary meeting, on the understanding that hearings of the organizations concerned would be held in the Fourth Committee.

33. In connection with item 41 of the draft agenda (Question of Cyprus), the General Committee will recall that at the 116th plenary meeting of its thirty-seventh session the General Assembly decided to consider this item directly in plenary meeting, on the understanding that it would, when considering the item, invite the Special Political Committee to meet for the purpose of affording representatives of the Cypriot communities an opportunity to take the floor in the Committee in order to express their views, and that the Assembly would then resume its consideration of the item, taking into account the report of the Special Political Committee.

34. With regard to item 62 of the draft agenda (General and complete disarmament), the Secretary-General wishes to draw the attention of the General Committee to the fact that some portions of the report of the International Atomic Energy Agency for 1982,⁹ which is to be considered directly in plenary meeting under item 14, deal with the subject-matter of this item. The General Committee may therefore wish to recommend that the relevant paragraphs of the report should be drawn to the attention of the First Committee in connection with the consideration of item 62.

35. In connection with item 78 (j) of the draft agenda (Effective mobilization and integration of women in development), the Secretary-General wishes to recall that, in paragraph 1 of its resolution 36/127, the General Assembly recommended, in the light of paragraphs 80 to 82 of the report of the Ad Hoc Working Group on the Social Aspects of the Development Activities of the United Nations,¹⁰ that documents concerning the integration of women in development should be made available to the Third Committee under the relevant agenda item.

36. With regard to item 114 of the draft agenda (Joint Inspection Unit), the General Committee may wish to recommend to the General Assembly, as was done at the thirty-seventh session, that the item should be allocated to the Fifth Committee on the understanding that the reports of the Joint Inspection Unit dealing with subject-matters assigned to other Main Committees would be referred also to those Committees.

37. Subject to changes that may be made by the General Committee in the light of paragraphs 27 to 36 above, the allocation of the items of the draft agenda, as based on previous practice, would be the following:¹¹

Plenary meetings

DOCUMENT A/38/360Letter dated 12 August 1983 from the Permanent Representative of the Philippines to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

[Original: English]
[25 August 1983]

I have the honour to refer to the item entitled "New international human order: moral aspects of development", which was introduced last year as an item in the agenda of the General Assembly upon the initiative of the Philippines.⁵¹ In accordance with the recommendation of the General Committee, this topic was included as item 71 (p) of the agenda of the thirty-seventh session.

⁵¹ Official Records of the General Assembly, Thirty-seventh Session, Annexes, agenda item 71, document A/37/192.

Subsequently, the General Assembly adopted resolution 37/225, which provides in paragraph 3 as follows:

"3. Decides to take up this question at its thirty-eighth session on the basis of the report of the Economic and Social Council."

The Economic and Social Council considered this matter at its second regular session of 1983 and transmitted its comments to the General Assembly (see Council decision 1983/171).

Accordingly, it is the view of my Government that this subject should be included as an item in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session to allow its adequate consideration pursuant to resolution 37/225. It is therefore requested that the said item be included as a sub-item of agenda item 78 entitled "Development and international economic co-operation".

Permanent Representative

"5. Urges Member States and international bodies and institutions to undertake actions oriented towards the effective implementation of General Assembly resolution 37/251, and stresses that international co-operation in this regard should be focused on developing the indigenous capabilities of developing countries in this field and not concentrate on the creation of investment and export opportunities for developed countries;

Considering that the principal impediments to the realization of the indigenous energy potential of the developing countries are, in addition to inadequate exploration, the scarcity of financial resources, insufficient exploration data, inadequate access to technology and a shortage of skills,

Reaffirming that effective and urgent measures should be taken by the international community to assist and support the efforts of the developing countries for developing the domestic energy resources of those countries, in particular the energy-deficient among them, in order to meet their needs through co-operation, assistance and investment in the field of conventional and of new and renewable sources of energy, consistent with their national plans and priorities, as called for in the International Development Strategy,

Aware that special measures are required in this regard for the least developed countries,

Aware that multilateral financial and technical assistance for the exploration, development, expansion and processing of the energy resources of the developing countries continues to be necessary in order to realize their indigenous energy potential and meet their development objectives,

Recognizing the need for an accelerated effort devoted to the exploration and development of the indigenous energy resources of developing countries,

Reaffirming that the developing countries continue to bear the main responsibility for the development of their indigenous energy potential which would require vigorous measures for a fuller mobilization of their domestic financial and other resources, while external resources, public and private, particularly concessional flows and official development assistance, can constitute an element of support for the developing countries' own efforts,

Emphasizing the importance of intensifying the capabilities of the United Nations in the collection, analysis and dissemination of information relating to all phases of the development of energy resources in the developing countries,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General on the development of the energy resources of the developing countries (see E/1983/91 and Corr.1 and A/38/512),

3. Urges the international community to mobilize adequate and additional technological resources as well as adequate financial support for the accelerated exploration and development of the energy resources of developing countries;

4. Urges, in this connection, accelerated consideration of other possible avenues that would increase energy financing, including, inter alia, the mechanisms being examined by the World Bank, such as an energy affiliate, and calls upon Member States to make appropriate efforts to this end in the relevant forums;

5. Urges Member States and international bodies and institutions to undertake actions oriented towards the effective implementation of General Assembly resolution 37/251 and stresses that international co-operation in this regard should be focused on developing the indigenous capabilities of developing countries in this field, using domestic resources to the maximum extent possible;

7. Requests the Secretary-General of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development to continue, in consultation with other relevant United Nations bodies and in the context of avoiding duplication, to analyse further the issues contained in his report on the strengthening of the technological capacity of the developing countries in the development of their energy resources (ibid.);

8. Reaffirms the need for the United Nations system to support the efforts of the developing countries to enhance economic and technical co-operation among themselves for the development of their energy resources;

9. Invites regional bodies and institutions of economic, technical and financial co-operation to increase their support and assistance to the efforts that the developing countries are making for the development of their energy resources;

"Mindful of its general humanitarian mandate under the Charter of the United Nations and its mandate to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all,

"Deeply disturbed by the continuing scale and magnitude of exoduses and displacements of populations in many regions of the world and at the human suffering of millions of refugees and displaced persons in all regions of the world,

"Conscious that human rights violations are among the principal factors in the complex and multiple causes of mass exoduses of population,

"Deeply preoccupied by the increasingly heavy burden being imposed upon the international community as a whole, and more particularly upon developing countries with limited resources of their own, by these sudden and mass exoduses and displacements of population,

"Recalling its resolutions 35/124 of 11 December 1980, 36/148 of 16 December 1981 and 37/121 of 16 December 1982 on international co-operation to avert new flows of refugees, 35/196 of 15 December 1980 and 37/186 of 17 December 1982 on human rights and mass exoduses, and Commission on Human Rights resolutions 29 (XXXVII) of 11 March 1981,¹³ 1982/32 of 11 March 1982¹⁴ and 1983/35 of 8 March 1983 (see E/1983/13 and Corr.1, chap. "2. Invites Governments to intensify their co-operation and assistance in world-wide efforts to address the increasingly serious problem of mass exoduses; tries in their fight against illegal drug cultivation and production, as well as illicit traffic and drug abuse,

Aware that the illegal production of drugs must be stopped and that integrated rural development programmes, including crop substitution, combined with control activities are effective measures to curb the production of illicit drugs,

Noting with appreciation the generous contributions made so far and recently pledged to the United Nations Fund for Drug Abuse Control which should continue, considering the great needs in this field,

Aware of the need to improve regional, interregional and international co-operation and co-ordination in order to intensify the struggle against illegal production of drugs, illicit drug traffic and drug abuse,

Mindful of the decision taken by the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination at its twenty-third session to undertake, at its twenty-fifth session, in 1985, an intergovernmental review of drug control on the basis of an in-depth evaluation study to be prepared by the Secretary-General (see A/38/38, part one, para. 195),

1. Calls upon Member States that have not yet done so to ratify the international drug control treaties and, until such time, to endeavour to abide by the provisions thereof;

2. Invites Member States to make generous contributions to the United Nations Fund for Drug Abuse Control to enable the Fund further to improve and strengthen its activities to reduce the illicit supply of, traffic in and demand for narcotic drugs;

6. Invites international financing institutions to consider giving financial support to activities in producing countries with a view to stopping the cultivation and production of illicit drugs, and calls upon Member States to encourage regional financing institutions to support such projects;

7. Urges the specialized agencies and other organizations and programmes of the United Nations system to identify special drug control activities in their respective fields and to accord higher priority to drug control activities in their programme budgets;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its fortieth session, through the Commission on Narcotic Drugs and the Economic and Social Council, on the drug control activities carried out by the specialized agencies and other organizations and

9. Also requests the Secretary-General to take the necessary steps to improve the co-ordination of drug control activities within the United Nations system and among Member States, the specialized agencies and programmes and other international and regional organs and organizations involved in drug control activities, with due consideration for the respective jurisdictions of those bodies, so as to avoid duplication of efforts in this field;

10. Further requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its fortieth session on measures to improve co-operation and co-ordination of drug control activities within the United Nations system, in the light of the intergovernmental review of drug control to be undertaken by the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination at its twenty-fifth session.

Bearing in mind Commission on Human Rights resolution 1983/20 of 22 February 1983 (see E/1983/13 and Corr.1, chap. XXVII, sect. Noting with appreciation that some of the projects recommended in the report on assistance to student refugees in southern Africa have been successfully completed,

Noting with concern the continued influx into Botswana, Lesotho, Swaziland and Zambia of student refugees from South Africa, as well as from Namibia,

Convinced that the discriminatory policies and repressive measures being applied in South Africa and Namibia will lead to a further exodus of student refugees from those countries,

Conscious of the burden placed on the limited financial, material and administrative resources of the host countries by the increasing number of student refugees,

Appreciating the efforts of the host countries to deal with their student refugee populations, with the assistance of the international community,

1. Welcomes Economic and Social Council resolution 1982/35 of 7 May 1982, in which the Council decided to appoint for one year a special rapporteur to examine the questions related to summary or arbitrary executions and to submit to the Commission on Human Rights, at its thirty-ninth session, a comprehensive report on the occurrence and extent of the practice of such executions, together with his conclusions and recommendations;

Draft resolution XIII

STRATEGY AND POLICIES FOR DRUG CONTROL

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 32/124 of 16 December 1977, in which it requested the Commission on Narcotic Drugs to study the possibility of launching a meaningful programme of international drug abuse control strategy and policies,

Recalling also its resolution 36/168 of 16 December 1981, by which it adopted the International Drug Abuse Control Strategy and the basic five-year programme of action³⁰ proposed by the Commission on Narcotic Drugs in its resolution 1 (XXIX) of 11 February 1981,

Noting the recommendation contained in the Economic and Social Council resolution 1983/2 of 24 May 1983 that the Commission on Narcotic Drugs, meeting in plenary during its sessions and in the presence of all interested observers, should in future replace the current task force provisionally established and thus constitute the task force envisaged in General Assembly resolution 36/168,

Noting also Economic and Social Council decision 1983/117 of 24 May 1983, in which the Council decided to transmit to the General Assembly annex II to the report of the Commission on Narcotic Drugs on its thirtieth session (E/1983/15), containing the programme for the third and fourth years of the basic five-year programme of action,

Draft resolution XIV

MEASURES TO BE TAKEN AGAINST NAZI, FASCIST AND NEO-FASCIST ACTIVITIES AND ALL OTHER FORMS OF TOTALITARIAN IDEOLOGIES AND PRACTICES BASED ON RACIAL INTOLERANCE, HATRED AND TERROR

The General Assembly,

Recalling that the United Nations emerged from the struggle against nazism, fascism, aggression and foreign occupation, and that the peoples expressed their resolve in the Charter of the United Nations to save future generations from the scourge of war, ³⁰ Official Records of the Economic and Social Council, 1981, Supplement No. 4, annex II.

Bearing in mind the suffering, destruction and death of millions of victims of aggression, foreign occupation, nazism and fascism,

Recalling also the close relationship between all totalitarian ideologies and practices based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred and terror and the systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Considering that the fortieth anniversary of the victory over nazism and fascism in the Second World War will occur in 1985 and should serve to mobilize the efforts of the world community in its struggle against Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist and all other totalitarian ideologies and practices based on racial intolerance, hatred and terror,

Reaffirming the purposes and principles laid down in the Charter, which are aimed at maintaining international peace and security, developing friendly relations among nations based on respect for the principle of equal rights and the self-determination of peoples, and achieving international co-operation in promoting and encouraging respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all,

Firmly convinced that the best bulwark against nazism and racial discrimination is the establishment and maintenance of democratic institutions, that the existence of genuine political, social and economic democracy is an effective vaccine and an equally effective antidote against the formation or development of Nazi movements and that a political system which is based on freedom and effective participation by the people in the conduct of public affairs, and under which economic and social conditions are such as to ensure a decent standard of living for the population, makes it impossible for fascism, nazism or other ideologies based on terror to succeed,

Emphasizing that all totalitarian or other ideologies and practices, including Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist, based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred, terror, or systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms, or which have such consequences, may jeopardize world peace and constitute obstacles to friendly relations between States and to the realization of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Reaffirming that the prosecution and punishment of war crimes and crimes against peace and humanity, as laid down in General Assembly resolutions 3 (I) of 13 February 1946 and 95 (I) of 11 December 1946, constitute a universal commitment for all States,

Mindful of the principles of international co-operation in the detection, arrest, extradition and punishment of persons guilty of war crimes and crimes against humanity, set forth in General Assembly resolution 3074 (XXVIII) of 3 December 1973,

Recalling also its resolutions 2331 (XXII) of 18 December 1967, 2438 (XXIII) of 19 December 1968, 2545 (XXIV) of 11 December 1969, 2713 (XXV) of 15 December 1970, 2839 (XXVI) of 18 December 1971, 34/24 of 15 November 1979, 35/200 of 15 December 1980, 36/162 of 16 December 1981 and 37/179 of 17 December 1982,

Recalling further the Declaration on Social Progress and Development,³¹ the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination,³² the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to

Colonial Countries and Peoples³³ and the Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Intolerance and of Discrimination Based on Religion or Belief,³⁴

Underlining the importance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,¹⁶ the International Covenants on Human Rights,¹⁷ the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination¹⁸ and the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide,³⁵

Acknowledging the fact that a number of States have established legal regulations which are suited to prevent the activities of Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist groups and organizations,

Noting again with deep concern that the proponents of Fascist ideologies have, in a number of countries, intensified their activities and are increasingly co-ordinating them on an international scale,

1. Again condemns all totalitarian or other ideologies and practices, in particular Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist, based on racial or ethnic exclusiveness or intolerance, hatred, terror or systematic denial of human rights and fundamental freedoms, or which have such consequences;

2. Notes that the fortieth anniversary of the conclusion of the Second World War will occur in 1985 and should serve to mobilize the efforts of the world community in its struggle against the ideologies and practices described in paragraph 1 above;

3. Calls upon States to assist each other in detecting, arresting and bringing to trial persons suspected of having committed war crimes and crimes against humanity and, if they are found guilty, in punishing them;

4. Urges all States to draw attention to the threat to democratic institutions by the above-mentioned ideologies and practices and to consider taking measures, in accordance with their national constitutional systems and with the provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights, to prohibit or otherwise deter activities by groups or organizations or whoever is practising those ideologies;

5. Calls upon the appropriate specialized agencies, as well as intergovernmental and international non-governmental organizations, to initiate or intensify measures against the ideologies and practices described in paragraph 1 above;

6. Invites Member States to adopt, in accordance with their national constitutional systems and with the provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights, as a matter of high priority, measures declaring punishable by law any dissemination of ideas based on racial superiority or hatred and of war propaganda, including Nazi, Fascist and neo-Fascist ideologies;

7. Appeals to all States that have not yet done so to ratify or to accede or to give serious consideration to acceding to the International Covenants on Human Rights, the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, the Convention on the Non-Applicability of Statutory Limitations to War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity³⁶ and the International Convention

8. Calls once again upon all States to provide the Secretary-General with their comments on this question;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat pays attention to the dissemination of information on the forthcoming fortieth anniversary of the conclusion of the Second World War, exposing the ideologies and practices described in paragraph 1 above;

10. Reiterates its request to the Commission on Human Rights to consider this subject at its fortieth session;

Draft resolution XV

SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS IN GUATEMALA

The General Assembly,

Reiterating that the Governments of all Member States have an obligation to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Recalling its resolution 37/184 of 17 December 1982,

Taking note of Commission on Human Rights resolution 1983/37 of 8 March 1983 (see E/1983/13 and Corr.1, chap. XXVII, sect. A), in which the Commission reiterated its profound concern at the continuing reports of massive violations of human rights in Guatemala,

Noting also that the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, in its resolution 1983/12 of 5 September 1983 (see E/CN.4/1984/3 and Corr.1 and 2-E/CN.4/Sub.2/1983/43 and Corr.1 and 2, chap. XXI, sect. A), recognized that in Guatemala there existed an armed conflict of a non-international character, which stemmed from economic, social and political factors of a structural nature, and that within that conflict the security forces and government institutions had not respected the norms of international humanitarian law,

Expressing its satisfaction at the appointment of a Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights and taking note of the co-operation extended to the Special Rapporteur by the Government of Guatemala,

Taking note of the interim report by the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Guatemala (see A/38/485), submitted in accordance with Commission on Human Rights resolution 1983/37,

Welcoming the lifting of the state of siege and the abolition of the special tribunals,

Disturbed at the large number of persons who have disappeared, including those reported to have been tried by the special tribunals, and who, despite appeals from various international organizations, remain unaccounted for,

1. Expresses its deep concern at the continuing massive violations of human rights in Guatemala, particularly the violence against non-combatants, and the widespread repression, killing and massive displacement of rural and indigenous populations, which are reported to have increased recently;

2. Calls upon the Government of Guatemala to refrain both from forcefully displacing people belonging to rural and indigenous populations and from the practice of coercing people into participation in civilian patrols, leading to human rights violations;

3. Urges the Government of Guatemala to take effective measures to ensure that all its authorities and agencies, including its security forces, fully respect human rights and fundamental freedoms;

4. Requests the Government of Guatemala to investigate and clarify the fate of persons who have disappeared and are still unaccounted for, including those reported to have been tried by the special tribunals;

5. Calls upon the Government of Guatemala to establish a system for the revocation of convictions and sentences passed by the special tribunals, now abolished;

6. Appeals to the Government of Guatemala to allow international humanitarian organizations to render assistance in investigating the fate of persons who have disappeared, with a view to informing their relatives of their whereabouts, to visit detainees or prisoners, and to allow them to bring assistance to the civilian population in areas of conflict;

7. Appeals also to all parties concerned in Guatemala to ensure the application of relevant norms of international humanitarian law applicable in armed conflicts of a non-international character to protect the civilian population and to seek an end to all acts of violence;

8. Calls upon Governments to refrain from supplying arms and other military assistance as long as serious human rights violations in Guatemala continue to be reported;

9. Invites the Government of Guatemala and other parties concerned to continue co-operating with the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights;

10. Requests the Commission on Human Rights to study carefully the report of its Special Rapporteur, as well as other information pertaining to the situation in Guatemala, and to consider further steps for securing effective respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all in that country;

11. Decides to continue its examination of the situation of human rights and fundamental freedoms in Guatemala at its thirty-ninth session.

Draft resolution XVI

SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS IN EL SALVADOR

The General Assembly,

Guided by the principles embodied in the Charter of the United Nations and in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,¹⁶

Conscious of its responsibility in all circumstances to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all,

Reiterating that the Governments of all Member States have an obligation to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms and to carry out the responsibilities they have undertaken under various international human rights instruments,

Determined to remain vigilant with regard to violations of human rights wherever they occur and to take measures to restore respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Recalling that, in its resolutions 35/192 of 15 December 1980, 36/155 of 16 December 1981 and 37/185 of 17 December 1982, it expressed deep concern at the situation of human rights in El Salvador, especially in view of the death of thousands of people and the climate of violence and insecurity prevailing in that country, as also the impunity of paramilitary forces and other armed groups,

Bearing in mind Commission on Human Rights resolutions 32 (XXXVII) of 11 March 1981,¹³ in which the Commission decided to appoint a Special Representative on the situation of human rights in El Salvador, 1982/28 of 11 March 1982¹⁴ and 1983/29 of 8 March 1983 (see E/1983/13 and Corr.1, chap. XXVII, sect. A), whereby the Commission extended the mandate of the Special Representative for another year and requested him to report, inter alia, to the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session,

Taking note with grave concern of the interim report of the Special Representative of the Commission on Human Rights (see A/38/503), in which the continuation of a climate of violence and insecurity in El Salvador, characterized by armed clashes, acts of economic sabotage and grave and large-scale violations of human rights, as well as the failure of the Salvadorian authorities to prevent these constant violations of human rights in that country, are confirmed,

Bearing in mind that in its resolution 37/185 the General Assembly observed that the elections which were held in El Salvador in March 1982 had not led to the cessation of violence or to improvement in the situation of human rights and fundamental freedoms in that country;

Noting with satisfaction that the El Salvador Peace Commission, officials and special envoys of other Governments within and outside the region, as well as the representative political forces, have initiated talks in the search for a negotiated comprehensive political solution,

1. Commends the Special Representative of the Commission on Human Rights for his interim report on the situation of human rights in El Salvador;

2. Expresses its deepest concern at the fact that, as indicated in the report of the Special Representative, the gravest violations of human rights are persisting in El Salvador and that, as a result, the sufferings of the Salvadorian people are continuing, and regrets that the appeals for the cessation of the acts of violence formulated by the General Assembly, the Commission on Human Rights and the international community as a whole have not been heeded;

3. Again draws the attention of the Salvadorian parties concerned to the fact that the rules of international law, as contained in article 3 common to the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949³⁸ and Additional Protocols I and II thereto,³⁹ are applicable to armed conflicts not of an international character, such as that in El Salvador, and requests all parties to apply a minimum standard of protection of human rights and of humane treatment of the civilian population;

4. Takes note of resolution 1983/18 of 5 September 1983 of the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities (see E/CN.4/1984/3 and Corr.1 and 2-E/CN.4/Sub.2/1983/43 and Corr.1 and 2, chap. XXI, sect. A), in which the Sub-Commission suggested that the Special Representative give attention in his report to respect for or violation of humanitarian law in armed conflict;

5. Recommends that the reforms necessary for the solution of the economic and social problems which are at the root of the internal conflict in El Salvador should be put into effect so as to allow the effective exercise of civil and political rights in that country, and reaffirms the right of the Salvadorian people freely to determine their political, economic and social future without interference from outside and in an atmosphere free from intimidation and terror;

6. Calls upon the Government of El Salvador and other political forces to intensify their talks and to work towards the creation of suitable conditions in the common search for a negotiated comprehensive political solution which will put an end to the internal armed conflict and establish a lasting peace which will allow the full exercise both of civil and political rights and of economic, social and cultural rights by all Salvadorians;

7. Once again urges all States to abstain from intervening in the internal situation in El Salvador and to suspend all supplies of arms and any type of military assistance, so as to allow the restoration of peace and security and the establishment of a democratic system based on full respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms;

8. Expresses its deep concern at reports which prove that government forces regularly resort to bombarding urban areas in El Salvador that are not military objectives, and its concern for the fate of several hundred thousand displaced persons who are currently located in camps in which they are subjected to abuse and in which not even the minimum conditions of internment, in terms of either humane treatment or material needs, are observed;

9. Also expresses its deep concern at the resurgence of disappearances and murders of persons belonging to various sectors of the civilian population, for which the so-called "death squads" claim responsibility, and urges that these activities should be investigated with a view to punishing those responsible;

10. Expresses its concern at the consequences of the damage done to the economy of El Salvador as a result of the attacks on the economic infrastructure attributable for the most part, according to the report of the Special Representative, to the opposition forces;

11. Reiterates its urgent appeal to the Government of El Salvador to fulfil its obligations towards its citizens and to assume its international responsibilities in this regard by taking the necessary steps to ensure that all its agencies, including its security forces and other armed organizations operating under its authority, fully respect human rights and fundamental freedoms;

Draft resolution XVII

SITUATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS IN CHILE

The General Assembly,

Aware of its responsibility to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all and determined to remain vigilant with regard to violations of human rights wherever they occur,

Stressing the obligation of Governments to promote and protect human rights and to carry out the responsibilities they have undertaken by virtue of various international instruments,

Recalling its resolutions 3219 (XXIX) of 6 November 1974, 3448 (XXX) of 9 December 1975, 31/124 of 16 December 1976, 32/118 of 16 December 1977, 33/175 of 20 December 1978, 34/179 of 17 December 1979, 35/188 of 15 December 1980, 36/157 of 16 December 1981 and 37/183 of 17 December 1982, relating to the situation of human rights in Chile, as well as its resolution 33/173 of 20 December 1978 on disappeared persons,

Recalling also the resolutions of the Commission on Human Rights on the situation of human rights in Chile, especially resolution 1983/38 of 8 March 1983 (see E/1983/13 and Corr.1, chap. XXVII, sect. A), in which the Commission decided, inter alia, to extend for a year the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Chile,

Deploring once again the fact that the repeated appeals of the General Assembly, the Commission on Human Rights and other international organs to re-establish human rights and fundamental freedoms have been ignored by the Chilean authorities, which continue to refuse to co-operate with the Commission on Human Rights and its Special Rapporteur,

Expressing its profound concern that, according to the conclusions of the Special Rapporteur, the performance of the Chilean authorities with regard to the situation of human rights has been negative in general and that they have not been responsive to the concerns of the international community expressed in resolutions of the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights,

Observing that the Chilean authorities have permitted a limited number of Chilean nationals to return to the country, but noting that the measures taken to that effect have been arbitrary and restrictive,

1. Commends the Special Rapporteur for his report on the situation of human rights in Chile (see A/38/385 and Add.1), prepared in accordance with Commission on Human Rights resolution 1983/38;

2. Reiterates its grave concern at the persistence of and increase in serious and systematic violations of human rights in Chile as described in the report of the Special Rapporteur;

3. Expresses once again its concern at the disruption of the traditional democratic legal order and its institutions by the maintenance of exceptional legislation, the institutionalization of various states of emergency and the existence of a Constitution in Chile which does not reflect a freely expressed popular will and the provisions of which not only fail to guarantee the enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms but also suppress, suspend or restrict the exercise of those rights and freedoms;

4. Also reiterates its grave concern at the inefficacy of recourse to habeas corpus or amparo and of protection in view of the fact that the judiciary in Chile does not exercise its powers fully in this respect and carries out its functions under severe restrictions;

5. Once again requests the Chilean authorities to respect and promote human rights in compliance with the obligations they have assumed under various international instruments and, in particular, to end the régime of exception and especially the practice of declaring states of emergency, under which serious and continuing violations of human rights are committed, and to restore the principle of legality, democratic institutions and the effective enjoyment and exercise of civil and political rights and fundamental freedoms without any discrimination;

6. Once more urges the Chilean authorities to investigate and clarify the fate of persons who have disappeared for political reasons, to inform their families of the results of such investigation and to bring to trial and punish those responsible for these disappearances;

7. Reiterates its appeal to the Chilean authorities to put an end to intimidation and persecution, as well as arbitrary detentions and imprisonment in secret places and the practice of torture and other forms of cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment which have resulted in unexplained deaths, and to respect the right of persons to life and physical integrity;

8. Expresses its concern at the violent suppression of the ever larger and more widespread popular protests in the face of the incapacity of the authorities to restore human rights and fundamental freedoms, as reported by the Special Rapporteur, which have resulted in serious, flagrant and systematic violation of human rights, including mass detentions and numerous deaths;

9. Once again urges the Chilean authorities to respect the right of Chileans to live in and freely enter and leave their country, without restrictions or conditions, and to cease the practice of "relegation" (assignment of forced residence) and forced exile;

10. Renews its appeal to the Chilean authorities to restore the full enjoyment and exercise of trade union rights, in particular the right to organize trade unions, the right to collective bargaining and the right to strike;

11. Once more urges the Chilean authorities to protect and restore the economic, social and cultural rights of the population and, in particular, to respect the rights intended to preserve the cultural identity and improve the social status of the indigenous population;

12. Concludes, on the basis of the report of the Special Rapporteur, that it is necessary to keep under consideration the situation of human rights in Chile;

13. Calls again upon the Chilean authorities to co-operate with the Special Rapporteur and to submit their comments on his report to the Commission on Human Rights at its fortieth session;

14. Invites the Commission on Human Rights to study in depth the report of the Special Rapporteur at its fortieth session and to take the most appropriate steps for the effective restoration of human rights and fundamental freedoms in Chile, including the extension of the mandate of the Special Rapporteur for one more year, and requests the Commission to report, through the Economic and Social Council, to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

Draft resolution XVIII

HUMAN RIGHTS AND MASS EXODUSES

The General Assembly,

Mindful of its general humanitarian mandate under the Charter of the United Nations and its mandate to promote and encourage respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms for all,

Deeply disturbed by the continuing scale and magnitude of exoduses and displacements of populations in many regions of the world and by the human suffering of millions of refugees and displaced persons in all regions of the world,

Conscious that human rights violations are among the principal factors in the complex and multiple causes of mass exoduses of population,

Deeply preoccupied by the increasingly heavy burden being imposed, particularly upon developing countries with limited resources of their own, and upon the international community as a whole, by these sudden and mass exoduses and displacements of population,

Recalling its resolution 32/130 of 16 December 1977 and Commission on Human Rights resolution 4 (XXXIII) of 21 February 1977⁴⁰ on the full realization of economic, social and cultural rights,

Recalling also its resolutions 35/124 of 11 December 1980, 36/148 of 16 December 1981 and 37/121 of 16 December 1982 on international co-operation to avert new flows of refugees, 35/196 of 15 December 1980 and 37/186 of 17 December 1982 on human rights and mass exoduses and Commission on Human Rights resolutions 29 (XXXVII) of 11 March 1981,¹³ 1982/32 of 11 March 1982¹⁴ and 1983/35 of 8 March 1983 (see E/1983/13 and Corr.1, chap. XXVII, sect. A),

Convinced that there is an urgent need to improve co-ordination within the existing international machinery to deal with mass exoduses and displacements of population,

Recognizing that the study on human rights and massive exoduses prepared by the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights¹⁵ can make an important contribution to the development of international thinking on the present problem of mass exoduses and their causes, and thus help in the prevention of further mass movements of population and the mitigation of their consequences,

1. Takes due note of the report of the Secretary-General on human rights and mass exoduses (A/38/538);

2. Invites Governments to intensify their co-operation and assistance in world-wide efforts to address the increasingly serious problem of mass exoduses;

3. Requests those Governments that have not yet done so to communicate to the Secretary-General their opinions on the study prepared by the Special Rapporteur and the recommendations made therein, with a view to the General Assembly taking a decision on those recommendations;

4. Notes the Secretary-General's request to the agencies and organizations of the United Nations system to make recommendations and to take whatever steps possible, within their mandates and existing resources, to improve international co-operation in these fields;

5. Considers it desirable for the Secretary-General to utilize to the greatest extent possible relevant United Nations machinery to analyse promptly information on situations which might cause mass exoduses;

6. Notes with interest that the Secretary-General has on many occasions designated special representatives on humanitarian issues on an ad hoc basis, and his readiness to continue and expand this practice;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to follow closely developments on this question, to take into consideration all the further comments of Member States, including those expressed at the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly and at the fortieth session of the Commission on Human Rights, and to keep under review the recommendations of the Special Rapporteur;

8. Recalls that, in its resolution 36/148, the General Assembly requested the Group of Governmental Experts on International Co-operation to Avert New Flows of Refugees to undertake a comprehensive review of the problem of massive flows of refugees and, in accordance with paragraph 7 of that resolution, invites the Group of Government Experts to consider the recommendations of the Special Rapporteur which fall within its mandate;

9. Decides to consider the question of human rights and mass exoduses at its thirty-ninth session.

Secretary-General: request for the inclusion of an additional sub-item in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session

[Original: English]
[27 September 1983]

1. Agenda item 17 of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly, concerning appointments to fill vacancies in subsidiary organs and other appointments, does not include a sub-item relating to the appointment of members of the International Civil Service Commission since no term of office is to expire at the end of 1983.

2. However, one member of the International Civil Service Commission has resigned. The General Assembly will therefore have to appoint a member of that Commission.

3. The Secretary-General accordingly suggests that the General Committee recommend to the General Assembly that it include in the agenda of its thirty-eighth session an additional sub-item (i) of item 17 reading as follows:

“(i) Appointment of a member of the International Civil Service Commission.”

4. The Secretary-General also suggests that the General Committee should, in accordance with established practice, recommend to the General Assembly that it allocate the additional sub-item to the Fifth Committee.

QUESTION OF THE COCOS (KEELING) ISLANDS

The General Assembly, having examined the relevant chapters of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples (A/38/23 (Part II), chap. III and A/38/23 (Part VI), chap. XII), and having heard the statement of the representative of Australia regarding the Cocos (Keeling) Islands (see A/C.4/38/SR.15, paras. 19-23) notes with appreciation the continuing co-operation of the Government of Australia, as the administering Power, with regard to the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, in respect of the Territory. The Assembly reaffirms that it is the responsibility of the administering Power to create conditions under which the people of the Cocos (Keeling) Islands will be able to determine freely their own future in conformity with resolution 1514 (XV) as well as other relevant resolutions of the Assembly. In this respect, the Assembly notes the positive and continuing commitment of the administering Power to the political, social and economic advancement of the people of the Territory to enable them to exercise fully their inalienable rights as quickly as possible. It notes in particular that the administering Power has directly discussed with the representatives of the Cocos (Keeling) community the question of the holding of an act of self-determination to determine their future status. The Assembly welcomes the continuing willingness of the administering Power to receive visiting missions in the Cocos (Keeling) Islands and, in this regard, reaffirms that the need to send further missions as appropriate should be kept under review.

Draft consensus II

QUESTION OF TOKELAU

The General Assembly, having examined the relevant chapters of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples (A/38/23 (Part II), chap. III and A/38/23 (Part VI), chap. XIII), and having heard the statement of the representative of New Zealand with regard to Tokelau (see A/C.4/38/SR.14, paras. 37-42), notes with appreciation the willingness of the administering Power to maintain its close co-operation with the United Nations in the exercise of its responsibility towards Tokelau. The Assembly reaffirms the inalienable right of the people of Tokelau to self-determination and independence in conformity with the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, and reaffirms further that it is the responsibility of the administering Power to keep the people of Tokelau fully informed of this right. In this regard, the Assembly notes that the people of the Territory have expressed the view that, at the present time, they do not wish to review the nature of the existing relationship between Tokelau and New Zealand. The Assembly welcomes the assurances of the administering Power that it will continue to be guided solely by the wishes of the people of Tokelau as to the future status of the Territory. The Assembly notes that the administering Power has assured the people of Tokelau of its continuing assistance in the event that they should desire to change their status. The Assembly calls upon the administering Power to continue its programme of political education within the context of its efforts to ensure the preservation of the identity and cultural heritage of the people of Tokelau. The Assembly recognizes that the economic development of Tokelau is an important element in the process of self-determination. The Assembly notes the continuing efforts of the administering Power to promote the economic development of the Territory and the measures it has taken to safeguard and guarantee the rights of the people of Tokelau to all their natural resources and the benefits derived therefrom. The Assembly is of the opinion that the administering Power should continue to expand its programme of budgetary support and development aid to the Territory. The Assembly notes with appreciation the continuing efforts of the administering Power to make improvements in the fields of public health, public works and education. The Assembly reiterates its expression of appreciation to the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system, as well as to the regional organizations, for their assistance to Tokelau, and calls upon those bodies to continue providing assistance to the Territory. Mindful of the effective means provided by United Nations visiting missions to assess the situation in the Territories, the Assembly is of the opinion that the possibility of sending another visiting mission to the Territory at an appropriate time should be kept under review, taking into account, in particular, the wishes of the people of Tokelau. The Assembly requests the Special Committee to continue to examine this question at its next session, including the possible dispatch of a further visiting mission to Tokelau, at an appropriate time and in consultation with the administering Power, and to report thereon to the Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

QUESTION OF PITCAIRN

The General Assembly, having examined the relevant Chapters of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples (A/38/23 (Part II), chap. III and A/38/23 (Part VI), chap. XIV), takes note of the statement of the representative of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland (see A/C.4/38/SR.11, paras. 9-16), affirming the policy of his Government to encourage as much local initiative and enterprise as possible, so that the people of Pitcairn can make the most of their own way of life. The Assembly takes note of the willingness of the administering Power to discuss any change of constitutional status with the people of the Territory whenever the latter so desire. It notes that the present size of the population continues to raise the question of the capacity of the islanders to maintain the essential services such as education and medical welfare and their ability to launch long boats on which in the absence of adequate dock facilities trade with passing ships depends. In that connection, the Assembly calls once again upon the administering Power to continue to take the necessary measures to safeguard the interests of the people of Pitcairn. The Assembly requests the Special Committee to continue to examine the question at its next session, and to report thereon to the Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

Draft consensus IV

QUESTION OF GIBRALTAR

The General Assembly, noting that the Governments of Spain and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland signed a Declaration on 10 April 1980 at Lisbon,⁶ intending, in accordance with the relevant resolutions of the United Nations, to resolve the problem of Gibraltar, agreeing to that end to start negotiations aimed at overcoming all the differences between them on Gibraltar, agreeing also to the re-establishment of direct communications in the region, the Government of Spain having decided to suspend the application of the measures at present in force, and both Governments agreeing to base future co-operation on reciprocity and full equality of rights; noting that both Governments agreed on 8 January 1982 in London to fix the date of 20 April 1982 for the full implementation of the Lisbon Declaration, including the initiation of negotiations and the simultaneous re-establishment of direct communications in the region; and noting that, when it was subsequently agreed to postpone these arrangements, both Governments expressed their determination to keep alive the process initiated by the Lisbon Declaration of April 1980 and their intention to set a new date for its implementation; urges both Governments to make possible the initiation of the negotiations as envisaged in the consensus adopted by the Assembly on 14 December 1973,⁷ with the object of reaching a lasting solution to the problem of Gibraltar in the light of the relevant resolutions of the Assembly and in the spirit of the Charter of the United Nations.

rial Countries and Peoples, contained in Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960. The Assembly notes the commitment of the Government of the United Kingdom to respect the wishes of the people of the Territory and, in that regard, urges the administering Power, in consultation with the freely elected representatives of the people of St. Helena, to continue to take all necessary steps to ensure the speedy implementation of the Declaration in respect of this Territory. The Assembly expresses the hope that the administering Power will continue to implement infrastructure and community development projects aimed at improving the general welfare of the community and to encourage local initiative and enterprise, particularly in the areas of forestry, fisheries and the handicrafts industry. The Assembly reaffirmed that continued development assistance from the administering Power, together with any assistance that the international community might be able to provide, constitutes an important means of developing the economic potential of the Territory and of enhancing the capacity of its people to realize fully the goals set forth in the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations for the improvement of economic conditions in the Territory. The Assembly notes with concern the presence of a military base on the dependency of Ascension and, in that regard, recalls all the relevant United Nations resolutions and decisions concerning military bases and installations in colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories. Noting the positive attitude of the administering Power with respect to the question of receiving United Nations visiting missions in the Territories under its administration, the Assembly considers that the possibility of dispatching such a mission to St. Helena at an appropriate time should be kept under review. The Assembly requests the Special Committee to continue to examine the question at its next session, including the possible dispatch of a visiting mission to St. Helena, at an appropriate time and in consultation with the administering Power, and to report thereon to the Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

Deeply conscious of the urgent need to take all necessary measures to eliminate forthwith the remaining vestiges of colonialism, particularly in respect of Namibia where desperate attempts by South Africa to perpetuate its illegal occupation have brought untold suffering and bloodshed to the people,

Algeria, Bahrain, Djibouti, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Morocco, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Tunisia and Yemen: draft resolution

[Original: English]
[1 November 1983]

The General Assembly,

Having considered the item entitled "Armed Israeli aggression against the Iraqi nuclear installations and its grave consequences for the established international system concerning the peaceful uses of nuclear energy, the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons and international peace and security",

Recalling the relevant resolutions of the Security Council and the General Assembly,

Taking note of the relevant resolutions of the International Atomic Energy Agency, in particular resolution GC(XXVII)703 adopted by the General Conference of the Agency on 14 October 1983,

Taking note also with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/342),

Viewing with deep concern Israel's continued refusal to comply with those resolutions,

Reiterating its alarm over the information and evidence regarding the acquisition and development of nuclear weapons by Israel,

Recalling Article 2, paragraph 4, of the Charter of the United Nations, which enjoins all Member States to refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity or political independence of any State, or in any other manner inconsistent with the purposes of the United Nations,

Noting that serious radiological effects would result from an armed attack with conventional weapons on a nuclear installation, which could also lead to the initiation of radiological warfare,

1. Strongly condemns Israel's continued refusal to implement Security Council resolution 487 (1981), unanimously adopted by the Council on 19 June 1981;

2. Considers that the statements made so far by Israel have not removed apprehensions that its threat to repeat its armed attack against nuclear facilities, as well as any similar action against such facilities, will continue to endanger the role and activities of the International Atomic Energy Agency and other international instruments in the development of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes and in safeguarding against further proliferation of nuclear weapons;

3. Considers further that the standing Israeli threat to attack and destroy nuclear facilities in Iraq and other countries constitutes a continued and persistent violation of the Charter as well as of the statute of the International Atomic Energy Agency;

4. Reiterates its demand that Israel withdraw forthwith its threat to attack and destroy nuclear facilities in Iraq and in other countries;

5. Once again requests the Security Council to consider the necessary measures to deter Israel from repeating such an attack on nuclear facilities;

6. Reaffirms its call for the continuation of the consideration, at the international level, of legal measures to prohibit armed attacks against nuclear facilities, and threats thereof, as a contribution to promoting and ensuring the safe development of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes;

7. Expresses its deep appreciation to the Secretary-General and the Group of Experts on the Consequences of the Israeli Armed Attack against the Iraqi Nuclear Installations for their objective and comprehensive study (A/38/337, annex);

8. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the implementation of the present resolution;

9. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled “Armed Israeli aggression against the Iraqi nuclear installations and its grave consequences for the established international system concerning the peaceful uses of nuclear energy, the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons and international peace and security”.

1. Reiterates its condemnation of Israel's continued refusal to implement Security Council resolution 487 (1981), unanimously adopted by the Council on 19 June 1981;

2. Notes that the statements made so far by Israel have not removed apprehensions that its threat to repeat its armed attack against nuclear facilities, as well as any similar action against such facilities, will continue to endanger the role and activities of the International Atomic Energy Agency and other international instruments in the development of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes and in safeguarding against further proliferation of nuclear weapons;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to continue those efforts with a view to promoting a political solution, in accordance with the provisions of the present resolution, and the exploration of securing appropriate guarantees for non-use of force, or threat of use of force, against the political independence, sovereignty, territorial integrity and security of all neighbouring States, on the basis of mutual guarantees and strict non-interference in each other's internal affairs and with full regard for the principles of the Charter of the United Nations;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to keep Member States and the Security Council concurrently informed of the progress towards the implementation of the present resolution and to submit to Member States a report on the situation at the earliest appropriate opportunity;

Recalling further that, in accordance with the agreements signed on 15 June 1973 between the Comoros and France concerning the accession of the Comoros to independence, the results of the referendum of 22 December 1974 were to be considered on a global basis and not island by island,

Taking note of the talks opened between the Government of the Islamic Federal Republic of the Comoros and the Government of the French Republic,

Taking note also of the wish of the Government of the Comoros to activate the dialogue with the Government of France with a view to encouraging the prompt return of the Comorian island of Mayotte to the Islamic Federal Republic of the Comoros as a whole, revised draft resolution

[Original: English]
[8 December 1983]

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/66 of 3 December 1982 regarding the Third United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea,

Noting that the Conference was concluded at Montego Bay, Jamaica, on 10 December 1982, that the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea was opened for signature and that one hundred and nineteen signatures had been affixed to it on that date,

Taking further note of the increasing and overwhelming support for the Convention, as evidenced, inter alia, by the one hundred and thirty-two signatures and nine ratifications by States and by the United Nations Council for Namibia, on behalf of Namibia, as at 31 October 1983,

Concerned at any attempt to undermine the Convention and its related resolutions,

Recognizing that, as stated in the third preambular paragraph of the Convention, the problems of ocean space are closely interrelated and need to be considered as a whole,

Convinced that it is important to safeguard the unified character of the Convention and its related resolutions and to refrain from any action to apply their provisions selectively, in a manner inconsistent with their objects and purposes,

Noting the increasing needs of countries, especially developing countries, for information, advice and assistance in their developmental process for the full realization of the benefits of the comprehensive legal régime established by the Convention, as also recognized by the Economic and Social Council in its resolution 1983/48 of 28 July 1983,

Recalling that the Convention provides that the seat of the International Sea-Bed Authority shall be in Jamaica and the seat of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea shall be at Hamburg, Federal Republic of Germany,

Recalling also that paragraph 12 of Conference resolution I of 30 April 1982, establishing the Preparatory Commission for the International Sea-Bed Authority and for the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea,¹ expressly provides that the Commission shall meet at the seat of the Authority if facilities are available and as often as necessary for the expeditious exercise of its functions,

Noting also that the Preparatory Commission held its first session at Kingston, at which it elected its Bureau and concluded the elaboration of its organizational framework by allocating functions between the Plenary and Special Commissions and requested the secretariat to prepare background information and working papers in respect of the work allocated to these organs, and decided, inter alia, to hold its next regular session at Kingston from 19 March to 13 April 1984 and a session for its Working Groups during the summer of 1984, in New York or Geneva, as it may decide,

Recalling its approval of the assumption by the Secretary-General of the responsibilities entrusted to him under the Convention and its related resolutions and the approval of the stationing of an adequate number of secretariat staff in Jamaica for the purpose of servicing the Preparatory Commission, as required by its functions and programme of work,

Taking note also of the major programme on marine affairs, set forth in chapter 25 of the medium-term plan for the period 1984-1989,²

Recalling the extensive functions entrusted to the Preparatory Commission, including the administration of the scheme governing preparatory investments in pioneer activities relating to polymetallic nodules,

* Document A/38/L.18/Rev.1/Add.1 was issued to add 17 States to the list of sponsors.

² See Official Records of the General Assembly, Thirty-seventh Session, Supplement No. 6A, annex II.

Recalling its approval of the financing of the expenses of the Preparatory Commission from the regular budget of the United Nations,

Taking special note of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/570 and Corr.1 and Add.1 and Add.1/Corr.1) prepared in response to paragraph 10 of General Assembly resolution 37/66,

1. Recalls the historic significance of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea as an important contribution to the maintenance of peace, justice and progress for all peoples of the world;

2. Expresses its satisfaction at the large number of signatures affixed to the Convention as well as at the number of ratifications deposited with the Secretary-General during the year following the opening of the Convention for signature;

3. Calls upon States that have not done so to consider signing and ratifying the Convention at the earliest possible date to allow the effective entry into force of the new legal régime for the uses of the sea and its resources;

4. Calls upon all States to safeguard the unified character of the Convention and its related resolutions;

5. Appeals to all States to refrain from taking any action directed at undermining the Convention or defeating its objectives and purposes;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to accord due consideration to the activities outlined in his report, special emphasis being placed on the work of the Preparatory Commission for the International Sea-bed Authority and for the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea;

7. Expresses its appreciation for the report of the Secretary-General and approves the recommendations contained therein;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on developments relating to the Convention and on the implementation of the present resolution;

9. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session an item entitled "Law of the Sea".

PROPOSED NEW RACIAL CONSTITUTION OF SOUTH AFRICA

The General Assembly,

Recalling its many resolutions and those of the Security Council calling on the authorities in South Africa to abandon apartheid, end oppression and repression of the black majority and seek a peaceful, just and lasting solution in accordance with the principles of the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,¹

Reaffirming that apartheid is a crime against humanity and a threat to international peace and security,

Gravely concerned that the so-called "constitutional proposals" endorsed, on 2 November 1983, by the exclusively white electorate in South Africa further entrench apartheid,

Convinced that the aim of the so-called "constitutional proposals" is to deprive the indigenous African majority of all fundamental rights, including the right of citizenship, and to transform South Africa into a country for "whites only", in keeping with the declared policies of apartheid,

Aware that the inclusion in the "constitutional proposals" of the so-called "coloured" people and people of Asian origin is aimed at dividing the unity of the oppressed people of South Africa and fomenting internal conflict,

Noting with grave concern that one of the objectives of the so-called "constitutional proposals" of the racist régime is to make the "coloured" people and people of Asian origin in South Africa eligible for conscription into the apartheid armed forces for further internal repression and aggression against independent African States,

* Document A/38/L.15/Add.1 was issued to add 18 States to the list of sponsors.

Welcoming the united resistance of the oppressed people of South Africa against these "constitutional" manoeuvres,

Reaffirming the legitimacy of the struggle of the oppressed people of South Africa for the elimination of apartheid and for the establishment of a society in which all the people of South Africa as a whole, irrespective of race, colour or creed, will enjoy equal and full political and other rights and participate freely in the determination of their destiny,

Firmly convinced that the implementation of these "constitutional proposals" will further aggravate the already explosive situation prevailing inside apartheid South Africa,

1. Declares that the so-called "constitutional proposals" are contrary to the principles of the Charter of the United Nations, that the results of the referendum are of no validity whatsoever and that the enforcement of the proposed "constitution" will inevitably aggravate tension and conflict in South Africa and in southern Africa as a whole;

2. Rejects the so-called "constitutional proposals" and all insidious manoeuvres by the racist minority régime of South Africa further to entrench white minority rule and apartheid;

3. Further rejects any so-called "negotiated settlement" based on bantustan structures or on the "constitutional proposals";

4. Solemnly declares that only the total eradication of apartheid and the establishment of a non-racial democratic society based on majority rule, through the full and free exercise of adult suffrage by all the people in a united and non-fragmented South Africa, can lead to a just and lasting solution of the explosive situation in South Africa;

5. Urges all Governments and organizations to take appropriate action, in co-operation with the United Nations and the Organization of African Unity and in accordance with the present resolution, to assist the oppressed people of South Africa in their legitimate struggle for a non-racial democratic society;

6. Requests the Security Council, as a matter of urgency, to consider the serious implications of the so-called "constitutional proposals" and to take all necessary measures, in accordance with the Charter, to avert the further aggravation of tension and conflict in South Africa and in southern Africa as a whole.

SITUATION IN SOUTH AFRICA

The General Assembly,

Recalling and reaffirming its resolution 37/69 of 9 December 1982,

Having considered the report of the Special Committee against Apartheid (A/38/22), as well as its special report on recent developments concerning relations between Israel and South Africa (A/38/22/Add.1),

Taking note of the declarations of conferences organized or co-sponsored by the Special Committee, namely, the International Conference of Trade Unions on Sanctions and Other Actions against the Apartheid Régime in South Africa, held at Geneva on 10 and 11 June 1983 (A/38/272-S/15832, annex), the International Conference for Sanctions against Apartheid in Sports, held in London from 27 to 29 June 1983 (A/38/310-S/15882, annex), the International Non-Governmental Organizations Conference on Action against Apartheid and Racism, held at Geneva from 5 to 8 July 1983 (A/38/309-S/15881, annex), the International Conference on the Alliance between South Africa and Israel, held at Vienna from 11 to 13 July 1983 (A/38/311-S/15883, annex), and the Latin American Regional Conference for Action against Apartheid, held at Caracas from 16 to 18 September 1983 (A/38/451-S/16009, annex),

Gravely concerned over the threat to international peace and security, and repeated breaches of the peace and acts of aggression, caused by the policies and actions of the racist minority régime of South Africa,

Condemning the racist minority régime of South Africa for its repeated defiance of the United Nations, its oppression of the great majority of the people of South Africa and its ruthless repression of all opponents of apartheid,

Strongly condemning the execution of Simon Mogerane, Jerry Mosololi and Thabo Motaung, members of the African National Congress of South Africa, in defiance of appeals by the General Assembly and the Security Council,

Reaffirming that apartheid is a crime against humanity,

Strongly convinced that peace and stability in southern Africa require the total eradication of apartheid and the exercise of the right of self-determination by all the people of South Africa, irrespective of race, colour or creed,

Convinced that the racist minority régime of South Africa has been encouraged to perpetrate those criminal acts by the protection accorded to it by major Western Powers against international sanctions and by their continued collaboration with it,

Recognizing that the policies and actions of certain Western Powers and Israel are the main obstacles that have frustrated international efforts for the elimination of apartheid,

Condemning, in particular, the increased collaboration by the Government of the United States of America with the racist régime of South Africa, in pursuance of its policy of so-called "constructive engagement", which has encouraged the racist régime to entrench apartheid, intensify repression and escalate aggression against and destabilization of independent African States,

Condemning the increasing collaboration by Israel with the racist minority régime of South Africa, particularly in the military and nuclear fields,

Rejecting the so-called "constitutional proposals" by the racist minority régime of South Africa as designed to entrench apartheid,

Commending the unity of the oppressed people of South Africa in their opposition to the constitutional proposals as well as in their struggle for the elimination of apartheid and for the establishment of a democratic and non-racial society in a non-fragmented South Africa,

Taking note of the advance of the armed struggle for liberation undertaken by the national liberation movements in the face of brutal repression of peaceful protest,

Recognizing that the legitimate struggle of the South African people for liberation from apartheid is a contribution to the objectives of the United Nations,

Reaffirming that the elimination of apartheid constitutes a major objective of the United Nations,

Considering that all the organizations of the United Nations system have a duty to make a maximum contribution, within their mandates, to the international campaign against apartheid,

1. Endorses the annual report of the Special Committee against Apartheid and its special report on recent developments concerning relations between Israel and South Africa;

2. Declares that the United Nations and the international community have a special responsibility towards the oppressed people of South Africa and their national liberation movements in their legitimate struggle for the elimination of apartheid and the establishment of a non-racial democratic society assuring human rights and fundamental freedoms to all the people of the country irrespective of race, colour or creed;

3. Again proclaims that the national liberation movements of South Africa are the authentic representatives of the people of South Africa in their just struggle for national liberation;

4. Recognizes the right of the oppressed people and their national liberation movements to resort to all the means at their disposal, including armed struggle, in their resistance to the illegitimate racist minority régime of South Africa;

5. Demands that the racist minority régime of South Africa:

(a) Release persons imprisoned or restricted for their opposition to apartheid;

(b) Allow those who have been exiled for their opposition to apartheid to return unconditionally to their country;

(c) Rescind bans on political and other organizations and media opposed to apartheid;

(d) Terminate all political trials and all repressive measures against opponents of apartheid;

6. Commends the people of South Africa and their national liberation movements for the great advance in their struggle for national liberation;

7. Commends the oppressed people of South Africa and their national liberation movements, particularly the African National Congress, for intensifying the armed struggle against the racist régime of South Africa;

8. Calls upon all States and organizations to provide all necessary moral, political and material assistance to the South African liberation movements recognized by the Organization of African Unity at this crucial stage in their struggle for liberation;

9. Reaffirms that freedom fighters of South Africa should be treated as prisoners of war in accordance with Additional Protocol I² to the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949;³

10. Strongly condemns the apartheid régime of South Africa for its brutal repression of all opponents of apartheid, its torture and killing of detainees, its execution of freedom fighters and its repeated acts of aggression, subversion and terrorism against independent African States;

11. Condemns as an international crime the policy of "bantustanization" designed to dispossess the African majority of its inalienable rights and to deprive it of citizenship, as well as the continuing forced removal of black people;

12. Condemns the policies of certain Western States, especially the United States of America, and Israel, and of their transnational corporations and financial institutions that have increased political, economic and military collaboration with the racist minority régime of South Africa despite repeated appeals by the General Assembly;

13. Again urges the Security Council to determine that the situation in South Africa and in southern Africa as a whole, resulting from the policies and actions of the apartheid régime of South Africa, constitutes a grave and growing threat to international peace and security, and to impose comprehensive and mandatory sanctions against the racist minority régime under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations;

14. Urgently calls upon the International Monetary Fund to terminate credits or other assistance to the racist minority régime of South Africa;

15. Again requests the International Atomic Energy Agency to refrain from extending to South Africa any facilities which may assist it in its nuclear plans and, in particular, to exclude South Africa from all its technical working groups;

16. Calls upon all States that have not yet done so to accede to the International Convention on the Suppression and Punishment of the Crime of Apartheid;⁴

17. Decides to continue the authorization of adequate financial provision in the regular budget of the United Nations to enable the South African liberation movements recognized by the Organization of African Unity – namely, the African National Congress of South Africa and the Pan Africanist Congress of Azania – to maintain offices in New York in order to participate effectively in the deliberations of the Special Committee and other appropriate bodies;

18. Commends the anti-apartheid and solidarity movements, religious bodies, trade unions, youth and student organizations and other groups engaged in campaigns for the isolation of the apartheid régime and assistance to the South African liberation movements recognized by the Organization of African Unity;

19. Urges all Governments to lend all appropriate assistance, including financial assistance, to such groups, especially in countries which continue to collaborate with the apartheid régime;

20. Appeals to journalists, writers, artists and other professionals working in the mass media, as well as their professional associations, to foster the role of the mass media in the dissemination of information commensurable with the urgent need to eradicate apartheid;

21. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To instruct all concerned units of the Secretariat and all United Nations offices to promote the international campaign against apartheid in co-operation with the Special Committee;

(b) To take all necessary measures to deny any facilities to, and to refrain from any investment in, corporations operating in South Africa;

(c) To enter into urgent consultations with the International Monetary Fund and the International Atomic Energy Agency to secure their full co-operation in action against apartheid in accordance with the resolutions of the General Assembly;

(d) To prepare, in consultation with the executive heads of the agencies, proposals for concerted action by all organizations of the United Nations system in the international campaign against apartheid;

22. Requests the Special Committee:

(a) To prepare a report reviewing the implementation of the resolutions of the General Assembly and the Security Council on the problem of apartheid and the acts of aggression by the racist régime of South Africa, and the policies and actions of States which have failed to co-operate in international action;

Gravely concerned about the economic blockade that South Africa has imposed against Lesotho,

Deploring the pressures exerted by the Government of the United States of America against Angola to impose on it the so-called issue of "linkage" or "parallelism" which encourages the racist minority régime of South Africa to block the negotiations for the independence of Namibia and to continue its illegal occupation of parts of the territory of Angola and escalate its aggression against that country,

SANCTIONS AGAINST SOUTH AFRICA

The General Assembly,

Considering that the policies and actions of the racist régime of South Africa, its military buildup and its nuclear plans constitute a grave threat to international peace and security,

Reaffirming its conviction that comprehensive and mandatory sanctions imposed by the Security Council under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, universally applied, are the most appropriate and effective means by which the international community can assist the legitimate struggle of the oppressed people of South Africa and discharge its responsibilities for the maintenance of international peace and security,

Recalling the Paris Declaration on Sanctions against South Africa,⁶

Considering that political, economic, military and any other collaboration with the apartheid régime of South Africa encourages its persistent intransigence and defiance of the international community and its escalating repression, aggression and destabilization,

Recognizing the urgent need for the termination of military, nuclear, economic and technological collaboration with the racist régime of South Africa, as well as the cessation of sports, cultural and other relations with South Africa,

Gravely concerned that the racist régime of South Africa has continued, despite the mandatory arms embargo imposed by the Security Council in resolution 418 (1977) of 4 November 1977, to obtain military equipment and ammunition, as well as technology and know-how to develop its armaments industry and to acquire nuclear-weapon capability,

Deploring the attitude of those Western permanent members of the Security Council that have so far prevented the Council from adopting comprehensive sanctions against South Africa under Chapter VII of the Charter,

Deploring also the attitude of those States, in particular the United States of America and Israel, which have continued and increased their political, economic and other collaboration with South Africa,

Gravely concerned over the activities of those transnational corporations that continue to collaborate with the apartheid régime and of those financial institutions that have continued to provide loans and credits to South Africa, and over the failure of the States concerned to take effective action to prevent such collaboration,

Expressing serious concern over the greatly increased trade with, investments in, and loans to South Africa by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the United States of America, the Federal Republic of Germany and Switzerland,

Commending all States that have taken effective measures, in accordance with relevant resolutions, for the elimination of apartheid in South Africa,

Expressing great appreciation to intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, in particular anti-apartheid and solidarity movements, trade unions and religious bodies, as well as city and other local authorities, that have taken action to isolate the racist régime of South Africa and to promote support for comprehensive sanctions against that régime,

Commending athletes, entertainers and others who demonstrated solidarity with the oppressed people of South Africa by complying with the boycotts of South Africa,

Commending the Special Committee against Apartheid for its activities, with the assistance of the Centre

against Apartheid of the Secretariat and the co-operation of Governments and organizations, in promoting the widest possible support for sanctions against South Africa,

Taking note of the decision of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity at its nineteenth ordinary session, held at Addis Ababa from 6 to 12 June 1983, calling for an early convening of the Security Council for the purpose of strengthening the arms embargo and imposing comprehensive and mandatory sanctions against South Africa under Chapter VII of the Charter (see A/38/312, annex, resolution AHG/Res.112 (XIX), para. 5),

1. Again requests the Security Council to consider action under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations towards comprehensive and mandatory sanctions against South Africa and, in particular, to take measures:

(a) To monitor effectively and to reinforce the mandatory arms embargo against South Africa;

(b) To prohibit all co-operation with South Africa in the military and nuclear fields by Governments, corporations, institutions and individuals;

(c) To prohibit imports of any military equipment or component parts from South Africa;

(d) To prevent any co-operation or association with South Africa by any military alliances;

(e) To impose an effective embargo on the supply of oil and oil products to South Africa and on all assistance to the oil industry in South Africa;

(f) To prohibit financial loans to and new investments in South Africa, as well as all promotion of trade with South Africa;

2. Requests all States to take all appropriate measures to facilitate such action by the Security Council;

3. Requests all States concerned to take action against corporations and other interests that violate the mandatory arms embargo against South Africa or that are involved in the illicit supply to South Africa of oil from States that have imposed an embargo against South Africa;

4. Invites all Governments and organizations to assist, in consultation with the national liberation movements of South Africa and Namibia, persons compelled to leave South Africa because of their objection, on the ground of conscience, to serving in the military or police force of the apartheid régime;

5. Encourages action by Governments, organizations and individuals in support of sports, cultural, consumer and other boycotts of South Africa;

6. Requests and authorizes the Special Committee against Apartheid to intensify its activities for the total isolation of the racist régime of South Africa and for promoting comprehensive and mandatory sanctions against South Africa.

RELATIONS BETWEEN ISRAEL AND SOUTH AFRICA

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its resolutions on relations between Israel and South Africa,

Having considered the special report of the Special Committee against Apartheid on recent developments concerning relations between Israel and South Africa (A/38/22/Add.1),

Taking note of the Declaration of the International Conference on the Alliance between South Africa and Israel (A/38/311-S/15883, annex) and the Declaration of the Second World Conference to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination,⁷

Alarmed at the increasing collaboration by Israel with the racist régime of South Africa, especially in the military and nuclear fields, in defiance of resolutions of the General Assembly and the Security Council,

Considering that such collaboration is a serious hindrance to international action for the eradication of apartheid, an encouragement to the racist régime of South Africa to persist in its criminal policy of apartheid and a hostile act against the oppressed people of South Africa and the entire African continent, and constitutes a threat to international peace and security,

* Incorporating document A/38/L.25/Corr.1 of 5 December 1983.

⁷ See Report of the Second World Conference to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination, Geneva, 1-12 August 1983 (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.83.XIV.4 and corrigendum), chap. II.

1. Again strongly condemns the continuing and increasing collaboration by Israel with the racist régime of South Africa, especially in the military and nuclear fields;

2. Demands that Israel desist from and terminate forthwith all forms of collaboration with South Africa, particularly in the military and nuclear fields, and abide scrupulously by the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly and the Security Council;

3. Calls upon all Governments and organizations to exert their influence to persuade Israel to desist from such collaboration and abide by the resolutions of the General Assembly;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to render, through the Department of Public Information and the Centre against Apartheid of the Secretariat, all possible assistance to the Special Committee in disseminating information relating to the collaboration between Israel and South Africa;

MILITARY AND NUCLEAR COLLABORATION WITH SOUTH AFRICA*The General Assembly,*

Reaffirming its resolutions on military and nuclear collaboration with South Africa, in particular its resolution 37/69 D of 9 December 1982,

Recalling its resolutions concerning the denuclearization of the continent of Africa,

Recalling also Security Council resolutions 418 (1977) of 4 November 1977, 421 (1977) of 9 December 1977 and 473 (1980) of 13 June 1980,

* Incorporating document A/38/L.26/Corr.1 of 5 December 1983.

Recalling that the Security Council determined in resolution 418 (1977), under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, that the acquisition by South Africa of arms and related matériel constituted a threat to the maintenance of international peace and security,

Having considered the reports of the Special Committee against Apartheid (A/38/22), the International Conference on Sanctions against South Africa⁸ and the International Conference on the Alliance between South Africa and Israel,⁹

⁹ A/AC.115/L.595.

Taking into account the Declarations of the Seventh Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries, held at New Delhi from 7 to 12 March 1983 (see A/38/132-S/15675 and Corr.1 and 2, annex), and the resolutions adopted by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity at its nineteenth ordinary session, held at Addis Ababa from 6 to 12 June 1983 (A/38/312, annex),

Gravely concerned that, despite the arms embargo imposed by the Security Council, the racist régime of South Africa has continued to obtain from certain Western States and Israel military equipment and ammunition, as well as technology and know-how to develop its armaments industry and nuclear-weapon capability,

Noting with grave concern that military and nuclear collaboration of certain Western States and Israel with South Africa has enabled the racist régime to develop its arms production and become an arms-exporting country,

Recognizing that the stepped-up arms buildup and nuclear-weapon capability, as well as escalating acts of aggression by the racist régime of South Africa, constitute a grave threat to international peace and security,

Expressing alarm at the growing violation of the arms embargo, as well as the continued nuclear collaboration by the United States of America and some other Western States and Israel with the apartheid régime,

Condemning the actions of those transnational corporations that continue, through their collaboration with the racist régime of South Africa, to enhance its military and nuclear capabilities, as well as the failure of the Governments of the home countries of those corporations to take effective action to prevent such collaboration in accordance with the relevant resolutions of the United Nations,

Considering the urgent need for mandatory decisions by the Security Council, under Chapter VII of the Charter, to prohibit any military and nuclear collaboration with the racist régime of South Africa,

1. Urges the Security Council to take mandatory decisions, under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, to ensure the total cessation of all military and nuclear co-operation with the racist régime of South Africa by Governments, corporations, institutions and individuals;

2. Strongly condemns the actions of certain Western States and Israel which have provided the racist régime of South Africa with an enormous arsenal of military equipment and technology, as well as assistance in its nuclear plans, and which have allowed corporations under their jurisdiction to invest in the armaments industry in South Africa;

3. Also condemns the recent decision of the United States of America approving the request from seven corporations to provide technological and maintenance service to the nuclear installation of racist South Africa;

4. Further condemns any manœuvres to create military pacts or arrangements with the participation of the racist régime of South Africa;

5. Calls upon all Member States:

(a) To monitor effectively and to reinforce the mandatory arms embargo against South Africa;

(b) To prohibit all military and nuclear co-operation with South Africa by Governments, corporations, institutions and individuals;

6. Calls upon all Governments that have not yet done so to terminate all military and nuclear collaboration with South Africa and to take all necessary measures for preventing corporations and enterprises under their jurisdiction from any such collaboration.

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Trust Fund for South Africa (A/38/455), to which is annexed the report of the Committee of Trustees of the United Nations Trust Fund for South Africa,

Gravely concerned at the continued and increased repression against opponents of apartheid and racial discrimination in South Africa and the institution of numerous trials under arbitrary security legislation, as well as continued repression in Namibia,

Reaffirming that increased humanitarian assistance by the international community to those persecuted under repressive and discriminatory legislation in South Africa and Namibia is appropriate and essential,

INVESTMENTS IN SOUTH AFRICA

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/69 H of 9 December 1982,

Taking note of the report of the Special Committee against Apartheid (A/38/22),

Convinced that a cessation of all new foreign investments in, and financial loans to, South Africa would constitute an important step in international action for the elimination of apartheid, as such investments and loans abet and encourage the apartheid policies of that country,

* Document A/38/L.28/Add.1 was issued to add 13 States to the list of sponsors.

Welcoming the actions of those Governments that have taken legislative and other measures towards that end,

Noting with regret that the Security Council has not yet taken steps towards that end, as requested by the General Assembly in its resolutions 31/6 K of 9 November 1976, 32/105 O of 16 December 1977, 33/183 O of 24 January 1979, 34/93 Q of 12 December 1979, 35/206 Q of 16 December 1980, 36/172 O of 17 December 1981 and 37/69 H of 9 December 1982,

Recalling and reaffirming its resolutions 36/172 G of 17 December 1981 and 37/69 J of 9 December 1982,

Recalling further the Paris Declaration on Sanctions against South Africa,⁶

Convinced of the need to ensure the effective implementation of embargoes imposed or policies declared by most oil-producing and oil-exporting countries with regard to the supply of their oil and oil products to South Africa, and to secure a mandatory oil embargo against South Africa under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

Condemning the activities of corporations and other interests engaged in the clandestine supply to South Africa of oil from countries which imposed an oil embargo, of the United Nations, an International Conference on the Question of Palestine on the basis of its resolution ES-7/2 of 29 July 1980,

Recalling also its resolution 37/86 C of 10 December 1982 in which it, inter alia, reiterated the responsibility of the United Nations to strive for a lasting peace in the Middle East through a just solution of the problem of Palestine,

Having considered the report of the International Conference on the Question of Palestine, held at Geneva from 29 August to 7 September 1983,²

Convinced that the Conference, in having adopted by acclamation the Geneva Declaration on Palestine³ and the Programme of Action for the Achievement of Palestinian Rights,¹ has made an important and positive contribution to the attainment of a comprehensive, just and durable peace in the Middle East through a just solution to the problem of Palestine, the core of the Arab-Israeli conflict,

1. Takes note with satisfaction of the report of the International Conference on the Question of Palestine;

2. Endorses the Geneva Declaration on Palestine, adopted by acclamation on 7 September 1983;

3. Welcomes and endorses the call for convening an International Peace Conference on the Middle East in conformity with the following guidelines:

(a) The attainment by the Palestinian people of its legitimate inalienable rights, including the right to return, the right to self-determination and the right to establish its own independent State in Palestine;

(b) The right of the Palestine Liberation Organization, the representative of the Palestinian people, to participate on an equal footing with other parties in all efforts, deliberations and conferences on the Middle East;

(c) The need to put an end to Israel's occupation of the Arab territories, in accordance with the principle of the inadmissibility of the acquisition of territory by force, and, consequently, the need to secure Israeli withdrawal from the territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem;

(d) The need to oppose and reject such Israeli policies and practices in the occupied territories, including Jerusalem, and any de facto situation created by Israel as are contrary to international law and relevant United Nations resolutions, particularly the establishment of settlements, as these policies and practices constitute major obstacles to the achievement of peace in the Middle East;

(e) The need to reaffirm as null and void all legislative and administrative measures and actions taken by Israel, the occupying Power, which have altered or purported to alter the character and status of the Holy City of Jerusalem, including the expropriation of land and property situated thereon, and in particular the so-called "Basic Law" on Jerusalem and the proclamation of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel;

(f) The right of all States in the region to existence within secure and internationally recognized boundaries, with justice and security for all the people, the sine qua non of which is the recognition and attainment of the legitimate, inalienable rights of the Palestinian people as stated in subparagraph (a) above;

4. Invites all parties to the Arab-Israeli conflict, including the Palestine Liberation Organization, as well as the United States of America, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and other concerned States, to participate in the International Peace Conference on the Middle East on an equal footing and with equal rights;

5. Requests the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Security Council, urgently to undertake preparatory measures to convene the Conference;

6. Invites the Security Council to facilitate the organization of the Conference;

[12 December 1983]

The General Assembly,

Having discussed the item entitled "The situation in the Middle East",

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General of 30 September 1983 (A/38/458-S/16015),

Recalling Security Council resolution 497 (1981) of 17 December 1981,

Reaffirming its resolutions 36/226 B of 17 December 1981, ES-9/1 of 5 February 1982 and 37/123 A of 16 December 1982,

Recalling its resolution 3314 (XXIX) of 14 December 1974, in which it defined an act of aggression, inter alia, as "the invasion or attack by the armed forces of a State of the territory of another State, or any military occupation, however temporary, resulting from such invasion or attack, or any annexation by the use of force of the territory of another State or part thereof" and provided that "no consideration of whatever nature, whether political, economic, military or otherwise, may serve as a justification for aggression",

Reaffirming the fundamental principle of the inadmissibility of the acquisition of territory by force,

Reaffirming once more the applicability of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949,¹ to the occupied Palestinian and other Arab territories, including Jerusalem,

Noting that Israel's record, policies and actions establish conclusively that it is not a peace-loving Member State and that it has not carried out its obligations under the Charter of the United Nations,

Noting further that Israel has refused, in violation of Article 25 of the Charter, to accept and carry out the numerous relevant decisions of the Security Council, in particular resolution 497 (1981), thus failing to carry out its obligations under the Charter,

1. Strongly condemns Israel for its failure to comply with Security Council resolution 497 (1981) and General Assembly resolutions 36/226 B, ES-9/1 and 37/123 A;

2. Declares once more that Israel's continued occupation of the Golan Heights and its decision of 14 December 1981 to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration on the occupied Syrian Golan Heights constitute an act of aggression under the provisions of Article 39 of the Charter of the United Nations and General Assembly resolution 3314 (XXIX);

3. Declares once more that Israel's decision to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration on the occupied Syrian Golan Heights is illegal and therefore null and void and has no validity whatsoever;

4. Declares all Israeli policies and practices of, or aimed at, annexation of the occupied Palestinian and other Arab territories, including Jerusalem, to be illegal and in violation of international law and of the relevant United Nations resolutions;

5. Determines once more that all actions taken by Israel to give effect to its decision relating to the occupied Syrian Golan Heights are illegal and invalid and shall not be recognized;

6. Reaffirms its determination that all relevant provisions annexed to the Hague Convention No. IV of 1907, and the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, continue to apply to the Syrian territory occupied by Israel since 1967, and calls upon the parties thereto to respect and ensure respect of their obligations under these instruments in all circumstances;

7. Determines once more that the continued occupation of the Syrian Golan Heights since 1967 and their annexation by Israel on 14 December 1981, following Israel's decision to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration on that territory, constitute a continuing threat to international peace and security;

8. Strongly deplotes the negative vote by a permanent member of the Security Council which prevented the Council from adopting against Israel, under Chapter VII of the Charter, the "appropriate measures" referred to in resolution 497 (1981) unanimously adopted by the Council;

9. Further deplotes any political, economic, financial, military and technological support to Israel that encourages Israel to commit acts of aggression and to consolidate and perpetuate its occupation and annexation of occupied Arab territories;

10. Firmly emphasizes once more its demand that Israel, the occupying Power, rescind forthwith its illegal decision of 14 December 1981 to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration on the Syrian Golan Heights, which resulted in the effective annexation of that territory;

11. Reaffirms once more the overriding necessity of the total and unconditional withdrawal by Israel from all the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem, which is an essential prerequisite for the establishment of a comprehensive and just peace in the Middle East;

12. Determines once more that Israel's record, policies and actions confirm that it is not a peace-loving Member State, that it has persistently violated the principles contained in the Charter and that it has carried out neither its obligations under the Charter nor its commitment under General Assembly resolution 273 (III) of 11 May 1949;

13. Calls once more upon all Member States to apply the following measures:

(a) To refrain from supplying Israel with any weapons and related equipment and to suspend any military assistance that Israel receives from them;

(b) To refrain from acquiring any weapons or military equipment from Israel;

(c) To suspend economic, financial and technological assistance to and co-operation with Israel;

(d) To sever diplomatic, trade and cultural relations with Israel;

14. Reiterates its call to all Member States to cease forthwith, individually and collectively, all dealings with Israel in order totally to isolate it in all fields;

15. Urges non-member States to act in accordance with the provisions of the present resolution;

16. Calls upon the specialized agencies and other international institutions to conform their relations with Israel to the terms of the present resolution;

17. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the implementation of the present resolution.

The General Assembly,

Recalling the relevant provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,²

Recalling also the Constitution of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization³ and all other relevant international instruments concerning the right to cultural identity in all its forms,

1. Condemns those acts of plundering of the Palestinian cultural heritage;

The General Assembly,

Having discussed the item entitled "The situation in the Middle East",

Reaffirming its resolutions 36/226 A and B of 17 December 1981, ES-9/1 of 5 February 1982 and 37/123 F of 16 December 1982,

Recalling Security Council resolutions 425 (1978) of 19 March 1978, 497 (1981) of 17 December 1981, 508 (1982) of 5 June 1982, 509 (1982) of 6 June 1982, 511 (1982) of 18 June 1982, 512 (1982) of 19 June 1982, 513 (1982) of 4 July 1982, 515 (1982) of 29 July 1982, 516 (1982) of 1 August 1982, 517 (1982) of 4 August 1982, 518 (1982) of 12 August 1982, 519 (1982) of 17 August 1982, 520 (1982) of 17 September 1982 and 521 (1982) of 19 September 1982,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General of 12 October 1982,⁴

Welcoming the world-wide support extended to the just cause of the Palestinian people and the other Arab countries in their struggle against Israeli aggression and occupation in order to achieve a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in the Middle East and the full exercise by the Palestinian people of its inalienable national rights, as affirmed by previous resolutions of the General Assembly relating to the question of Palestine and to the situation in the Middle East,

Gravely concerned that the Arab and Palestinian territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem, still remain under Israeli occupation, that the relevant resolutions of the United Nations have not been implemented and that the Palestinian people is still denied the restoration of its land and the exercise of its inalienable national rights in conformity with international law, as reaffirmed by resolutions of the United Nations,

Reaffirming the applicability of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949,¹ to all the occupied Palestinian and other Arab territories, including Jerusalem,

Reiterating all relevant United Nations resolutions which emphasize that the acquisition of territory by force is inadmissible under the Charter of the United Nations and the principles of international law and that Israel must withdraw unconditionally from all the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied by Israel since 1967, including Jerusalem,

Reaffirming further the imperative necessity of establishing a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in the region, based on full respect for the Charter and the principles of international law,

Gravely concerned also at recent Israeli actions involving the escalation and expansion of the conflict in the region, which further violate the principles of international law and endanger international peace and security,

Recognizing the great importance of the time factor in the endeavours to achieve a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in the Middle East,

1. Reaffirms its conviction that the question of Palestine is the core of the conflict in the Middle East and that no comprehensive, just and lasting peace in the region will be achieved without the full exercise by the Palestinian people of its inalienable national rights and the immediate, unconditional and total withdrawal of Israel from all the Palestinian and other occupied Arab territories;

2. Reaffirms further that a just and comprehensive settlement of the situation in the Middle East cannot be achieved without the participation on an equal footing of all the parties to the conflict, including the Palestine Liberation Organization, the representative of the Palestinian people;

3. Declares once more that peace in the Middle East is indivisible and must be based on a comprehensive, just and lasting solution of the Middle East problem, under the auspices and on the basis of relevant resolutions of the United Nations, which ensures the complete and unconditional withdrawal of Israel from the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem, and which enables the Palestinian people, under the leadership of the Palestine Liberation Organization, to exercise its inalienable rights, including the right to return and the right to self-determination, national independence and the establishment of its independent sovereign State in Palestine, in accordance with the resolutions of the United Nations relevant to the question of Palestine, in particular General Assembly resolutions ES-7/2 of 29 July 1980, 36/120 A to F of 10 December 1981, 37/86 A to D of 10 December 1982 and 37/86 E of 20 December 1982;

4. Welcomes the Arab Peace Plan adopted unanimously at the Twelfth Arab Summit Conference, held at Fez, Morocco, on 25 November 1981 and from 6 to 9 September 1982;⁵

5. Condemns Israel's continued occupation of the Palestinian and other Arab territories, including Jerusalem, in violation of the Charter of the United Nations, the principles of international law and the relevant resolutions of the United Nations, and demands the immediate, unconditional and total withdrawal of Israel from all the territories occupied since June 1967;

6. Rejects all agreements and arrangements which violate the recognized rights of the Palestinian people and contradict the principles of just and comprehensive solutions to the Middle East problem to ensure the establishment of a just peace in the area;

7. Deplores Israel's failure to comply with Security Council resolutions 476 (1980) of 30 June 1980 and 478 (1980) of 20 August 1980 and General Assembly resolutions 35/207 of 16 December 1980 and 36/226 A and B of 17 December 1981, determines that Israel's decision to annex Jerusalem and to declare it as its "capital" as well as the measures to alter its physical character, demographic composition, institutional structure and status are null and void and demands that they be rescinded immediately, and calls upon all Member States, the specialized agencies and all other international organizations to abide by the present resolution and all other relevant resolutions, including Assembly resolutions 37/86 A to E;

8. Condemns Israel's aggression, policies and practices against the Palestinian people in the occupied Palestinian territories and outside these territories, particularly Palestinians in Lebanon, including the expropriation and annexation of territory, the establishment of settlements, assassination attempts and other terrorist, aggressive and repressive measures, which are in violation of the Charter and the principles of international law and the relevant international conventions;

9. Strongly condemns the imposition by Israel of its laws, jurisdiction and administration on the occupied Syrian Golan Heights, its annexationist policies and practices, the establishment of settlements, the confiscation of lands, the diversion of water resources and the imposition of Israeli citizenship on Syrian nationals, and declares that all these measures are null and void and constitute a violation of the rules and principles of international law relevant to belligerent occupation, in particular the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949;

10. Considers that the agreements on strategic co-operation between the United States of America and Israel signed on 30 November 1981, together with the recent accords concluded in this context, would encourage Israel to pursue its aggressive and expansionist policies and practices in the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem, would have adverse effects on efforts for the establishment of a comprehensive, just and lasting peace in the Middle East and would threaten the security of the region;

11. Calls upon all States to put an end to the flow to Israel of any military, economic and financial aid, as well as of human resources, aimed at encouraging it to pursue its aggressive policies against the Arab countries and the Palestinian people;

12. Strongly condemns the continuing and increasing collaboration between Israel and the racist régime of South Africa, especially in the economic, military and nuclear fields, which constitutes a hostile act against the African and Arab States and enables Israel to enhance its nuclear capabilities, thus subjecting the States of the region to nuclear blackmail;

13. Reaffirms the call for the convening of an international peace conference on the Middle East—as specified in paragraph 5 of the Geneva Declaration on Palestine,⁶ adopted on 7 September 1983 by the International Conference on the Question of Palestine—under the auspices of the United Nations and on the basis of relevant resolutions of the United Nations;

14. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the Security Council periodically on the development of the situation and to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session a comprehensive report covering the developments in the Middle East in all their aspects.

Islamic Republic of Iran: draft resolution

[Original: English]
[15 December 1983]

The General Assembly,

Having considered the item entitled "The situation in the Middle East",

Drawing attention to the recent developments in the Middle East and the Mediterranean regarding the strengthening of the strategic alliance between Israel and the United States of America,

Expressing its alarm at the fact that this alliance is aimed directly at threatening the inalienable right of all the peoples of the region to independence and to sovereignty over their territories and natural resources,

Convinced that this alliance increases the aggressive potential of Israel against the States of the region and constitutes a serious threat to international peace and security, as demonstrated by the recent United States-Israeli co-ordinated aggression in the region,

1. Considers the strategic alliance between Israel and the United States of America as a factor of escalation of tension and aggravation of the situation in the Middle East that would further threaten international peace and security;

2. Condemns the recent United States-Israeli co-ordinated aggression in the region as well as any attempts at the use of force or threat of use of force by Israel and the United States, as a result of the strategic alliance, against the States of the region and aimed at the destruction of the legitimate struggle of the Palestinian people to regain their inalienable rights in their homeland;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to prepare, with the assistance of competent experts, a comprehensive study regarding the negative short-term and long-term consequences of the strategic alliance between Israel and the United States on the Middle East in general and the Palestinian people in particular;

4. Further requests the Secretary-General to seek the views of Member States on the negative consequences of the alliance and report any replies received to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

5. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session an item entitled "Negative consequences of the strategic alliance between Israel and the United States of America".

[Original: English]
[16 December 1983]

The General Assembly,

Having considered the item entitled "The situation in the Middle East",

Recalling its resolutions 36/226 A of 17 December 1981 and 37/123 F of 20 December 1982, in which it stated, inter alia, its concern over certain factors which exacerbate the situation in the Middle East,

Deeply concerned at the recent developments in the Middle East and the critical situation confronting the region resulting from the continued escalation of Israel's policy of aggression, expansion and annexation in the region.

Expressing grave concern over the continued supply of modern arms and war materials to Israel, augmented by substantial economic aid, without which Israel's policy of aggression and of flouting United Nations resolutions could not be maintained,

Deeply aware that the recent reported agreements following the memorandum of understanding between the United States and Israel will increase Israel's intransigence and its war potential and escalate its expansionist and annexationist policies in the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem, at a time when it is defying United Nations resolutions,

1. Declares, accordingly, the international responsibility of any party or parties that supply Israel with arms or economic aid that augment its war potential;

2. Expresses deep concern at and condemns all steps which may result in augmenting the capability of Israel and contributing to its policy of aggression against countries in the region;

3. Demands that all States, particularly the United States of America, in the light of the said agreements, refrain from taking any step that would support Israel's war capabilities and consequently its aggressive acts, whether in the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied since 1967 or against countries in the region;

4. Calls upon all States to review, in the light of the present resolution, any agreement, whether military, economic or otherwise, concluded with Israel.

ACTION TAKEN BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

At its 102nd plenary meeting, on 19 December 1983, the General Assembly adopted the following draft resolutions by recorded votes: draft resolution A/38/L.43 and Add.1 by 84 to 24, with 31 abstentions; draft resolution A/38/L.44 and Add.1 by 121 to 1, with 20 abstentions; draft resolution A/38/L.45 and Add.1 by 137 to 1, with 3 abstentions; draft resolution A/38/L.46 and Add.1 by 101 to 18, with 20 abstentions; and draft resolution A/38/L.50 by 81 to 27, with 29 abstentions. Explanatory memorandum

1. The Second Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons was held at Geneva from 11 August to 7 September 1980, under the Presidency of Mr. Ismat T. Kittani, Under-Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Iraq.

2. At its final plenary meeting, on 7 September, the Conference proposed to the Depositary Governments that a third conference to review the operation of the Treaty be convened in 1985.¹ The Conference accordingly invited States parties to the Treaty that are members of the United Nations to request the Secretary-General of the United Nations to include the following item in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly: "Implementation of the conclusions of the Second Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and establishment of a preparatory committee for the Third Review Conference".

3. In accordance with this proposal, the Governments named above request the inclusion of this item in the agenda of the forthcoming session of the General Assembly.

DOCUMENT A/38/194

Union of Soviet Socialist Republics: request for the inclusion of a supplementary item in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session

[Original: Russian]

LETTER DATED 19 AUGUST 1983 TO THE
 SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Soviet Union requests the inclusion in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly of an item entitled "Conclusion of a treaty on the prohibition of the use of force in outer space and from space against the Earth".

In proposing this item, the Soviet Union is seeking to avoid the militarization of outer space. Of particular danger in this respect are the plans to create and deploy various space-weapons systems capable of destroying targets both in space and on the Earth.

The Soviet Union considers it most imperative to have a reliable means of counteracting these plans to make space a source of mortal danger to all mankind, by taking urgent and effective measures to prevent the arms race from spreading to outer space, which it has not yet penetrated.

To this end, in 1981 at the United Nations the Soviet Union submitted a proposal concerning the conclusion of a treaty on the prohibition of the stationing of weapons of any kind in outer space. That proposal was approved by the General Assembly. However, for well-known reasons, the drafting of that treaty has not yet actually begun.

But time is running out, and now the Soviet Union is proposing that a further step should be taken forthwith in the form of an agreement on the general prohibition of the use of force both in outer space and from space against the Earth. It is submitting the relevant draft treaty for consideration at the current session.

The most important feature of the draft treaty is the combining of the political-legal obligations of States not to allow the use of force in their relations with each other in space and from space with measures of a material nature aimed at banning the militarization of outer space.

More precisely, the Soviet Union is advocating a complete ban on the testing and deployment in space of any space-based weapon for the destruction of objects on the Earth, in the atmosphere and in outer space.

It is also proposing a radical solution to the question of anti-satellite weapons: the unconditional pledge of States not to create new anti-satellite systems and to destroy any anti-satellite systems that they may already have.

The parties to the treaty would also undertake to refrain in every way from destroying, damaging, disturbing the normal functioning or changing the flight trajectory of space objects of other States.

In addition, the treaty would ban the testing and use for military, including anti-satellite, purposes of manned spacecraft, which should be used solely to solve scientific, technical and economic problems of various kinds.

Action on the series of far-reaching measures proposed by the Soviet Union would be a major and truly tangible contribution towards the attainment of the goal approved earlier by the United Nations, namely, ensuring that space is used exclusively for peaceful purposes.

I request you to consider this letter as an explanatory memorandum under the rules of procedure of the General Assembly and to circulate it, together with the enclosed draft treaty, as an official document of the General Assembly.

(Signed) A. GROMYKO
First Deputy Chairman of the Council of Ministers of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the USSR

ANNEX

Draft treaty on the prohibition of the use of force in outer space and from space against the Earth

The States parties to this Treaty,

Guided by the principle whereby Members of the United Nations shall refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force in any manner inconsistent with the purposes of the United Nations,

Seeking to avert an arms race in outer space and thus to lessen the danger to mankind of the threat of nuclear war,

Desiring to contribute towards attainment of the goal whereby the exploration and utilization of outer space, including the Moon and other celestial bodies, would be carried out exclusively for peaceful purposes,

Have agreed on the following:

Article 1

It is prohibited to resort to the use or threat of force in outer space and the atmosphere and on the Earth through the utilization, as instruments of destruction, of space objects in orbit around the Earth, on celestial bodies or stationed in space in any other manner.

It is further prohibited to resort to the use or threat of force against space objects in orbit around the Earth, on celestial bodies or stationed in outer space in any other manner.

Article 2

In accordance with the provisions of article 1, States parties to this Treaty undertake:

1. Not to test or deploy by placing in orbit around the Earth or stationing on celestial bodies or in any other manner any space-based weapons for the destruction of objects on the Earth, in the atmosphere or in outer space.

2. Not to utilize space objects in orbit around the Earth, on celestial bodies or stationed in outer space in any other manner as means to destroy any targets on the Earth, in the atmosphere or in outer space.

3. Not to destroy, damage, disturb the normal functioning or change the flight trajectory of space objects of other States.

4. Not to test or create new anti-satellite systems and to destroy any anti-satellite systems that they may already have.

5. Not to test or use any manned spacecraft for military, including anti-satellite, purposes.

Article 3

Union of Soviet Socialist Republics: request for the inclusion of an additional item in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session

[Original: Russian]
[5 October 1983]

LETTER DATED 4 OCTOBER 1983 TO THE
SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Soviet Union proposes the inclusion in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly of an important and urgent item entitled "Condemnation of nuclear war".

In putting forward this proposal, the USSR proceeds from the fact that nuclear war, were it to erupt, would be the greatest tragedy for mankind, would result in the loss of billions of human lives and would turn our planet into a lifeless desert. In our days, when huge arsenals of nuclear weapons and their delivery systems have been accumulated in the world, nuclear war cannot be limited. If its flames flare up, they will spare no State and no people. All of this has been unanimously confirmed by the most eminent scientists and by authoritative military and civilian experts.

Therefore there is not and cannot be any justification for any actions that push the world towards the nuclear abyss nor for any doctrines and plans that are based on the admissibility of unleashing a nuclear war and the possibility of winning it. Any designs for unleashing nuclear war are criminal and should receive the most severe universal condemnation.

Today as never before, it is important that States Members of the United Nations should be fully aware of themselves as united nations – united in their determination to act in order to save the present and future generations from nuclear annihilation.

Accordingly, the Soviet Union proposes that the General Assembly, guided by the lofty ideals proclaimed in the Charter of the United Nations, resolutely, unconditionally and for all time condemn nuclear war as the most monstrous of all crimes that can be committed against peoples and as a flagrant violation of the foremost human right – the right to life. It is imperative that the States Members of the United Nations declare to be criminal acts the formulation, propounding, dissemination and propaganda of political and military doctrines and concepts intended to justify the "legitimacy" of the first use of nuclear weapons and in general the "admissibility" of unleashing nuclear war.

The Soviet Union is submitting to the General Assembly a draft declaration on the condemnation of nuclear war. By adopting it, the United Nations would make a major contribution to the creation of an international moral and political climate in which the danger of unleashing nuclear war would be significantly reduced and more favourable prospects would be opened for working out practical agreements on the limitation and radical reduction of nuclear weapons until they are completely eliminated.

I request you, Sir, to regard this letter as an explanatory memorandum of the kind provided for in rule 20 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly and to circulate it, together with the annexed draft declaration, as an official document of the General Assembly.

Draft declaration

CONDEMNATION OF NUCLEAR WAR

The General Assembly,

Expressing its alarm at the growing threat of nuclear war, which can lead to the destruction of civilization on earth,

Drawing the attention of all States and peoples to the conclusions arrived at by the most eminent scientists and military and civilian experts to the effect that it is impossible to limit the deadly consequences of nuclear war if it is ever begun and that in a nuclear war there can be no victors,

Convinced that the prevention of nuclear catastrophe is the most profound aspiration of billions of people on earth,

1. Resolutely, unconditionally and for all time condemns nuclear war as being contrary to human conscience and reason, as the most monstrous crime against peoples and as a violation of the foremost human right – the right to life;

2. Declares to be criminal acts the formulation, propounding, dissemination and propaganda of political and military doctrines and concepts intended to justify the "legitimacy" of the first use of nuclear weapons and in general the "admissibility" of unleashing nuclear war;

3. Calls upon all States to unite and redouble their efforts aimed at removing the threat of nuclear war, halting the nuclear-arms race and reducing nuclear weapons until they are completely eliminated.

Union of Soviet Socialist Republics: request for the inclusion of an additional item in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session

[Original: Russian]
[5 October 1983]

LETTER DATED 4 OCTOBER 1983 TO THE
SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Soviet Union proposes the inclusion in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly of an important and urgent item entitled "Nuclear-weapon freeze".

In putting forward this proposal, the Soviet Union proceeds from the fact that one of the most pressing tasks at the present time is to put an end to the buildup of nuclear weapons and to halt another spiral of the nuclear-arms race into which the world is being drawn at an ever faster pace. The fulfilment of this task would represent a major contribution to reducing the risk of nuclear war which threatens the peoples of the world.

In the present ever more complex international situation, a nuclear-weapon freeze by all nuclear-weapon States, both in quantitative and qualitative terms, would constitute an extremely important measure in curbing the arms race.

The proposed measure would include cessation of the buildup of all components of nuclear arsenals, including all kinds of nuclear-weapon delivery systems and nuclear weapons, renunciation of the deployment of nuclear weapons of new kinds and types, a moratorium on all tests of nuclear weapons and on tests of new kinds and types of their delivery systems, and cessation of the production of fissionable materials for the purpose of creating nuclear weapons.

It is quite evident that a nuclear freeze would be most effective if it were carried out simultaneously by all the nuclear Powers. However, the Soviet Union considers it possible for the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America to be the first to implement it, on a bilateral basis, as an example to the other nuclear Powers.

A freeze on all components of nuclear arsenals would greatly enhance confidence in relations among nuclear-weapon States and would make it possible to bring about a decisive turn towards improving the overall climate in the world. It would create a more favourable atmosphere for achieving mutually acceptable agreements at the ongoing negotiations on the limitation and reduction of nuclear weapons in accordance with the principle of equality and equal security.

The Soviet Union views a nuclear-weapon freeze as an important and truly tangible measure the adoption of which would substantially contribute to reducing and, ultimately, eliminating nuclear weapons completely.

I request you, Sir, to regard this letter as the explanatory memorandum required under rule 20 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly and to have it distributed, together with the attached draft resolution, as an official document of the General Assembly.

Draft resolution

NUCLEAR-WEAPON FREEZE

The General Assembly,

Expressing its alarm that the continuing nuclear-arms race seriously increases the risk of the outbreak of a nuclear war,

Taking into account the great responsibility of nuclear States for the preservation of universal peace and the prevention of nuclear war,

Recalling its resolution 37/100 B of 13 December 1982, in which it expressed the firm conviction that the existing conditions were most propitious for a nuclear-weapon freeze,

1. Urges all nuclear-weapon States to proceed to freeze, under appropriate verification, all nuclear weapons in their possession both in quantitative and qualitative terms, namely:

(a) To cease the buildup of all components of nuclear arsenals, including all kinds of nuclear-weapon delivery systems and all kinds of nuclear weapons;

(b) Not to deploy nuclear weapons of new kinds and types;

(c) To establish a moratorium on all tests of nuclear weapons and on tests of new kinds and types of their delivery systems;

(d) To stop the production of fissionable materials for the purpose of creating nuclear weapons;

2. Calls upon the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America, which possess the largest nuclear arsenals, to freeze, in the first place and simultaneously, their nuclear weapons on a bilateral basis by way of example to the other nuclear States;

3. Believes that all the other nuclear-weapon States should subsequently and as soon as possible freeze their nuclear weapons;

4. Stresses the urgent need to intensify efforts aimed at the speedy achievement of agreements on substantial limitations and radical reductions of nuclear weapons with a view to their complete elimination as the ultimate goal.

7. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

IMPLEMENTATION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION 37/71 CONCERNING THE SIGNATURE AND RATIFICATION OF ADDITIONAL PROTOCOL I OF THE TREATY FOR THE PROHIBITION OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS IN LATIN AMERICA (TREATY OF TLATELOLCO)

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 2286 (XXII) of 5 December 1967, 3262 (XXIX) of 9 December 1974, 3473 (XXX) of 11 December 1975, 32/76 of 12 December 1977, S-10/2 of 30 June 1978, 33/58 of 14 December 1978, 34/71 of 11 December 1979, 35/143 of 12 December 1980, 36/83 of 9 December 1981 and 37/71 of 9 December 1982 concerning the signature and ratification of Additional Protocol I of the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America (Treaty of Tlatelolco),³

Taking into account that within the zone of application of that Treaty, to which twenty-three sovereign States are already parties, there are some territories which, in spite of not being sovereign political entities, are nevertheless in a position to receive the benefits deriving from the Treaty through its Additional Protocol I, to which the States that de jure or de facto are internationally responsible for those territories may become parties,

Recalling that the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Kingdom of the Netherlands and the United States of America became parties to Additional Protocol I in 1969, 1971 and 1981, respectively,

1. Deplores that the signature of Additional Protocol I by France, which took place on 2 March 1979, has not yet been followed by the corresponding ratification, notwithstanding the time already elapsed and the pressing invitations which the General Assembly has addressed to it;

2. Once more urges France not to delay any further such ratification, which has been requested so many times;

3. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session an item entitled "Implementation of General Assembly resolution 38/61 concerning the signature and ratification of Additional Protocol I of the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America (Treaty of Tlatelolco)".

Recommendation of the First Committee

7. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

CESSATION OF ALL TEST EXPLOSIONS OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS

The General Assembly,

Bearing in mind that the complete cessation of nuclear-weapon tests, which has been examined for more than twenty-five years and on which the General Assembly has adopted more than forty resolutions, is a basic objective of the United Nations in the sphere of disarmament, to the attainment of which it has repeatedly assigned the highest priority,

Stressing that on seven different occasions it has condemned such tests in the strongest terms and that, since 1974, it has stated its conviction that the continuance of nuclear-weapon testing will intensify the arms race, thus increasing the danger of nuclear war,

Reiterating the assertion made in several previous resolutions that, whatever may be the differences on the question of verification, there is no valid reason for delaying the conclusion of an agreement on a comprehensive test ban,

Recalling that since 1972 the Secretary-General has declared that all the technical and scientific aspects of the problem have been so fully explored that only a political decision is now necessary in order to achieve final agreement, that when the existing means of verification are taken into account it is difficult to understand further delay in achieving agreement on an underground-test ban, and that the potential risks of continuing underground nuclear-weapon tests would far outweigh any possible risks from ending such tests,

Taking into account that the three nuclear-weapon States which act as depositaries of the Treaty Banning Nuclear Weapon Tests in the Atmosphere, in Outer Space and under Water⁴ undertook in that Treaty, twenty years ago to seek the achievement of the discontinuance of all test explosions of nuclear weapons for all time and that such an undertaking was explicitly reiterated in 1968 in the preamble to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons,⁵ article VI of which further embodies their solemn and legally binding commitment to take effective measures relating to cessation of the nuclear-arms race at an early date and to nuclear disarmament,

⁵ Resolution 2372 (XXII), annex.

Bearing in mind the growing negative influence that the total lack of compliance with those undertakings had on both the first and the second Review Conferences of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, held at Geneva from 5 to 30 May 1975 and from 11 August to 7 September 1980 respectively,

Convinced that the maintenance of such a situation would not augur well for the third review conference of that Treaty, which is to take place in 1985, and even for the future of the Treaty itself,

Deploring that, due to the persistent obstruction of a very small number of its members, the Committee on Disarmament—which henceforth will be designated as the Conference on Disarmament⁶—has been unable to initiate multilateral negotiation of a treaty for the prohibition of all nuclear-weapon tests, as it was specifically requested to do in General Assembly resolution 37/72 of 9 December 1982,

Noting that the Conference on Disarmament has already received various concrete proposals on this question, including a complete draft for the eventual text of the treaty as a whole,

1. Reiterates once again its grave concern that nuclear-weapon testing continues unabated, against the wishes of the overwhelming majority of Member States;

2. Reaffirms its conviction that a treaty to achieve the prohibition of all nuclear-test explosions by all States for all time is a matter of the highest priority;

3. Reaffirms also its conviction that such a treaty would constitute a contribution of the utmost importance to the cessation of the arms race and an indispensable element for the success of the Treaty on the Non-

⁶ From 7 February 1984, the date of commencement of its annual session, the Committee on Disarmament is to be known as the "Conference on Disarmament" (see A/38/27 and Corr.1, para. 21).

Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons since it is only through the fulfilment of the obligations under the Treaty that its three depositary Powers may expect all other parties to comply likewise with their respective obligations;

4. Urges once more the three depositary Powers of the Treaty Banning Nuclear Weapon Tests in the Atmosphere, in Outer Space and under Water and of the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons to abide strictly by their undertakings to seek to achieve the discontinuance of all test explosions of nuclear weapons for all time and to continue negotiations to this end;

5. Urges also all States that have not yet done so to adhere to the Treaty Banning Nuclear Weapon Tests in the Atmosphere, in Outer Space and under Water and, meanwhile, to refrain from testing in the environments covered by that Treaty;

6. Reiterates its appeal to all States members of the Conference on Disarmament to initiate immediately the multilateral negotiation of a treaty for the prohibition of all nuclear-weapon tests and to exert their best endeavours in order that the Conference may transmit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session the complete draft of such a treaty;

7. Calls upon the States depositaries of the Treaty Banning Nuclear Weapon Tests in the Atmosphere, in Outer Space and under Water and the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, by virtue of their special responsibilities under those two Treaties and as a provisional measure, to bring to a halt without delay all nuclear-test explosions, either through a trilaterally agreed moratorium or through three unilateral moratoria;

8. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Cessation of all test explosions of nuclear weapons".

Recommendation of the First Committee

7. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

URGENT NEED FOR A COMPREHENSIVE NUCLEAR-TEST-BAN TREATY

The General Assembly,

Convinced of the urgent need for a comprehensive nuclear-test-ban treaty capable of attracting the widest possible international support and adherence,

Reaffirming its conviction that an end to nuclear-weapon testing by all States in all environments would be a major step towards ending the qualitative improvement, development and proliferation of nuclear weapons, a means of relieving the deep apprehension concerning the harmful consequences of radioactive contamination for the health of present and future generations and a measure of the utmost importance in bringing the nuclear-arms race to an end,

Recalling that the parties to the Treaty Banning Nuclear Weapon Tests in the Atmosphere, in Outer Space and under Water⁴ undertook not to carry out any nuclear-weapon-test explosion, or any other nuclear explosion, in the environments covered by that Treaty, and that in that Treaty and in the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons⁵ the parties expressed their determination to continue negotiations to achieve the discontinuance of all test explosions of nuclear weapons for all time,

Recalling also its previous resolutions on this subject,

Taking into account that part of the report of the Committee on Disarmament concerning consideration of the item entitled "Nuclear-test ban" during its session in 1983 (A/38/27 and Corr.1, sect. III A),

Noting, in particular, that Sweden submitted to the Committee on Disarmament a draft treaty banning any nuclear-weapon-test explosion in any environment⁷ which took into account both the report on the trilateral negotiations submitted to the Committee in 1980⁸ and the basic provisions of a treaty on the complete and general prohibition of nuclear-weapon tests proposed by the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in 1982,⁹

Recognizing the important role of the Conference on Disarmament⁶ in the negotiation of a comprehensive nuclear-test-ban treaty,

Recognizing the importance to such a treaty of the work assigned by the Committee on Disarmament to the Ad Hoc Group of Scientific Experts to Consider International Co-operative Measures to Detect and Identify Seismic Events on a global network of stations for the exchange of seismological data,

Recalling paragraph 31 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁰ relating to verification of disarmament and arms control agreements, which stated that the form and modalities of the verification to be provided for in any specific agreement depend on, and should be determined by, the purposes, scope and nature of the agreement,

1. Reiterates its profound concern that, despite the express wishes of the majority of Member States, nuclear-weapon testing continues;

2. Reaffirms its conviction that a treaty to achieve the prohibition of all nuclear-test explosions by all States for all time is a matter of greatest importance;

3. Expresses the conviction that such a treaty would constitute a vital element for the success of efforts to halt and reverse the nuclear-arms race and the qualitative improvement of nuclear weapons, and to prevent the expansion of existing nuclear arsenals and the spread of nuclear weapons to additional countries;

4. Notes that the Committee on Disarmament, in the exercise of its responsibilities as the multilateral disarmament negotiating forum, re-established at its session in 1983 an Ad Hoc Working Group under item 1 of its agenda, entitled "Nuclear-test ban", and that the Ad Hoc Working Group considered the issues under its mandate;

5. Also notes that the Committee on Disarmament agreed that the mandate of the Ad Hoc Working Group on a Nuclear-Test Ban may thereafter be revised as decided by the Committee, which will consider this question with appropriate urgency (A/38/27 and Corr.1, para. 10), and that the Committee discussed the matter;

⁸ See CD/139/Appendix II/Vol. II, document CD/130.

¹⁰ Resolution S-10/2.

6. Requests the Conference on Disarmament:

(a) To resume its examination of issues relating to a comprehensive test ban, with a view to the negotiation of a treaty on the subject and, in accordance with that part of the report of the Committee concerning this item, to take up the question of a revised mandate for the Ad Hoc Working Group during its 1984 session;

(b) To determine, in the context of its negotiations on such a treaty, the institutional and administrative arrangements necessary for establishing, testing and operating an international seismic monitoring network as part of an effective verification system;

(c) To initiate investigation of other international measures to improve verification arrangements under such a treaty, including an international network to monitor atmospheric radioactivity;

7. Urges all members of the Conference on Disarmament, in particular the nuclear-weapon States, to cooperate with the Conference in fulfilling these tasks;

8. Calls upon the Conference on Disarmament to report on progress to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

9. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Urgent need for a comprehensive nuclear-test-ban treaty".

Draft resolution A/C.1/38/L.68 and Rev.1 and 2

10. On 12 November, Sierra Leone, on behalf of the group of African States, submitted a draft resolution entitled "Nuclear capability of South Africa" (A/C.1/38/L.68). The draft resolution was introduced by the representative of Sierra Leone at the 33rd meeting, on 17 November, and read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling its resolutions 34/76 B of 11 December 1979, 35/146 A of 12 December 1980, 36/86 A of 9 December 1981 and 37/74 B of 9 December 1982,

"Bearing in mind the Declaration on the Denuclearization of Africa¹¹ adopted by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity in July 1964,

"Recalling that, in the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, it noted that the accumulation of armaments and the acquisition of armaments technology by racist régimes, as well as their possible acquisition of nuclear weapons, presented a challenging and increasingly dangerous obstacle to a world community faced with the urgent need to disarm,¹³

"Taking note of resolution GC(XXVII)/700 on South Africa's nuclear capabilities, adopted by the General Conference of the International Atomic Energy Agency during its twenty-seventh regular session,

"Recalling that, in its resolution 33/63 of 14 December 1978, it vigorously condemned any overt or covert attempt by South Africa to introduce nuclear weapons into the continent of Africa and demanded that South Africa refrain forthwith from conducting any nuclear explosion in the continent of Africa or elsewhere,

*"Recalling its resolution 35/146 A of 12 December 1980 by which it, inter alia, expressed its appreciation to the Secretary-General for his report on South Africa's plan and capability in the nuclear field¹² and expressed its deep alarm that the report of the Secretary-General had established South Africa's capability to manufacture nuclear weapons,*

"Noting with regret that, despite international concern over the nuclear capability of South Africa and the recognized need to deal concretely and expeditiously with it, the Disarmament Commission failed to conclude consideration of this important item on its agenda with specific recommendations during its 1983 session (A/38/42, para. 24),

"Gravely concerned that South Africa, in flagrant violation of the principles of international law and the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations, has not only continued but has in fact intensified its military attacks and other acts of aggression and subversion against independent States of southern Africa, in particular Lesotho, Mozambique, and

Angola, part of whose territory still remains occupied by South African forces,

"Strongly condemning the military occupation by South African troops of parts of the territory of Angola in violation of its national sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity,

"Expressing its grave disappointment that, despite repeated appeals by the international community, certain Western States and Israel have continued to collaborate with the racist régime of South Africa in the military and nuclear fields and that some of the same Western States have, by a ready recourse to the use of the veto, consistently frustrated every effort in the Security Council to deal decisively with the question of South Africa,

"1. Condemns the massive build-up of South Africa's military machine, including its frenzied acquisition of nuclear-weapon capability for repressive and aggressive purposes and as an instrument of blackmail;

"2. Expresses its full support for the Governments of the independent States of southern Africa in their efforts to guarantee and safeguard their territorial integrity and national sovereignty;

"3. Reaffirms that the racist régime's acquisition of nuclear-weapon capability constitutes a very grave danger to international peace and security and, in particular, jeopardizes the security of African States and increases the danger of the proliferation of nuclear weapons;

*"4. Requests the Disarmament Commission to consider substantively and as a matter of priority South Africa's nuclear capability during its session in 1984 taking into account, inter alia, the findings of the Group of Experts appointed by the Secretary-General,¹² with a view to adopting concrete recommendations on the question;*

"5. Requests the Security Council, for the purposes of disarmament and to fulfil its obligations and responsibilities for the maintenance of international peace and security, to take enforcement measures to prevent any racist régimes from acquiring arms or arms technology;

"6. Further requests the Security Council to conclude expeditiously its consideration of the recommendations of its Committee established by resolution 421 (1977) concerning the question of South Africa¹⁴ with a view to blocking the existing loopholes in the arms embargo so as to render it more effective and prohibiting, in particular, all forms of co-operation and collaboration with the racist régime of South Africa in the nuclear field;

*"7. Condemns all forms of nuclear collaboration by any State, corporation, institution or individual with the racist régime of South Africa since such collaboration enables it to frustrate, inter alia, the objective of the Declaration on the Denuclearization of Africa which seeks to keep Africa free from nuclear weapons;*

"8. Condemns the recent decision of the Government of a major Power, in pursuit of its policy of 'constructive engagement', to grant licences to several corporations in its territory to provide technical and maintenance services for a nuclear installation in South Africa;

¹³ Resolution S-10/2, para. 12.

¹⁴ See Official Records of the Security Council, Thirty-fifth Year, Supplement for July, August and September 1980, document S/14179.

"9. Calls upon all States, corporations, institutions and individuals to terminate forthwith all military and nuclear collaboration with the racist régime, including the provision to it of such materials as computers, electronic equipment and related technology;

"10. Demands once again that South Africa submit forthwith all its nuclear installations and facilities to inspection by the International Atomic Energy Agency;

"11. Requests the Secretary-General to follow very closely South Africa's evolution in the nuclear field and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session."

11. On 21 November, Sierra Leone, on behalf of the sponsors, submitted a revised draft resolution (A/C.1/38/L.68/Rev.1) in which the ninth preambular paragraph was revised to read as follows:

"Strongly condemning the military occupation by South African troops of parts of the territory of Angola in violation of its national sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity, and urging the immediate and unconditional withdrawal of South African troops from Angolan soil,".

12. On 23 November, Sierra Leone, on behalf of the sponsors, submitted another revised version of the draft resolution (A/C.1/38/L.68/Rev.2) in which:

(a) The second preambular paragraph was revised to read:

"Bearing in mind the Declaration on the Denuclearization of Africa adopted by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity at its first ordinary session, held at Cairo from 17 to 21 July 1964,";

(b) The fourth preambular paragraph was revised to read:

"Taking note of resolution GC(XXVII)/RES 408 . . .".

13. At the 41st meeting, on 25 November, Sierra Leone, on behalf of the sponsors, orally revised operative paragraph 8 of the draft resolution to read:

"8. Condemns, in particular, recent decisions by some Member States to grant licences to several corporations in their territories to provide equipment and technical and maintenance services for nuclear installations in South Africa,".

14. At its 41st meeting, on 25 November, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.1/38/L.68/Rev.2, as orally revised, by a recorded vote of 112 to 4, with 11 abstentions (for the text, see para. 15 below, draft resolution B). The voting was as follows:

Nuclear capability of South Africa

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 34/76 B of 11 December 1979, 35/146 A of 12 December 1980, 36/86 A of 9 December 1981 and 37/74 B of 9 December 1982,

Bearing in mind the Declaration on the Denuclearization of Africa¹¹ adopted by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity at its first ordinary session, held at Cairo from 17 to 21 July 1964,

Recalling that, in the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, it noted that the accumulation of armaments and the acquisition of armaments technology by racist régimes, as well as their possible acquisition of nuclear weapons, presented a challenging and increasingly dangerous obstacle to a world community faced with the urgent need to disarm,¹³

Taking note of resolution GC(XXVII)/RES/408 on South Africa's nuclear capabilities, adopted on 14 October 1983 by the General Conference of the International Atomic Energy Agency during its twenty-seventh regular session,

Recalling that, in its resolution 33/63 of 14 December 1978, it vigorously condemned any overt or covert attempt by South Africa to introduce nuclear weapons into the continent of Africa and demanded that South Africa refrain forthwith from conducting any nuclear explosion in the continent of Africa or elsewhere,

Recalling its resolution 35/146 A of 12 December 1980, by which it, inter alia, expressed its appreciation to the Secretary-General for his report on South Africa's plan and capability in the nuclear field¹² and expressed its deep alarm that the report of the Secretary-General had established South Africa's capability to manufacture nuclear weapons,

Noting with regret that, despite international concern over the nuclear capability of South Africa and the recognized need to deal concretely and expeditiously with it, the Disarmament Commission failed to conclude consideration of this important item on its agenda with specific recommendations during its 1983 session (A/38/42, para. 24),

Gravely concerned that South Africa, in flagrant violation of the principles of international law and the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations, has not only continued but has in fact intensified its military attacks and other acts of aggression and subversion against independent States of southern Africa, in particular Lesotho, Mozambique and Angola, part of whose territory still remains occupied by South African forces,

Strongly condemning the military occupation by South African troops of parts of the territory of Angola in violation of its national sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity, and urging the immediate and unconditional withdrawal of South African troops from Angolan soil,

Expressing its grave disappointment that, despite repeated appeals by the international community, certain Western States and Israel have continued to collaborate with the racist régime of South Africa in the military and nuclear fields and that some of the same Western States have, by a ready recourse to the use of the veto, consistently frustrated every effort in the Security Council to deal decisively with the question of South Africa,

1. Condemns the massive build-up of South Africa's military machine, including its frenzied acquisition of nuclear-weapon capability for repressive and aggressive purposes and as an instrument of blackmail;

2. Expresses its full support for the Governments of the independent States of southern Africa in their efforts to guarantee and safeguard their territorial integrity and national sovereignty;

3. Reaffirms that the racist régime's acquisition of nuclear-weapon capability constitutes a very grave danger to international peace and security and, in particular, jeopardizes the security of African States and increases the danger of the proliferation of nuclear weapons;

4. Requests the Disarmament Commission to consider substantively and as a matter of priority South

Africa's nuclear capability during its session in 1984, taking into account, inter alia, the findings contained in the report of the Secretary-General on South Africa's plan and capability in the nuclear field,¹² with a view to adopting concrete recommendations on the question;

5. Requests the Security Council, for the purposes of disarmament and to fulfil its obligations and responsibilities for the maintenance of international peace and security, to take enforcement measures to prevent any racist régimes from acquiring arms or arms technology;

6. Further requests the Security Council to conclude expeditiously its consideration of the recommendations of its Committee established by resolution 421 (1977) concerning the question of South Africa¹⁴ with a view to blocking the existing loopholes in the arms embargo so as to render it more effective and prohibiting, in particular, all forms of co-operation and collaboration with the racist régime of South Africa in the nuclear field;

7. Condemns all forms of nuclear collaboration by any State, corporation, institution or individual with the racist régime of South Africa since such collaboration enables it to frustrate, inter alia, the objective of the Declaration on the Denuclearization of Africa which seeks to keep Africa free from nuclear weapons;

8. Condemns, in particular, recent decisions by some Member States to grant licences to several corporations in their territories to provide equipment and technical and maintenance services for nuclear installations in South Africa;

9. Calls upon all States, corporations, institutions and individuals to terminate forthwith all military and nuclear collaboration with the racist régime, including the provision to it of such materials as computers, electronic equipment and related technology;

10. Demands once again that South Africa submit forthwith all its nuclear installations and facilities to inspection by the International Atomic Energy Agency;

11. Requests the Secretary-General to follow very closely South Africa's evolution in the nuclear field and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

ESTABLISHMENT OF A NUCLEAR-WEAPON-FREE ZONE IN THE REGION OF THE MIDDLE EAST

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3263 (XXIX) of 9 December 1974, 3474 (XXX) of 11 December 1975, 31/71 of 10 December 1976, 32/82 of 12 December 1977, 33/64 of 14 December 1978, 34/77 of 11 December 1979, 35/147 of 12 December 1980, 36/87 of 9 December 1981 and 37/75 of 9 December 1982 on the establishment of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the region of the Middle East,

Recalling also the recommendations for the establishment of such a zone in the Middle East consistent with paragraphs 60 to 63, in particular paragraph 63 (d), of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁰

Emphasizing the basic provisions of the above-mentioned resolutions, which call upon all parties directly concerned to consider taking the practical and urgent steps required for the implementation of the proposal to establish a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the region of the Middle East and, pending and during the establishment of such a zone, to declare solemnly that they will refrain, on a reciprocal basis, from producing, acquiring or in any other way possessing nuclear weapons and nuclear explosive devices and from permitting the stationing of nuclear weapons on their territory by any third party, to agree to place all their nuclear facilities under International Atomic Energy Agency safeguards and to declare their support for the establishment of the zone and deposit such declarations with the Security Council for consideration, as appropriate,

Reaffirming the inalienable right of all States to acquire and develop nuclear energy for peaceful purposes,

Emphasizing further the need for appropriate measures on the question of the prohibition of military attacks on nuclear facilities,

Bearing in mind the consensus reached by the General Assembly at its thirty-fifth session that the establishment of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the region of the Middle East would greatly enhance international peace and security,

Desirous to build on that consensus so that substantial progress can be made towards establishing a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the region of the Middle East,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/197),

1. Urges all parties directly concerned to consider seriously taking the practical and urgent steps required for the implementation of the proposal to establish a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the region of the Middle East in accordance with the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly and, as a means of promoting this objective, invites the States concerned to adhere to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons;⁵

2. Calls upon all States of the region that have not done so, pending the establishment of the zone, to agree to place all their nuclear activities under International Atomic Energy Agency safeguards;

ESTABLISHMENT OF A NUCLEAR-WEAPON-FREE ZONE IN SOUTH ASIA

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3265 B (XXIX) of 9 December 1974, 3476 B (XXX) of 11 December 1975, 31/73 of 10 December 1976, 32/83 of 12 December 1977, 33/65 of 14 December 1978, 34/78 of 11 December 1979, 35/148 of 12 December 1980, 36/88 of 9 December 1981 and 37/76 of 9 December 1982 concerning the establishment of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in South Asia,

Reiterating its conviction that the establishment of nuclear-weapon-free zones in various regions of the world is one of the measures which can contribute most effectively to the objectives of non-proliferation of nuclear weapons and general and complete disarmament,

Believing that the establishment of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in South Asia, as in other regions, will strengthen the security of the States of the region against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Noting the declarations issued at the highest level by Governments of South Asian States reaffirming their undertaking not to acquire or manufacture nuclear weapons and to devote their nuclear programmes exclusively to the economic and social advancement of their peoples,

Recalling that in the above-mentioned resolutions it called upon the States of the South Asian region, and such other neighbouring non-nuclear-weapon States as might be interested, to make all possible efforts to establish a nuclear-weapon-free zone in South Asia and to refrain, in the meantime, from any action contrary to this objective,

Further recalling that, in its resolutions 3265 B (XXIX), 31/73 and 32/83, it requested the Secretary-General to convene a meeting for the purpose of the consultations mentioned therein and to render such assistance as might be required to promote the efforts for the establishment of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in South Asia,

2. Urges once again the States of South Asia, and such other neighbouring non-nuclear-weapon States as may be interested, to continue to make all possible efforts to establish a nuclear-weapon-free zone in South Asia and to refrain, in the meantime, from any action contrary to this objective;

Recommendation of the First Committee

7. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

PROHIBITION OF THE DEVELOPMENT AND MANUFACTURE OF NEW TYPES OF WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION AND NEW SYSTEMS OF SUCH WEAPONS

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3479 (XXX) of 11 December 1975, 31/74 of 10 December 1976, 32/84 A of 12 December 1977, 33/66 B of 14 December 1978, 34/79 of 11 December 1979, 35/149 of 12 December 1980, 36/89 of 9 December 1981 and 37/77 A of 9 December 1982 concerning the prohibition of new types of weapons of mass destruction,

Bearing in mind the provisions of paragraph 39 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁹ according to which qualitative and quantitative disarmament measures are both important for halting the arms race and efforts to that end must include negotiations on the limitation and cessation of the qualitative improvement of armaments, especially weapons of mass destruction, and the development of new means of warfare,

Recalling the decision contained in paragraph 77 of the Final Document to the effect that, in order to help prevent a qualitative arms race and so that scientific and technological achievements might ultimately be used solely for peaceful purposes, effective measures should be taken to prevent the emergence of new types of weapons of mass destruction based on new scientific principles and achievements, and that efforts aimed at the prohibition of such new types and new systems of weapons of mass destruction should be appropriately pursued,

Expressing once again its firm belief, in the light of the decisions adopted at the tenth special session, in the importance of concluding an agreement or agreements to prevent the use of scientific and technological progress for the development of new types of weapons of mass destruction and new systems of such weapons,

Noting that in the course of its session in 1983 the Committee on Disarmament considered the item entitled "New types of weapons of mass destruction and new systems of such weapons; radiological weapons",

Convinced that all ways and means should be utilized to prevent the development and manufacture of new types of weapons of mass destruction and new systems of such weapons,

Taking into consideration the part of the report of the Committee on Disarmament relating to this question (A/38/27 and Corr.1, sect.III.E),

1. Requests the Conference on Disarmament⁶ in the light of its existing priorities, to intensify negotiations, with the assistance of qualified governmental experts, with a view to preparing a draft comprehensive agreement on the prohibition of the development and manufacture of new types of weapons of mass destruction and new systems of such weapons, and to draft possible agreements on particular types of such weapons;

3. Calls upon the States permanent members of the Security Council as well as upon other militarily significant States to make declarations, identical in substance, concerning the refusal to create new types of weapons of mass destruction and new systems of such weapons, as a first step towards the conclusion of a comprehensive agreement on this subject, bearing in mind that such declarations would be approved thereafter by a decision of the Security Council;

4. Calls again upon all States to undertake efforts to ensure that ultimately scientific and technological achievements may be used solely for peaceful purposes;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit to the Conference on Disarmament all documents relating to the consideration of this item by the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session;

6. Requests the Conference on Disarmament to submit a report on the results achieved to the General Assembly for consideration at its thirty-ninth session;

7. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Prohibition of the development and manufacture of new types of weapons of mass destruction and new systems of such weapons: report of the Conference on Disarmament".

CONSIDERATION OF DRAFT RESOLUTIONS

Draft resolution A/C.1/38/L.3 and Rev.1 and Rev.2

5. On 21 October 1983, Romania submitted a draft resolution entitled “Bilateral nuclear-arms negotiations” (A/C.1/38/L.3). The draft resolution read as follows:

“The General Assembly,

“Profoundly alarmed that the bilateral negotiations between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America commenced at Geneva on 30 November 1981 have not so far reached results to meet the expectations of peoples,

“Deeply concerned that the failure of those negotiations could lead to a significant new escalation in the spiralling arms competition in Europe and in the world, gravely endangering thereby the international peace and security,

“Firmly convinced that an early agreement in those negotiations in accordance with the principle of undiminished security at the lowest possible level of armament and military forces, would have crucial importance for the strengthening of international peace and security and for the reduction of the risk of nuclear war,

“Convinced also that through negotiations, pursued in a spirit of flexibility and responsibility for the security interests of all peoples, it is still possible to reach an agreement,

“1. Urges the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Government of the United States of America to continue their bilateral negotiations in Geneva as long as necessary in order to achieve positive results in accordance with the security interests of all States;

“2. Calls upon the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Government of the United States of America to exercise self-restraint and refrain from actions that might impede the attainment of the final objective of the negotiations;

“3. Invites the Governments of the two States mentioned above to take the unilateral measures they deem appropriate with a view to increasing the mutual trust and to prevent a further escalation of the arms race in Europe;

“4. Calls upon all European States as well as all other interested States to do their utmost in order to encourage the process of negotiation and promote its successful conclusion;

“5. Requests the Secretary-General to make the necessary arrangements to transmit the content of the present appeal to the Governments of all States concerned.”

6. On 9 November, Romania submitted a revised draft resolution (A/C.1/38/L.3/Rev.1) which contained changes in the preambular and operative parts and read as follows:

“The General Assembly,

“Deeply concerned about the possibility of the deployment of new medium-range missiles in Europe and about the development of those already in existence on that continent,

“Profoundly alarmed that the bilateral negotiations between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America commenced at Geneva on 30 November 1981 have not so far reached results to meet the expectations of peoples,

“Deeply concerned that the failure of those negotiations could lead to a significant new escalation in the spiralling arms competition in Europe and in the world, gravely endangering thereby international peace and security,

“Firmly convinced that an early successful conclusion of those negotiations by reaching an appropriate agreement, in accordance with the principle of undiminished security at the lowest possible level of armament and military forces, would have crucial importance for the strengthening of international peace and security and for the reduction of the risk of nuclear war,

“Convinced also that through negotiations, pursued in a spirit of flexibility and responsibility for the security interests of all peoples, it is still possible to reach an agreement,

“1. Urges the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Government of the United States of America to make every effort to reach an agreement at their bilateral negotiations at Geneva, leading to halting the deployment of new intermediate-range missiles and to the withdrawal and destruction of those already in existence, or at least to reach an agreement whereby the deployment of such missiles should be postponed until late 1984 or early 1985 while the negotiations should continue and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, in keeping with its previous declarations, should not deploy new missiles in the European part of its territory and should reduce the number of such missiles;

“2. Calls upon all European States as well as all interested States to do their utmost in order to assist the process of negotiation and promote its successful conclusion;

“3. Calls upon all States to do their utmost in order to bring the arms race to a halt and to proceed to disarmament, and first of all to nuclear disarmament, as well as to contribute to the relaxation of international tension and to the resumption of the policy of détente, co-operation and respect for the national independence of all peoples;

“4. Requests the Secretary-General to make the necessary arrangements to transmit the content of the present appeal to the Governments of all States.”

7. On 14 November, Romania submitted a further revised draft resolution (A/C.1/38/L.3/Rev.2), in which operative paragraph 1 was revised to read as follows:

“1. Urges the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Government of the United States of America to make every effort to reach an agreement at their bilateral negotiations at Geneva, or at least to agree on a provisional basis that no new medium-range missiles of any kind are deployed and the number of the existing ones is reduced, while the negotiations would continue in order to achieve positive results in conformity with the security interests of all States;”

The draft resolution read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Having reviewed the implementation of the recommendations and decisions of the General Assembly adopted at its tenth special session, the first special session devoted to disarmament,

"Recalling its resolutions S-10/2 of 30 June 1978, 34/83 C of 11 December 1979, 35/46 of 3 December 1980, 35/152 E of 12 December 1980, 36/92 M of 9 December 1981 and 37/78 F of 9 December 1982,

"Deploring that no tangible progress has been achieved in the implementation of these resolutions,

"Stressing the importance of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, which was unanimously and categorically reaffirmed by all Member States at the twelfth special session, as the comprehensive and long-term basis for efforts towards halting and reversing the arms race,

"Recalling paragraph 28 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session, stating that 'all the peoples of the world have a vital interest in the success of disarmament negotiations' and that 'consequently, all States have the duty to contribute to efforts in the field of disarmament', and stating further that 'while disarmament is the responsibility of all States, the nuclear-weapon States have the primary responsibility for nuclear disarmament and, together with other militarily significant States, for halting and reversing the arms race', and that 'it is therefore important to secure their active participation',

"Bearing in mind the fundamental importance of disarmament for the accomplishment of the principal purpose of the United Nations, i.e. maintaining international peace and security and settling international disputes by peaceful means,

"Convinced that the active participation of Member States in effective disarmament negotiations is imperative for discharging their responsibility to contribute to the maintenance of international peace and security,

"Stressing the commitment of States, which they have undertaken under terms of international law in various existing international instruments, to conduct negotiations which would lead to early agreements on disarmament measures, in particular on nuclear disarmament, and which serve the overall objective of general and complete disarmament,

"Bearing in mind the solemn commitment of all Member States to the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session and their pledge to respect the priorities in disarmament negotiations as agreed to in its Programme of Action,

"Fully aware of the profound preoccupation of people everywhere over the growing risk of nuclear war, the prevention of which is the most acute and urgent task of the present day,

"Aware also of the necessity to proceed to serious negotiations on disarmament in good faith, aimed at the achievement of early results, in particular at the prevention of nuclear war, in order to save mankind from the most acute danger facing it,

"Expressing the view that disarmament negotiations conducted without the aim to reach tangible results, while the arms race continues unabated, could have a negative impact on the world-wide striving for halting and reversing the arms race,

"Believing that the preservation of the existing bilateral regional and global system of arms limitation and disarmament agreements is an important element of disarmament efforts at all levels,

"1. Expresses its alarm about the continued escalation of the arms race, in particular the nuclear-arms race, which is constantly increasing the danger of nuclear war, while disarmament negotiations are being endlessly protracted, blocked or discontinued;

"2. Expresses its conviction that it is the foremost obligation of all States, in particular the nuclear-weapon States and the other militarily significant States, to live up to their commitment undertaken in international instruments and to the recommendations and decisions of the General Assembly at its tenth special session and to conduct, without any preconditions, serious negotiations in good faith on arms limitation and disarmament on the basis of equality, reciprocity and the undiminished security of each side;

"3. Urges these States to intensify their efforts and to bring to a successful end the negotiations now being held in the Committee on Disarmament and other international forums, to resume suspended negotiations and to start new negotiations on effective international agreements according to the priorities established in section III of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session;

"4. Recommends that the Committee on Disarmament should concentrate its work on the substantive and priority items on its agenda with a view to achieving tangible results in order to make a major contribution to the implementation of the resolutions and decisions of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly and to the accomplishment of the tasks set forth in the Declaration of the 1980s as the Second Disarmament Decade;

"5. Calls upon States engaged in disarmament negotiations outside the United Nations framework to intensify their efforts with a view to achieving concrete results without delay, and to implement such results immediately so as to create favourable conditions for further progress;

"6. Calls upon all States to refrain from any actions which have or may have negative effects on the outcome of disarmament negotiations and to implement without delay agreements achieved in negotiations within and outside the United Nations framework;

"7. Underlines the need for preserving the existing system of bilateral, regional and global disarmament agreements;

"8. Invites all States engaged in disarmament and/or arms limitation and reduction negotiations outside the United Nations framework to keep the General Assembly and the Committee on Disarmament informed of the results of such negotiations in conformity with the relevant provisions of the Final Document;

"9. Recommends that at subsequent sessions of the General Assembly special attention should be attached to the continuous review of the status of disarmament negotiations on the bilateral, regional and multilateral levels."

Draft resolution A/C.1/38/L.26 and Rev.1

26. On 11 November, Algeria, Argentina, the Bahamas, Bangladesh, Burma, Cuba, Ecuador, Egypt, Ethiopia, Ghana, India, Indonesia, Iran, Madagascar, Nigeria, Pakistan, Peru, Romania, Sri Lanka, the Sudan, Uruguay, Venezuela, Yugoslavia and Zaire submitted a draft resolution entitled "Review of the implementation of the recommendations and decisions adopted by the General Assembly at its tenth special session" (A/C.1/38/L.26). The draft resolution was introduced by the representative of Yugoslavia at the 32nd meeting, on 15 November. The draft resolution read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Having reviewed the implementation of the recommendations and decisions adopted by the General Assembly at its tenth special session,¹⁹ the first special session devoted to disarmament, as well as the Concluding Document of the Twelfth Special Session of the General Assembly,²⁰ the second special session devoted to disarmament,

"Recalling its resolutions S-10/2 of 30 June 1978, 34/83 C of 11 December 1979, 35/46 of 3 December 1980, 35/152 E of 12 December 1980, 36/92 M of 9 December 1981 and 37/78 F of 9 December 1982 and its decision S-12/24 of 10 July 1982,

"Deeply concerned that no concrete results regarding the implementation of the recommendations and decisions of the tenth special session have been realized in the course of more than five years since that session, that in the meantime the arms race, particularly in its nuclear aspect, has gained in intensity, that urgent measures to prevent nuclear war and for disarmament have not been adopted and that continued colonial domination and foreign occupation, open threats, pressure and military intervention against independent States and violation of the fundamental principles of the Charter of the United Nations have taken place, posing the most serious threat to international peace and security,

"Convinced that the renewed escalation of the nuclear-arms race, both in the quantitative and qualitative dimensions, as well as reliance on doctrines of nuclear deterrence and of use of nuclear weapons, has heightened the risk of the outbreak of nuclear war and led to greater insecurity and instability in international relations,

"Further convinced that international peace and security can only be ensured through general and complete disarmament under effective international control and that one of the most urgent tasks is to halt and reverse the arms race and to undertake concrete measures of disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that, in this respect, the nuclear-weapon States and other militarily significant States have the primary responsibility,

"Noting with great concern that no real progress in disarmament negotiations has been achieved for several years, which has rendered the current international situation even more dangerous and insecure, and that negotiations on disarmament issues are lagging far behind the rapid technological development in the field of armaments and the relentless growth of military arsenals, particularly nuclear arsenals,

"Considering that it is more than ever imperative in the present circumstances to give a new impetus to negotiations on disarmament, in particular nuclear disarmament, at all levels and to achieve genuine progress in the immediate future,

"Convinced that the success of disarmament negotiations, in which all the people of the world have a vital interest, can be achieved through the active participation of Member States in such negotiations, contributing thereby to the maintenance of international peace and security,

"Reaffirming that the United Nations has a central role and primary responsibility in the sphere of disarmament,

"Reaffirming also that the principles and priorities contained in the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly¹⁹ have retained all their validity and that the objectives and measures contained therein still represent one of the most important and urgent goals to be achieved,

"1. Expresses its grave concern over the new, very serious deterioration of relations in the world and intensification of focal points of aggression and hotbeds of tension in different regions of the world, as well as acceleration and intensification of the arms race, particularly the nuclear-arms race, which threatens international peace and security and increases the danger of outbreak of nuclear war;

"2. Calls upon all States, in particular nuclear-weapon States and other militarily significant States, to take urgent measures in order to put an end to the serious aggravation of the international situation, to promote international security on the basis of disarmament, to halt and reverse the arms race and to launch a process of genuine disarmament;

"3. Invites all States, particularly nuclear-weapon States and especially those among them which possess the most important nuclear arsenals, to take urgent measures with a view to implementing the recommendations and decisions contained in the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly as well as to fulfilling the priority tasks set forth in the Programme of Action of the Final Document;

"4. Once again calls upon the Conference on Disarmament²¹ to concentrate its work on the substantive and priority items on its agenda, to proceed to negotiations on nuclear disarmament and on prevention of nuclear war without further delay and to elaborate drafts of treaties on a nuclear-weapon test ban and on a complete and effective prohibition of the development, production and stockpiling of all chemical weapons and on their destruction;

"5. Calls upon the Disarmament Commission to intensify its work in accordance with its mandate and to continue improving its work with a view to making concrete recommendations on specific items on its agenda;

"6. Calls upon nuclear-weapon States engaged in separate negotiations on issues of nuclear disarmament to exert the utmost effort with a view to achieving concrete results in those negotiations and thus

contribute to the success of multilateral negotiations on nuclear disarmament;

"7. Invites all States engaged in disarmament and arms limitation negotiations outside the framework of the United Nations to keep the General Assembly and the Conference on Disarmament informed on the status or results of such negotiations, in conformity with the relevant provisions of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session;

"8. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled 'Implementation of the recommendations and decisions of the tenth special session'."

27. On 16 November, the sponsors submitted a revised draft resolution (A/C.1/38/L.26/Rev.1), in which the following changes were made:

(b) The original seventh preambular paragraph, now the eighth preambular paragraph, was revised to read:

"Considering that it is more than ever imperative in the present circumstances to give a new impetus to negotiations in good faith on disarmament, in particular nuclear disarmament, at all levels and to achieve genuine progress in the immediate future,";

(c) The original tenth preambular paragraph was deleted;

(d) A new eleventh preambular paragraph was added which read:

"Stressing that the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, which was unanimously and categorically reaffirmed by all Member States at the twelfth special session as the comprehensive basis for efforts towards halting and reversing the arms race, has retained all its validity and that the objectives and measures contained therein still represent one of the most important and urgent goals to be achieved,";

(e) Operative paragraph 3 was revised to read:

"3. Invites all States, particularly nuclear-weapon States and especially those among them which possess the most important nuclear arsenals, to take urgent measures with a view to implementing the recommendations and decisions contained in the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, as well as to fulfilling the priority tasks set forth in the Programme of Action contained in section III of the Final Document,";

(f) A new operative paragraph 4 was added which read:

"4. Calls upon all States to refrain from any actions which have or may have negative effects on the outcome of disarmament negotiations,";

(g) The subsequent paragraphs were renumbered accordingly.

“1. Reiterates the conviction that all peoples of the world are vitally interested in the progress and the successful conclusion of these negotiations;

Recommendations of the First Committee

53. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

REVIEW OF THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS AND DECISIONS ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT ITS TENTH SPECIAL SESSION

Bilateral nuclear-arms negotiations

The General Assembly,

Deeply concerned about the possibility of the deployment of new medium-range missiles in Europe and about the development of those already in existence on that continent,

Profoundly alarmed that the bilateral negotiations between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America commenced at Geneva on 30 November 1981 have not so far reached results to meet the expectations of peoples,

Deeply concerned that the failure of those negotiations could lead to a significant new escalation in the spiralling arms competition in Europe and in the world, gravely endangering thereby international peace and security,

Firmly convinced that an early successful conclusion of those negotiations by reaching an appropriate agreement, in accordance with the principle of undiminished security at the lowest possible level of armament and military forces, would have crucial importance for the strengthening of international peace and security and for the reduction of the risk of nuclear war,

Convinced also that through negotiations, pursued in a spirit of flexibility and responsibility for the security interests of all peoples, it is still possible to reach an agreement,

1. Urges the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Government of the United States of America to make every effort to reach an agreement at their bilateral negotiations at Geneva, or at least to agree on a provisional basis that no medium-range missiles are deployed and the number of the existing ones is reduced, while the negotiations would continue in order to achieve positive results in conformity with the security interests of all States;

2. Calls upon all European States as well as all interested States to do their utmost in order to assist the process of negotiation and promote its successful conclusion;

3. Calls upon all States to do their utmost in order to bring the arms race to a halt and to proceed to disarmament, and first of all to nuclear disarmament, as well as to contribute to the relaxation of international tension and to the resumption of the policy of détente, co-operation and respect for the national independence of all peoples;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to make the necessary arrangements to transmit the content of the present appeal to the Governments of all States.

Non-use of nuclear weapons and prevention of nuclear war

The General Assembly,

Alarmed by the threat to the survival of mankind posed by the existence of nuclear weapons and the continuing arms race,

Recalling that, in accordance with the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁹ the first special session devoted to disarmament, effective measures of nuclear disarmament and the prevention of nuclear war have the highest priority,

Recalling also that this commitment was reaffirmed by the General Assembly at its twelfth special session, the second special session devoted to disarmament,

Bearing in mind its resolutions 36/81 B, 36/92 I and 36/100 of 9 December 1981 and 37/78 J of 9 December 1982,

Reaffirming that the most effective guarantee against the danger of nuclear war and the use of nuclear weapons is nuclear disarmament and the complete elimination of nuclear weapons,

Recalling also paragraph 58 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session, in which it is stated that all States should actively participate in efforts to bring about conditions in international relations among States in which a code of peaceful conduct of nations in international affairs could be agreed upon and which would preclude the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Reaffirming also that the nuclear-weapon States have special responsibilities to undertake measures aimed at preventing the outbreak of nuclear war,

1. Considers that the solemn declarations by two nuclear-weapon States made or reiterated at the twelfth special session of the General Assembly, the second special session devoted to disarmament, concerning their respective obligations not to be the first to use nuclear weapons offer an important avenue to decrease the danger of nuclear war;

2. Expresses the hope that those nuclear-weapon States which have not yet done so would consider making similar declarations with respect to not being the first to use nuclear weapons.

Prohibition of the nuclear neutron weapon

The General Assembly,

Recalling paragraph 50 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁹ in which it is stated that the achievement of nuclear disarmament will require urgent negotiation of agreements, inter alia, for the cessation of the qualitative improvement and development of nuclear-weapon systems, which is especially emphasized in paragraph 50 (a) of that Document,

Stressing that the nuclear neutron weapon represents a further step in the qualitative arms race in the field of nuclear weapons,

Reaffirming its resolutions 36/92 K of 9 December 1981 and 37/78 E of 9 December 1982,

Sharing the world-wide concern expressed by Member States, as well as by non-governmental organizations, about the continued and expanded production and introduction of the nuclear neutron weapon in military arsenals, which escalates the nuclear-arms race and significantly lowers the threshold of nuclear war,

Aware of the inhuman effects of that weapon, which constitutes a grave threat, particularly to the unprotected civilian population,

Noting the consideration by the Committee on Disarmament at its session in 1983 of issues connected with the cessation of the nuclear-arms race and nuclear disarmament, as well as the prohibition of the nuclear neutron weapon (A/38/27 and Corr.1, sect. III.B),

Regretting that the Committee on Disarmament was not able to reach agreement on the commencement of negotiations on the cessation of the nuclear-arms race and on nuclear disarmament or on the prohibition of the nuclear neutron weapon in an appropriate organizational framework,

1. Reaffirms its request to the Conference on Disarmament²¹ to start without delay negotiations within an appropriate organizational framework with a view to concluding a convention on the prohibition of the development, production, stockpiling, deployment and use of nuclear neutron weapons as an organic element of negotiations, as envisaged in paragraph 50 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit to the Conference on Disarmament all documents relating to the consideration of this question by the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session;

3. Requests the Conference on Disarmament to submit a report on this question to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

4. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Prohibition of the nuclear neutron weapon".

D

Nuclear weapons in all aspects

The General Assembly,

Recalling that at its twelfth special session, the second special session devoted to disarmament, it expressed its profound preoccupation over the danger of war, in particular nuclear war, the prevention of which remains the most acute and urgent task of the present day,²²

Reaffirming once again that nuclear weapons pose the most serious threat to mankind and its survival and that it is therefore essential to proceed with nuclear disarmament and the complete elimination of nuclear weapons,

Reaffirming also that all nuclear-weapon States, in particular those which possess the most important nuclear arsenals, bear a special responsibility for the fulfilment of the task of achieving the goals of nuclear disarmament,

Stressing again that existing arsenals of nuclear weapons alone are more than sufficient to destroy all life on Earth, and bearing in mind the devastating results which nuclear war would have on belligerents and non-belligerents alike,

Recalling that at its tenth special session, the first special session devoted to disarmament, it decided that effective measures of nuclear disarmament and the prevention of nuclear war had the highest priority and that it was essential to halt and reverse the nuclear-arms race in all its aspects in order to avert the danger of war involving nuclear weapons,²³

Stressing that any expectation of winning a nuclear war is senseless and that such a war would inevitably lead to the destruction of nations, to enormous devastation and to catastrophic consequences for civilization and life itself on Earth,

Recalling further that, in its resolution 35/152 B of 12 December 1980, it noted with alarm the increased risk of a nuclear catastrophe associated both with the intensification of the nuclear-arms race and with the adoption of the new doctrines of limited or partial use of nuclear weapons, which are incompatible with its resolution 110 (II) of 3 November 1947, entitled “Measures to be taken against propaganda and the inciters of a new war”, and give rise to illusions of the admissibility and acceptability of a nuclear conflict,

Noting with alarm that to the doctrine of a limited nuclear war was later added the concept of a protracted nuclear war and that these dangerous doctrines lead to a new twist in the spiral of the arms race, which may seriously hamper the reaching of agreement on nuclear disarmament,

Gravely concerned about the renewed escalation of the nuclear-arms race, both in its quantitative and qualitative dimensions, as well as reliance on the doctrine of nuclear deterrence, which in fact are heightening the risk of the outbreak of nuclear war and lead to increased tensions and instability in international relations,

Taking note of the relevant deliberations of the Disarmament Commission in 1983 with regard to item 4 of its agenda, as contained in its report (A/38/42, sect. III.D),

Stressing the urgent need for the cessation of the development and deployment of new types and systems of nuclear weapons as a step on the road to nuclear disarmament,

Stressing again that priority in disarmament negotiations should be given to nuclear weapons, and referring to paragraphs 49 and 54 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁹

Recalling its resolutions 33/71 H of 14 December 1978, 34/83 J of 11 December 1979, 35/152 B and C of 12 December 1980, 36/92 E of 9 December 1981 and 37/78 C of 9 December 1982,

Noting that the Committee on Disarmament, at its session held in 1983, discussed the question of the cessation of the nuclear-arms race and nuclear disarmament and, in particular, the establishment of an ad hoc working group for negotiations on that question,

Regretting, however, that the Committee on Disarmament was unable to reach agreement on the establishment of an ad hoc working group for the purpose of undertaking multilateral negotiations on the question of the cessation of the nuclear-arms race and nuclear disarmament,

Considering that efforts will continue to be made in order to enable the Conference on Disarmament²¹ to fulfil its negotiating role with regard to the cessation of the nuclear-arms race and nuclear disarmament, bearing in mind the high priority accorded to this question in the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session,

Convinced that the Conference on Disarmament is the most suitable forum for the preparation and conduct of negotiations on nuclear disarmament,

1. Calls upon the Conference on Disarmament to proceed without delay to negotiations on the cessation of the nuclear-arms race and nuclear disarmament in accordance with paragraph 50 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, and especially to elaborate a nuclear-disarmament programme, and to establish for this purpose an ad hoc working group on the cessation of the nuclear-arms race and on nuclear disarmament;

2. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled “Cessation of the nuclear-arms race and nuclear disarmament: report of the Conference on Disarmament”.

E

Report of the Disarmament Commission

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Disarmament Commission (A/38/42),

Emphasizing again the importance of an effective follow-up to the relevant recommendations and decisions contained in the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁹ the first special session devoted to disarmament,

Taking into account the relevant sections of the Concluding Document of the Twelfth Special Session of the General Assembly,²⁰ the second special session devoted to disarmament,

Considering the important role that the Disarmament Commission has played and the significant contribution that it has made in examining and submitting recommendations on various problems in the field of disarmament and in the promotion of the implementation of the relevant decisions of the tenth special session,

Desirous of strengthening the effectiveness of the Disarmament Commission as the deliberative body in the field of disarmament,

Recalling its resolutions 33/71 H of 14 December 1978, 34/83 H of 11 December 1979, 35/152 F of 12 December 1980, 36/92 B of 9 December 1981 and 37/78 H of 9 December 1982,

1. Takes note of the report of the Disarmament Commission;

²² Official Records of the General Assembly, Twelfth Special Session, Annexes, agenda items 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, document A/S-12/32, para. 62.

²³ Resolution S-10/2, para. 47.

2. Notes that the Disarmament Commission has yet to conclude its consideration of some items on its agenda;

3. Requests the Disarmament Commission to continue its work in accordance with its mandate, as set forth in paragraph 118 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, and with paragraph 3 of resolution 37/78 H, and to that end to make every effort to achieve specific recommendations, at its 1984 substantive session, on the outstanding items on its agenda, taking into account the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly as well as the results of its 1983 session;

4. Requests the Disarmament Commission to meet for a period not exceeding four weeks during 1984 and to submit a substantive report, containing specific recommendations on the items inscribed on its agenda, to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit to the Disarmament Commission the report of the Committee on Disarmament on the work of its 1983 session (A/38/27 and Corr.1), together with all the official records of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly relating to disarmament matters, and to render all assistance that the Commission may require for implementing the present resolution;

6. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Report of the Disarmament Commission".

F

International co-operation for disarmament

The General Assembly,

Stressing again the urgent need for an active and sustained effort to intensify the implementation of the recommendations and decisions unanimously adopted at its tenth special session, the first special session devoted to disarmament, as contained in the Final Document of that session¹⁹ and confirmed in the Concluding Document of the Twelfth Special Session of the General Assembly,²⁰ the second special session devoted to disarmament,

Recalling the Declaration on International Co-operation for Disarmament of 11 December 1979²⁴ and General Assembly resolutions 36/92 D of 9 December 1981 and 37/78 B of 9 December 1982,

Deeply concerned over the growing danger of nuclear war, the continued arms race and the danger of a further, qualitatively new round of the arms race, all of which will have a very negative impact on the international situation,

Stressing the vital importance of eliminating the danger of nuclear war, halting the nuclear-arms race and attaining disarmament, particularly in the nuclear field, for the preservation of peace and the strengthening of international security,

Bearing in mind the vital interest of all nations in the attainment of effective disarmament measures, which would release considerable financial and material resources to be used for the economic and social development of all States, in particular developing countries,

Considering the increased activity of peace and anti-war movements against the arms race and the escalation of the danger of nuclear war,

Convinced of the need to strengthen constructive international co-operation based on the political goodwill of States for successful negotiations on disarmament, in accordance with the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session,

Emphasizing the duty of States to co-operate for the preservation of international peace and security, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, as confirmed in the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, of 24 October 1970,²⁵ the obligation to co-operate actively and constructively for the attainment of the aims of disarmament being an indispensable part of that duty,

Expressing the conviction that concrete manifestations of political goodwill, including unilateral measures, such as an obligation not to make first use of nuclear weapons, improve conditions for resolving disarmament issues in a spirit of co-operation among States,

Stressing that proposals, relatively simple in their execution and at the same time effective, such as the proposals aimed at eliminating the use of force, be it on a world-wide or regional scale, contribute considerably to that end,

Bearing in mind that the United Nations bears primary responsibility and plays a central role in unifying efforts to maintain and to develop active co-operation among States in order to resolve the issues of disarmament,

1. Calls upon all States, in implementing the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, to make active use of the principles and ideas contained in the Declaration on International Co-operation for Disarmament by actively participating in disarmament negotiations, with a view to achieving concrete results, and by conducting them on the basis of equality and undiminished security and the non-use of force in international relations, and to refrain at the same time from developing new directions and channels of the arms race;

2. Stresses the importance of strengthening the effectiveness of the United Nations in fulfilling its responsibility for maintaining international peace and security in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations;

3. Declares in this context that the elaboration and dissemination of any doctrines and concepts justifying the unleashing of nuclear war endanger world peace, lead to deterioration of the international situation and further intensification of the arms race and are detrimental to the generally recognized necessity of international co-operation for disarmament;

4. Declares that the use of force in international relations as well as in attempts to prevent the full implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples²⁶ is a phenomenon incompatible with the ideas of international co-operation for disarmament;

5. Appeals to States which are members of military groupings to promote, on the basis of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session, in the spirit of international co-operation for disarmament, the gradual mutual limitation of military activities of these groupings, thus creating conditions for their dissolution;

²⁵ Resolution 2625 (XXV), annex.

²⁶ Resolution 1514 (XV).

6. Calls upon all Member States to cultivate and disseminate, particularly in connection with the World Disarmament Campaign launched by the General Assembly at its twelfth special session,²⁷ the ideas of international co-operation for disarmament, inter alia, through their educational systems, mass media and cultural policies;

7. Calls upon the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization to continue to consider, in order further to mobilize world public opinion on behalf of disarmament, measures aimed at strengthening the ideas of international co-operation for disarmament through research, education, information, communication and culture;

8. Calls upon the Governments of all States to contribute substantially, while observing the principle of undiminished security, to halting and reversing the arms race, particularly in the nuclear field, and thus to reducing the danger of nuclear war.

G

Prevention of nuclear war

The General Assembly,

Alarmed by the threat to the survival of mankind posed by the existence of nuclear weapons and the continuing arms race,

Recalling that removal of the threat of nuclear war is the most acute and urgent task of the present day,

Reiterating that it is the shared responsibility of all Member States to save succeeding generations from the scourge of another world war, which would inevitably be a nuclear war,

Recalling the provisions of paragraphs 47 to 50 and 56 to 58 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly¹⁹ regarding the procedures designed to secure the avoidance of nuclear war,

Recalling also its resolution 36/81 B of 9 December 1981 and, in particular, its resolution 37/78 I of 9 December 1982, in which it requested the Committee on Disarmament to undertake, as a matter of the highest priority, negotiations with a view to achieving agreement on appropriate and practical measures for the prevention of nuclear war,

Having considered the report of the Committee on Disarmament (A/38/27 and Corr.1),

Noting with concern that the Committee on Disarmament was not able to start negotiations on the question during its 1983 session,

Taking into account the deliberations on this item at its thirty-eighth session,

Convinced that the prevention of nuclear war and the reduction of the risks of nuclear war are matters of the highest priority and of vital interest to all the peoples of the world,

1. Again requests the Conference on Disarmament²¹ to undertake, as a matter of the highest priority, negotiations with a view to achieving agreement on appropriate and practical measures for the prevention of nuclear war, taking into account the documents referred to in General Assembly resolution 37/78 I as well as other existing proposals and future initiatives;

2. Further requests the Conference on Disarmament to establish for that purpose an ad hoc working group on the subject at the beginning of its 1984 session;

3. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Prevention of nuclear war: report of the Conference on Disarmament".

H

Implementation of the recommendations and decisions adopted by the General Assembly at its tenth special session

The General Assembly,

Having reviewed the implementation of the recommendations and decisions adopted by the General Assembly at its tenth special session,¹⁹ the first special session devoted to disarmament, as well as the Concluding Document of the Twelfth Special Session of the General Assembly,²⁰ the second special session devoted to disarmament,

Recalling its resolutions S-10/2 of 30 June 1978, 34/83 C of 11 December 1979, 35/46 of 3 December 1980, 35/152 E of 12 December 1980, 36/92 M of 9 December 1981 and 37/78 F of 9 December 1982 and its decision S-12/24 of 10 July 1982,

Deeply concerned that no concrete results regarding the implementation of the recommendations and decisions of the tenth special session have been realized in the course of more than five years since that session, that in the meantime the arms race, particularly in its nuclear aspect, has gained in intensity, that urgent measures to prevent nuclear war and for disarmament have not been adopted and that continued colonial domination and foreign occupation, open threats, pressure and military intervention against independent States and violation of the fundamental principles of the Charter of the United Nations have taken place, posing the most serious threat to international peace and security,

Convinced that the renewed escalation of the nuclear-arms race, in both the quantitative and the qualitative dimensions, as well as reliance on doctrines of nuclear deterrence and of use of nuclear weapons, has heightened the risk of the outbreak of nuclear war and led to greater insecurity and instability in international relations,

Further convinced that international peace and security can only be ensured through general and complete disarmament under effective international control and that one of the most urgent tasks is to halt and reverse the arms race and to undertake concrete measures of disarmament, particularly nuclear disarmament, and that, in this respect, the nuclear-weapon States and other militarily significant States have the primary responsibility,

Noting with great concern that no real progress in disarmament negotiations has been achieved for several years, which has rendered the current international situation even more dangerous and insecure, and that negotiations on disarmament issues are lagging far behind the rapid technological development in the field of armaments and the relentless growth of military arsenals, particularly nuclear arsenals,

Recalling the commitment of States undertaken in various international agreements to negotiate on disarmament measures, in particular on nuclear disarmament,

Considering that it is more than ever imperative in the present circumstances to give a new impetus to negotiations in good faith on disarmament, in particular nuclear disarmament, at all levels and to achieve genuine progress in the immediate future,

Convinced that the success of disarmament negotiations, in which all the people of the world have a vital interest, can be achieved through the active participation of Member States in such negotiations, contributing thereby to the maintenance of international peace and security,

Reaffirming that the United Nations has a central role and primary responsibility in the sphere of disarmament,

Stressing that the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁹ which was unanimously and categorically reaffirmed by all Member States at the twelfth special session as the comprehensive basis for efforts towards halting and reversing the arms race, has retained all its validity and that the objectives and measures contained therein still represent one of the most important and urgent goals to be achieved,

1. Expresses its grave concern over the acceleration and intensification of the arms race, particularly the nuclear-arms race, as well as the new, very serious deterioration of relations in the world, and the intensification of focal points of aggression and hotbeds of tension in different regions of the world, which threaten international peace and security and increase the danger of outbreak of nuclear war;

2. Calls upon all States, in particular nuclear-weapon States and other militarily significant States, to take urgent measures in order to put an end to the serious aggravation of the international situation, to promote international security on the basis of disarmament, to halt and reverse the arms race and to launch a process of genuine disarmament;

3. Invites all States, particularly nuclear-weapon States and especially those among them which possess the most important nuclear arsenals, to take urgent measures with a view to implementing the recommendations and decisions contained in the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, as well as to fulfilling the priority tasks set forth in the Programme of Action contained in section III of the Final Document;

4. Calls upon all States to refrain from any actions which have or may have negative effects on the outcome of disarmament negotiations;

5. Once again calls upon the Conference on Disarmament²¹ to concentrate its work on the substantive and priority items on its agenda, to proceed to negotiations on nuclear disarmament and on the prevention of nuclear war without further delay and to elaborate drafts of treaties on a nuclear-weapon test ban and on a complete and effective prohibition of the development, production and stockpiling of all chemical weapons and on their destruction;

6. Calls upon the Disarmament Commission to intensify its work in accordance with its mandate and to continue improving its work with a view to making concrete recommendations on specific items on its agenda;

7. Calls upon nuclear-weapon States engaged in separate negotiations on issues of nuclear disarmament to exert the utmost effort with a view to achieving concrete results in those negotiations and thus contribute to the success of multilateral negotiations on nuclear disarmament;

8. Invites all States engaged in disarmament and arms limitation negotiations outside the framework of the United Nations to keep the General Assembly and the Conference on Disarmament informed on the status or results of such negotiations, in conformity with the relevant provisions of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session;

9. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Implementation of the recommendations and decisions of the tenth special session".

I

Report of the Committee on Disarmament

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 34/83 B of 11 December 1979, 35/152 J of 12 December 1980, 36/92 F of 9 December 1981 and 37/78 G of 9 December 1982,

Recalling also the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁹ the first special session devoted to disarmament and the Concluding Document of the Twelfth Special Session of the General Assembly,²⁰ the second special session devoted to disarmament,

Having considered the report of the Committee on Disarmament (A/38/27 and Corr.1),

Convinced that the Conference on Disarmament,²¹ as the single multilateral negotiating body on disarmament, should play the central role in substantive negotiations on priority questions of disarmament and on the implementation of the Programme of Action set forth in section III of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session,

Reaffirming that the establishment of ad hoc working groups offers the best available machinery for the conduct of multilateral negotiations on items on the agenda of the Conference on Disarmament and contributes to the strengthening of the negotiating role of the Conference,

Deploring the fact that, despite repeated requests by the General Assembly and the express wish of the great majority of members of the Committee on Disarmament, the establishment of an ad hoc working group to undertake multilateral negotiations on the cessation of the nuclear-arms race and on nuclear disarmament was once again prevented during the session of the Committee in 1983,

Regretting that the Committee on Disarmament has also not been enabled to set up ad hoc working groups for negotiations on the prevention of nuclear war and on the prevention of the arms race in outer space, nor to entrust its Ad Hoc Working Group under item 1 of its agenda, entitled "Nuclear-test ban", with a new mandate enabling it to undertake substantive negotiations on this question as soon as possible,

Stressing that negotiations on specific disarmament issues conducted outside the Conference on Disarmament should in no way serve as a pretext for preventing the conduct of multilateral negotiations on such questions in the Conference,

1. Expresses its deep concern and disappointment that the Committee on Disarmament has not been enabled, this year either, to reach concrete agreements on disarmament issues to which the United Nations has assigned greatest priority and urgency and which have been under consideration for a number of years;

2. Requests the Conference on Disarmament to intensify its work, so as to make the utmost effort to achieve concrete results in the shortest possible period of time on the specific priority issues of disarmament on its agenda;

3. Once again urges the Conference on Disarmament to continue or to undertake, during its session to be held in 1984, substantive negotiations on the priority questions of disarmament on its agenda, in accordance with the provisions of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly and other relevant resolutions of the Assembly on those questions, and, in order to reach that goal, to provide the existing ad hoc working groups with appropriate negotiating mandates and to establish, as a matter of urgency, the ad hoc working groups on the cessation of the nuclear-arms race and nuclear disarmament, on the prevention of nuclear war and on the prevention of an arms race in outer space;

4. Urges the Conference on Disarmament to undertake, without further delay, the elaboration of a draft international treaty on a nuclear-weapon test ban and to submit a progress report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

5. Also urges the Conference on Disarmament to accelerate its work on the elaboration of a draft international convention on the complete and effective prohibition of all chemical weapons and on their destruction and to submit the preliminary draft of such a convention to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

6. Calls upon the Conference on Disarmament to organize its work in such a way as to concentrate most of its attention and time on substantive negotiations on priority issues of disarmament;

7. Calls upon the members of the Conference on Disarmament that have opposed the negotiation on some substantive issues of disarmament to enable the Conference, by adopting a positive stand, to fulfil effectively the mandate that the international community has entrusted to it in the field of negotiations on disarmament;

8. Invites the members of the Conference on Disarmament involved in separate negotiations on specific priority questions of disarmament to intensify their efforts in order to achieve a positive conclusion of those negotiations without further delay and to submit to the Conference a full report on their separate negotiations and the results achieved in order to contribute most directly to the negotiations in the Conference, in accordance with paragraph 3 above;

9. Requests the Conference on Disarmament to submit a report on its work to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

10. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Report of the Conference on Disarmament".

J

Report of the Disarmament Commission

The General Assembly,

Having examined the various concrete proposals submitted to the Disarmament Commission at its 1983 session and reproduced by the Commission in its report to the General Assembly (A/38/42, annexes),

Considering that one of these proposals (ibid., annex VI), intended to expedite negotiations of nuclear disarmament through the preparation of a study on unilateral measures, would be of particular value at present in view of the impasse existing both in the bilateral and the multilateral negotiations,

Requests the Secretary-General to prepare, with the assistance of qualified governmental experts²⁸ and applying the methods customary in these cases, a report, to be submitted to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, on ways and means that seem advisable for stimulating the adoption of unilateral nuclear disarmament measures which, without prejudice to the security of States, would come to promote and complement bilateral and multilateral negotiations in this sphere.

K

Comprehensive programme of disarmament

The General Assembly,

Having examined the report of the Ad Hoc Working Group on the Comprehensive Programme of Disarmament, which is an integral part of the report of the Committee on Disarmament on its 1983 session (A/38/27 and Corr.1, para. 88),

Welcoming the progress achieved in the preparation of the programme during the period covered by the report,

Noting, however, that it has not yet been possible to complete the elaboration of a comprehensive programme which, as provided for in paragraph 109 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁹ should encompass all measures thought to be advisable in order to ensure that the goal of general and complete disarmament under effective international control becomes a reality in a world in which international peace and security prevail and in which the new international economic order is strengthened and consolidated,

1. Urges the Conference on Disarmament,²¹ as soon as it considers that the circumstances are propitious for that purpose, to renew its work on the elaboration of the comprehensive programme of disarmament previously requested, to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session a progress report on the matter and to submit to the Assembly, not later than at its forty-first session, a complete draft of such a programme;

2. Decides to consider at its thirty-ninth session, in the light of the above-mentioned progress report, the advisability of requesting the Disarmament Commission to examine the question further and to make appropriate recommendations to the General Assembly.

L

Disarmament Week

The General Assembly,

Gravely concerned over the escalating arms race,

Emphasizing the urgent need for and the importance of wide and continued mobilization of world public opinion in support of halting and reversing the arms race, especially the nuclear-arms race in all its aspects,

Mindful of world-wide anti-war and anti-nuclear mass movement,

Noting with satisfaction the broad and active support by Governments and international and national organizations of the decision taken by the General Assembly at its tenth special session, the first special session devoted to disarmament, regarding the proclamation of the week starting 24 October, the day of the foundation of the United Nations, as a week devoted to fostering the objectives of disarmament,²⁹

Recalling the recommendations concerning the World Disarmament Campaign contained in annex V to the Concluding Document of the Twelfth Special Session of the General Assembly,²⁰ the second special session devoted to disarmament, in particular the recommendation that, in view of the fact that Disarmament Week has played a useful role in fostering the objectives of disarmament, the week starting 24 October should continue to be widely observed as Disarmament Week,³⁰

Recalling also its resolutions 33/71 D of 14 December 1978, 34/83 I of 11 December 1979 and 37/78 D of 9 December 1982,

1. Takes note with satisfaction of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/144) on the follow-up measures undertaken by governmental and non-governmental organizations in holding Disarmament Week;

2. Expresses its appreciation to all States and international and national governmental and non-governmental organizations for their energetic support of and active participation in Disarmament Week;

3. Invites all States, in carrying out appropriate measures at the local level on the occasion of Disarmament Week, to take into account the elements of the model programme for Disarmament Week, prepared by the Secretary-General;³¹

4. Also invites the relevant specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency to intensify activities, within their areas of competence, to disseminate information on the consequences of the arms race and requests them to inform the Secretary-General accordingly;

5. Requests Governments, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 33/71 D, to inform the Secretary-General of activities undertaken to promote the objectives of Disarmament Week;

6. Invites international non-governmental organizations to take an active part in Disarmament Week and to inform the Secretary-General of the activities undertaken;

7. Requests the Secretary-General, in accordance with paragraph 4 of resolution 33/71 D, to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session a report containing the information referred to in paragraph 7 of resolution 37/78 D, as well as paragraphs 4 to 6 above.

M

Implementation of the recommendations and decisions adopted by the General Assembly at its tenth special session

The General Assembly,

Recalling the provisions of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁹ the first special session devoted to disarmament, in particular the following:

(a) That nuclear weapons pose the greatest danger to mankind and to the survival of civilization,

(b) That it is essential to halt and reverse the nuclear-arms race in all its aspects in order to avert the danger of war involving nuclear weapons,

(c) That removing the threat of a world war—a nuclear war—is the most acute and urgent task of the present day,

(d) That while disarmament is the responsibility of all States, the nuclear-weapon States have the primary responsibility for nuclear disarmament,

³⁰ Official Records of the General Assembly, Twelfth Special Session, Annexes, agenda items 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, document A/S-12/32, para. 12.

³¹ A/34/436.

(e) That the most effective guarantee against the danger of nuclear war and the use of nuclear weapons is nuclear disarmament and the complete elimination of nuclear weapons,

(f) That pending the achievement of this goal, the nuclear-weapon States have special responsibilities to undertake measures aimed at preventing the outbreak of nuclear war,

(g) That, in the task of achieving the goals of nuclear disarmament, all the nuclear-weapon States, in particular those among them which possess the most important nuclear arsenals, bear a special responsibility,

Deeply regretting that the nuclear-arms race has not yet been halted and that the danger of nuclear war has been increasing,

Gravely concerned over the risks of nuclear war inherent in the present world situation,

1. Solemnly reaffirms the special responsibilities of the nuclear-weapon States for nuclear disarmament and for undertaking measures to prevent nuclear war and to halt the nuclear-arms race in all its aspects;

2. Solemnly reaffirms the vital interest of all the peoples of the world in the success of disarmament negotiations and the consequent duty of all States to contribute to efforts in the field of disarmament;

3. Solemnly reaffirms the central role and primary responsibility of the United Nations in the sphere of disarmament;

4. Requests the nuclear-weapon States to submit to the General Assembly annual reports on the measures and steps taken by them, jointly or individually, in the discharge of the special responsibilities incumbent upon them for the prevention of nuclear war and for halting and reversing the nuclear-arms race.

N

Bilateral nuclear-arms negotiations

The General Assembly,

Recalling that at its tenth special session, the first special session devoted to disarmament, it approved by consensus a Declaration, contained in section II of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, in which, inter alia, it proclaimed that, in order effectively to discharge the central role and primary responsibility in the sphere of disarmament which belong to the United Nations in accordance with its Charter, the United Nations should be kept appropriately informed of all steps in this field, whether unilateral, bilateral, regional or multilateral, without prejudice to the progress of negotiations,³²

Recalling also that at its twelfth special session, the second special session devoted to disarmament, Member States reiterated their solemn commitment to implement the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session, the validity of which received their unanimous and categorical reaffirmation,²²

Noting that the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America have been continuing at Geneva the two series of bilateral nuclear-arms negotiations begun on 30 November 1981 and 29 June 1982 respectively,

Noting with satisfaction that the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics has already submitted the report (A/38/562) requested in General Assembly resolution 37/78 A of 9 December 1982, ³² Resolution S-10/2, para. 27.

Hoping that the other major nuclear-weapon State will find it possible to comply also with the request of the General Assembly before the closure of its thirty-eighth session,

Deploring that it has become evident that the bilateral negotiations have not yet produced the desired results,

1. Urges the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Government of the United States of America to examine immediately, as a way out of the present impasse, the possibility of combining into a single forum the two series of negotiations which they have been carrying out and of broadening their scope so as to embrace also the “tactical” or “battlefield” nuclear weapons;

2. Reiterates its request to the two negotiating parties that they bear constantly in mind that not only their national interests but also the vital interests of all the peoples of the world are at stake in this question;

3. Requests both parties to keep the United Nations appropriately informed of progress achieved in their negotiations;

4. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled “Bilateral nuclear-arms negotiations”.

O

Advisory Board on Disarmament Studies

The General Assembly,

Recalling paragraph 124 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,¹⁹

Recalling further its resolution 37/99 K of 13 December 1982, by section III of which it requested the Secretary-General to revive the Advisory Board on Disarmament Studies,

1. Expresses its satisfaction that the Secretary-General has revived the Advisory Board on Disarmament Studies;

2. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Advisory Board in 1983 (A/38/467);

3. Requests the Secretary-General to report annually to the General Assembly on the work of the Advisory Board.

P

Bilateral nuclear-arms negotiations

The General Assembly,

Deeply regretting that, in their bilateral negotiations, which commenced at Geneva on 30 November 1981, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America have so far been unable to achieve positive results,

Firmly convinced that an early agreement in those negotiations, in accordance with the principle of undiminished security at the lowest possible level of armaments and military forces, would have crucial impor-

ance for the strengthening of international peace and security,

Deeply concerned that a breakdown of the negotiations could impede efforts to strengthen international peace and security and to achieve progress towards disarmament,

Convinced that, through negotiations pursued in a spirit of flexibility and responsibility for the security interests of all States, it is possible to reach an agreement,

1. Urges the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Government of the United States of America to continue, without pre-conditions, their bilateral negotiations at Geneva as long as is necessary in order to achieve positive results in accordance with the security interests of all States and the universal desire for progress towards disarmament;

2. Calls upon the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Government of the United States of America to spare no effort in seeking the attainment of the final objective of the negotiations;

3. Invites the Governments of the two States mentioned above to work actively towards the enhancement of mutual trust, in order to create an atmosphere more conducive to disarmament agreements;

4. Expresses its firmest possible encouragement and support to the negotiating parties in their efforts to bring the negotiations to a successful conclusion.

Q

Bilateral nuclear-arms negotiations

The General Assembly,

Expressing its great concern that no progress has yet been achieved in the bilateral nuclear-arms negotiations between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America which began at Geneva on 30 November 1981,

Taking note of the profound alarm expressed in this context by the general public all over the world concerned over the possibility of a new and dangerous intensification of the nuclear-arms race, particularly in Europe,

Convinced that mutually acceptable agreement in the Geneva negotiations is possible on the basis of the principle of equality and equal security,

1. Reiterates the conviction that all peoples of the world are vitally interested in the cessation of the nuclear-arms race and, accordingly, in the progress and the successful conclusion of these negotiations;

2. Calls upon the States parties to the bilateral talks to achieve as soon as possible equitable agreement which would provide for the non-deployment of new medium-range nuclear missiles in Europe and for a drastic reduction in the existing nuclear systems of such range without prejudice to anybody's security;

3. Requests both States parties to keep the United Nations appropriately informed of the progress achieved in the negotiations;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to make the necessary arrangements to transmit the present resolution to the Governments of all States concerned.

Recommendation of the First Committee

7. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

CONCLUSION OF AN INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION ON THE STRENGTHENING OF THE SECURITY OF NON-NUCLEAR-WEAPON STATES AGAINST THE USE OR THREAT OF USE OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS

The General Assembly,

Convinced of the need to take effective measures for the strengthening of the security of States and prompted by the desire shared by all nations to eliminate war and prevent nuclear conflagration,

Taking into account the principle of non-use of force or threat of force enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations and reaffirmed in a number of United Nations declarations and resolutions,

Considering that, until nuclear disarmament is achieved on a universal basis, it is imperative for the international community to develop effective measures to ensure the security of non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons from any quarter,

Recognizing that effective measures to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons can constitute a positive contribution to the prevention of the spread of nuclear weapons,

Noting with satisfaction the desire of States in various regions to prevent nuclear weapons from being introduced into their territories, including through the establishment of nuclear-weapon-free zones, on the basis of arrangements freely arrived at among the States of the region concerned, and being anxious to contribute to the attainment of this objective,

Concerned at the continuing escalation of the arms race, in particular the nuclear-arms race, and the increased danger of recourse to use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Desirous of promoting the implementation of paragraph 59 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,³⁵ the first special session devoted to disarmament, in which it urged the nuclear-weapon States to pursue efforts to conclude, as appropriate, effective arrangements to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Recalling its resolutions on this subject as well as the relevant part of the special report of the Committee on Disarmament,³⁶ submitted to the General Assembly at its twelfth special session, the second special session devoted to disarmament,

Noting that the Committee on Disarmament considered in 1983 the item entitled "Effective international arrangements to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons" and the work done by its Ad Hoc Working Group on this item, as reflected in the report of the Committee on Disarmament (A/38/27 and Corr.1, sect. III.C),

Noting the proposals submitted under that item in the Committee on Disarmament, including the drafts of an international convention and the widespread international support for the conclusion of such a convention,

Wishing to promote an early and successful completion of the negotiations in the Conference on Disarmament,³⁷ aimed at the elaboration of a convention on the item,

Further noting that the idea of interim arrangements as a first step towards the conclusion of such a convention has also been considered in the Committee on Disarmament, particularly in the form of a Security Council resolution on this subject, and reaffirming the calls made in that respect in General Assembly resolutions 35/154 of 12 December 1980, 36/94 of 9 December 1981 and 37/80 of 9 December 1982,

Convinced that abandoning policies of first use of nuclear weapons would, inter alia, constitute a substantive contribution to the efforts to achieve progress towards effective strengthening of the security guarantees for non-nuclear-weapon States,

Welcoming once again the solemn declarations made by some nuclear-weapon States concerning non-first-use of nuclear weapons, in particular the obligation not to be the first to use nuclear weapons, assumed at the highest political level or confirmed at the twelfth special session of the General Assembly,

Convinced further that, if all nuclear-weapon States were to assume obligations not to be the first to use nuclear weapons, that would be tantamount, in practice, to banning the use of nuclear weapons against all States, including all non-nuclear-weapon States,

Considering that, in the search for a solution to the problem of security assurances, priority should be given to the legitimate security concerns of the non-nuclear-weapon States which, by virtue of their forgoing the nuclear option and of not allowing nuclear weapons to be stationed on their territories, have every right to expect to be most effectively guaranteed against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

1. Reaffirms once again the urgent need to reach agreement on effective international arrangements to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons;

2. Notes with satisfaction that in the Committee on Disarmament there is once again no objection, in principle, to the idea of an international convention on this subject, although the difficulties involved have also been pointed out;

3. Expresses its regret that the difficulties as regards evolving a common approach acceptable to all, related to differing perceptions of security interests of some nuclear-weapon States and non-nuclear-weapon States, have once again prevented the Committee on Disarmament from making substantive progress towards the achievement of an agreement;

³⁵ Resolution S-10/2.

³⁶ Official Records of the General Assembly, Twelfth Special Session, Supplement No. 2 (A/S-12/2), sect. III C.

³⁷ From 7 February 1984, the date of commencement of its annual session, the Committee on Disarmament is to be known as the "Conference on Disarmament" (see A/38/27 and Corr.1, para. 21).

4. Considers that the Conference on Disarmament should continue to explore ways and means to overcome the difficulties encountered in the negotiations to reach an appropriate agreement on effective international arrangements to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons;

5. Requests the Conference on Disarmament to continue the negotiations, as recommended in the report of the Committee on Disarmament on its 1983 session

(A/38/27 and Corr.1), with a view to concluding an international instrument of a legally binding character to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons;

6. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Conclusion of an international convention on the strengthening of the security of non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons".

CONCLUSION OF EFFECTIVE INTERNATIONAL ARRANGEMENTS TO ASSURE NON-NUCLEAR-WEAPON STATES AGAINST THE USE OR THREAT OF USE OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS

The General Assembly,

Bearing in mind the need to allay the legitimate concern of the States of the world with regard to ensuring lasting security for their peoples,

Convinced that nuclear weapons pose the greatest threat to mankind and to the survival of civilization, ³⁸ The delegations of Afghanistan, Costa Rica, the Dominican Republic, Guyana, Iraq, Malawi, Morocco and Nigeria subsequently informed the Secretariat that they had intended to vote in favour of the draft resolution, and the delegation of the Bahamas that it had intended to abstain.

Deeply concerned at the continuing escalation of the arms race, in particular the nuclear-arms race, and the possibility of the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Convinced that nuclear disarmament and the complete elimination of nuclear weapons are essential to remove the danger of nuclear war,

Taking into account the principle of the non-use of force or threat of force enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations,

Deeply concerned about the possibility of the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Recognizing that the independence, territorial integrity and sovereignty of non-nuclear-weapon States need to be safeguarded against the use or threat of use of force, including the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Considering that, until nuclear disarmament is achieved on a universal basis, it is imperative for the international community to develop effective measures to ensure the security of non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons from any quarter,

Recognizing that effective measures to assure the non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons can constitute a positive contribution to the prevention of the spread of nuclear weapons,

Recalling its resolutions 3261 G (XXIX) of 9 December 1974 and 31/189 C of 21 December 1976,

Bearing in mind paragraph 59 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,³⁵ in which it urged the nuclear-weapon States to pursue efforts to conclude, as appropriate, effective arrangements to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Desirous of promoting the implementation of the relevant provisions of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session,

Recalling its resolutions 33/72 of 14 December 1978, 34/85 of 11 December 1979, 35/155 of 12 December 1980, 36/95 of 9 December 1981 and 37/81 of 9 December 1982,

Further noting the support expressed in the Committee on Disarmament and in the General Assembly for the elaboration of an international convention to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons, as well as the difficulties pointed out in evolving a common approach acceptable to all,

1. Reaffirms the urgent need to reach agreement on effective international arrangements to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons;

2. Notes with satisfaction that in the Committee on Disarmament there is no objection, in principle, to the idea of an international convention to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons, although the difficulties as regards evolving a common approach acceptable to all have also been pointed out;

3. Appeals to all States, especially the nuclear-weapon States, to demonstrate the political will necessary to reach agreement on a common approach and, in particular, on a common formula which could be included in an international instrument of a legally binding character;

Draft resolution A/C.1/38/L.54 and Rev.1 and 2

7. On 11 November, France submitted a draft resolution entitled "Relationship between disarmament and development" (A/C.1/38/L.54), which was later also sponsored by the Ivory Coast, Mali and Zaire. The draft resolution was introduced by the representative of France at the 33rd meeting, on 17 November, and read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Deeply concerned by the arms buildup and trends in military expenditures, the resulting waste of human and economic resources and the potential consequences for world peace and security,

"Also concerned by the scale of the crisis affecting the world economy, and particularly the developing countries,

"Considering that the scale of military expenditures is now such that their various implications cannot long be ignored in the efforts of the international community to ensure the recovery of the world economy and a better distribution of resources,

"Also considering that a reduction of military expenditures on a mutually agreed basis would be a measure that would curb the arms buildup and would make it possible to release additional resources for use in economic and social development, particularly for the benefit of the developing countries,

*"Bearing in mind the conclusions of the study entitled The Relationship between Disarmament and Development,⁴⁵ as well as resolutions 36/92 G of 9 December 1981 and 37/84 of 9 December 1982, in which the General Assembly took note of those conclusions,*

"Noting that an investigation of the modalities of an international disarmament fund for development was undertaken in 1983 by the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research, as requested by the General Assembly in its resolution 37/84,

"Recalling the recommendation of the General Assembly in its resolution 37/84 according to which the question of reallocation and conversion of resources, through disarmament measures, from military to civilian purposes should be included in the provisional agenda of the General Assembly at intervals to be decided upon,

"Convinced that the time has come to study measures that could be taken on the basis of the conclusions and recommendations of existing studies or studies being prepared on this question,

"Noting that the envisaged initiatives include, in particular, a proposal to convene an international conference on military expenditure (resolution 37/95 B), as well as a conference on the various implications of the relationship between disarmament and development,

"1. Expresses its conviction that increased solidarity in the field of development would contribute to a significant improvement in conditions of international security and that the initiation of a process of reducing military expenditures would promote such solidarity;

"2. Invites Member States to communicate to the Secretary-General, by 1 April 1984, their views and proposals concerning the relationship between disarmament and development, in particular with regard to the following:

"(a) The evaluation of the burden of weapons in the world;

"(b) The impact of military expenditures on the world economic situation and development;

"(c) The contribution which a reduction in arms and military expenditures, in particular by the main military Powers, or a contribution by these Powers in proportion to their military effort, would make to development tasks;

"(d) The mechanisms which would enable this contribution to be made, in particular in the interests of the economic and social progress of the developing countries;

“(e) The consideration of proposals relating to the convening of a conference;

“3. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit the replies of Member States to the Disarmament Commission in good time;

“4. Requests the Disarmament Commission to include this item in the agenda of its session to be held in 1984, to consider the replies received and to make appropriate recommendations for the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.”

Recommendation of the First Committee

7. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

IMMEDIATE CESSATION AND PROHIBITION OF NUCLEAR-WEAPON TESTS

The General Assembly,

Deeply concerned over the continuing nuclear-arms race and the growing danger of nuclear war,

Convinced that the conclusion of a multilateral treaty on the prohibition of nuclear-weapon tests by all States would constitute a vital element for the success of efforts to halt and reverse the nuclear-arms race and the qualitative improvement of nuclear weapons, and to prevent the expansion of existing nuclear arsenals and the spread of nuclear weapons to additional countries,

Convinced also that the elaboration of such a treaty is a task of the highest priority and should not be made dependent on the attainment of any other measure in the field of disarmament,

Deploring that the Committee on Disarmament has to date been unable to carry out negotiations with a view to reaching agreement on such a treaty,

Recalling its previous resolutions on this subject,

1. Urges all States to exert every effort for the speediest elaboration of a multilateral treaty on the prohibition of nuclear-weapon tests by all States;

2. Urges the Conference on Disarmament³⁷ to proceed promptly to negotiations with a view to elaborating such a treaty as a matter of the highest priority, taking into account all existing drafts and proposals and future initiatives, and for that purpose to assign to its subsidiary body a negotiating mandate under an appropriate item of its agenda;

Recommendation of the First Committee

10. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

REDUCTION OF MILITARY BUDGETS

A

The General Assembly,

Deeply concerned about the ever-spiralling arms race and growing military expenditures, which constitute a heavy burden for the economies of all nations and have extremely harmful effects on world peace and security,

Reaffirming once again the provisions of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, the first special session devoted to disarmament, according to which the gradual reduction of military budgets on a mutually agreed basis, for example in absolute figures or in terms of percentage, particularly by nuclear-weapon States and other militarily significant States, would contribute to curbing the arms race and would increase the possibilities for the reallocation of resources now being used for military purposes to economic and social development, particularly for the benefit of the developing countries,⁴⁷

Recalling that at its twelfth special session, the second special session devoted to disarmament, all Member

⁴⁶ The delegations of Bangladesh, Colombia, Djibouti, the Dominican Republic, Haiti, Malawi, Malaysia, Togo and the United Republic of Cameroon subsequently informed the Secretariat that they had intended to vote in favour of the draft resolution and the delegation of the Congo that it had intended to abstain.

⁴⁷ Resolution S-10/2, para. 89.

States unanimously and categorically reaffirmed the validity of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session, as well as their solemn commitment to it.⁴⁸

Recalling also the Declaration of the 1980s as the Second United Nations Disarmament Decade,⁴⁹ in which it is provided that during this period renewed efforts should be made to reach agreement on the reduction of military expenditures and the reallocation of resources thus saved to economic and social development, especially for the benefit of developing countries,

Recalling further the provisions of its resolution 34/83 F of 11 December 1979, subsequently reaffirmed in its resolutions 35/142 A of 12 December 1980, 36/82 A of 9 December 1981 and 37/95 A of 13 December 1982, in which it considered that a new impetus should be given to the endeavours to achieve agreements to freeze, reduce or otherwise restrain, in a balanced manner, military expenditure, including adequate measures of verification satisfactory to all parties concerned,

Aware of the various proposals submitted by Member States and of the activities carried out so far within the framework of the United Nations in the field of the reduction of military budgets,

Convinced that identification and elaboration of the principles which should govern further actions of States in freezing and reducing military budgets could contribute to harmonizing the views of States and create confidence among them conducive to achieving international agreements on the reduction of military budgets,

Considering that the identification and elaboration of the principles which should govern further actions of States in freezing and reducing military budgets and the other current activities within the framework of the United Nations related to the question of the reduction of military budgets should be regarded as having the fundamental objective of reaching international agreements on the reduction of military expenditures,

Taking note of the report of the Disarmament Commission on the work of its session in 1983 on the question of the reduction of military budgets (A/38/42, para. 23),

1. Declares once again its conviction that it is possible to achieve international agreements on the reduction of military budgets without prejudice to the right of all States to undiminished security, self-defence and sovereignty;

2. Reaffirms that the human and material resources released through the reduction of military expenditures could be reallocated to economic and social development, particularly for the benefit of the developing countries;

3. Calls upon all Member States, in particular the most heavily armed States, to reinforce their readiness to co-operate in a constructive manner with a view to reaching agreements to freeze, reduce or otherwise restrain military expenditures;

4. Appeals to all States, in particular to the most heavily armed States, pending the conclusion of agreements on the reduction of military expenditures, to exercise self-restraint in their military expenditures with a view to reallocating the funds thus saved to economic and social development, particularly for the benefit of developing countries;

5. Requests the Disarmament Commission to continue, at its 1984 substantive session, the consideration of the item entitled "Reduction of military budgets", including consideration of the suggestions of the Chairman of the working group (A/38/42, annex XIII), as well as other proposals and ideas on the subject-matter, with a view to further identifying and elaborating the principles which should govern further actions of States in the field of freezing and reduction of military expenditures, keeping in mind the possibility of embodying such principles in a suitable document at an appropriate stage;

6. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Reduction of military budgets".

B

The General Assembly,

Deeply concerned about the arms race and present tendencies to increase further the rate of growth of military expenditures, the deplorable waste of human and economic resources and the potentially harmful effects on world peace and security,

Considering that a gradual reduction of military expenditures on a mutually agreed basis would be a measure that would contribute to curbing the arms race and would increase the possibilities of reallocating resources now being used for military purposes to economic and social development, particularly for the benefit of the developing countries,

Convinced that such reductions could and should be carried out on a mutually agreed basis without detriment to the national security of any country,

Reaffirming its conviction that provisions for defining, reporting, comparing and verifying military expenditures will have to be basic elements of any international agreement to reduce such expenditures,

Recalling that an international system for the standardized reporting of military expenditures has been introduced in pursuance of General Assembly resolution 35/142 B of 12 December 1980, and that annual reports on military expenditures are now being received from a number of Member States,

Considering that a wider participation in the reporting system of States from different geographic regions and representing different budgeting systems would promote its further refinement and would, by contributing to greater openness in military matters, increase confidence between States,

Noting, in this connection, the proposal to convene an international conference on military expenditures,

Recalling its resolution 37/95 B of 13 December 1982, in which it requested the Secretary-General, with the assistance of a group of qualified experts and with the voluntary co-operation of States, to undertake the task of constructing price indices and purchasing-power parities for the military expenditures of participating States,

Considering that a wide participation in this exercise is essential for achieving the most useful results possible,

Noting that in the progress report of the Secretary-General (A/38/354 and Corr.1) the Group of Experts on the Reduction of Military Budgets established that a direct contact between its members and the voluntarily participating Member States is vital for the work of the Group,

Emphasizing that all the above-mentioned activities and initiatives, as well as other ongoing activities within the United Nations relating to the reduction of military budgets, should have the fundamental objective of facilitating future negotiations aimed at the conclusion of international agreements on the reduction of military expenditures,

1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/434) containing the replies received in 1983 from Member States in the framework of the above-mentioned reporting system and with the submitted data arranged by the Secretariat according to statistical practice, and of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/353 and Corr.1 and Add.1) containing views and suggestions of States on practical means of promoting the wider participation of States in the international system of standardized reporting of military expenditures;

2. Stresses the need to increase the number of reporting States with a view to the broadest possible participation of States from different geographic regions and representing different budgeting systems;

3. Reiterates its recommendation that all Member States should report annually, by 30 April, to the Secretary-General, using the reporting instrument, their military expenditures for the latest fiscal year for which data are available;

4. Also takes note with appreciation of the progress report of the Secretary-General (A/38/354 and Corr.1) on the ongoing exercise undertaken in pursuance of paragraph 5 of General Assembly resolution 37/95 B;

5. Reiterates its invitation to all Member States to participate in the above-mentioned exercise;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Group of Experts on the Reduction of Military Budgets with sufficient financial and other resources to carry out its complex tasks as outlined in the progress report of the Secretary-General;

7. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Reduction of military budgets".

Recommendation of the First Committee

8. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DECLARATION OF THE INDIAN OCEAN AS A ZONE OF PEACE

The General Assembly,

Recalling the Declaration of the Indian Ocean as a Zone of Peace, contained in its resolution 2832 (XXVI) of 16 December 1971, and recalling also its resolutions 2992 (XXVII) of 15 December 1972, 3080 (XXVIII) of 6 December 1973, 3259 A (XXIX) of 9 December 1974, 3468 (XXX) of 11 December 1975, 31/88 of 14 December 1976, 32/86 of 12 December 1977, S-10/2 of 30 June 1978, 33/68 of 14 December 1978, 34/80 A and B of 11 December 1979, 35/150 of 12 December 1980, 36/90 of 9 December 1981 and 37/96 of 13 December 1982, and other relevant resolutions,

⁵¹ The delegations of Guyana and Morocco subsequently informed the Secretariat that they had intended to vote in favour of operative paragraph 6.

Recalling further the report of the Meeting of the Littoral and Hinterland States of the Indian Ocean,⁵³

Reaffirming its conviction that concrete action for the achievement of the objectives of the Declaration of the Indian Ocean as a Zone of Peace would be a substantial contribution to the strengthening of international peace and security,

Recalling its decision, taken at its thirty-fourth session in resolution 34/80 B, to convene a Conference on the Indian Ocean at Colombo during 1981,

Recalling also its decision to make every effort, in consideration of the political and security climate in the Indian Ocean area and progress made in the harmonization of views, to finalize, in accordance with its normal methods of work, all preparations for the Conference, including the dates for its convening,

Recalling further its decision taken at the thirty-seventh session in resolution 37/96 concerning the consideration of the convening of the Conference not later than the first half of 1984,

Recalling the exchange of views in the Ad Hoc Committee on the Indian Ocean in 1983,

Noting the exchange of views on the adverse political and security climate in the region,

Noting further the various documents before the Ad Hoc Committee,

Convinced that the continued military presence of the great Powers in the Indian Ocean area, conceived in the context of their confrontation, gives urgency to the need to take practical steps for the early achievement of the objectives of the Declaration of the Indian Ocean as a Zone of Peace,

Considering that any other foreign military presence in the area, whenever it is contrary to the objectives of the Declaration of the Indian Ocean as a Zone of Peace and the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations, gives greater urgency to the need to take practical steps towards the early achievement of the objectives of the Declaration,

Considering also that the creation of a zone of peace in the Indian Ocean requires the active participation of and full co-operation among the littoral and hinterland States, the permanent members of the Security Council and the major maritime users to ensure conditions of peace and security based on the purposes and principles of the Charter, as well as on the general principles of international law,

Considering further that the creation of a zone of peace requires co-operation and agreement among the States of the region to ensure conditions of peace and security within the area, as envisaged in the Declaration of the Indian Ocean as a Zone of Peace, and respect for the independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity of the littoral and hinterland States,

Calling for the renewal of genuinely constructive efforts through the exercise of the political will necessary for the achievement of the objectives of the Declaration of the Indian Ocean as a Zone of Peace,

Deeply concerned at the danger posed by the grave and ominous developments in the area and the resulting sharp deterioration of peace, security and stability which particularly seriously affect the littoral and hinterland States, as well as international peace and security,

Convinced that the continued deterioration of the political and security climate in the Indian Ocean area is an important consideration bearing on the question of the urgent convening of the Conference and that the easing of tension in the area would enhance the prospect of success being achieved by the Conference,

1. Takes note of the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Indian Ocean (A/38/29) and the exchange of views in the Committee;

2. Regrets that the Ad Hoc Committee has failed to reach consensus on the finalization of dates for the convening, during 1984, of the Conference on the Indian Ocean;

3. Emphasizes its decision to convene the Conference at Colombo as a necessary step for the implementation of the Declaration of the Indian Ocean as a Zone of Peace, adopted in 1971;

4. Takes note of the work of the Ad Hoc Committee during 1983;

5. Requests the Ad Hoc Committee to make decisive efforts in 1984 to complete preparatory work relating to the Conference on the Indian Ocean, in consideration of the political and security climate in the region and with a view to enabling the opening of the Conference at Colombo in the first half of 1985, it being understood that such preparatory work would comprise organizational matters, including the provisional agenda for the Conference, rules of procedure, documentation and consideration of appropriate arrangements for any international agreement that may ultimately be reached for the maintenance of the Indian Ocean as a zone of peace, and substantive issues;

6. Requests the Ad Hoc Committee at the same time to make determined efforts in 1984 for the necessary harmonization of views on the remaining relevant issues;

7. Renews the mandate of the Ad Hoc Committee as defined in the relevant resolutions and requests the Committee to intensify its work with regard to the implementation of its mandate;

8. Requests the Ad Hoc Committee to hold three further sessions in 1984 of a duration of two weeks each, with the possibility of holding a fourth session to be considered as required;

9. Requests the Chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee to continue his consultations on the participation in the work of the Committee by States Members of the United Nations which are not members of the Committee, with the aim of resolving this matter at the earliest possible date;

10. Requests the Ad Hoc Committee to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session a full report on the implementation of the present resolution;

11. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to render all necessary assistance to the Ad Hoc Committee, including the provision of summary records.

Recommendation of the First Committee

15. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

CHEMICAL AND BACTERIOLOGICAL (BIOLOGICAL) WEAPONS

Prohibition of chemical and bacteriological weapons

The General Assembly,

Recalling paragraph 75 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,³⁵ the first special session devoted to disarmament, which states that the complete and effective prohibition of the development, production and stockpiling of all chemical weapons and their destruction represents one of the most urgent measures of disarmament,

Referring to the unanimous and categorical reaffirmation by all Member States at the twelfth special session of the General Assembly, the second special session devoted to disarmament, of the validity of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session,⁴⁸

Convinced of the need for the earliest conclusion of a convention on the prohibition of the development, production and stockpiling of all chemical weapons and on their destruction, which would significantly contribute to general and complete disarmament under effective international control,

Recalling its resolutions 36/96 B of 9 December 1981 and 37/98 A of 13 December 1982,

Expressing profound concern at the intended production and deployment of binary chemical weapons,

Taking into consideration the decision by the Committee on Disarmament on the mandate for the Ad Hoc Working Group on Chemical Weapons, as well as the work of this Group during the session of the Committee on Disarmament in 1983 (A/38/27 and Corr.1, para. 79),

Deeming it desirable for States to refrain from taking any action that could delay or further complicate negotiations,

Aware that the qualitative improvement and development of chemical weapons complicate ongoing negotiations on the prohibition of chemical weapons,

Taking note of proposals on the creation of chemical-weapon-free zones aimed at facilitating the complete prohibition of chemical weapons,

1. Reaffirms the necessity of the speediest elaboration and conclusion of a convention on the prohibition of the development, production and stockpiling of all chemical weapons and on their destruction;

2. Appeals to all States to facilitate in every possible way the conclusion of such a convention;

3. Urges the Conference on Disarmament³⁷ to intensify the negotiations in the Ad Hoc Working Group on Chemical Weapons in fulfilment of its present mandate, to achieve accord on a chemical weapons convention at the earliest possible date and, for this purpose, to proceed immediately to drafting such a convention for submission to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

"The General Assembly,

"Convinced that all channels of the arms race should be effectively covered by the efforts to halt and reverse it,

"Disturbed by the growing threat to international peace and security posed by the continuing escalation of the naval arms race,

"Aware that the growing military presence and naval activities of some States in conflict areas or far from their own shores increase the tension in these regions and could adversely affect the security of the international sea lanes through these areas,

"Alarmed by the ever more frequent use of naval formations (units, fleets, forces) for demonstration of force and as an instrument of pressure against sovereign States or of interference in their internal affairs, thus threatening their vital security interests, independence and territorial integrity,

"Firmly convinced that the undertaking of urgent practical steps to curb the military confrontation at sea would serve the interests of international peace, security and prevention of nuclear war,

"Convinced that the progress at the on-going bilateral negotiations on limitation and reduction of strategic armaments could, inter alia, facilitate the efforts to restrict dangerous destabilizing naval activities,

"Considering that the transformation of certain areas of the world ocean, including the Indian Ocean and the Mediterranean Sea, into zones of peace and co-operation would also significantly contribute to the efforts to limit the naval activities in the world ocean,

"Aware of the numerous initiatives and concrete proposals to undertake agreed measures aimed at limiting naval activities, limiting and reducing naval armaments and extending confidence-building measures to seas and oceans,

"Believing that measures in this field would be a significant contribution to the efforts to strengthen international security and prevent war, especially nuclear war,

"Reaffirming that the world ocean, being of a vital importance for mankind, should be used exclusively for peaceful purposes,

"1. Appeals to all Member States, in particular the major naval Powers, to refrain from enlarging their naval activities in areas of conflict or tension, or far from their own shores;

"2. Recognizes the urgent need to start negotiations with the participation of the major naval Powers and other interested States on the limitation of naval activities, the limitation and reduction of naval armaments and the extension of confidence-building measures to seas and oceans, especially to regions with the busiest sea lanes or regions where the probability of conflict situations is high;

"3. Invites the Member States to communicate to the Secretary-General their views, not later than June 1984, concerning modalities for holding such negotiations;

"4. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session a report based on the replies of Member States called for under paragraph 3 above;

"5. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session an item entitled 'Limitation of naval activities, limitation and reduction of naval armaments, extension of confidence-building measures to seas and oceans'."

"Mindful also of recent developments in the law of the sea,

"Noting that some naval units constitute integral parts of the strategic nuclear forces of the two major nuclear-weapon Powers and are therefore included in the strategic arms negotiations,

Recommendations of the First Committee

38. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

GENERAL AND COMPLETE DISARMAMENT

Study on conventional disarmament

The General Assembly,

Recalling its previous resolutions in which, inter alia, it approved the carrying out of a study on all aspects of the conventional arms race and on disarmament relating to conventional weapons and armed forces, to be undertaken by the Secretary-General with the assistance of a group of qualified experts appointed by him on a balanced geographical basis,

Recalling the discussions at the 1981 and 1982 substantive sessions of the Disarmament Commission on the general approach to the study and its structure and scope, which resulted in the establishment of agreed guidelines for the study,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/437) to which is annexed a letter from the Chairman of the Group of Experts on All Aspects of the Conventional Arms Race and on Disarmament relating to Conventional Weapons and Armed Forces informing the Secretary-General that, owing to the very wide area embraced by the study and the sensitivity and complexity of the issues involved, the Group of Experts needs further time in order to complete its work;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to continue the study and to submit the final report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

B

Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Prohibition of the Emplacement of Nuclear Weapons and Other Weapons of Mass Destruction on the Sea-Bed and the Ocean Floor and in the Subsoil Thereof

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 2660 (XXV) of 7 December 1970, in which it commended the Treaty on the Prohibition of the Emplacement of Nuclear Weapons and Other Weapons of Mass Destruction on the Sea-Bed and the Ocean Floor and in the Subsoil Thereof,

Convinced that the Treaty constitutes a step towards the exclusion of the sea-bed, the ocean floor and the subsoil thereof from the arms race,

Recalling that the States parties to the Treaty met at Geneva from 12 to 23 September 1983 to review the operation of the Treaty with a view to assuring that the purposes of the preamble and the provisions of the Treaty were being realized,

Noting with satisfaction that the Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Prohibition of the Emplacement of Nuclear Weapons and Other Weapons of Mass Destruction on the Sea-Bed and the Ocean Floor and in the Subsoil Thereof concluded that the obligations assumed under the Treaty had been faithfully observed by the States parties,⁶⁴

Noting that in its Final Declaration the Review Conference affirmed its belief that universal adherence to the Treaty would enhance international peace and security,⁶⁴

Noting furthermore that the States parties to the Treaty reaffirmed their strong support for and continued dedication to the principles and objectives of the Treaty, as well as their commitment to implement effectively its provisions,

Recognizing that in the Final Declaration the States parties to the Treaty reaffirmed the commitment undertaken in article V to continue negotiations in good faith concerning further measures in the field of disarmament for the prevention of an arms race on the sea-bed, the ocean floor and the subsoil thereof,

1. Welcomes with satisfaction the positive assessment by the Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Prohibition of the Emplacement of Nuclear Weapons and Other Weapons of Mass Destruction on the Sea-Bed and the Ocean Floor and in the Subsoil Thereof of the effectiveness of the Treaty since its entry into force, as reflected in its Final Declaration;

2. Reiterates its expressed hope for the widest possible adherence to the Treaty;

3. Affirms its strong interest in avoiding an arms race in nuclear weapons or any other types of weapons of mass destruction on the sea-bed, the ocean floor or the subsoil thereof;

4. Calls again upon all States to refrain from any action which might lead to the extension of the arms race to the sea-bed and the ocean floor;

5. Requests the Conference on Disarmament,⁶⁵ in consultation with the States parties to the Treaty, taking into account existing proposals and any relevant technological developments, to proceed promptly with consideration of further measures in the field of disarmament for the prevention of an arms race on the sea-bed, the ocean floor and the subsoil thereof;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit to the Conference on Disarmament all documents of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly relevant to further measures in the field of disarmament for the prevention of an arms race on the sea-bed, the ocean floor and the subsoil thereof;

7. Requests the Conference on Disarmament to report on its consideration of further measures in the field of disarmament for the prevention of an arms race on the sea-bed, the ocean floor and the subsoil thereof to the General Assembly at its fortieth session.

⁶⁵ From 7 February 1984, the date of commencement of its annual session, the Committee on Disarmament is to be known as the "Conference on Disarmament" (see A/38/27 and Corr.1, para. 21).

Measures to provide objective information on military capabilities

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/99 G of 13 December 1982,

Deeply concerned about the continuing escalation of the arms race, in particular the nuclear-arms race, its extremely harmful effects on world peace and security and the deplorable waste of human and material resources for military purposes,

Recalling paragraph 105 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,⁶⁰ which encourages Member States to ensure a better flow of information with regard to the various aspects of disarmament to avoid dissemination of false and tendentious information concerning armaments and to concentrate on the danger of escalation of the arms race and on the need for general and complete disarmament under effective international control,

Noting that misperceptions of the military capabilities and the intentions of potential adversaries, which could be caused, inter alia, by the lack of objective information, could induce States to undertake armaments programmes leading to the acceleration of the arms race, in particular the nuclear-arms race, and to heightened international tensions,

Aware that objective information on the military capabilities, in particular among nuclear-weapon States and other militarily significant States, could contribute to the building of confidence among States and to the conclusion of concrete disarmament agreements and, thereby, help to halt and reverse the arms race,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/368 and Add.1 and 2);

2. Calls once more upon all States, in particular nuclear-weapon States and other militarily significant States, to consider additional measures to facilitate the provision of objective information on, as well as objective assessments of, military capabilities;

3. Invites all States that have not communicated to the Secretary-General their views and proposals concerning such measures to do so as soon as possible, and those States that have already communicated such views and proposals to supplement them, as appropriate;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to ask the Advisory Board on Disarmament Studies to consider the modalities of studying the question of measures to facilitate objective information on, and objective assessments of, military capabilities, in particular among nuclear-weapon States and other militarily significant States;

5. Further requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the implementation of the provisions of the present resolution.

Prohibition of the development, production, stockpiling and use of radiological weapons

The General Assembly,

Recalling the resolution of the Commission for Conventional Armaments of 12 August 1948, which defined weapons of mass destruction to include atomic explosive weapons, radioactive material weapons, lethal chemical and biological weapons and any weapons developed in the future which have characteristics comparable in destructive effect to those of the atomic bomb or the other weapons mentioned above,

Recalling its resolution 2602 C (XXIV) of 16 December 1969,

Recalling paragraph 76 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,⁶⁰ in which it is stated that a convention should be concluded prohibiting the development, production, stockpiling and use of radiological weapons,

Reaffirming its resolution 37/99 C of 13 December 1982 on the conclusion of such a convention,

Convinced that such a convention would serve to spare mankind the potential dangers of the use of radiological weapons and thereby contribute to strengthening peace and averting the threat of war,

Noting that negotiations on the conclusion of an international convention prohibiting the development, production, stockpiling and use of radiological weapons have been conducted in the Committee on Disarmament,

Taking note of that part of the report of the Committee on Disarmament on the work of its 1983 session which deals with these negotiations, including the report of the Ad Hoc Working Group on Radiological Weapons (A/38/27 and Corr.1, para. 83),

Recognizing that, notwithstanding the progress achieved in those negotiations, divergent views continue to exist in connection with various aspects,

Taking into consideration that the peaceful applications of nuclear energy involve the establishment of a large number of nuclear installations with a high concentration of radioactive materials, and bearing in mind that attacks against such nuclear facilities could have disastrous consequences,

Noting with satisfaction the wide recognition of the need to reach agreement on the comprehensive prohibition of radiological weapons,

1. Requests the Conference on Disarmament⁶⁵ to continue negotiations with a view to a prompt conclusion of the elaboration of a convention prohibiting the development, production, stockpiling and use of radiological weapons in order that it may be submitted to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

2. Further requests the Conference on Disarmament to continue its search for a prompt solution to the question of prohibition of attacks on nuclear facilities, including the scope of such prohibition, taking into account all proposals submitted to it to this end;

3. Takes note of the recommendation of the Ad Hoc Working Group on Radiological Weapons, in the report adopted by the Committee on Disarmament, to re-establish an Ad Hoc Working Group at the beginning of its 1984 session to continue its work and in that context to review and assess how best to make progress on the subject matter (ibid., subpara. 13);

4. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit to the Conference on Disarmament all documents relating to the consideration by the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session of the prohibition of the development, production, stockpiling and use of radiological weapons and on the question of prohibition of attacks on nuclear facilities;

5. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Prohibition of the development, production, stockpiling and use of radiological weapons”.

Prohibition of the production of fissionable material for weapons purposes

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 33/91 H of 16 December 1978, 34/87 D of 11 December 1979, 35/156 H of 12 December 1980, 36/97 G of 9 December 1981 and 37/99 E of 13 December 1982, in which it requested the Committee on Disarmament, at an appropriate stage of the implementation of the Programme of Action set forth in section III of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly⁶⁰ and of its work on the item entitled “Nuclear weapons in all aspects”, to consider urgently the question of adequately verified cessation and prohibition of the production of fissionable material for nuclear weapons and other nuclear explosive devices and to keep the Assembly informed of the progress of that consideration,

Noting that the agenda of the Committee on Disarmament for 1983 included the item entitled “Cessation of the nuclear arms race and nuclear disarmament” and that the Committee’s programme of work for both parts of the session held in 1983 contained this item,

Recalling the proposals and statements made in the Committee on Disarmament on that item (A/38/27 and Corr.1, sect. III.B),

Considering that the cessation of the production of fissionable material for weapons purposes and the progressive conversion and transfer of stocks to peaceful uses would be a significant step towards halting and reversing the nuclear-arms race,

Considering that the prohibition of the production of fissionable material for nuclear weapons and other explosive devices also would be an important measure in facilitating the prevention of the proliferation of nuclear weapons and explosive devices,

Requests the Conference on Disarmament,⁶⁵ at an appropriate stage of its work on the item entitled “Nuclear weapons in all aspects”, to pursue its consideration of the question of adequately verified cessation and prohibition of the production of fissionable material for nuclear weapons and other nuclear explosive devices and to keep the General Assembly informed of the progress of that consideration.

F

Curbing the naval arms race: limitation and reduction of naval armaments and extension of confidence-building measures to seas and oceans

The General Assembly,

Convinced that all channels of the arms race, and in particular the nuclear arms race, should be effectively covered by the efforts to halt and reverse it,

Disturbed by the growing threat to international peace and security posed by the continuing escalation of the naval arms race, especially in its nuclear aspects,

Aware that the growing military presence and naval activities of some States in conflict areas or far from their own shores increase the tension in these regions and could adversely affect the security of the international sea lanes through these areas and the exploitation of marine resources,

Alarmed by the ever more frequent use of naval formations (units, fleets, forces) for the demonstration of force and as an instrument of pressure against sovereign States or of interference in their internal affairs, thus threatening their vital security interests, independence and territorial integrity,

Firmly convinced that the undertaking of urgent practical steps to curb military confrontation at sea would serve the interests of international peace, security and prevention of nuclear war,

Convinced that the progress at the ongoing bilateral negotiations on limitation and reduction of strategic armaments could, inter alia, facilitate the efforts to restrict dangerous destabilizing naval activities and the naval arms race,

Aware of the numerous initiatives and concrete proposals to undertake agreed measures aimed at limiting naval activities, limiting and reducing naval armaments and extending confidence-building measures to seas and oceans,

Believing that measures in this field would be a significant contribution to the efforts to strengthen international security and prevent war, especially nuclear war,

Reaffirming that seas and oceans, being of vital importance for mankind, should be used exclusively for peaceful purposes,

1. Appeals to all Member States, in particular the major naval Powers, to refrain from enlarging their naval activities in areas of conflict or tension, or far from their own shores;

2. Recognizes the urgent need to start negotiations with the participation of the major naval Powers, the nuclear-weapon States in particular, and other interested States on the limitation of naval activities, the limitation and reduction of naval armaments, taking into due account the nuclear aspect of the naval arms race, and the extension of confidence-building measures to seas and oceans, especially to regions with the busiest sea lanes or regions where the probability of conflict situations is high;

3. Invites the Member States to communicate to the Secretary-General, not later than June 1984, their views concerning modalities for holding such negotiations;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session a report based on the replies of Member States called for under paragraph 3 above;

5. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session an item entitled “Curbing the naval arms race: limitation and reduction of naval armaments and extension of confidence-building measures to seas and oceans”.

G

Study on the naval arms race

The General Assembly,

Concerned about the naval buildup and the development of naval arms systems,

Mindful of the paramount importance for the security and well-being of all nations, for international trade and shipping and for the economic exploitation of marine resources of preserving freedom of the high seas and of keeping open international sea communications for trade and shipping in a manner consistent with the Charter of the United Nations and with the principles of international law,

Mindful also of recent developments in the law of the sea,

Noting that some naval units constitute integral parts of the strategic nuclear forces of the two major nuclear-weapon Powers and are therefore included in the strategic arms negotiations while other naval nuclear weapons systems are not the subject of any disarmament negotiations,

Recalling paragraph 96 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,⁶⁰ which stated that taking further steps in the field of disarmament and other measures aimed at promoting international peace and security would be facilitated by carrying out studies by the Secretary-General in this field with appropriate assistance from governmental or consultant experts,

Convinced that a broad study carried out by the United Nations on the naval arms race, as well as on the development of naval forces and systems and their deployment, would enhance international understanding of the issues involved,

1. Requests the Secretary-General, with the assistance of qualified governmental experts,⁶¹ to carry out a comprehensive study on the naval arms race, on naval forces and naval arms systems, including maritime nuclear-weapons systems, as well as on the development, deployment and mode of operation of such naval forces and systems, all with a view to analysing their possible implications for international security, for the freedom of the high seas, for international shipping routes and for the exploitation of marine resources, thereby facilitating the identification of possible areas for disarmament and confidence-building measures;

Recalling paragraph 96 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,⁶⁰ in which it was stated that taking further steps in the field of disarmament and other measures aimed at promoting international peace and security would be facilitated by the carrying out of studies by the Secretary-General in this field with appropriate assistance from governmental or consultant experts,

"Deeply concerned over the continuing stagnation in the disarmament negotiating efforts and the ever-escalating armaments race, particularly nuclear, which make the survival of mankind extremely precarious,

"Gravely concerned over the present state of international affairs characterized by the continued resort to violence and the use of force, in violation of the Charter of the United Nations,

"Firmly convinced that a closely interdependent world composed of many sovereign nations cannot possibly function towards peace, security and survival in a nuclear and space age without an effectively functioning organization,

"Noting that the fundamental function of the United Nations in its primary purpose is the security system provided for in the Charter and that the principles of disarmament embodied in Article 11 of the Charter and flowing from it are an integral part of the system of security,

32. At its 34th meeting, on 21 November, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.1/38/L.62 without a vote (for the text, see para. 33 below, draft resolution J).

Recommendation of the First Committee

33. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

REVIEW AND IMPLEMENTATION OF THE CONCLUDING DOCUMENT OF THE TWELFTH SPECIAL SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Confidence-building measures

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/100 D of 13 December 1982, in which it requested the Disarmament Commission to consider the elaboration of guidelines for appropriate types of confidence-building measures and for the implementation of such measures on a global or regional level and to submit a progress report on its deliberations on this item to the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session,

Having considered the report of the Disarmament Commission on the work accomplished during its session in 1983 on the item “Elaboration of guidelines for appropriate types of confidence-building measures and for the implementation of such measures on a global or regional level” (A/38/42, para. 26),

Expressing its concern about the deterioration of the international situation and the further escalation of the arms race, which both reflect and aggravate the unsatisfactory international political climate, tension and mistrust,

Desirous of strengthening international peace and security and, at the same time, creating and improving conditions conducive to further measures of disarmament,

Noting again the findings of the *Comprehensive Study on Confidence-building Measures*⁶⁷ and in particular the important role that confidence-building measures can play with regard to regional and world-wide stability as well as to progress in disarmament,

Mindful of the fact that, while confidence-building measures cannot serve as a substitute for concrete disarmament measures, they play a very significant role in achieving disarmament, whether they are taken unilaterally, bilaterally or multilaterally,

Convinced of the usefulness of confidence-building measures freely arrived at by the States concerned and agreed upon, taking into account the particular conditions and requirements of the regions concerned,

Convinced of the need to reduce mistrust and fear among States through the realization of confidence-building measures, such as those recommended by consensus in the Comprehensive Study on Confidence-building Measures, including pertinent and timely information on military activities and other matters pertaining to mutual security, and measures concerning the peacetime military conduct of States, as well as through progress on concrete measures of disarmament,

Recalling that confidence reflects a set of interrelated factors of a military as well as of a non-military character and that a plurality of approaches is needed to overcome fear, apprehension and mistrust between States and to replace them by confidence,

Welcoming the convening at Stockholm on 17 January 1984 of the Conference on Confidence- and Security-building Measures and Disarmament in Europe, of which the first stage will be devoted to the negotiation and adoption of a set of mutually complementary confidence- and security-building measures designed to reduce the risk of military confrontation in Europe as characterized in the Concluding Document of the Madrid meeting of representatives of participating States of the Conference on Security and Co-operation in Europe, held from 11 November 1980 to 9 September 1983,

1. Urges all States to encourage and assist all efforts designed to explore further the ways in which confidence-building measures can strengthen international peace and security;

2. Invites all States to consider the possible introduction unilaterally, bilaterally or multilaterally of confidence-building measures in their particular regions and, where possible, to negotiate on them in keeping with the conditions and requirements prevailing in their respective regions;

3. Requests the Disarmament Commission to continue and conclude at its 1984 session the consideration of the item entitled "Elaboration of guidelines for appropriate types of confidence-building measures and for the implementation of such measures on a global or regional level";

4. Further requests the Disarmament Commission to submit a report on its deliberations on this item, containing such guidelines, to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

5. Recommends that all States consider the inclusion of a reference to, or an agreement on, confidence-building measures, as appropriate, in any joint statements or declarations of a political nature;

6. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Consideration of guidelines for confidence-building measures".

Freeze on nuclear weapons

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/100 A of 13 December 1982,

Convinced that in this nuclear age lasting world peace can be based only on the attainment of the goal of general and complete disarmament under effective international control,

Further convinced that the highest priority objectives in the field of disarmament have to be nuclear disarmament and the elimination of all weapons of mass destruction,

Recognizing the urgent need to halt the arms race, particularly in nuclear weapons,

Recognizing further the urgent need for a negotiated reduction of nuclear-weapon stockpiles leading to their complete elimination,

Noting with deep concern that nuclear-weapon States have not so far taken any action in response to the call made in resolution 37/100 A,

1. Once again calls upon all nuclear-weapon States to agree to a freeze on nuclear weapons, which would, inter alia, provide for a simultaneous total stoppage of any further production of nuclear weapons and a complete cut-off in the production of fissionable material for weapons purposes;

2. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Freeze on nuclear weapons".

United Nations programme of fellowships on disarmament

The General Assembly,

Recalling its decision, contained in paragraph 108 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,⁶⁰ to establish a programme of fellowships on disarmament, as well as its decisions contained in annex IV of the Concluding Document of the Twelfth Special Session of the General Assembly,⁷² in which it, inter alia, decided to continue the programme and to increase the number of fellowships from twenty to twenty-five as from 1983,

Noting with satisfaction that the programme has already trained one hundred and four public officials from sixty-seven countries, most of whom are now in positions of responsibility in the field of disarmament affairs within their Governments or Permanent Missions to the United Nations, or representing their Governments at international disarmament meetings,

Bearing in mind the growing interest which continues to be manifested in the programme by an ever-increasing number of States,

Recognizing the fact that the programme of studies and activities as outlined in the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations programme of fellowships on disarmament (A/38/533) has continued to expand,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General (ibid.),

1. Decides to continue the United Nations programme of fellowships on disarmament;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to apply the same criteria of objectivity and balance in drawing up the future programme of activities as he has done so far, in accordance with the guidelines established by the General Assembly at its thirty-third session;

3. Expresses its appreciation to the Governments of Germany, Federal Republic of, Japan, Sweden, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America for inviting the fellows to their countries in 1983 to study selected activities in the field of disarmament, thereby contributing to the fulfilment of the overall objectives of the programme, as well as providing additional information sources and practical knowledge for the fellows, and, in this connection, expresses the hope that other Member States will extend similar support to the programme;

4. Takes note of the decision of the Secretary-General to relocate the fellowship programme and its staff at Geneva as from 1 May 1983 (ibid., para. 9);

5. Notes that the expansion of the programme has led to an increase in the level of its activities;

6. Commends the Secretary-General for the diligence with which the programme has continued to be carried out;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to make the necessary arrangements for the implementation of the programme for 1984, in accordance with the guidelines established for it;

8. Also requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the implementation of the provisions of the present resolution.

D

World Disarmament Campaign

The General Assembly,

Recalling that, in paragraph 15 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,⁶⁰ the first special session devoted to disarmament, it declared that it was essential that not only Governments but also the peoples of the world recognize and understand the dangers in the present situation and stressed the importance of mobilizing world public opinion on behalf of disarmament,

Recalling also its resolutions 35/152 I of 12 December 1980, 36/92 C of 9 December 1981 and 37/100 I of 13 December 1982, as well as the reports of the Secretary-General of 17 September 1981,⁷³ 11 June 1982⁷⁴ and 3 November 1982,⁷⁵

Having examined the report of the Secretary-General of 30 August 1983 (A/38/349) on the implementation of the programme of activities of the World Disarmament Campaign,

Having also examined the part of the report of the Secretary-General dealing with the activities of the Advisory Board on Disarmament Studies relating to the programme of activities of the World Disarmament Campaign (A/38/467, para. 8), as well as the final act of the 1983 United Nations Pledging Conference for the Campaign held on 27 October 1983,⁷⁶

1. Notes with satisfaction the implementation of the programme of activities of the World Disarmament Campaign for 1983 as described in the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/349);

2. Notes also with satisfaction the voluntary contributions made by Member States to the World Disarmament Campaign Voluntary Trust Fund, prior to and during the 1983 United Nations Pledging Conference for the Campaign;

3. Decides that at its thirty-ninth session there should be a second United Nations Pledging Conference for the World Disarmament Campaign, in order that all those Member States that have not yet announced their voluntary contributions may have an opportunity to do so;

4. Recommends that the voluntary contributions made by Member States to the World Disarmament Campaign Voluntary Trust Fund should not be earmarked for specific activities inasmuch as it is most desirable that the Secretary-General may enjoy full freedom to take the decisions he deems fit within the framework of the Campaign previously approved by the General Assembly and in exercise of the powers vested in him in connection with the Campaign;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to instruct the United Nations information centres and regional commissions to give wide publicity to the World Disarmament Campaign and, whenever necessary, to adapt, as far as possible, United Nations information materials into local languages;

6. Also requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session a report covering both the implementation of the programme of activities of the World Disarmament Campaign by the United Nations system during 1984 and the programme of activities contemplated by the system for 1985;

7. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "World Disarmament Campaign".

Nuclear-arms freeze

The General Assembly,

Recalling that in the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,⁶⁰ the first special session devoted to disarmament, adopted in 1978 and unanimously and categorically reaffirmed in 1982 during the twelfth special session of the General Assembly,⁷⁷ its second special session devoted to disarmament, the Assembly expressed deep concern over the threat to the very survival of mankind posed by the existence of nuclear weapons and the continuing arms race,

Recalling also that, on those occasions, it pointed out that existing arsenals of nuclear weapons are more than sufficient to destroy all life on earth and stressed that mankind is therefore confronted with a choice: halt the arms race and proceed to disarmament, or face annihilation,

Noting that the conditions prevailing today are a source of even more serious concern than those existing in 1978 because of several factors such as the deterioration of the international situation, the increase in the accuracy, speed and destructive power of nuclear weapons, the promotion of illusory doctrines of "limited" or "winnable" nuclear war and the many false alarms which have occurred owing to the malfunctioning of computers,

Noting also that at the Seventh Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries, held at New Delhi from 7 to 12 March 1983, it was declared that the renewed escalation in the nuclear arms race, both in its quantitative and qualitative dimensions, as well as reliance on doctrines of nuclear deterrence, has heightened the risk of the outbreak of nuclear war and led to greater insecurity and instability in international relations (see A/38/132-S/15675 and Corr.1 and 2, sect. I, para. 28),

⁷⁵ A/37/548.

⁷⁶ A/CONF.123/1 and Corr.1

⁷⁷ Official Records of the General Assembly, Twelfth Special Session, Annexes, agenda items 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, document A/S-12/32, para. 62.

Believing that it is a matter of the utmost urgency to stop any further increase in the awesome arsenals of the two major nuclear-weapon States, which already have ample retaliatory power and a frightening overkill capacity,

Believing also that it is equally urgent to activate negotiations for the substantial reduction and qualitative limitation of nuclear arms,

Considering that a nuclear-arms freeze, while not an end in itself, would constitute the most effective first step for the achievement of the above-mentioned two objectives, since it would provide a favourable environment for the conduct of the reduction negotiations while, at the same time, preventing the continued increase and qualitative improvement of existing nuclear weaponry during the period when the negotiations would take place,

Firmly convinced that at present the conditions are most propitious for such a freeze, since the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America are now equivalent in nuclear military power and it seems evident that there exists between them an overall rough parity,

Conscious that the mere application of the systems of surveillance, verification and control already agreed upon in some previous cases would be sufficient to provide a reasonable guarantee of faithful compliance with the undertakings derived from the freeze,

Convinced that it would be to the benefit of all other States possessing nuclear weapons to follow the example of the two major nuclear-weapon States as soon as positive results derived from the freeze agreed by them have been obtained,

1. Urges once more the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United States of America, as the two major nuclear-weapon States, to proclaim, either through simultaneous unilateral declarations or through a joint declaration, an immediate nuclear-arms freeze, which would be a first step towards the comprehensive programme of disarmament and whose structure and scope would:

(a) Embrace:

- (i) A comprehensive test ban of nuclear weapons and of their delivery vehicles;
- (ii) The complete cessation of the manufacture of nuclear weapons and of their delivery vehicles;
- (iii) A ban on all further deployment of nuclear weapons and of their delivery vehicles;
- (iv) The complete cessation of the production of fissionable material for weapons purposes;

(b) Be subject to all relevant measures and procedures of verification which have already been agreed by the parties in the case of the SALT I⁷⁸ and SALT II⁷⁹ treaties, as well as those agreed upon in principle by them during the preparatory trilateral negotiations on the comprehensive test ban held at Geneva;

(c) Be of an initial five-year duration, subject to prolongation in the event of other nuclear-weapon States joining in such a freeze, as the General Assembly expects them to do;

2. Requests the above-mentioned two major nuclear-weapon States to submit a joint report or two separate reports to the General Assembly, prior to the opening of its thirty-ninth session, on the implementation of the present resolution;

3. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session an item entitled "Implementation of General Assembly resolution 38/73 E on a nuclear-arms freeze".

F

World Disarmament Campaign: actions and activities

The General Assembly,

Aware of the growing public concern at the dangers of the arms race, particularly the nuclear-arms race, and its negative social and economic consequences,

Noting with satisfaction the successful beginning of the implementation of the World Disarmament Campaign and its positive impact on the mobilization on a large scale of world public opinion on behalf of peace and disarmament,

Recalling its resolutions 36/92 J of 9 December 1981 and 37/100 H of 13 December 1982, as well as the report of the Secretary-General on world-wide action for collecting signatures in support of measures to prevent nuclear war, to curb the arms race and for disarmament,⁸⁰

Welcoming the voluntary contributions made to the World Disarmament Campaign Voluntary Trust Fund to carry out the objectives of the Campaign,

Taking into account the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the programme of activities of the World Disarmament Campaign (A/38/349),

Convinced that the United Nations system, Member States, with respect for their sovereign rights, and other bodies, in particular non-governmental organizations, all have their role to play in achieving the objectives of the World Disarmament Campaign,

Taking into account the great number of various activities carried out within the framework of the World Disarmament Campaign, including action for collecting signatures in support of measures to prevent nuclear war, to curb the arms race and for disarmament,

1. Reaffirms the usefulness of further carrying out actions and activities which are an important manifestation of the will of world public opinion and which contribute effectively to the achievement of the objectives of the World Disarmament Campaign and thus to the creation of a favourable climate for making progress in the field of disarmament with a view to achieving the goal of general and complete disarmament under effective international control;

2. Invites once again Member States to co-operate with the United Nations to ensure a better flow of accurate information with regard to the various aspects of disarmament as well as actions and activities of the world public in support of peace and disarmament, and to avoid dissemination of false and tendentious information;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to report annually to the General Assembly on the implementation of the provisions of the present resolution.

⁷⁹ "Treaty between the United States of America and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics on the Limitation of Strategic Offensive Arms" (see CD/53/Appendix III/vol. I, document CD/28).

⁸⁰ A/S-12/15 and Add.1.

G

Convention on the prohibition of the use of nuclear weaponsThe General Assembly,

Alarmed by the threat to the survival of mankind and to the life-sustaining system posed by nuclear weapons and by their use, inherent in concepts of deterrence,

Conscious of an increased danger of nuclear war as a result of the intensification of the nuclear-arms race and the serious deterioration of the international situation,

Convinced that nuclear disarmament is essential for the prevention of nuclear war and for the strengthening of international peace and security,

Further convinced that a prohibition of the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons would be a step towards the complete elimination of nuclear weapons leading to general and complete disarmament under strict and effective international control,

Recalling that in paragraph 58 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly,⁶⁰ it is stated that all States should actively participate in efforts to bring about conditions in international relations among States in which a code of peaceful conduct of nations in international affairs could be agreed upon and which would preclude the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons,

Reaffirming that the use of nuclear weapons would be a violation of the Charter of the United Nations and a crime against humanity, as declared in its resolutions 1653 (XVI) of 24 November 1961, 33/71 B of 14 December 1978, 34/83 G of 11 December 1979, 35/152 D of 12 December 1980 and 36/92 I of 9 December 1981,

Noting with regret that the Committee on Disarmament, during its session in 1983, was not able to undertake negotiations with a view to achieving agreement on an international convention prohibiting the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons under any circumstances, taking as a basis the text annexed to General Assembly resolution 37/100 C of 13 December 1982,

1. Reiterates its request to the Conference on Disarmament⁶⁵ to commence negotiations, as a matter of priority, in order to achieve agreement on an international convention prohibiting the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons under any circumstances, taking as a basis the text of the draft Convention on the Prohibition of the Use of Nuclear Weapons;

2. Further requests the Conference on Disarmament to report on the results of those negotiations to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

ANNEX

Draft Convention on the Prohibition of the Use of Nuclear Weapons*The States Parties to this Convention,*

Alarmed by the threat to the very survival of mankind posed by the existence of nuclear weapons,

Convinced that any use of nuclear weapons constitutes a violation of the Charter of the United Nations and a crime against humanity,

Convinced that this Convention would be a step towards the complete elimination of nuclear weapons leading to general and complete disarmament under strict and effective international control,

Determined to continue negotiations for the achievement of this goal,

Have agreed as follows:Article 1

H

Disarmament and international securityThe General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 34/83 A of 11 December 1979, 35/156 J of 12 December 1980, 36/97 K of 9 December 1981 and 37/100 E of 13 December 1982,

Deeply concerned over the continuing stagnation in the disarmament negotiating efforts and the ever-escalating armaments race, particularly nuclear, which make the survival of mankind extremely precarious,

Gravely concerned over the present state of international affairs characterized by the continued resort to violence and the use of force in violation of the Charter of the United Nations,

Firmly convinced that a closely interdependent world composed of many sovereign nations cannot possibly function towards peace, security and survival in a nuclear and space age without an effectively functioning organization,

Noting that the fundamental function of the United Nations in its primary purpose is the security system provided for in the Charter and that the principles of disarmament embodied in the Charter and flowing from it (Article 11) are an integral part of the system of security,

Convinced that restoring to the United Nations its essential function in accordance with the provisions of the Charter would be a significant factor in creating the conditions conducive to the cessation of the arms race, particularly the nuclear-arms race, and for productive negotiations on disarmament measures,

Bearing in mind that recent events have brought into sharp focus the reality that consecutive decisions of the Security Council, adopted unanimously, were ignored and bypassed by those required to comply with them and in consequence the chain of events that followed further aggravated the situation,

Determined to avert the danger of an approaching nuclear war in a world of insecurity and anarchy in which the continuing lack of collective security through the United Nations is an essential factor,

Having regard to the warning in the report of the Secretary-General to the General Assembly at its thirty-seventh session that "it was the lack of an effective system of collective security through the League of Nations that . . . led to the Second World War",⁷⁰

1. Requests the Security Council to expedite the conclusion of the agreements making armed forces available to the Security Council, as required by the Charter of the United Nations, to render operative the collective security system provided for in the Charter and thereby facilitate productive negotiations for the cessation of the arms race, particularly the nuclear-arms race, and for progress on disarmament;

2. Further requests the Security Council to submit a report, through the Secretary-General, to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

I

Convening of the third special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament

The General Assembly,

Bearing in mind the decision adopted at its twelfth special session to set, during its thirty-eighth session, the date of the third special session devoted to disarmament,⁸¹

Desiring to contribute to the furthering and broadening of positive processes initiated through the laying down of the foundations of an international disarmament strategy at its tenth special session, ⁸¹ Official Records of the General Assembly, Twelfth Special Session, Annexes, agenda items 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, document A/S-12/32, para. 66.

1. Decides that the third special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament should be held not later than 1988;

2. Decides also to set, not later than at its fortieth session, the date of the third special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament and to make appropriate arrangements concerning the establishment of a preparatory committee for that third special session.

J

Regional disarmament

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/100 F of 13 December 1982 on regional disarmament,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on the status of this question (A/38/376 and Add.1 and 2);

2. Takes note also of the fact that, at the request of the States having participated in the Madrid meeting of representatives of the participating States of the Conference on Security and Co-operation in Europe, held from 11 November 1980 to 9 September 1983, on the basis of the provisions of the Final Act relating to the follow-up to the Conference, the Government of Spain has transmitted the Concluding Document of this meeting to the Secretary-General;

3. Expresses its satisfaction, in this connection, at the convening at Stockholm of the Conference on Confidence- and Security-building Measures and Disarmament in Europe, commencing on 17 January 1984, as a substantial and integral part of the multilateral process initiated by the Conference on Security and Co-operation in Europe;

4. Takes note also of the proposals made in the context of regional disarmament since the adoption of its resolution 37/100 F;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to keep the General Assembly regularly informed concerning the implementation of resolution 37/100 F, as well as of the activities carried out by the Secretariat, in particular the Department for Disarmament Affairs, and the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research, in the field of the regional approach to disarmament;

6. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Regional disarmament: report of the Secretary-General".

Recommendation of the Sixth Committee

9. The Sixth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

DEVELOPMENT AND STRENGTHENING OF GOOD-NEIGHBOURLINESS BETWEEN STATES

The General Assembly,

Bearing in mind the determination of the peoples of the United Nations, as expressed in the Charter, to practice tolerance and live together in peace with one another as good neighbours,

Recalling the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, approved by its resolution 2625 (XXV) of 24 October 1970,

Recalling its resolutions 1236 (XII) of 14 December 1957, 1301 (XIII) of 10 December 1958, 2129 (XX) of 21 December 1965, 34/99 of 14 December 1979, 36/101 of 9 December 1981 and 37/117 of 16 December 1982,

Bearing in mind that, owing to geographic proximity and to other relevant reasons, there are particularly favourable opportunities for co-operation and mutual advantage between neighbouring countries in many fields and various forms and that the development of such co-operation may have a positive influence on international relations as a whole,

Considering that the great changes of a political, economic and social nature, as well as the scientific and technological progress which have taken place in the world and led to unprecedented interdependence of nations, have given new dimensions to good-neighbourliness in the conduct of States and increased the need to develop and strengthen it,

Taking into account the working paper concerning the development and strengthening of good-neighbourliness between States (A/38/440, annex), as well as the written replies sent by States and international organizations on the content of good-neighbourliness and on ways and means to enhance it¹ and the views expressed by States in 1981 and 1982 on this subject,²

Recalling its opinion that it is necessary to continue to examine the question of good-neighbourliness in order to strengthen and develop its content, as well as ways and modalities to enhance its effectiveness, and that the results of this examination could be included, at an appropriate time, in a suitable international document,

1. Reaffirms that good-neighbourliness fully conforms with the purposes of the United Nations and shall be founded upon the strict observance of the principles of the Charter of the United Nations and of the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, and so presupposes the rejection of any acts seeking to establish zones of influence or domination;

2. Calls once again upon States, in the interest of the maintenance of international peace and security, to develop good-neighbourly relations, acting on the basis of these principles;

3. Reaffirms that the generalization of the long practice of good-neighbourliness and of principles and rules pertaining to it is likely to strengthen friendly relations and co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter;

4. Deems it appropriate, on the basis of the working paper concerning the development and strengthening of good-neighbourliness between States mentioned above, as well as of other proposals and ideas which have been or will be submitted by States, and the replies and views of States and international organizations, to start clarifying and formulating the elements of good-neighbourliness as part of a process of elaboration of a suitable international document on the subject;

5. Requests the Sixth Committee to decide, at the thirty-ninth session of the General Assembly, on the appropriate framework to accomplish the above-mentioned tasks;

6. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Development and strengthening of good-neighbourliness between States".

ACTION TAKEN BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

5. On 5 December, Algeria, the Bahamas, Egypt, Ethiopia, Ghana, Guyana, India, Indonesia, Madagascar, Mali, Nigeria, Pakistan, Romania, Sierra Leone, Sri Lanka, the Sudan, Togo, Tunisia, Yugoslavia and Zambia submitted a draft resolution entitled "Review of the implementation of the Declaration on the Strengthening of International Security" (A/C.1/38/L.87), which was introduced by the representative of Yugoslavia at the 50th meeting, on 6 December. The draft resolution read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Having considered the item entitled 'Review of the implementation of the Declaration on the Strengthening of International Security',

"Recalling the provisions of the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations,¹

"Recalling the provisions of the Declaration on the Inadmissibility of Intervention and Interference in the Internal Affairs of States,²

"Recalling the duty of States not to intervene in the internal or external affairs of any State, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations,

"Alarmed by increasing tensions in international relations, the resurgence of great-Power confrontations, the revival of the cold war accompanied by competition for spheres of influence, domination and exploitation in more and more parts of the world and the intensified escalation to new levels of the arms race, particularly in nuclear weapons, all of which pose a grave threat to global peace and security,

"Profoundly disturbed by the increasing recourse to the use or threat of use of force, military intervention and interference, aggression and foreign occupation; the aggravation of existing crises in the world and the outbreak of new ones; continued infringement of the independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity of countries; the denial of the right to self-determination of peoples under colonial and foreign occupation, and attempts to characterize erroneously the struggles of peoples for independence and human dignity as falling within the context of East-West confrontation, thus denying them the right to self-determination, to decide their own destiny and realize their legitimate aspirations; the persistence of colonialism, racism and apartheid supported by growing use of military force; the intensification, expansion in scope and frequency of manoeuvres and other military activities conceived within the context of big-Power confrontation and used as means of pressure, threat and destabilization; and the lack of solutions to world economic crisis in which the deeper underlying problems of a structural nature have been compounded by cyclical factors and which has further aggravated the inequalities and injustices in international economic relations,

"Aware of the increasing interdependence among nations and of the fact that in the present-day world there is no alternative to a policy of peaceful coexistence, détente and co-operation among States on the basis of equality, irrespective of their economic or military power, political and social systems or size and geographic location,

"Noting with concern that the United Nations system of collective security has not been used effectively,

"Stressing the need for the main organs of the United Nations responsible for the maintenance of peace and security, particularly the Security Council, to contribute more effectively to the promotion of international peace and security by seeking solutions to the unresolved problems and crises in the world,

"1. Reaffirms the validity of the Declaration on the Strengthening of International Security³ and calls upon all States to contribute effectively to its implementation;

"2. Again calls upon all States, in particular the nuclear-weapon States and other militarily significant States, to take immediate steps aimed at promoting and using effectively the system of collective security as envisaged in the Charter of the United Nations, together with measures for the effective halting of the arms race and for the achievement of general and complete disarmament under effective international control;

"3. Reiterates that the current deterioration of the international situation requires an effective Security Council and, to that end, emphasizes the great urgency of examining all existing mechanisms and working methods in order to enhance the authority and enforcement capacity of the Council, in accordance with the Charter;

"4. Emphasizes, in particular, the need to consider holding periodic meetings of the Security Council in specific cases to consider and review outstanding problems and crises, thus enabling the Council to play a more active role in preventing conflicts;

"5. Regrets the fact that the Security Council has thus far failed to report to the General Assembly on steps taken to implement the provisions of paragraphs 3 and 4 of this resolution, which have been adopted since 1980;

"6. Urges all States to abide strictly, in their international relations, by their commitment to the Charter and, to this end:

"(a) To refrain from the use or threat of use of force, intervention, interference, aggression, foreign occupation and colonial domination or measures of political and economic coercion which violate the sovereignty, territorial integrity, independence and security of other States or their right freely to dispose of their natural resources;

"(b) To refrain from supporting or encouraging any such act for any reason whatsoever and to reject and refuse recognition of situations brought about by any such act;

"7. Urges all States, in particular the permanent members of the Security Council, to take all necessary measures to prevent the further deterioration of the international situation and, to this end:

"(a) To seek, through the means provided for in the Charter, the peaceful settlement of disputes and the elimination of the focal points of crisis and tension which constitute a threat to international peace and security;

"(b) To proceed without delay to a global consideration of ways and means for bringing about a revival of the world economy and for the restructuring of international economic relations within the framework of the global negotiations with a view to establishing the new international economic order;

"(c) To accelerate the economic development of developing countries, particularly the least developed ones;

"8. Reaffirms the legitimacy of the struggle of peoples under colonial domination, foreign occupation or racist régimes and their inalienable right to self-determination and independence, and urges

Member States to increase their support for and solidarity with them and their national liberation movements and to take urgent and effective measures for the speedy completion of the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples⁴ and for the final elimination of colonialism, racism and apartheid;

"9. Calls upon all States, particularly the members of the Security Council, to take appropriate and effective measures to promote the fulfilment of the objective of the denuclearization of Africa in order to avert the serious danger which the nuclear capability of South Africa constitutes to the African States, in particular the front-line States, as well as to international peace and security;

"10. Welcomes the successful conclusion of the Madrid meeting of representatives of the participating States of the Conference on Security and Co-operation in Europe, held from 11 November 1980 to 9 September 1983, which has demonstrated that political will to negotiate is necessary as a contribution to the strengthening of peace and security not only in Europe but also internationally, and expresses its hope that the conference to be held at Stockholm, beginning on 17 January 1984, the Conference on Confidence- and Security-Building Measures and Disarmament in Europe, the continent with the greatest concentration of armaments and military forces, will achieve significant and positive results;

"11. Affirms that the democratization of international relations is an imperative necessity, under conditions of interdependence, for the full development and independence of all States, as well as the attainment of genuine security, peace and co-operation in the world;

"12. Calls upon the great Powers to engage in constructive negotiations in good faith and to abandon policies of confrontation which have hitherto given rise to tension and mistrust;

"13. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled 'Review of the implementation of the Declaration on the Strengthening of International Security'."

6. On 8 December, the sponsors of the draft resolution submitted a revised draft resolution (A/C.1/38/L.87/Rev.1), which was sponsored also by Ecuador, Senegal and Uruguay. By this revision the fourth preambular paragraph became the second, and two operative paragraphs were added as 7 and 9, which read as follows:

"7. Invites all States, in particular the major military Powers and States members of military alliances, to refrain, especially in critical situations and in crisis areas, from actions, including military activities and manoeuvres, conceived within the context of big-Power confrontation and used as a means of pressure, threat and destabilization to other States and regions;

"9. Considers that respect for and promotion of human rights and fundamental freedoms in their civil, political, economic, social and cultural aspects, on the one hand, and the strengthening of international peace and security, on the other, mutually reinforce each other;"

The operative paragraphs were renumbered accordingly, and at the 54th meeting, on 9 December, the representa-

Draft resolution A/C.1/38/L.87/Rev.1 as orally revised was subsequently also sponsored by the Congo.

Recommendation of the First Committee

8. The First Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

REVIEW OF THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DECLARATION ON THE STRENGTHENING OF INTERNATIONAL SECURITY

The General Assembly,

Having considered the item entitled "Review of the implementation of the Declaration on the Strengthening of International Security",

Recalling the duty of States not to intervene in the internal or external affairs of any State, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations,

Recalling the provisions of the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations,¹

Noting the provisions of the Declaration on the Inadmissibility of Intervention and Interference in the Internal Affairs of States,²

Alarmed by increasing tensions in international relations, the resurgence of great-Power confrontations, the

revival of the cold war accompanied by the policy of competition for spheres of influence, domination and exploitation in more and more parts of the world and the intensified escalation to new levels of the arms race, particularly in nuclear weapons, all of which pose a grave threat to global peace and security,

Profoundly disturbed by the increasing recourse to the use or threat of use of force, military intervention and interference, aggression and foreign occupation; the aggravation of existing crises in the world and the outbreak of new ones; continued infringement of the independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity of countries; the denial of the right to self-determination of peoples under colonial and foreign occupation, and attempts to characterize erroneously the struggles of peoples for independence and human dignity as falling within the context of East-West confrontation, thus denying them the right to self-determination, to decide their own destiny and realize their legitimate aspirations; the persistence of colonialism, racism and apartheid supported by growing use of military force; the intensification and expansion in scope and frequency of manoeuvres and other military activities conceived within the context of big-Power confrontation and used as means of pressure, threat and destabilization; and the lack of solutions to the world economic crisis in which the deeper underlying problems of a structural nature have been compounded by cyclical factors and which has further aggravated the inequalities and injustices in international economic relations,

Aware of the increasing interdependence among nations and of the fact that in the present-day world there is no alternative to a policy of peaceful coexistence, détente and co-operation among States on the basis of equality, irrespective of their economic or military power, political and social systems or size and geographic location,

Noting with concern that the United Nations system of collective security has not been used effectively,

Stressing the need for the main organs of the United Nations responsible for the maintenance of peace and security, particularly the Security Council, to contribute more effectively to the promotion of international peace and security by seeking solutions to the unresolved problems and crises in the world,

1. Reaffirms the validity of the Declaration on the Strengthening of International Security³ and calls upon all States to contribute effectively to its implementation;

2. Again calls upon all States, in particular the nuclear-weapon States and other militarily significant States, to take immediate steps aimed at promoting and using effectively the system of collective security as envisaged in the Charter of the United Nations, together with measures for the effective halting of the arms race and for the achievement of general and complete disarmament under effective international control;

3. Reiterates that the current deterioration of the international situation requires an effective Security Council and, to that end, emphasizes the great urgency of examining all existing mechanisms and working methods in order to enhance the authority and enforcement capacity of the Council, in accordance with the Charter;

4. Emphasizes, in particular, the need to consider holding periodic meetings of the Security Council in specific cases to consider and review outstanding problems and crises, thus enabling the Council to play a more active role in preventing conflicts;

5. Takes note of the fact that the Security Council has thus far failed to report to the General Assembly on steps taken to implement the provisions of paragraphs 3 and 4 above, which have been adopted since 1980, and expresses the firm hope that the Council will do so at the thirty-ninth session of the Assembly;

6. Urges all States to abide strictly, in their international relations, by their commitment to the Charter and, to this end:

(a) To refrain from the use or threat of use of force, intervention, interference, aggression, foreign occupation and colonial domination or measures of political and economic coercion which violate the sovereignty, territorial integrity, independence and security of other States or their right freely to dispose of their natural resources;

(b) To refrain from supporting or encouraging any such act for any reason whatsoever and to reject and refuse recognition of situations brought about by any such act;

7. Invites all States, in particular the major military Powers and States members of military alliances, to refrain, especially in critical situations and in crisis areas, from actions, including military activities and manoeuvres, conceived within the context of big-Power confrontation and used as a means of pressure on, threat to and destabilization of other States and regions;

8. Urges all States, in particular the permanent members of the Security Council, to take all necessary measures to prevent the further deterioration of the international situation and, to this end:

(a) To seek, through the means provided for in the Charter, the peaceful settlement of disputes and the elimination of the focal points of crisis and tension which constitute a threat to international peace and security;

(b) To proceed without delay to a global consideration of ways and means for bringing about a revival of the world economy and for the restructuring of international economic relations within the framework of the global negotiations with a view to establishing the new international economic order;

(c) To accelerate the economic development of developing countries, particularly the least developed ones;

9. Considers that respect for and the promotion of human rights and fundamental freedoms in their civil, political, economic, social and cultural aspects, on the one hand, and the strengthening of international peace and security, on the other, mutually reinforce each other;

10. Reaffirms the legitimacy of the struggle of peoples under colonial domination, foreign occupation or racist régimes and their inalienable right to self-determination and independence, and urges Member States to increase their support for and solidarity with them and their national liberation movements and to take urgent and effective measures for the speedy completion of the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples⁴ and for the final elimination of colonialism, racism and apartheid;

11. Calls upon all States, particularly the members of the Security Council, to take appropriate and effective measures to promote the fulfilment of the objective of the denuclearization of Africa in order to avert the serious danger which the nuclear capability of South Africa constitutes to the African States, in particular the front-line States, as well as to international peace and security;

12. Welcomes the successful conclusion of the Madrid meeting of representatives of the participating States of the Conference on Security and Co-operation in Europe, held from 11 November 1980 to 9 September 1983, which has demonstrated that political will to negotiate is necessary as a contribution to the strengthening of peace and security not only in Europe but also internationally, and expresses the hope that the conference to be held at Stockholm, beginning on 17 January 1984, the Conference on Confidence- and Security-Building Measures and Disarmament in Europe, the continent with the greatest concentration of armaments and military forces, will achieve significant and positive results;

13. Affirms that the democratization of international relations is an imperative necessity, under conditions of interdependence, for the full development and independence of all States, as well as the attainment of genuine security, peace and co-operation in the world;

14. Calls upon the great Powers to engage in constructive negotiations in good faith and to abandon policies of confrontation which have hitherto given rise to tension and mistrust;

“Noting with satisfaction that both major Powers have expressed their desire for understanding and for compliance with the Charter of the United Nations,

Expressing grave anxiety and concern at the present serious situation in the occupied Palestinian and other Arab territories, including Jerusalem, as a result of the continued Israeli occupation and the measures and actions taken by the Government of Israel, the occupying Power, designed to change the legal status, geographical nature and demographic composition of those territories,

Considering that the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949,³ is applicable to all Arab territories occupied since June 1967, including Jerusalem,

1. Determines that all such measures and actions taken by Israel in the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem, are in violation of the relevant provisions of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, and constitute a serious obstruction of efforts to achieve a just and lasting peace in the Middle East and therefore have no legal validity;

2. Strongly deplores the persistence of Israel in carrying out such measures, in particular the establishment of settlements in the Palestinian and other occupied Arab territories, including Jerusalem;

3. Demands that Israel comply strictly with its international obligations in accordance with the principles of international law and the provisions of the Geneva Convention;

4. Demands once more that the Government of Israel, the occupying Power, desist forthwith from taking any action which would result in changing the legal status, geographical nature or demographic composition of the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem;

5. Urgently calls upon all States parties to the Geneva Convention to respect and to exert every effort in order to ensure respect for and compliance with its provisions in all Arab territories occupied by Israel since 1967, including Jerusalem.

D

The General Assembly,

Guided by the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and by the principles and provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,⁴

Bearing in mind the provisions of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949,³ as well as of other relevant conventions and regulations,

2. Deplores the continued refusal by Israel to allow the Special Committee access to the occupied territories;

3. Demands that Israel allow the Special Committee access to the occupied territories;

4. Reaffirms the fact that occupation itself constitutes a grave violation of the human rights of the civilian population of the occupied Arab territories;

5. Condemns the continued and persistent violation by Israel of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, and other applicable international instruments, and condemns in particular those violations which that Convention designates as "grave breaches" thereof;

7. Strongly condemns the following Israeli policies and practices:

(a) Annexation of parts of the occupied territories, including Jerusalem;

9. Reaffirms that all measures taken by Israel to change the physical character, demographic composition, institutional structure or status of the occupied territories, or any part thereof, including Jerusalem, are null and void, and that Israel's policy of settling parts of its population and new immigrants in the occupied territories constitutes a flagrant violation of the Geneva Convention and of the relevant resolutions of the United Nations;

10. Demands that Israel desist forthwith from the policies and practices referred to in paragraphs 7, 8 and 9;

11. Calls upon Israel, the occupying Power, to take immediate steps for the return of all displaced Arab and Palestinian inhabitants to their homes or former places of residence in the territories occupied by Israel since 1967;

Deeply concerned at the expulsion by the Israeli military occupation authorities of the Mayors of Hebron and Halhul and of the Sharia Judge of Hebron,

Recalling the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949,³ in particular article 1 and the first paragraph of article 49, which read as follows:

"Article 1

"The High Contracting Parties undertake to respect and to ensure respect for the present Convention in all circumstances."

"Article 49

Reaffirming the applicability of the Geneva Convention to the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied by Israel since 1967, including Jerusalem,

1. Demands once more that the Government of Israel, the occupying Power, rescind the illegal measures taken by the Israeli military occupation authorities in expelling and imprisoning the Mayors of Hebron and Halhul and in expelling the Sharia Judge of Hebron and that it facilitate the immediate return of the expelled Palestinian leaders so that they can resume the functions for which they were elected and appointed;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly as soon as possible on the implementation of the present resolution.

F

Reaffirming once more the illegality of Israel's decision of 14 December 1981 to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration on the occupied Syrian Golan Heights, which has resulted in the effective annexation of that territory,

Reaffirming that the acquisition of territory by force is inadmissible under the Charter of the United Nations and that all territories thus occupied by Israel must be returned,

Recalling the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949,³

1. Strongly condemns Israel, the occupying Power, for its refusal to comply with the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly and the Security Council, particularly Council resolution 497 (1981), in which the Council, inter alia, decided that the Israeli decision to impose its laws, jurisdiction and administration in the occupied Syrian Golan Heights was null and void and without international legal effect and demanded that Israel, the occupying Power, should rescind forthwith its decision;

2. Condemns the persistence of Israel in changing the physical character, demographic composition, institutional structure and legal status of the occupied Syrian Arab Golan Heights;

3. Determines that all legislative and administrative measures and actions taken or to be taken by Israel, the occupying Power, that purport to alter the character and legal status of the Syrian Arab Golan Heights are null and void and constitute a flagrant violation of international law and of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, and have no legal effect;

4. Strongly condemns Israel for its attempts and measures to impose forcibly Israeli citizenship and Israeli identity cards on the Syrian citizens in the occupied Syrian Arab Golan Heights and calls upon it to desist from its repressive measures against the population of the Syrian Arab Golan Heights;

5. Calls once again upon Member States not to recognize any of the legislative or administrative measures and actions referred to above;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session a report on the implementation of the present resolution.

G

The General Assembly,

Deeply shocked by the most recent atrocities committed by Israel, the occupying Power, against educational institutions in the occupied Palestinian territories,

1. Reaffirms the applicability of the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, to the Palestinian and other Arab territories occupied by Israel since 1967, including Jerusalem;

2. Condemns Israeli policies and practices against Palestinian students and faculties in schools, universities and other educational institutions in the occupied Palestinian territories, especially the policy of opening fire on defenceless students, causing many casualties;

3. Condemns the systematic Israeli campaign of repression against and closing of universities in the occupied Palestinian territories, restricting and impeding academic activities of Palestinian universities by subjecting the selection of courses, textbooks and educational programmes, the admission of students and the appointment of faculty members to the control and supervision of the military occupation authorities, in clear contravention of the Geneva Convention;

4. Demands that Israel, the occupying Power, comply with the provisions of that Convention, rescind all actions and measures against all educational institutions, ensure the freedom of these institutions and refrain forthwith from hindering the effective operation of the universities and other educational institutions;

Recalling also General Assembly resolutions 36/147 G of 16 December 1981 and 37/88 G of 10 December 1982,

Recalling once again the Geneva Convention relative to the protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949,³ in particular article 27, which states, inter alia:

“Protected persons are entitled, in all circumstances, to respect for their persons . . . They shall at all times be humanely treated, and shall be protected especially against all acts of violence or threats thereof . . .”,

[Original: French]
[13 December 1983]

1. The following item was included in the provisional agenda of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly in accordance with its resolutions 37/89 and 37/90 of 10 December 1982:

“International co-operation in the peaceful uses of outer space:

“(a) Report of the Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space;

“(b) Implementation of the recommendations of the Second United Nations Conference on the Exploration and Peaceful Uses of Outer Space: report of the Secretary-General.”

2. At its 3rd plenary meeting, on 23 September 1983, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include the item in its agenda. At its 4th plenary meeting, on the same day, the Assembly decided to allocate the item to the Special Political Committee.

3. The Special Political Committee considered the item at its 18th, 19th, 21st, 25th to 27th, 39th, and 43rd meetings, between 2 November and 1 December.

4. The Committee had before it the following documents:

(a) Report of the Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space (A/38/20);

(b) Implementation of the recommendations of the Second United Nations Conference on the Exploration and Peaceful Uses of Outer Space: report of the Secretary-General (A/38/412).

At the 18th meeting, Mr. Peter Jankowitsch (Austria), Chairman of the Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space, introduced the two reports listed above.

CONSIDERATION OF DRAFT RESOLUTION A/SPC/38/L.28

5. At the 39th meeting, on 29 November, the representative of Austria introduced draft resolution A/SPC/38/L.28, entitled “International co-operation in the peaceful uses of outer space”. He stated that the negotiations conducted under his chairmanship, initially among the members of the Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space and later continued, as announced by the Chairman of the Special Political Committee at its 2nd meeting, on 3 October, in an informal open-ended working group of the members of the Special Political Committee, could not produce a consensus text of a draft resolution.

6. At the same meeting, the representative of Mexico introduced an amendment (A/SPC/38/L.29) to draft resolution A/SPC/38/L.28, whereby operative paragraph 14 would be replaced by the following text:

“14. Calls upon all States, in particular those with major space capabilities, to undertake prompt negotiations under the auspices of the United Nations with a view to reaching agreement or agreements designed to halt the militarization of outer space and to prevent an arms race in outer space, thus contributing to the achievement of the internationally accepted goal of ensuring the use of outer space exclusively for peaceful purposes;”

7. Also at the same meeting, the representative of Mexico, on behalf of the members of the Group of 77, introduced an amendment (A/SPC/38/L.30) to draft resolution A/SPC/38/L.28, whereby

(a) In operative paragraph 5, section (b) would be replaced by the following:

“(b) Continue its consideration of the possibility of supplementing the norms of international law relevant to the use of nuclear power sources in outer space through its working group;”

and the following section (c) would be added:

“(c) Establish a working group to consider, on a priority basis, matters relating to the definition and delimitation of outer space and to the character and utilization of the geostationary orbit, including the elaboration of general principles to govern the rational and equitable use of the geostationary orbit, a limited natural resource, and, to that end, requests Member States to submit draft principles; in doing so, it would have to take account of the different legal régimes governing airspace and outer space, respectively, and the need for technical planning and legal regulation of the geostationary orbit;”

(b) Operative paragraph 15 would be replaced by the following two paragraphs:

“15. Requests the Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space to consider, as a matter of priority, the questions relating to the militarization of outer space, taking into account that in General Assembly resolution 37/83 of 9 December 1982 the Committee on Disarmament was requested to consider as a matter of priority the question of preventing an arms race in outer space and the need of co-ordinating the efforts of the Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space and the Committee on Disarmament;

“16. Requests the Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the outcome of its consideration of the subject referred to in paragraph 15 above;”

(c) The remaining paragraphs would be renumbered accordingly.

8. At the same meeting, the representative of the German Democratic Republic introduced an amendment (A/SPC/38/L.31) to draft resolution A/SPC/38/L.28, whereby

(a) The following paragraph would be added after paragraph 15:

“16. Decides to establish an ad hoc working group of the whole to assist the Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space in its consideration of the subject referred to in paragraph 15 above, and further decides that this ad hoc working group should hold its first session in New York for a period of two weeks prior to the twenty-seventh session of the Committee, the exact dates to be determined by the Chairman of the Committee in consultation with the Secretary-General;”

(b) The remaining paragraphs would be renumbered accordingly.

9. On 30 November, statements on the administrative and financial implications of draft resolution A/SPC/38/L.28 and of amendment A/SPC/38/L.31 were submitted by the Secretary-General, in accordance with rule 153 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, in documents A/SPC/38/L.33 and A/SPC/38/L.34, respectively.

10. At the 43rd meeting, on 1 December, the representative of the German Democratic Republic withdrew amendment A/SPC/38/L.31. The representative of Austria stated that he could not accept the incorporation of amendments A/SPC/38/L.29 and A/SPC/38/L.30, in their entirety, into draft resolution A/SPC/38/L.28.

11. Statements in explanation of vote before the vote were made by the representatives of Sweden, Canada and Mexico.

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling its resolutions 1874 (S-IV) of 27 June 1963, 2006 (XIX) of 18 February 1965, 2053 A (XX) of 15 December 1965, 2249 (S-V) of 23 May 1967, 2308 (XXII) of 13 December 1967, 2451 (XXIII) of 19 December 1968, 2670 (XXV) of 8 December 1970, 2835 (XXVI) of 17 December 1971, 2965 (XXVII) of 13 December 1972, 3091 (XXVIII) of 7 December 1973, 3239 (XXIX) of 29 November 1974, 3457 (XXX) of 10 December 1975, 31/105 of 15 December 1976, 32/106 of 15 December 1977, 33/114 of 18 December 1978, 34/53 of 23 November 1979, 35/121 of 11 December 1980, 36/37 of 18 November 1981 and 37/93 of 10 December 1982,

"Taking account of the views expressed and issues raised on the question of peace-keeping during the debate on the item,

"Reaffirming the primary responsibility of the Security Council for the maintenance of international peace and security,

"Conscious of the vital role played by United Nations peace-keeping forces in support of decisions of the Security Council in discharging its primary responsibility in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations,

"Recognizing that the presence of United Nations peace-keeping forces in conflict areas demonstrates the common concern of United Nations Members in the preservation of stability and easing of tension in those areas,

"Aware of the extremely difficult financial situation of the United Nations peace-keeping forces which places in jeopardy their effectiveness in the fulfilment of their mandate,

"Stressing the collective responsibility of Member States, in accordance with the Charter, to share equitably the financial burdens of such operations established by the Security Council, which should continue to be conducted with maximum efficiency and economy,

"Urging, at the same time, that areas of co-operation with and support for United Nations peace-keeping forces should be vigorously explored and encouraged,

"Recognizing the practical need to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of United Nations peace-keeping forces through concrete and expeditious measures,

"Recognizing that United Nations peace-keeping operations should not be a substitute for diplomatic efforts aimed at achieving peaceful, just and lasting settlement of situations affecting international peace and security,

"Convinced that the importance of the issues of United Nations peace-keeping is such that the United Nations should continue to work for a comprehensive review of the whole question of peace-keeping operations in all their aspects,

"Taking note of the report of the Special Committee on Peace-keeping Operations on reactivation of the work of the Committee,

"1. Recommends that United Nations peace-keeping operations be supplemented by sustained diplomatic efforts to achieve a peaceful, just and lasting settlement, including continued use by the Secretary-General of his functions in accordance with the Charter to promote the peaceful settlement of disputes;

"2. Urges all concerned to co-operate fully in the implementation of United Nations peace-keeping operations;

"3. Stresses, inter alia, the following factors for the effective functioning of United Nations peace-keeping operations:

"(b) Full respect for the national sovereignty of the host country;

"(c) Finalization of status of forces agreements between the United Nations and the host country to grant peace-keeping forces all relevant privileges and immunities and provide them with the facilities necessary to carry out their task;

"4. Reaffirms and renews the mandate given to the Special Committee on Peace-keeping Operations by relevant resolutions of the General Assembly;

"5. Calls upon the Special Committee on Peace-keeping Operations to give urgent consideration to the serious financial situation of the United Nations peace-keeping forces in the light of the heavy burden incurred by troop contributors, especially those from developing countries;

"6. Urges again the Special Committee on Peace-keeping Operations, in accordance with its mandate, to renew its efforts to work towards the completion of agreed guidelines which will govern the conduct of peace-keeping operations of the United Nations in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and to devote further attention to specific questions related to the practical implementation of peace-keeping operations, both of which are equally warranted though as yet unfulfilled tasks of the Committee;

"7. Requests the Special Committee on Peace-keeping Operations to submit a status report on its present situation, to determine the areas of possible progress and other areas where progress would be difficult to achieve or still pending, and to consider proposals to reactivate and rationalize its work;

"8. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of the thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Comprehensive review of the whole question of peace-keeping operations in all their aspects."

Taking account of the views expressed and issues raised on the question of peace-keeping during the debate on the item,

Reaffirming the primary responsibility of the Security Council for the maintenance of international peace and security,

Conscious of the vital role played by United Nations peace-keeping forces in support of decisions of the Security Council in discharging its primary responsibility in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations,

Recognizing that the presence of United Nations peace-keeping forces authorized by the Security Council in conflict areas demonstrates the common concern of Members of the United Nations in the preservation of stability and easing of tension in those areas,

Aware of the extremely difficult financial situation of the United Nations peace-keeping forces in the light of the heavy burden incurred by troop contributors, especially those from developing countries,

Stressing the collective responsibility of Member States, in accordance with the Charter, to share equitably the financial burdens of such operations established by the Security Council, which should continue to be conducted with maximum efficiency and economy,

Urging, at the same time, that other areas of co-operation with and support for United Nations peace-keeping forces should be encouraged,

Recognizing the need to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of United Nations peace-keeping forces,

Commending the Secretary-General for the way he is carrying out peace-keeping operations of the United Nations decided upon by the Security Council,

Taking note of the report of the Special Committee on Peace-keeping Operations (A/38/381),

1. Expresses its conviction that peace-keeping operations of the United Nations, conducted with the consent of the host country and with respect for its sovereignty and territorial integrity, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, are an essential function of the United Nations, though not a substitute for the peaceful settlement of disputes and therefore of a temporary nature;

² The delegations of Iran (Islamic Republic of) and the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya announced that they were not participating in the vote.

2. Urges all concerned to co-operate fully in the implementation of United Nations peace-keeping operations;

4. Expresses concern about the difficult financial situation of United Nations peace-keeping operations;

the Charter of the United Nations, and to devote further attention to specific questions relating to the practical implementation of peace-keeping operations;

6. Requests the Special Committee on Peace-keeping Operations to submit a status report on its present situation, to determine the areas of possible progress and other areas where progress would be difficult to achieve or is still pending, and to consider proposals to reactivate and rationalize its work;

7. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Comprehensive review of the whole question of peace-keeping operations in all their aspects".

ANNEX

Recommendations of the Committee on Information

1. The forty-three recommendations of the Committee on Information approved by the General Assembly in resolution 37/94 B of 10 December 1982, as well as all provisions of the resolution, are reiterated. Those recommendations pending implementation should be implemented in full, taking into account the views expressed by delegations at the 100th plenary meeting of the thirty-seventh session of the Assembly on 10 December 1982.

2. The mandate of the Committee on Information should be renewed as set forth in General Assembly resolution 34/182 of 18 December 1979 and reaffirmed in Assembly resolutions 35/201 of 16 December 1980, 36/149 of 16 December 1981 and 37/94 of 10 December 1982.

Promotion of the establishment of a new, more just and more effective world information and communication order intended to strengthen peace and international understanding and based on the free circulation and wider and better balanced dissemination of information

3. All countries, the United Nations system as a whole, and all others concerned, should collaborate in the establishment of a new world information and communication order based, inter alia, on the free circulation and wider and better balanced dissemination of information, guaranteeing the diversity of sources of information and free access to information, and, in particular, the urgent need to change the dependent status of the developing countries in the field of information and communication, as the principle of sovereign equality among nations extends also to this field, and intended also to strengthen peace and international understanding, enabling all persons to participate effectively in political, economic, social and cultural life and promoting understanding and friendship among all nations and human rights.

4. An appeal should be addressed to the international media to obtain their support for the efforts of the international community towards global development and, in particular, for the efforts of the developing countries for their own economic, social and cultural progress.

5. An appeal should be addressed to the whole United Nations system to co-operate in a concerted manner, through its information services, in promoting the development activities of the United Nations, in particular the improvement of the conditions of the lives of the people of the developing countries.

6. Such appeals should be aimed at achieving a more comprehensive and realistic image of the activities and potential of the United Nations system, in all its purposes and endeavours, as laid down in the Charter of the United Nations.

7. The need should be noted for the creation of a climate of confidence in relations among States as a means of easing tension and, in this context, an appeal should be addressed to all States and mass media to help promote the purposes of strengthening peace and understanding.

8. Reaffirming the primary role which the General Assembly is to play in elaborating, co-ordinating and harmonizing United Nations policies and activities in the field of information and recognizing the central and important role of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization in the field of information and communication, the co-operation between that organization and the United Nations in promoting the establishment of a new world information and communication order should take more regular forms, especially at the working level, through which the contribution of the Department of Public Information to the efforts of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization should be maximized.

9. The Department of Public Information should disseminate as widely as possible information on the activities of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization in the establishment of a new world information and communication order and on the work of the Committee on Information in that field.

10. The Committee on Information, noting the valuable effort of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization in the promotion of a new world information and communication order, recommends that the Department of Public Information take steps to avoid any overlapping of its activities on this subject with those of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, while stressing at the same time the ever-growing significance of the close working co-operation between the United Nations and the latter organization.

11. All countries, the United Nations system as a whole, and others concerned, should be called upon to give the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization adequate support and assistance in the field of information and communication. The fifth anniversary of the Declaration on Fundamental Principles concerning the Contribution of the Mass Media to Strengthening Peace and International Understanding, to the Promotion of Human Rights and to Countering Racism, Apartheid and Incitement to War¹² should be marked by the General Assembly.

12. The Secretary-General should be requested to present to the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session the report of the Round Table on a New World Information and Communication Order, held at Innsbruck, Austria, from 14 to 19 September 1983.¹⁹

13. An appeal should be addressed to the whole United Nations system and the developed countries to co-operate in a concerted manner towards strengthening the information and communication infrastructures of the developing countries in accordance with the priorities attached to such areas by the developing countries. In this regard, full support for the International Programme for Development of Communication of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, which constitutes an important step in the development of these infrastructures, should be emphasized.

14. The Department of Public Information should further strengthen its co-operation with the Pool of Non-Aligned News Agencies, as well as with regional news agencies of developing countries, as this co-operation constitutes a concrete step towards a more just and equitable world flow of information, thus contributing to the establishment of a new world information and communication order.

15. The United Nations system, particularly the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, should aim at the provision of all possible support and assistance to the developing countries with regard to their interests and needs in the field of information and to actions already adopted within the United Nations system, including, in particular:

(a) Assistance to developing countries in training journalists and technical personnel and in setting up appropriate educational institutions and research facilities;

(b) The granting of favourable conditions to provide developing countries with access to such communication technology as is requisite for the establishment of a national information and communication system and correspondent with the specific situation of the country concerned;

(c) The creation of conditions that will gradually enable the developing countries to produce the communication technology suited to their national needs, as well as the necessary programme material, specifically for radio and television broadcasting, by using their own resources;

(d) Assistance in establishing telecommunication links at sub-regional, regional and interregional levels, especially among developing countries, free from any kind of conditions.

16. All the information activities of the Department of Public Information should be guided by, and carried out in conformity with, the principles of the Charter of the United Nations and the aspiration for a new world information and communication order, as well as conform to the consensus reached among States in resolutions 4/19, 4/21 and 4/22 adopted by the General Conference of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization at its twenty-first session.⁹

17. The Secretary-General should be requested to ensure that the activities of the Department of Public Information, as the focal point of the public information tasks of the United Nations, should be strengthened, keeping in view the principles of the Charter of the United Nations and along the lines established in the pertinent resolutions of the General Assembly and the recommendations of the Committee on Information, to ensure a more coherent coverage of, and a better knowledge about, the United Nations and its work, especially in its priority areas, such as those stated in section III, paragraph 1, of Assembly resolution 35/201, including international peace and security, disarmament, peace-keeping and peace-making operations, decolonization, the promotion of human rights, the struggle against apartheid and racial discrimination, economic, social and development issues, the integration of women in the struggle for peace and development, the establishment of the new international economic order and of a new world information and communication order, the work of the United Nations Council for Namibia and programmes on women and youth.

Continuation of examination of United Nations public information policies and activities, in the light of the evolution of international relations, particularly during the past two decades, and of the imperatives of the establishment of the new international economic order and of a new world information and communication order

18. The Department of Public Information should ensure that the daily dispatches of the Pool of Non-Aligned News Agencies which it receives are appropriately utilized in the performance of the public information tasks of the United Nations.

(a) With a view to further promotion and development of functional and mutually beneficial co-operation between the Department and the Pool, the existing arrangements in the Department for the conduct of this co-operation should be established on a more regular basis;

(b) In view of the successful joint coverage by the Pool of important conferences and other events within the United Nations system, this practice should be continued and further strengthened;

(c) The Department should consider the possibility of utilizing the dispatches received from the Pool to establish a data base on the information and communication facilities in the non-aligned countries.

19. In connection with the training programme for journalists and broadcasters from developing countries that the Department of Public Information organizes every year, the possibility should be considered of allocating the last week of the programme for a visit by them to one of the developing countries for the purpose of acquainting themselves with the ways in which information on the United Nations is received and utilized.

20. The Secretary-General should be requested to make available to the Committee on Information, at its next substantive session in 1984, a report on the outcome of the activities conducted by the International Telecommunication Union with regard to the World Communications Year.

21. The exchange of information between the Committee on Information and the Commission on Transnational Corporations in matters pertaining to the mandate of the Committee should be encouraged.

22. The Secretary-General should be requested to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session the final report on the acquisition of a United Nations communications satellite, in the manner outlined in paragraph 20 of Assembly resolution 37/94 B.

23. The Secretary-General should be requested to implement fully the request, in paragraph 14 of General Assembly resolution 36/149 B, that present United Nations short-wave broadcasts over rented transmitters should be placed on a daily schedule throughout the year, to the extent that this can be accomplished through more effective utilization of existing resources.

24. The Secretary-General should be requested to continue the co-operation between the Department of Public Information and the Union of National Radio and Television Organizations of Africa, as well as with radio stations which are members of that Union, in order to broadcast United Nations radio programmes on those radio stations, and further requests the Secretary-General to co-operate with the national radio broadcasting organizations in Africa for wider broadcasting of United Nations radio programmes.

25. The Secretary-General should be requested to present to the substantive session of the Committee on Information in 1984 a comprehensive report on the viability of a world-wide United Nations short-wave network, taking into account the views expressed at the fifth substantive session of the Committee.

26. The Secretary-General should be requested to implement fully the proposals contained in his report regarding programming in the Portuguese language in the African Unit of the Radio Service²⁰ and to take immediate steps for the strengthening of programming in the French language.

27. The Secretary-General should be requested to maintain the functions of the Middle East/Arabic Unit as the producer of Arabic television and radio programmes, to strengthen and expand this unit through the redeployment of existing resources to enable it to function in an effective manner, and to report to the Committee on Information at its substantive session in 1984 on the measures taken in implementation of this recommendation.

28. In view of the importance of United Nations broadcasting for the European region, steps should be taken to maintain and enhance the functions of the European Unit in the Radio Service through redeployment of existing resources.

29. The inclusion of Bengali and Indonesian among the languages of the Asian Unit of the Radio Service for the purpose of undertaking programming at a meaningful level, as approved in 1982, should be implemented in full and Bahasa Malaysia (Malay) should also be included among the languages of the unit through redeployment of available resources.

30. Whereas the French Language Production Section of the Press and Publications Division hardly has available the means to provide press releases in sufficient numbers to meet the needs of the numerous delegations from all geographic areas wishing to use French as their working language, the Committee on Information requests that the Secretary-General should provide that Section with the appropriate means through better and more equitable use of available resources. The Committee recommends to the Department of Public Information that it make appropriate use of the official languages of the General Assembly in documents and audio-visual materials, in view of the need to disseminate more broadly and effectively information on the activities of the United Nations to the greatest cross-section of the public, using the greatest number of communications media.

31. United Nations information centres should continue to assist press and information media in their respective countries, and, inter alia, promote the establishment of a new world information and communication order.

32. While co-operation between the Department of Public Information and the United Nations Development Programme in the field should be promoted to the maximum extent, it is also important to bear in mind the intrinsic functions of United Nations information centres as distinct from those of the United Nations development activities. The United Nations information centres should redouble their effort to publicize the activities and achievements of operational activities for development, including those of the Programme, taking into account the priorities determined by the General Assembly.

33. In countries where the size, population, the state of media and non-governmental and other organizations, or the role being played by their Governments in United Nations affairs warrants it, separate United Nations information centres should be established, as and when resources become available. In other cases, the resident representatives or resident co-ordinators of the United Nations Development Programme may be entrusted with being acting directors of United Nations information centres, provided that they are periodically briefed and evaluated by the Department of Public Information with regard to their information tasks and provided that appropriate local staff and equipment can be allocated to them within available resources.

34. The Committee on Information, having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the study on ways and means to enhance the role of the United Nations information centres within the structure of the Department of Information,²¹ recommends that the effectiveness of United Nations information centres should continue to be improved:

(a) Through the continued review of the extent of decentralization which can be achieved within the overall guidance of the Department of Public Information;

(b) Through better training of centre directors and their personnel;

(c) Through an improved feedback and reporting system;

(d) Where appropriate, through reallocation of available resources for local reproduction and other necessary expenditures;

(e) Through appointing the best qualified persons with professional experience from all different geographical regions to the posts of centre directors, in view of the increased importance of the work of the United Nations information centres network, taking into account Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations;

(f) Through filling existing vacancies at the level of information centre director without further delay, in order to assure the continuation of the work of the centres under the necessary professional guidance of the Department of Public Information;

(g) Through enabling the External Relations Division of the Department of Public Information to fulfil its important role of management, guidance, supervision and monitoring of United Nations information centres in order to ensure that the universal character of the United Nations and the manifold mandate of the Department be duly reflected in the work of the information centres;

(h) Through strengthening the capacity of and improving the services rendered by the centres within the existing resources of the Department of Public Information, so that the centres can play their indispensable role of fostering an informed public opinion about the United Nations throughout the world.

35. The Department of Public Information should focus on, and give wider coverage to, economic, social and development activities throughout the United Nations system, with the aim of achieving a more comprehensive image of activities and potential of the United Nations system, taking into account the priorities set by the General Assembly. The United Nations information centres, among others, should play an important role in this regard. The Department of Public Information should encourage the organization of round-table discussions between chief editors for press, radio and television services of different countries.

36. The Department of Public Information should promote an informed understanding of the work of the United Nations in the area delineated in General Assembly resolutions 34/146 of 17 December 1979, 36/109 of 10 December 1981 and 37/108 of 16 December 1982.

37. The Committee on Information takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General on the study on ways and means to enhance the role of the United Nations information centres within the structure of the Department of Public Information.²¹ The Secretary-General should be requested to submit to the Committee at its substantive session in 1984 a detailed report containing concrete proposals in respect of the suggestions presented in paragraphs 44 to 46 of the report.

38. The Secretary-General should be requested to ensure that United Nations information centres orient their activities to disseminate information on questions according to the mandates and priorities of the Department of Public Information established by the General Assembly.

39. Urgent steps should be taken to ensure that the United Nations Information Service at Vienna give, as a matter of priority, adequate service in the German language in order to act as information centre for Austria and the Federal Republic of Germany. Such steps, which are to be taken within existing resources, may involve redeployment of posts, including those originally assigned to the United Nations Industrial Development Organization-United Nations Information Service. The Committee should be informed about the implementation of this recommendation at its substantive session in 1984.

40. Taking into account the request of the Government of Nicaragua for the opening of a United Nations information centre at Managua, the Secretary-General should be requested to take the appropriate steps for the prompt establishment of the centre, through the redeployment of existing resources.

41. The United Nations information centres should be requested to intensify direct and systematic communication exchange with local information and educational communities in a mutually beneficial way, especially in areas of particular interest to host countries.

42. A detailed and well-documented factual summary account of the coverage by widely representative world media of developments affecting the Palestinian people from June to December 1982 should be prepared, within existing resources, and be submitted to the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session.

43. The Committee on Information, taking note with appreciation of the reports of the Secretary-General on the development of systematic evaluation procedures for the activities of the Department of Public Information²² and on the in-depth evaluation of the work of the Department of Public Information,²³ encourages the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to develop a system for monitoring and evaluating the effectiveness of the activities of the Department, particularly in the priority areas determined by the General Assembly. This systematic evaluation process should be pursued and a progress report should be submitted to the Committee at its substantive session in 1984. The Committee looks forward to receiving in due course the progress report on the implementation of decisions taken on the basis of the Secretary-General's report²¹ which is to be presented to the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination at its twenty-sixth session.

44. Future reports of the Department of Public Information to the Committee on Information and to the General Assembly, in particular on new programmes or on expansion of existing programmes, should contain:

(a) More adequate information on the output of the Department in respect of each topic included in its work programme, which forms the basis of its programme budget;

(b) The costs of the activities undertaken in respect of each topic;

(c) More adequate information on target audiences, end-use of the Department's products and an analysis of feedback data received by the Department;

(d) The Department's evaluation of the effectiveness of its different programmes and activities;

(e) A statement detailing the priority level which the Secretary-General has attached to current or future activities of the Department, in documents dealing with such activities.

45. The Committee on Information notes the steps taken by the Department of Public Information in redressing the imbalance in the staff of that Department, particularly in the Radio and Visual Services Division. The Department should continue to intensify its efforts to that end, and, until equitable geographical distribution is achieved, the Secretary-General should take urgent steps to increase the representation of under-represented groups of countries, in accordance with Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations and General Assembly resolutions 33/143, 35/201, 36/149 and 37/94 B; in this regard, the Secretary-General is requested to submit a report to the Committee on Information at its substantive session in 1984.

46. Member States should be called upon to make voluntary contributions to the United Nations Trust Fund for Economic and Social Information.

47. The General Assembly should take note of the report of the Secretary-General on various aspects of the regionalization of the Radio and Visual Services Division of the Department of Public Information²⁴ and examine it in the light of its resolutions 35/201 and 36/149 B.

48. The World Disarmament Campaign should give full consideration to the role of mass media as the most effective way to promote in world public opinion a climate of understanding, confidence and co-operation conducive to peace and disarmament, the enhancement of human rights and development. Within the context of the World Disarmament Campaign and Disarmament Week, the Department of Public Information should fulfil the role assigned to it by the General Assembly by utilizing its expertise and resources in public information to ensure its maximum effectiveness.

49. The quality, usefulness and coverage of the daily press releases and the weekly news summary issued by the Department of Public Information in all working languages should be further enhanced and improved in view of the important public information tasks which they can perform. The Department should continue to co-operate closely with and provide assistance to the United Nations Correspondents Association. Services provided at the Press Section of the Department of Public Information booth for the media and the delegations should be improved.

50. The Committee recommends, in view of the importance of graphic presentation for a variety of public information activities, including posters, exhibits and publications, that the Secretary-General should consider redeploying a post of graphic designer from the Department of Conference Services to the Department of Public Information.

51. The role of the Department of Public Information, as defined by the General Assembly in several relevant resolutions, as the focal point for the formulation and implementation of information activities of the United Nations should be re-emphasized, and the Secretary-General should be requested to study the full implications of this matter and submit a report to the Committee on Information at its substantive session in 1984.

52. The operations of the Non-Governmental Liaison Services (Geneva and New York), as inter-agency projects reaching specific target audiences in the industrialized countries on international development issues, should be continued on a stable financial basis through United Nations participation in these services. The Committee further recommends that the Secretary-General should be requested to urge all the specialized agencies to make long-term contributions to the financing of these services, thereby stressing their inter-agency character.

53. The Department of Public Information and the United Nations Development Programme, as important elements of the United Nations information and development activities, should be requested to co-operate more closely with each other, both at Headquarters and in the field, in order to concentrate their resources, avoid duplication and effectively foster the process of development.

54. The Joint United Nations Information Committee, as the essential instrument for inter-agency co-ordination and co-operation in the field of public information, should be enhanced and given more responsibility, thus improving its co-ordination and cost-benefit efficiency of the public information activities of the entire United Nations system.

55. The Joint United Nations Information Committee should continue to strengthen its activities in the fields of development education and development-support communications.

56. The recommendations contained in the report of the Joint United Nations Information Committee on public perceptions of the United Nations system²⁵ should be implemented. An appeal should be addressed to Governments and the mass media to transmit accurate information on major activities of the United Nations, especially those listed in Article I of the Charter of the United Nations.

57. The Joint United Nations Information Committee should continue to report on its programmes and activities to the Committee on Information for guidance and support.

58. Since Development Forum is the only inter-agency publication of the United Nations system which concentrates on development issues, the Secretary-General should continue, in accordance with pertinent resolutions of the General Assembly, to support its publication from the regular budget while intensifying his efforts to secure a sound and independent financial basis for its continued publication. All the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system should be urged to contribute to the financing of this system-wide publication, thereby recognizing its inter-agency character.

59. Having taken note of the report on the relocation of Development Forum, the Committee on Information recommends that the Secretary-General should be requested to ensure that Development Forum will retain its editorial policy of intellectual independence, thus enabling this publication to continue to serve as a world-wide forum in which diverse opinions on issues related to economic and social development can be freely expressed.

60. The Secretary-General should be requested to submit a report to the Committee on Information on the current status of financial arrangements for the publication of the World Newspaper Supplement project.

61. In view of the fact that, as is pointed out in the report of the Secretary-General on the in-depth evaluation of the work of the Department of Public Information,²³ the production of the UN Chronicle is administratively separate from its distribution and sales, thus adding to the problem of its wider and more effective dissemination, it is recommended that the Secretary-General should consider transferring the sales activity of the UN Chronicle to the Department of Public Information.

62. The importance of the Declaration on the Preparation of Societies for Life in Peace²⁶ should be noted and Member States called upon to implement it.

Recommendations of the Special Political Committee

35. The Special Political Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of draft resolutions A to K below:

UNITED NATIONS RELIEF AND WORKS AGENCY FOR PALESTINE REFUGEES IN THE NEAR EAST

Assistance to Palestine refugees

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/120 K of 16 December 1982 and all previous resolutions on the question, including resolution 194 (III) of 11 December 1948,

Taking note of the report of the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, covering the period from 1 July 1982 to 30 June 1983 (A/38/13 and Corr.1),

1. Notes with deep regret that repatriation or compensation of the refugees as provided for in paragraph 11 of General Assembly resolution 194 (III) has not been effected, that no substantial progress has been made in the programme endorsed by the Assembly in paragraph 2 of its resolution 513 (VI) of 26 January 1952 for the reintegration of refugees either by repatriation or resettlement and that, therefore, the situation of the refugees continues to be a matter of serious concern;

2. Expresses its thanks to the Commissioner-General and to all the staff of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, recognizing that the Agency is doing all it can within the limits of available resources, and also expresses its thanks to the specialized agencies and private organizations for their valuable work in assisting the refugees;

3. Reiterates its request that the headquarters of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East should be relocated to its former site within its area of operations as soon as practicable;

4. Notes with regret that the United Nations Conciliation Commission for Palestine has been unable to find a means of achieving progress in the implementation of paragraph 11 of General Assembly resolution 194 (III) (see A/38/397, annex) and requests the Commission to exert continued efforts towards the implementation of that paragraph and to report to the Assembly as appropriate, but not later than 1 October 1984;

5. Directs attention to the continuing seriousness of the financial position of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, as outlined in the report of the Commissioner-General;

6. Notes with profound concern that, despite the commendable and successful efforts of the Commissioner-General to collect additional contributions, this increased level of income to the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East is still insufficient to cover essential budget requirements in the present year and that, at currently foreseen levels of giving, deficits will recur each year;

7. Calls upon all Governments as a matter of urgency to make the most generous efforts possible to meet the anticipated needs of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, particularly in the light of the budgetary deficit projected in the report of the Commissioner-General, and therefore urges non-contributing Governments to contribute regularly and contributing Governments to consider increasing their regular contributions;

8. Decides to extend until 30 June 1987, without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 11 of General Assembly resolution 194 (III), the mandate of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East.

Recalling also its decision 36/462 of 16 March 1982, whereby it took note of the special report of the Working Group on the Financing of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East¹ and adopted the recommendations contained therein,

Having considered the report of the Working Group on the Financing of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (A/38/558),

Taking into account the report of the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, covering the period from 1 July 1982 to 30 June 1983 (A/38/13 and Corr.1),

Gravely concerned at the critical financial situation of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, which has already reduced the essential minimum services being provided to the Palestine refugees and which threatens even greater reductions in the future,

Emphasizing the urgent need for extraordinary efforts in order to maintain, at least at their present minimum level, the activities of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East,

1. Commends the Working Group on the Financing of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East for its efforts to assist in ensuring the Agency's financial security;

2. Takes note with approval of the report of the Working Group;

3. Requests the Working Group to continue its efforts, in co-operation with the Secretary-General and the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, for the financing of the Agency for a further period of one year;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the necessary services and assistance to the Working Group for the conduct of its work.

Taking note of the report of the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, covering the period from 1 July 1982 to 30 June 1983 (ibid.),

Concerned about the continued human suffering resulting from the hostilities in the Middle East,

1. Reaffirms its resolution 37/120 B and all previous resolutions on the question;

2. Endorses, bearing in mind the objectives of those resolutions, the efforts of the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East to continue to provide humanitarian assistance as far as practicable, on an emergency basis and as a temporary measure, to other persons in the area who are at present displaced and in serious need of continued assistance as a result of the June 1967 and subsequent hostilities;

3. Strongly appeals to all Governments and to organizations and individuals to contribute generously for the above purposes to the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East and to the other intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations concerned.

Offers by Member States of grants and scholarships for higher education, including vocational training, for the Palestine refugees

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 212 (III) of 19 November 1948 on assistance to Palestine refugees,

Recalling also its resolutions 35/13 B of 3 November 1980, 36/146 H of 16 December 1981 and 37/120 D of 16 December 1982,

Cognizant of the fact that the Palestine refugees have, for the last three decades, lost their lands and means of livelihood,

Having examined with appreciation the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/149) on offers of grants and scholarships for higher education for Palestine refugees and on the scope of the implementation of resolution 37/120 D,

Having also examined the report of the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, covering the period from 1 July 1982 to June 1983 (A/38/13 and Corr.1), dealing with this subject,

1. Urges all States to respond to the appeal contained in General Assembly resolution 32/90 F of 13 December 1977 in a manner commensurate with the needs of Palestine refugees for higher education and vocational training;

2. Strongly appeals to all States, specialized agencies and non-governmental organizations to augment the special allocations for grants and scholarships to Palestine refugees in addition to their contributions to the regular budget of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East;

3. Expresses its appreciation to all Governments, specialized agencies and non-governmental organizations that responded favourably to General Assembly resolution 36/146 H;

4. Invites the relevant United Nations agencies to continue, within their respective spheres of competence, to expand assistance for higher education to Palestine refugee students;

5. Appeals to all States, specialized agencies and the United Nations University to contribute generously to the Palestinian universities in the territories occupied by Israel in 1967, including, in due course, the proposed University of Jerusalem "Al-Quds" for Palestine refugees;

Having considered the report of the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, covering the period from 1 July 1982 to 30 June 1983 (ibid.), and the report of the Secretary-General of 3 October 1983 (A/38/418),

Recalling the provisions of paragraph 11 of its resolution 194 (III) of 11 December 1948 and considering that measures to resettle Palestine refugees in the Gaza Strip away from the homes and property from which they were displaced constitute a violation of their inalienable right of return,

Alarmed by the reports received from the Commissioner-General that the Israeli occupying authorities, in contravention of Israel's obligations under international law, persist in their policy of demolishing, on punitive grounds, shelters occupied by refugee families,

1. Reiterates its demand that Israel desist from the removal and resettlement of Palestine refugees in the Gaza Strip and from the destruction of their shelters;

2. Requests the Secretary-General, after consulting with the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, to report to the General Assembly, before the opening of its thirty-ninth session, on Israel's compliance with paragraph 1 above.

F

Resumption of the ration distribution to Palestine refugees

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, covering the period from 1 July 1982 to 30 June 1983 (A/38/13 and Corr.1),

Taking note of the report of the Joint Inspection Unit of 1 August 1983 (A/38/143),

Deeply concerned at the interruption by the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, owing to financial difficulties, of the general ration distribution to Palestine refugees in all fields in the occupied Palestinian territories, Jordan and the Syrian Arab Republic,

1. Regrets that resolution 37/120 F of 16 December 1982 has not been implemented;

2. Calls upon all Governments, as a matter of urgency, to make the most generous efforts possible and to offer the necessary resources to meet the needs of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, particularly in the light of the interruption by the Agency of the general ration distribution to Palestine refugees in all fields, and therefore urges non-contributing Governments to contribute regularly and contributing Governments to consider increasing their regular contributions;

3. Requests the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East to resume on a continuing basis the interrupted general ration distribution to Palestine refugees in all fields.

G

Population and refugees displaced since 1967

The General Assembly,

Recalling Security Council resolution 237 (1967) of 14 June 1967,

Having considered the report of the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, covering the period from 1 July 1982 to 30 June 1983 (A/38/13 and Corr.1), and the report of the Secretary-General of 3 October 1983 (A/38/419),

1. Reaffirms the inalienable right of all displaced inhabitants to return to their homes or former places of residence in the territories occupied by Israel since 1967 and declares once more that any attempt to restrict, or to attach conditions to, the free exercise of the right of return by any displaced person is inconsistent with that inalienable right and inadmissible;

2. Considers any and all agreements embodying any restriction on or condition for the return of the displaced inhabitants as null and void;

3. Strongly deploras the continued refusal of the Israeli authorities to take steps for the return of the displaced inhabitants;

4. Calls once more upon Israel:

(b) To desist from all measures that obstruct the return of the displaced inhabitants, including measures affecting the physical and demographic structure of the occupied territories;

5. Requests the Secretary-General, after consulting with the Commissioner-General of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, to report to the General Assembly, before the opening of its thirty-ninth session, on Israel's compliance with paragraph 4 above.

Taking note of the reports of the Secretary-General of 2 September and 8 November 1983 (A/38/361 and Add.1),

Taking note also of the report of the United Nations Conciliation Commission for Palestine, covering the period from 1 October 1982 to 30 September 1983 (A/38/397, annex),

Considering that the Palestinian Arab refugees are entitled to their property and to the income derived from their property, in conformity with the principles of justice and equity,

Recalling, in particular, its resolution 394 (V) of 14 December 1950, in which it directed the United Nations Conciliation Commission for Palestine, in consultation with the parties concerned, to prescribe measures for the protection of the rights, property and interests of the Palestinian Arab refugees,

Taking note of the completion of the programme of identification and evaluation of Arab property, as announced by the United Nations Conciliation Commission for Palestine in its twenty-second progress report,³ of 11 May 1964, and of the fact that the Land Office had a schedule of Arab owners and file of documents defining the location, area and other particulars of Arab property,

1. Requests the Secretary-General to take all appropriate steps, in consultation with the United Nations Conciliation Commission for Palestine, for the protection and administration of Arab property, assets and property rights in Israel, and to establish a fund for the receipt of income derived therefrom, on behalf of the rightful owners;

2. Calls once again upon the Governments concerned, especially Israel, to render all facilities and assistance to the Secretary-General in the implementation of the present resolution;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the implementation of the present resolution.

Alarmed by the reports that Israel plans to remove and resettle the Palestinian refugees of the West Bank and to destroy their camps,

Recalling the provisions of paragraph 11 of its resolution 194 (III) of 11 December 1948 and considering that measures to resettle Palestine refugees in the West Bank away from the homes and property from which they were displaced constitute a violation of their inalienable right of return,

Recommendation of the Special Political Committee

9. The Special Political Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

ISRAEL'S DECISION TO BUILD A CANAL LINKING THE MEDITERRANEAN SEA TO THE DEAD SEA

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 36/150 of 16 December 1981 and 37/122 of 16 December 1982,

Recalling the rules and principles of international law relative to the fundamental rights and duties of States,

Bearing in mind the principles of international law relative to belligerent occupation of land, including the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949,² and reaffirming their applicability to all Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/502 and Add.1 and 2),

Recognizing that the proposed canal, to be constructed partly through the Gaza Strip, a Palestinian territory occupied in 1967, would violate the principles of international law and affect the interests of the Palestinian people,

Confident that the canal linking the Mediterranean Sea with the Dead Sea, if constructed by Israel, will cause direct, serious and irreparable damage to Jordan's rights and legitimate and vital interests in the economic, agricultural, demographic and ecological fields,

Noting with regret the non-compliance by Israel with General Assembly resolution 36/150,

1. Deplores Israel's non-compliance with General Assembly resolution 37/122 and its refusal to receive the team of experts;

2. Emphasizes that the canal linking the Mediterranean Sea with the Dead Sea, if constructed, is a violation of the rules and principles of international law, especially those relating to the fundamental rights and duties of States and to belligerent occupation of land;

3. Demands that Israel not construct this canal and cease forthwith all actions taken and/or plans made towards the implementation of this project;

4. Calls upon all States, specialized agencies and governmental and non-governmental organizations not to assist, directly or indirectly, in the preparation and execution of this project and strongly urges national, international and multinational corporations to do likewise;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to monitor and assess, on a continuing basis and through a competent expert organ, all aspects — juridical, political, economic, ecological and demographic — of the adverse effects on Jordan and on the Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem, arising from the implementation of the Israeli decision to construct this canal and to forward the findings of that organ on a regular basis to the General Assembly;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the implementation of the present resolution;

7. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Israel's decision to build a canal linking the Mediterranean Sea to the Dead Sea".

1. At its 52nd and 56th meetings, on 28 November and 14 December 1983, the Second Committee considered the proposals pertaining to sub-item (a) (International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade). 2. At the 52nd meeting, on 28 November, the representative of Mexico introduced, on behalf of the States Members which are members of the Group of 77, a draft resolution (A/C.2/38/L.90) entitled "International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade", which read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation and 35/56 of 5 December 1980, containing the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,

"Recalling also its resolution 37/202 of 20 December 1982, by which it established a committee of universal membership to carry out in 1984 the first overall review and appraisal of the implementation of the International Development Strategy, and provided for the necessary arrangements for fulfilling this task,

"Recalling further its resolution 37/203 of 20 December 1982, in which it requested that, as part of the preparations for the review and appraisal of the International Development Strategy, an analysis also be made of the negative trends in the economy which affect international economic co-operation,

"Deeply conscious that the first three years of the Decade have been a period of widespread economic stagnation and crisis, particularly in the developing countries where per capita income declined significantly, in marked contrast to the target of an annual increase of about 4.5 per cent set out in the Strategy,

"Expressing its deep regret at the lack of progress in the launching of global negotiations, which are intended to be one of the principal instruments for facilitating the implementation of the International Development Strategy, and the failure to tackle long-term structural problems of the world economy,

"Convinced of the urgent need for substantially greater efforts towards the implementation of the goals and objectives of the International Development Strategy in the remaining period of the Decade,

"1. Reiterates the importance of achieving the goals and objectives contained in the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade;

"2. Reaffirms the need to review the progress made towards achieving the goals and objectives of the International Development Strategy, to identify the real causes for the lack of compliance with the policy measures and the goals and objectives contained in the Strategy, and to propose the necessary corrective measures in order for the instrument to contribute effectively to the achievement of the goals and objectives of the Strategy, the development of developing countries and the strengthening of the capacity of the United Nations system, with a view to the establishment of the new international economic order;

"3. Urges Governments, particularly those of developed countries, to implement paragraphs 10 and 11 of General Assembly resolution 37/202;

"4. Urges all concerned to implement fully the provisions of General Assembly resolution 37/202 in order to ensure the successful completion of the review and appraisal exercise."

REVIEW AND APPRAISAL OF THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT STRATEGY FOR THE THIRD UNITED NATIONS DEVELOPMENT DECADE

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

Recalling its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade, and reiterating the goals and objectives contained therein,

Recalling also its resolution 37/202 of 20 December 1982, by which it established a committee of universal membership to carry out in 1984 the first overall review and appraisal of the implementation of the International Development Strategy, and provided for the necessary arrangements for fulfilling this task,

Recalling further its resolution 37/203 of 20 December 1982, in which it requested, inter alia, that, as part of the preparations for the review and appraisal of the International Development Strategy, an analysis also be made of the negative trends in the world economy which affect international economic co-operation,

Recalling the relevant provisions of Economic and Social Council decision 1983/184 of 29 July 1983,

Deeply conscious that the early part of the Third United Nations Development Decade has been a period of widespread economic stagnation and crisis, particularly in those developing countries where per capita income declined significantly, in marked contrast to the annual growth rate of about 4.5 per cent envisaged in the International Development Strategy,

Expressing its deep regret at the lack of progress in the launching of global negotiations, which are intended to be one of the principal instruments for facilitating the implementation of the International Development Strategy,

Reaffirming, in the context of the International Development Strategy, the continuing need to address the long-term structural economic problems,

Convinced of the urgent need for substantially greater efforts towards the implementation of the goals and objectives of the International Development Strategy in the remaining period of the Decade,

1. Reiterates the importance of achieving the goals and objectives of the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade;

2. Reaffirms that, in accordance with paragraphs 169 to 180 of the International Development Strategy, the process of review and appraisal of the implementation of the Strategy should consist of systematic scrutiny, within the context of an overall review of the international economic situation, of the progress made towards achieving the goals and objectives of the Strategy, and should ensure its effective implementation and strengthen it as an instrument of policy;

3. Reaffirms also the need, in the review and appraisal exercise, to identify and appraise the real causes for shortfalls encountered in the implementation of the International Development Strategy and to carry out, if necessary, the adjustment, intensification or reformulation of the policy measures foreseen in the Strategy in the light of evolving needs and developments, in order for the instrument to contribute effectively to the development of developing countries, with a view to the establishment of a new international economic order;

4. Urges all Governments and all concerned to implement fully the provisions of General Assembly resolution 37/202 in order to ensure the successful preparation and conclusion of the review and appraisal exercise;

5. Recommends that informal consultations be conducted by the Chairman of the Committee on the Review and Appraisal of the Implementation of the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade, prior to the substantive session of the Committee, to initiate preliminary discussions and an exchange of views on the review and appraisal of the Strategy as envisaged in paragraphs 2 and 3 above, and to review the preparation of documentation for the Committee;

6. Decides that documentation to be submitted to the Committee by relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system should be concise and brief and should focus on the issues envisaged in paragraphs 2 and 3 above, as well as on questions addressed to them in the relevant provisions of General Assembly resolution 37/202;

7. Requests the Secretary-General, in pursuance of General Assembly resolutions 37/202 and 37/203, to prepare and submit to the Committee an analytical, comprehensive, consolidated and synthesized report on the implementation of the International Development Strategy, addressing the issues envisaged in paragraphs 2 and 3 above and drawing on the reports of the relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system.

8. At the 50th meeting, on 25 November, the representative of Mexico introduced, on behalf of the States Members which are members of the Group of 77, a draft resolution (A/C.2/38/L.85) entitled "Protectionism and structural adjustment and the international trading system", which read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling its resolution 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation, 31/163 of 21 December 1976, 33/196 of 29 January 1979 and 36/145 of 16 December 1981 on the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development,

"Recalling also its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,

"Recalling further resolutions 131 (V) of 3 June 1979 of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, on protectionism and structural adjustment,⁴ and 159 (VI) of 2 July 1983, entitled "International trade in goods and services: protectionism, structural adjustment and the international trading system",⁵

"Taking note of Trade and Development Board resolution 226 (XXII) of 20 March 1981 on protectionism and structural adjustment⁶ and of Board decision 250 (XXIV) of 19 March 1982,⁷

"Bearing in mind, in particular, the commitment by developed countries to fully implement and strictly adhere to the standstill provisions they have accepted, particularly concerning imports from developing countries, as well as the recognition that protectionism is harmful to trade and development, especially to that of developing countries, and the agreement that it should be resisted,

"Recognizing the agreement by developed countries to work systematically towards reducing and eliminating all restrictions and measures having similar effects,

"Recognizing the importance of the role of international trade in economic growth and development, in particular that of developing countries, and the links between the promotion of industrial production and international trade, as well as between international trade and the solution of balance-of-payments problems, including the indebtedness of developing countries,

"Recognizing also that disruption of international trade affects due access to international markets of agricultural exports from developing countries,

"Noting with concern the increase in many developed countries of subsidies to inefficient and internationally less competitive lines of production which are of particular export interest to developing countries,

"Noting also that increasing domestic subsidies to agricultural production in developed countries, a matter which is not sufficiently negotiated in the multilateral trade negotiations, disrupts international trade and seriously affects production in and export from developing countries,

"Recognizing the need to adopt effective policy measures to promote the economic growth and development of developing countries, particularly countries where the level of industrialization is very low, bearing in mind that the operations should be carried out within the framework of a dynamic international division of labour,

"Bearing in mind, inter alia, the target of a 25 per cent share of world production for developing countries by the year 2000 as set out in the Lima Declaration and Plan of Action on Industrial Development and Co-operation,⁸

"Emphasizing the importance of structural adjustment for the elimination of protectionism and for the promotion of greater international trade, which, inter alia, would lead to sustained exports earnings, an indispensable condition for developing countries honouring their international financial commitments,

"Noting that developing countries, with, inter alia, the implementation of the global system of trade preferences and developing countries, would be adopting and strengthening policies that would permit them to continue to expand trade among themselves and thus to further their economic growth and development, to increase their purchasing power and to further contribute to world economic growth,

"Noting the importance of the generalized system of preferences for increasing export earnings, promoting industrialization and accelerating rates of economic growth of developing countries,

"Stressing the plight of the least developed countries and the need for significant measures to increase their participation in the world economy,

"1. Urges all States to implement fully resolution 159 (VI) of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development;

"2. Affirms that structural adjustment is a global and ongoing phenomenon which should be facilitated with a view to ensuring optimum overall growth, including the development and diversification of the economies of developing countries and an effective, equitable and dynamic international division of labour enabling developing countries to secure an increase in their share in world production of and trade in agricultural products, processed goods and manufactures;

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

"Recalling also its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,

"Recalling further its resolution 37/208 of 20 December 1982,

"Having considered the report of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development on its sixth session,¹ held at Belgrade from 6 June to 2 July 1983, and the report of the Trade and Development Board on its twenty-sixth, twelfth special and twenty-seventh sessions (A/38/15, vols. I and II),

"Noting the views and recommendations of the Seventh Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries, held at New Delhi from 7 to 12 March 1983, relating to global economic problems and, in particular, to the sixth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (see A/38/132-S/15675 and Corr.1 and 2, annex, sect. III),

"Noting further the Buenos Aires Platform, adopted by the Fifth Ministerial Meeting of the Group of 77, held at Buenos Aires from 28 March to 9 April 1983,¹¹ setting forth the objectives and specific proposals of the developing countries at the sixth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development,

"Considering that the sixth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development took place against the background of the continuation of the most pervasive and dangerous crisis experienced since the Great Depression, the burden of which has fallen most heavily on developing countries, particularly the least developed among them,

"Reiterating that, because of the realities of interdependence, no isolated solution in individual sectors or in one group of countries can be adequate or self-sustaining, that the strategy for surmounting the current economic crisis must fully recognize the new role of the developing countries as full partners in world development and that the current situation calls for a coherent set of international policies and measures that address both short-term conjunctural problems and longer-term structural problems,

"Recognizing that what is needed for the revitalization of the development process of developing countries is an integrated set of policies, encompassing short-term measures in areas of critical importance to developing countries and long-term changes relevant to the attainment of a new international economic order,

"Recognizing also that the revitalization of the development process in the developing countries and the accompanying requirement of structural changes in the global economy have to be central to any programme for its reactivation and for the development of developing countries,

"Recalling that the sixth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development was to deal with important issues concerning trade, development and related problems, taking fully into account their interrelationship and thus contributing effectively to the overcoming of the grave difficulties facing the world economy, to the economic development of developing countries and to the attainment of a new international economic order,

"1. Takes note of the report of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development on its sixth session and the report of the Trade and Development Board on its twenty-sixth, twelfth special and twenty-seventh sessions;

"2. Notes with deep concern that, owing to the continued lack of political will of some developed countries, the Conference was unable to yield significant results commensurate with the dimension of the problems confronting the developing countries and the world economy as a whole;

"3. Further notes with grave concern that, owing to the negative attitude of some developed countries, the Trade and Development Board was unable, at its twenty-seventh session, to translate into a work programme and action resolutions and decisions adopted by the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development at its sixth session;

"4. Urges the developed countries to exercise the necessary political will so as to enable the Trade and Development Board at its twenty-eighth session to reach agreement on the follow-up to the resolutions and decisions adopted by the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development at its sixth session and to ensure their full and timely implementation;

"5. Calls upon all countries to exert all efforts in order to adopt and implement a programme for the revitalization of the development process in the developing countries and the accompanying requirement of structural changes in the global economy, and emphasizes the important role of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development in this regard;

"6. Endorses the statement on the world economic situation with special emphasis on development: approaches to the current world economic crisis and perspectives for the 1980s, including issues, policies and measures relevant to the attainment of a new international economic order, adopted at the sixth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development,¹

"7. Endorses all resolutions adopted by the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development at its sixth session;

"8. Calls upon all countries, in particular the developed countries, to take appropriate action at the national and international levels to implement the resolutions adopted by the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development at its sixth session and the programme of immediate measures set out in the statement adopted by the Conference;

“9. Requests the Trade and Development Board, at its twenty-eighth session, and the subsidiary organs of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, to take all necessary actions for urgent implementation of the resolutions and decisions adopted by the Conference at its sixth session, particularly those in the areas of trade, money and finance and commodities, including the compensatory financing of export earnings shortfalls;

“10. Urges all organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to respond positively to the requests addressed to them in the relevant parts of the resolutions adopted by the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development at its sixth session.”

15. At the 56th meeting, on 14 December, Mr. Faruq Ziada (Iraq), Vice-Chairman of the Committee, presented to the Committee a draft resolution on the basis of informal consultations held on draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.86 and informed the Committee of additional changes as a result of the agreement reached in further informal consultations. Recommendation of the Second Committee

18. The Second Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

Draft resolution I

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT CO-OPERATION

The General Assembly,

*Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international co-operation and 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade, in which, inter alia, the importance of industrialization in the development of developing countries is stressed,¹⁴*

Recalling also the Lima Declaration and Plan of Action on Industrial Development and Co-operation,⁸ in which were laid down the main measures and principles for industrial development and co-operation within the framework of the establishment of the new international economic order, and the New Delhi Declaration and Plan of Action on Industrialization of Developing Countries and International Co-operation for their Industrial Development,¹⁵ in which a strategy was spelt out for the further industrialization of developing countries,

Recalling its resolutions 36/182 of 17 December 1981 and 37/212 of 20 December 1982 on industrial development co-operation,

Recalling Economic and Social Council resolution 1983/50 of 28 July 1983, in which the Council recommended that the work programmes of the relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system should be geared towards supporting the full implementation of programmes of economic and technical co-operation among developing countries,

Recognizing that economic co-operation among developing countries is an integral part of a global development effort and of an interdependent world economy,

Stressing that interdependence in all sectors, including the industrial sector, should contribute to the prosperity of all countries, and believing that the industrial development of developing countries should constitute an essential part of the process of reactivation of the world economy,

Expressing its concern at the negative impact of the very difficult world economic situation on the industrialization of the developing countries and reiterating the need for a substantially increased transfer of financial and technical resources to developing countries for their accelerated industrial development,

Conscious of the role of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization as the central co-ordinating organ having primary responsibility within the United Nations system for the promotion of industrial development co-operation, for facilitating the transfer of industrial technology and for the delivery of increased technical assistance to developing countries,

Noting with concern that, in spite of the co-operative efforts of some countries, contributions to the United Nations Industrial Development Fund have remained far below the agreed desirable level of $US 50 million, and that the value of the Fund has declined in real terms since its establishment (see A/38/16, para. 117),

Recalling paragraph 10 of conclusion 1983/8 of the Industrial Development Board (ibid., para. 113) in which the Board re-emphasized the importance and effectiveness of the Senior Industrial Development Field Advisers Programme in implementing the wide range of programmes and services rendered by the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, noting further the reduction made by the United Nations Development Programme in its allocations for senior industrial development field advisers in the biennium 1984-1985 and expressing concern at the absence of adequate and predictable resources for the Senior Industrial Development Field Advisers Programme,

Bearing in mind the positive effects, inter alia, of economic policies of co-operation between different economic sectors—including the public, private, co-operative, social or mixed sectors, as appropriate—as well as of sustained growth and development,

Bearing in mind that, within the framework of the new international economic order, far-reaching changes in the structure of the world economy involve the restructuring of world industry, taking fully into account the capacities and potential of the developing countries,

I

7. Invites the United Nations Development Programme to finance the maximum possible number of senior industrial development field advisers during the biennium 1984-1985;

9. Endorses the decisions of the Industrial Development Board, contained in its conclusion 1983/4 of 13 May 1983, concerning consultations to be held during the biennium 1984-1985 (see A/38/16, para. 76);

10. Requests the Executive Director of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization to ensure that experts and expertise from developing as well as developed countries shall be associated with the process of preparation of consultations, having due regard for equitable geographical distribution, and that consultations shall be organized sufficiently in advance so as to allow enough time for a fuller exchange of views among participants; and expresses the hope that future consultations will result in action-oriented recommendations and conclusions;

11. Reaffirms its support for strengthening the system of consultations, in the light of experience gained, paying particular attention to measures that could increase the industrial capacities of developing countries;

12. Requests the Executive Director of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization to ensure that the documentation submitted to consultations for discussion focuses more narrowly on practical and well-defined subjects directly related to furthering progress in the industrialization of developing countries;

of their participants in the consultations, and to request the Executive Director of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization also to provide material for that appraisal (ibid.);

posals pertaining to sub-item (d) (science and technology for development). An account of the Committee's discussion is contained in the relevant summary records (A/C.2/38/SR.55 and 56).

Draft resolutions A/C.2/38/L.100 and L.114

2. At the 55th meeting, on 9 December, the Committee took up the consideration of draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.100, entitled "Long-term financial and institutional arrangements for the United Nations Financing System for Science and Technology for Development", which was sponsored by Austria, Bangladesh, China, Ecuador, Egypt, Ethiopia, France, India, Italy, Nigeria, Pakistan, Peru, the Sudan, Sweden, Thailand, Tunisia, Uruguay and Yugoslavia.

3. At the same meeting, Mr. Faruq Ziada (Iraq), Vice-Chairman of the Committee, informed the Committee that draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.100 would become a Vice-Chairman's text by inserting the word "significant" before the words "number of countries" in the last preambular paragraph and deleting the word "concerted".

4. At the 56th meeting, on 14 December, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.114, which had been submitted by Mr. Faruq Ziada on the basis of informal consultations (see para. 7 below).

5. In the light of the adoption of draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.114, the Committee decided that no action would be taken on draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.100.

6. At the same meeting, the Committee decided to take note of the report of the Intergovernmental Committee on Science and Technology for Development on its fifth session (see para. 8 below).

Recommendations of the Second Committee

7. The Second Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

LONG-TERM FINANCIAL AND INSTITUTIONAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE UNITED NATIONS FINANCING SYSTEM FOR SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY FOR DEVELOPMENT

The General Assembly,

Recalling the Vienna Programme of Action on Science and Technology for Development¹² and General Assembly resolution 34/218 of 19 December 1979,

Also recalling its resolutions 36/183 of 17 December 1981 and 37/244 of 21 December 1982,

Taking into account the report of the Intergovernmental Committee on Science and Technology for Development on its fifth session (A/38/37, part two), in particular decision 4 (V) of 20 June 1983 on the establishment of the long-term financial and institutional arrangements for the United Nations Financing System for Science and Technology for Development (ibid., annex, sect. B),

Noting with appreciation the support provided over the past four years by Governments to the Interim Fund and to the United Nations Financing System for Science and Technology for Development,

Concerned that it has not yet been possible to bring into full effect the provisions of resolution 37/244,

Noting that the informal open-ended meeting, called for by the Intergovernmental Committee in its decision 4 (V), indicates that a significant number of countries, developed and developing, are considering making financial contributions to the Financing System in an effort to attain the targets established by the General Assembly,

1. Decides that:

(a) The Secretary-General should be authorized to convene, in consultation with Governments, a pledging conference for the United Nations Financing System for Science and Technology for Development prior to the sixth session of the Intergovernmental Committee on Science and Technology for Development to enable interested Governments to announce their pledges for the first year and, if possible, to provide an indication of the amount they may contribute in the two following years;

(b) Thereafter, the Intergovernmental Committee will, at its sixth session, proceed to adopt decisions as required, including, if appropriate, the financing plan for the Financing System, and to elect the members of the Executive Board of the United Nations Financing System for Science and Technology for Development, as decided by the General Assembly in resolution 37/244;

(c) In the mean time, the existing operating procedures of the present Financing System shall continue;

2. Decides also that the period up to the convening of the pledging conference should be fully utilized for all necessary consultations to bring about the successful outcome of the pledging conference and the establishment of the long-term financial and institutional arrangements for the Financing System;

3. Invites those Governments that are prepared to do so to indicate to the Secretary-General the amount of their financial contributions to the Financing System at the earliest possible time;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to make all efforts to mobilize the support of Governments for the establishment of the long-term arrangements for the Financing System and appeals to all Governments to co-operate with the Secretary-General in this regard.

8. The Second Committee also recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft decision:

REPORT OF THE INTERGOVERNMENTAL COMMITTEE FOR SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY FOR DEVELOPMENT

The General Assembly decides to take note of the report of the Intergovernmental Committee on Science and Technology for Development on its fifth session (A/38/37, part two).

Draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.21

2. At its 30th meeting, on 4 November, the Committee had before it a draft resolution entitled "Food problems" (A/C.2/38/L.21) submitted by Mr. Phillip Gibson (New Zealand), Vice-Chairman of the Committee, on the basis of informal consultations.

3. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.21 (see para. 11 below, draft resolution I) without a vote.

4. After the adoption of the draft resolution, the representative of Argentina made a statement.

Draft resolutions A/C.2/38/L.17 and L.73

5. At the 30th meeting, on 4 November, the representative of Mexico, on behalf of the States Members which are members of the Group of 77, introduced a draft resolution entitled "Critical situation of food and agriculture in Africa" (A/C.2/38/L.17), which read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

"Recalling the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade, contained in the annex to its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, in which the Assembly emphasized agricultural and rural development and the eradication of hunger and malnutrition as being among the principal objectives of the Decade,

"Recalling also the Programme of Action of the World Food Conference,²⁰ containing the Universal Declaration on the Eradication of Hunger and Malnutrition adopted by the Conference,²¹ and the Declaration of Principles and Programme of Action adopted by the World Conference on Agrarian Reform and Rural Development,²²

"Recalling further General Assembly resolutions 35/69 of 5 December 1980, 36/186 of 17 December 1981 and 37/245 of 21 December 1982 on the situation of food and agriculture in Africa,

"Recognizing the high priority attached to food and agriculture and the commitment and determination of Africa to devoting its limited resources on a priority basis to agricultural development, as reflected in and in accordance with the Lagos Plan of Action for the Implementation of the Monrovia Strategy for the Economic Development of Africa,¹⁶

"Noting with grave concern that, over the past two decades, the situation of food and agriculture in Africa has undergone a drastic deterioration, resulting in a decline in food production per capita with detrimental effects on dietary standards, which are well below the minimum requirements, as well as in an alarming increase in the number of people exposed to malnutrition, hunger and starvation,

"Gravely concerned at the increasing and painful drain of scarce foreign exchange arising from the growing dependence of African countries on food imports as a result of the critical food shortage, which has had a detrimental effect on their overall development,

"Deeply concerned also at the unabated encroachment of the desert and the recurring problem of drought in many countries of Africa, which have continued to accentuate the food problem on that continent,

"Recognizing that the food supply crisis has been further exacerbated by such factors as poor rainfall, brush fires, unusually severe crop infestation, epidemics of animal diseases as well as chronic shortages of production inputs,

"Recalling the increasing effort being made by African countries to accelerate the development of their food and agricultural sectors,

"Convinced that increased international support to combat drought, desertification, epidemics of animal diseases, crop infestation and post-harvest losses, among other problems, is crucial to the attainment of food self-sufficiency in Africa,

"Further convinced that collective action at the global level can reinforce the efforts of the African countries to resolve the technological, managerial and financial resource gaps impeding food and agricultural production in Africa,

"Noting with serious concern that the findings of the Special FAO/WFP Task Force established by the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization and the United Nations have further highlighted the worsening food supply crisis, which has resulted in increased hunger and malnutrition affecting as many as 150 million people in twenty-two African countries,

"Noting with deep concern that the high-level meeting of the African countries concerned and of the potential donor countries convened by the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization in Rome on 19 October 1983 has not so far resulted in the significant additional food aid resources needed, which have been estimated at 3.2 million tons, of which 700,000 tons should be provided on an emergency basis in the next few months in order to maintain supplies to the twenty-two affected countries,

"Noting the present unfavourable world economic situation, reflected in, inter alia, weak foreign export markets, balance-of-payments deficits and high interest rates, which, together with a reduction in real terms of official development assistance to Africa, stagnation in aid and other related factors, have seriously undermined the ability of African countries both to sustain a reasonable level of food and agricultural production and to cover food deficits through commercial imports,

"1. Reaffirms its resolutions 35/69, 36/186 and 37/245, and calls for their full implementation on an urgent basis;

"2. Takes note of the reports of the Secretary-General on the situation of food and agriculture in Africa (A/38/377) and on the state of technology for food and agriculture in Africa (A/38/280-E/1983/93);

"3. Welcomes the conclusions and recommendations of the World Food Council at its ninth ministerial session, held in New York in June 1983 (see A/38/19, part one), in particular those relating to the African region;

²¹ Ibid., chap. I.

²² See Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Report of the World Conference on Agrarian Reform and Rural Development, Rome, 12-20 July 1979 (WCARRD/REP), part one.

"4. Commends the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations for his timely initiative in convening a special meeting on the African food supply situation, and urges the international community to respond favourably and immediately to the appeal made by the Director-General for the alleviation of the present critical food supply situation in Africa;

"5. Supports the urgent appeal launched by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations in favour of the twenty-two African countries threatened by food shortages, and urges the international community to respond generously to that appeal, in particular by providing 700,000 tons in additional food aid in the months ahead and $76 million in agricultural inputs for the rehabilitation of agriculture and animal husbandry;

"6. Requests the Secretary-General and the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, as heads of the sponsoring organizations of the joint World Food Programme, to bring about the release, on an urgent basis, to the African countries affected by the current food crisis, of a special emergency aid allocation drawn from the International Emergency Food Reserve, together with that share of the regular development resources of the World Food Programme set aside for emergency food aid and thus to complement all additional bilateral assistance that can be mobilized;

"7. Recognizes the role of the international community, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the World Food Programme, the World Food Council, the International Fund for Agricultural Development and the World Bank in mobilizing food aid and agricultural assistance for Africa, and requests existing and new donor countries to increase the resources required to meet African needs for food aid and agricultural development;

"8. Urges all the countries of Africa to implement, in accordance with their national development programmes and priorities, measures to increase substantially their food and agricultural production;

"9. Urges the international community to supplement, through increased financial and technological assistance, on a priority and long-term basis, the national efforts of African countries to achieve the goals and objectives set forth in the Lagos Plan of Action relevant to food and agriculture,²³ taking into account the conclusions and recommendations of the African Ministers for Food and Agriculture at the Twelfth FAO Regional Conference for Africa,²⁴ in particular the following objectives:

"(a) A significant improvement in their food situation and the laying of the foundations for the attainment of self-sufficiency in cereals, livestock and fish;

"(b) Significant progress towards attaining a 50 per cent reduction in post-harvest losses, through, inter alia, the construction of storage facilities;

"(c) Improved transport infrastructure to facilitate food distribution at the national, subregional and regional levels; and

"(d) Support of indigenous research efforts through expanded and more effective agricultural research, with special emphasis on animal husbandry, improved seeds and an adequate supply of fertilizers, pesticides and other chemicals suitable to African conditions;

"10. Further urges all relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to expand their training programmes for the building up of national capabilities for the preparation, execution, monitoring and evaluation of agricultural sector projects;

"11. Calls upon all the relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to support efforts undertaken by African countries at the national, subregional and regional levels to increase food production; this support should include the provision, on a priority and long-term basis, of additional financial and technical assistance to Africa by organizations of the United Nations system such as the International Fund for Agriculture Development, the United Nations Development Programme, and others involved in the financing of agricultural development, and an increase in lending by the World Bank to the agricultural sector in Africa;

"12. Recognizes that an international year for the mobilization of financial and technological resources for food and agriculture in Africa would be a useful mechanism for focusing international attention on the problem and could accelerate the process that would lead to a significant improvement of food and agricultural production in Africa;

"13. Notes that the report of the Secretary-General on the state of technology for food and agriculture in Africa was inconclusive and that data are still being gathered, and requests that a comprehensive report should be submitted to the General Assembly at its fortieth session through the Economic and Social Council;

"14. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, through the Economic and Social Council at its second regular session of 1984, a progress report on the implementation of the present resolution."

6. At its 45th meeting, on 21 November, the Committee had before it a draft resolution (A/C.2/38/L.73) submitted by Mr. Phillip Gibson (New Zealand), Vice-Chairman of the Committee, on the basis of informal consultations held on draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.17.

7. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.73 (see para. 11 below, draft resolution II) without a vote.

8. In the light of the adoption of draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.73, draft resolution A/C.2/38/L.17 was withdrawn by its sponsors.

Draft resolution contained in document A/C.2/38/L.4

9. By its decision 37/448 of 21 December 1982, the General Assembly decided to refer to its thirty-eighth session, for consideration, the draft resolution entitled "Food and agriculture", contained in a note by the Secretariat (A/C.2/38/L.4). The draft resolution read as follows:

[For the text, see General Assembly decision 36/444.]

10. At its 39th meeting, on 14 November, the Committee decided to take no action on the draft resolution contained in document A/C.2/38/L.4.

Recommendation of the Second Committee

11. The Second Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the draft resolutions I and II below:

Draft resolution I

FOOD PROBLEMS

The General Assembly,

Recalling the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, contained in its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, contained in its resolution 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, its resolution 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation, and the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade, contained in the annex to its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980,

Recalling the Universal Declaration on the Eradication of Hunger and Malnutrition, as adopted by the World Food Conference,²⁰ and the Programme of Action adopted by the World Conference on Agrarian Reform and Rural Development,²²

Reaffirming its resolutions 37/245 on the situation of food and agriculture in Africa, 37/246 on an international year for the mobilization of financial and technological resources for food and agriculture in Africa and 37/247 on food problems, of 21 December 1982,

Recognizing the need for keeping food and agriculture issues at the centre of the global agenda,

Concerned that the achievement of the food and agriculture objectives of developing countries is being severely constrained by the world-wide economic recession and political environment, and that those countries are faced with depressed prices in commodity markets, sluggish demand, restricted access to markets, declining concessional flows in real terms and protectionist policies, coupled with the obligations of servicing a large international debt and with monetary market instability,

Expressing its deep concern at the fact that a substantial part of world resources, material as well as human, continues to be diverted to armaments, which has a detrimental effect on international security and on efforts to achieve the new international economic order, including the solution of food problems, and calling upon Governments to take effective measures in the field of real disarmament that would increase the possibilities of the allocation of the resources now being used for military purposes to economic and social development, especially development of developing countries, and to improving their food situation,

Emphasizing that food objectives should be pursued within the framework of national food strategies, plans and programmes and that food self-reliance is an essential element of national sovereignty and of political and social policy, that food security should be based, to the maximum extent feasible, on a vigorous domestic food sector and that, consequently, the development of the food sector should be recognized as a dynamic element in the economic development of the developing countries,

Emphasizing the need to adopt, according to priorities identified in the field of food and agriculture, comprehensive national and international measures with a view to realizing the aims and objectives of the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade in the promotion of food and agricultural development in the developing countries,

Recognizing that a substantial increase in the export earnings of developing countries is essential for the adequate financing of their overall economic development, including even their imports of food and agricultural inputs,

Noting the need for all countries, particularly the developed countries, to adopt policies designed to bring about the reduction and elimination of obstacles in order to avoid the disruption of international trade in agricultural products and to facilitate access to international markets for agricultural exports, especially those of developing countries,

Noting with concern the continuing hunger and malnutrition in many developing countries, especially in Africa and in the least developed countries,

Concerned about the anomaly of large crops and stock accumulation in some developed countries while many developing countries are facing problems of growing food deficits and hunger,

Stressing that measures taken by certain developed countries to reduce future food and agricultural production should not adversely affect the food problems faced by developing countries,

Further concerned about the uncertainty in the world food economy and the risks of an unstable supply and price situation in the international grain market,

Calling for progressive increases in grain production in developing countries to achieve a better balance in the production and distribution of global stocks,

1. Welcomes the conclusions and recommendations of the World Food Council at its ninth ministerial session (see A/38/19, part one), in particular those relating to the regions of Africa, Asia and Latin America;

2. Welcomes the eighth annual report of the Committee on Food Aid Policies and Programmes;²⁵

3. Emphasizes the need to consider the food problem in a comprehensive manner, in its technical, economic, commercial, financial and human dimensions;

4. Reaffirms that the right to food is a universal human right and that food should not be used as an instrument of political pressure;

5. Expresses its concern at the application of economic measures against some developing countries and urges that those measures be revoked as soon as possible and not be repeated in the future;

6. Affirms that peace and disarmament are conducive to improved economic conditions and enhanced food security;

7. Notes with satisfaction that integrated national food strategies, plans and programmes and the comprehensive food security concept are largely accepted by countries and development agencies;

8. Endorses the decision of the World Food Council to welcome the adoption by the Committee on World Food Security of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations of the enlarged and integrated concept of world food security, focusing on the adequacy of food supplies and production, stability in food supplies and markets, and security of access to supplies, (ibid., para. 44), and calls for its widest possible implementation by the international community;

²⁵ WFP/CFA: 15/19 (transmitted to the Economic and Social Council as document E/1983/92).

9. Reaffirms that national food strategies, plans and programmes should play a central role in the process of establishing priorities, in co-ordinating national and international funding and the application of technology, promoting food production and increasing the national food self-reliance of the developing countries;

10. Emphasizes the role of farm women as part of the rural family, calls for more policy attention to the role of women in relation to food systems, and stresses the need to involve women in the formulation and implementation of national food strategies, plans and programmes;

11. Underlines the role of developing countries in the formulation and implementation of national food and agricultural policies and programmes and the importance of international support measures, including the mobilization of necessary financial resources;

12. Calls upon the developed countries, international institutions and others able to provide development assistance to provide urgently the necessary technical and financial resources to support the efforts of developing countries to achieve self-defined national food objectives for the eradication of hunger and malnutrition;

13. Reaffirms that increased food production is one of the most important elements in meeting the food needs of the developing countries;

14. Invites Governments concerned to adopt direct hunger-reduction measures integrated with productive development within the framework of national strategies and policies, including, inter alia, more assistance to rural development to reach smallholder producers and co-operatives, special attention to the needs of women farmers, investment in human capacities through programmes for mothers and children, the creation of productive employment for poor landless families and an increase in food aid;

15. Expresses its concern at the expanding food-import requirements of the developing countries, particularly the least developed, which underline the gravity of the problem and the importance of food aid both as a temporary relief measure and as a resource for food and agricultural development;

16. Urges that, in the implementation of food aid policies and programmes, a greater volume of food and agricultural products be acquired from food-exporting developing countries, where appropriate, including through triangular transactions;

17. Calls for adequate and continuous flows of resources for the World Bank, the International Fund for Agricultural Development and the regional development banks, whose work in food and agricultural development is important and effective in providing to the developing countries, in particular the least-developed countries, additional development assistance to implement more effective incentives and programmes directed towards increasing food production and towards raising nutritional standards;

18. Stresses the need for substantial and timely replenishments of the International Development Association to enable it to increase its assistance to all its recipient countries in the development of food and agriculture;

20. Emphasizes the importance of research and the exchange of information on scientific research and technological progress for the purposes of the development of food production, and calls upon the international community to provide to the developing countries increased financial and technical assistance in the area of agricultural research and to take appropriate measures to promote the transfer of technology in regard to the improvement of farming methods, including support to activities in these areas relating to technical co-operation among developing countries;

21. Calls upon the international community to accord continuing and increasing support towards improving global food security and for the elimination of hunger and malnutrition;

22. Recognizes that the expansion of exports, particularly from developing countries, is an important element of food security, and calls for additional measures by developed countries to liberalize agricultural trade;

23. Calls for improved international co-operation by countries exporting and importing cereals, relating to their food trade, production and stocking policies, in order, inter alia, to avoid instability in the international cereals market adversely affecting developing countries;

24. Urges all Governments concerned to consider within the International Wheat Council, at its next session, the early resumption of the United Nations Conference to Negotiate an International Arrangement to Replace the International Wheat Agreement 1971, as extended, in order to conclude as soon as possible a new agreement that will contribute to the efficient operation of the international wheat market, taking into account the interests of developing countries;

25. Calls upon the international community to support, through the mobilization of financial and other resources, the efforts of developing countries to strengthen their stocking programmes in cases where those countries have expressed the need to build food reserves;

26. Expresses the urgent need to find multilateral solutions to the problems of trade, access, competition and supply relating to agricultural products, and calls upon the relevant institutions to find appropriate solutions, taking particularly into account the special needs and circumstances of developing countries;

Draft resolution II

CRITICAL SITUATION OF FOOD AND AGRICULTURE IN AFRICA

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

Recalling the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade, contained in the annex to its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, in which the General Assembly emphasized agricultural and rural development and the eradication of hunger and malnutrition as being among the principal objectives of the Decade,

Recalling also the Programme of Action of the World Food Conference,²⁰ containing the Universal Declaration on the Eradication of Hunger and Malnutrition adopted by the Conference,²¹ and the Declaration of Principles and Programme of Action adopted by the World Conference on Agrarian Reform and Rural Development,²²

Recalling further its resolutions 35/69 of 5 December 1980, 36/186 of 17 December 1981 and 37/245 of 21 December 1982 on the situation of food and agriculture in Africa,

Recognizing the high priority attached to food and agriculture and the commitment and determination of Africa to devote its limited resources on a priority basis to agricultural development, as reflected in and in accordance with the Lagos Plan of Action for the Implementation of the Monrovia Strategy for the Economic Development of Africa,¹⁶

Noting with grave concern that, over the past two decades, the situation of food and agriculture in Africa has undergone a drastic deterioration, resulting in a decline in food production per capita with detrimental effects on dietary standards, which are well below the minimum requirements, as well as in an alarming increase in the number of people exposed to malnutrition, hunger and starvation,

Gravely concerned at the increasing and painful drain of scarce foreign exchange resulting from the growing dependence of African countries on food imports owing to the critical food shortage, which has had a detrimental effect on their overall development,

Deeply concerned also at the unabated encroachment of the desert and the recurring problem of drought in many countries of Africa, which have continued to accentuate the food problem on that continent,

Recognizing that the food supply crisis has been further exacerbated by such factors as poor rainfall, brushfires, unusually severe crop infestation, epidemics of animal diseases and chronic shortages of production inputs,

Recognizing that the responsibility for the development of food and agricultural production lies primarily with the developing countries themselves and that there is an increasing effort and growing commitment by the developing countries to accelerate the development of their food and agricultural sectors,

Recognizing the role of food-sector strategies, which emerged from the World Food Council as a means for interested developing countries to adopt an integrated approach for increasing food production, improving consumption and attracting the necessary additional international resources,

Reaffirming the call in the Lagos Plan of Action regarding the application of policies providing incentives for increasing production, particularly for small farmers, while at the same time safeguarding the interests of the poorer consumers,

Convinced that increased international support to combat drought, desertification, epidemics of animal diseases, crop infestation and post-harvest losses, among other problems, is crucial to the attainment of food self-sufficiency in Africa,

Further convinced that international support measures can reinforce the efforts of the African countries to resolve the technological, managerial and financial resource gaps impeding food and agricultural production in Africa,

Noting with serious concern that the findings of the Special FAO/WFP Task Force established by the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and the Executive Director of the World Food Programme have further highlighted the worsening food supply crisis, which has resulted in increased hunger and malnutrition affecting as many as 150 million people in twenty-two African countries,

Noting with deep concern that the high-level meeting of the African countries concerned and of the potential donor countries convened by the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations in Rome on 19 October 1983 has not so far resulted in the significant additional food aid resources needed, which have been estimated by the Special FAO/WFP Task Force at 3.2 million tons, of which a minimum of 1 million tons should be provided in the months ahead, including 700,000 tons to be provided on an emergency basis in the next few months in order to maintain supplies to the twenty-two affected countries,

Noting the current unfavourable world economic situation, reflected in, inter alia, weak foreign export markets, balance-of-payments deficits and high interest rates, which, together with, in certain cases, a stagnation in aid and other related factors, have seriously undermined the ability of African countries both to sustain a reasonable level of food and agricultural production and to cover food deficits through commercial imports,

1. Reaffirms its resolutions 35/69, 36/186 and 37/245 and calls for their full implementation on an urgent basis;

2. Takes note of the reports of the Secretary-General on the situation of food and agriculture in Africa (A/38/377) and on the state of technology for food and agriculture in Africa (A/38/280-E/1983/93);

3. Welcomes the conclusions and recommendations of the World Food Council at its ninth ministerial session, held in New York in June 1983 (see A/38/19, part one), in particular those relating to the African region;

4. Takes note with appreciation of the timely and important initiative of the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations in convening a special meeting on the African food supply situation and urges the international community to respond favourably and immediately to the appeal made by the Director-General for alleviation of the present critical food supply situation in Africa;

5. Supports the urgent appeal launched by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations in favour of the twenty-two African countries threatened by food shortages, and urges the international community to respond generously to that appeal by providing the additional food aid required, which has been estimated by the Special FAO/WFP Task Force at 3.2 million tons of which a minimum of 1 million tons should be provided in the months ahead, including 700,000 tons to be immediately provided to maintain food supplies in the affected countries as well as $76 million in agricultural inputs for the rehabilitation of agriculture and animal husbandry;

6. Recognizes the role of the international community, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the World Food Programme, the World Food Council, the International Fund for Agricultural Development and the World Bank in mobilizing food aid and agricultural assistance for Africa, and requests existing and new donor countries to increase the resources required to meet African needs for food aid and agricultural development;

7. Urges all the countries of Africa to continue to accord priority to food and agriculture, in accordance with their national development plans and programmes, and to continue to implement measures to raise substantially their food and agricultural production in keeping with the Lagos Plan of Action for the Implementation of the Monrovia Strategy for the Economic Development of Africa, and in this context reaffirms the important role that national food strategies, plans and programmes could play in this process;

8. Urges the international community to supplement, through increased financial and technical assistance, on a priority and long-term basis, the national efforts of African countries to achieve the goals and objectives set forth in the Lagos Plan of Action relevant to food and agriculture,²³ taking into account the recommendations of the African Ministers for Food and Agriculture at the Twelfth FAO Regional Conference for Africa,²⁴ in particular the following objectives:

(a) Significant improvement in their food situation and laying of the foundations for the attainment of self-sufficiency in cereals, livestock and fish;

(b) Significant progress towards attaining a 50 per cent reduction in post-harvest losses, through, inter alia, the construction of storage facilities;

(c) Improved transport infrastructure to facilitate food distribution at the national, subregional and regional levels;

(d) Support of indigenous research efforts through expanded and more effective agricultural research, with special emphasis on animal husbandry, improved seeds and an adequate supply of fertilizers, pesticides and other chemicals suitable to African conditions;

9. Further urges all relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to expand their training programmes for the building up of national capabilities for the preparation, execution, monitoring and evaluation of agricultural sector projects;

10. Calls upon the international community to continue to support efforts undertaken by African countries at the national, subregional and regional levels to increase food production through, inter alia, the provision, on a priority and long-term basis, of additional financial and technical assistance to Africa by organizations of the United Nations system, such as the International Fund for Agricultural Development, the United Nations Development Programme and other organizations involved in the financing of agriculture development, and through an increase in lending by the World Bank to the agricultural sector in Africa;

11. Recognizes that an international year for the mobilization of financial and technological resources for food and agriculture in Africa would be a useful mechanism for focusing international attention on the problem and could accelerate the process that would lead to a significant improvement of food and agricultural production in Africa;

12. Notes that the report of the Secretary-General on the state of technology for food and agriculture in Africa was incomplete in certain respects and that data are still being gathered, and requests that an updated report be submitted to the General Assembly at its fortieth session, through the Economic and Social Council;

13. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, through the Economic and Social Council at its second regular session of 1984, a progress report on the implementation of the present resolution.

Recommendations of the Second Committee

26. The Second Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of draft resolutions I to V below:

Draft resolution I

PROCESS OF PREPARATION OF THE ENVIRONMENTAL PERSPECTIVE TO THE YEAR 2000 AND BEYOND

The General Assembly,

Recalling the importance it has attached at previous sessions to the development of the Environmental Perspective to the Year 2000 and Beyond,

Recalling also its request to the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme at its eleventh session to make concrete recommendations to the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session, through the Economic and Social Council at its second regular session of 1983, on the modalities for preparing the Environmental Perspective,³¹

1. Notes with satisfaction decision 11/3 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme on the process of preparation of the Environmental Perspective to the Year 2000 and Beyond, adopted on 23 May 1983 (see A/38/25, annex);

2. Welcomes the desire of the Governing Council to develop the Environmental Perspective and transmit it to the General Assembly for adoption, benefiting in carrying out that function from its consideration of the relevant proposals made by a special commission;

3. Approves the decision of the Governing Council to establish, in order to assist it in fulfilling its mandate in regard to the Environmental Perspective and to report to it in that respect, an intergovernmental inter-sessional preparatory committee to articulate to the special commission at an early stage in its work the Governing Council's expectations regarding the matters which it hopes will, inter alia, receive consideration by the commission and, in this connection:

(a) Notes that the commission, at a preliminary stage in the formulation of its conclusions on matters within the mandate and purview of the United Nations Environment Programme, should make them known to the committee with a view to giving consideration to any views of the committee thereon;

(b) Notes from paragraph 41 of the report of the Governing Council on its eleventh session (A/38/25) that the cost of the intergovernmental inter-sessional preparatory committee will not result in any net increase in the regular budget of the United Nations;

³⁰ UNEP/GC.10/5/Add.2 and Corr.1 and 2, annex, chap. II.

³¹ General Assembly resolution 37/219.

4. Also welcomes the intention of a number of Governments to support the preparation of the Environmental Perspective by facilitating the establishment of the special commission, through the provision of voluntary contributions for its financing;

5. Requests the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Executive Director of the United Nations Environment Programme and with Governments, and after such other appropriate consultations as they deem necessary, to appoint the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the special commission, who will subsequently select the members of that commission and accordingly establish the special commission, which should co-operate closely with the intergovernmental inter-sessional preparatory committee; the Chairman and Vice-Chairman should have experience of policy-making at the highest level, demonstrated interest in environmental and developmental issues and the capacity to attract attention to the work of the commission, and should represent both developed and developing countries;

6. Expresses its view that the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman, in selecting the members of the special commission, should take fully into account the need for appropriate geographical distribution and regional balance in membership and the importance of ensuring that at least half of the members of the commission are from the developing countries, as well as the need to consult as appropriate with representatives of Governments, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, industry, the scientific community and others concerned with the environment;

7. Requests the Executive Director to establish an interim special account under the financial regulations of the United Nations to which voluntary contributions would be credited and from which disbursements would be made for the purposes of the establishment of the special commission, custody over and responsibility for the account to be transferred to that commission, in accordance with its procedures, upon its establishment;

8. Suggests that the special commission, when established, should focus mainly on the following terms of reference for its work:

(a) To propose long-term environmental strategies for achieving sustainable development to the year 2000 and beyond;

(b) To recommend ways in which concern for the environment may be translated into greater co-operation among developing countries and between countries at different stages of economic and social development and lead to the achievement of common and mutually supportive objectives, which take account of the interrelationships between people, resources, environment and development;

(c) To consider ways and means by which the international community can deal more effectively with environmental concerns, in the light of the other recommendations in its report;

(d) To help to define shared perceptions of long-term environmental issues and of the appropriate efforts needed to deal successfully with the problems of protecting and enhancing the environment, a long-term agenda for action during the coming decades, and aspirational goals for the world community, taking into account the relevant resolutions of the session of a special character of the Governing Council in 1982;³²

³² See Official Records of the General Assembly, Thirty-seventh Session, Supplement No. 25, part one, annex I.

9. Further suggests that, in fulfilling its terms of reference, the special commission should:

(a) Maintain an exchange of views with the scientific community, environmentalists and all other sections of public opinion, particularly youth, concerned with the environment, and those concerned with the relationship between development and environment;

(b) Receive the views of Governments, principally through the Governing Council and its intergovernmental inter-sessional preparatory committee, and through contacts with national leaders, opinion makers and concerned international figures;

(c) Maintain links with other intergovernmental bodies within and outside the United Nations system, while, however, using the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination and the designated officials for environmental matters as the channels of communication with the United Nations system; the willingness of the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination to assist should be communicated to the commission;

(d) Take account of the scope of environmental issues as defined by the United Nations system-wide medium-term environment programme³³ and as reflected in the efforts of the United Nations system, including the United Nations Environment Programme, in the field of the environment;

(e) Make full use of relevant existing reports and material;

10. Considers that the special commission should make available a report on environment and the global problématique to the year 2000 and beyond, including proposed strategies for sustainable development, within a period of two years from its establishment;

11. Decides that, on matters within the mandate and purview of the United Nations Environment Programme, the report of the special commission should in the first instance be considered by the Governing Council of the Programme, for transmission to the General Assembly together with its comments, and for use as basic material in the preparation, for adoption by the Assembly, of the Environmental Perspective;

12. Further decides that, on those matters which are under consideration or review by the General Assembly itself, the Assembly will consider the relevant aspects of the report of the special commission;

13. Recognizes that the special commission may in addition address its report, after consideration by the Governing Council or the intergovernmental inter-sessional preparatory committee, to other forums, intergovernmental and non-governmental, or to Governments, individuals and the general public, as it sees fit, it being understood that the report of the commission will not be binding on Governments.

Convinced that the responsibility for the removal of the remnants of war should be borne by the countries that planted them,

Recognizing that the presence of the material remnants of war, particularly mines, in the territories of developing countries seriously impedes their development efforts and causes loss of life and property,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General and the study annexed thereto concerning the problem of remnants of war (A/38/383);

Noting also the report of the Executive Director of the United Nations Environment Programme on international conventions and protocols in the field of the environment (A/38/305, annex I), together with the sixth supplement to the register of such conventions and protocols (ibid., annex II),

Bearing in mind the involvement of all countries in the protection of the environment with a view to enhancing the quality of life for future generations,

Aware that the continuing increase in the production, stockpiling and risk of use of weapons of mass destruction and the development of new types of weapons not only pose a major threat to the environment and even to life on Earth, but also compete for limited resources that could be better used for constructive purposes, including development,

Reaffirming the need to strengthen international co-operation in the field of the environment, particularly in order to deal with the most serious environmental problems of the developing countries in line with the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,²⁹

Bearing in mind the interrelationships between people, resources, environment and development and convinced of the importance of assessing those interrelationships as they relate to international co-operation for development,

Recalling the catalytic mandate and role of the United Nations Environment Programme with regard to international co-operation in the field of the environment, especially with regard to integrating environmental considerations into the development process,

1. Takes note of the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Environment Programme on the work of its eleventh session and the decisions contained therein (A/38/25, annex);

2. Welcomes section II of Governing Council decision 11/1 of 24 May 1983, by which it decided, inter alia, that the topic to be considered in the 1984 report on the state of the environment would be "The environment in the dialogue between and among developed and developing countries";

3. Takes note of sections V and VI of Governing Council decision 11/1, which relate to the convening of an international conference on world industry and environmental management and a parliamentary conference on the environment;

4. Takes note with appreciation of Governing Council decision 11/2 of 23 May 1983 on the periodicity and duration of Governing Council sessions and endorses the decision that there shall be no session of the Governing Council in 1986, on an experimental basis, and that in 1987 the Governing Council shall decide finally on either of the two options for the periodicity of its sessions in the light of the experience gained in the previous years;

5. Also takes note of Governing Council decision 11/5 of 23 May 1983 on the impacts of apartheid on the environment, directed at promoting public awareness of the plight of the victims of apartheid;

6. Welcomes part one of Governing Council decision 11/7 of 24 May 1983, by which the Council, while setting priorities for its implementation, approved the programme budget for the first biennium of the system-wide medium-term environment programme, 1984-1985, as an overall framework for activities of the United Nations Environment Programme during that period, and invites Governments participating in relevant governing bodies of specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to endeavour to take the provisions of the system-wide medium-term environment programme fully into account in their consideration of related issues so as to achieve the full implementation of the system-wide programme;

7. Welcomes the importance attached by the Governing Council to regional approaches and programmes in the field of international environment co-operation, as reflected in its decisions 11/7, 11/8 and 11/9 of 24 May 1983;

8. Welcomes section VIII of Governing Council decision 11/1, in which the Council decided to devote two days, during its twelfth session, to a detailed assessment of the implementation of the Plan of Action to Combat Desertification,²⁷ which will include a thorough analysis of the state of implementation of the principal components of the Plan, the lessons learned and the priorities for future action;

9. Decides to expand the mandate of the Consultative Group for Desertification Control to include information exchange on anti-desertification policies and programmes of its participants, in addition to its basic mandate as set out in General Assembly resolution 32/172 of 19 December 1977;

10. Welcomes the progress made in the implementation of the Montevideo Programme for the Development and Periodic Review of Environmental Law³⁰ and appeals to Governments to participate actively in the Programme and provide adequate financial resources or facilities in order to achieve its full and timely implementation;

11. Reaffirms the need for strengthening the coordinating role of the United Nations Environment Programme and the need for additional resources to assist developing countries in dealing with serious environmental problems, and urges the Executive Director of the Programme, in consultation with Governments and international organizations concerned, to accelerate and intensify his efforts in this field;

12. Urges the Executive Director of the United Nations Environment Programme to facilitate the provision of expert assistance to and among developing countries, at their request, in the preparation, monitoring and evaluation of priority environmental programmes and projects, including the application of environmental impact assessment, and in promoting and increasing the exchange of information and experience with respect to the integration of environmental considerations into development activities;

13. Expresses its appreciation to Governments that have contributed to the Fund of the United Nations Environment Programme, particularly to those that have done so for the first time in 1982 and 1983 and those that have increased their contributions for those years, and also to those countries which have changed their yearly payment procedures in order to make their contributions available as early as possible;

14. Notes with deep concern, however, the very meagre pledges to the Fund so far received from Governments and strongly appeals to all Governments to pledge their contributions as soon as possible for 1984, and where possible for 1985, preferably before the end of 1983.

11. In its resolution 6/1 of 5 May 1983, the Commission on Human Settlements, inter alia, recommended to the General Assembly, through the Economic and Social Council, the adoption at its thirty-eighth session of a draft resolution entitled “International Year of Shelter for the Homeless” (see A/C.2/38/L.9), which read as follows:

“The General Assembly,

“Recalling its resolution 37/221 of 20 December 1982, in which it proclaimed the year 1987 as International Year of Shelter for the Homeless,

“Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General on measures and activities to be undertaken prior to and during the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless (A/38/233-E/1983/74 and Corr.1), “Convinced that special efforts need to be made by countries and the international community in order to reverse the chronic deterioration in the shelter and living conditions suffered by the majority of the poor in urban and rural settlements, especially in developing countries,

“Convinced also that national programmes and demonstration projects for the Year should be launched as soon as possible, since most of the action and resources for the Year will be required at the national and local levels,

“Noting with appreciation the voluntary contributions and pledges that Governments have so far made for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless,

“1. Welcomes and endorses the overall plans for the activities before, during and after the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless and the priorities for national and international action during 1983-1984 contained in the report of the Executive Director of the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat)⁴⁰ to the Commission on Human Settlements at its sixth session;

“2. Calls upon all Governments, especially those of developing countries, to give renewed political commitment and priority to the improvement of shelter and neighbourhoods of the poor and allocate the resources necessary to meet the objectives of the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless;

“3. Endorses the proposals contained in the annex to the present resolution on national action needed before April 1984 in order to launch the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless quickly and effectively;

“4. Urges all organizations and bodies of the United Nations system and other interested inter-governmental, non-governmental and national institutions to make special efforts through existing and new programmes, including those aimed at involving public-opinion leaders and large groups of the population, to help achieve the objectives of the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless;

“5. Appeals to all Governments, especially those of developed countries and others in a position to do so, and to international financial institutions, inter-governmental and non-governmental organizations, to provide effective financial and other support for the programme for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless.

“ANNEX

“National action needed before April 1984 for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless

“1. Most of the action and resources for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless will be required at the national and local levels. The programme for the Year must be launched quickly and effectively, so that most of the demonstration projects can be completed or be at a stage where results can be evaluated by late 1986.

“2. The following national action should be undertaken by countries before the sixth session of the Commission on Human Settlements, to be held in April 1984:

“(a) Establish national focal points for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless;

“(b) Assess the existing situation and future needs;

“(c) Begin implementation of demonstration projects for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless.

“3. All interested countries should designate, as soon as possible, a national focal point for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless. Although there should be a specific person as a contact point, the national focal point could be an existing agency or a new unit or national committee, including representatives of relevant agencies and non-governmental organizations, specifically established to stimulate and co-ordinate national and local action.

“4. Although the functions of national focal points for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless will vary from country to country, they could include:

“(a) Receiving, producing and exchanging information on the programme and plans for the Year, on relevant activities in other countries and other programme support information;

“(b) Developing a national strategy and programme for the Year, including the identification and selection of appropriate demonstration projects;

“(c) Encouraging close working relationships with and among non-governmental and community organizations on their projects, plans and possibilities relevant to the Year;

“(d) Stimulating and co-ordinating local and national activities and projects for the Year;

“(e) Organizing relevant meetings, seminars and training courses;

“(f) Reporting periodically on the progress and achievements of activities and projects for the Year in the particular country.

“B. Assess the existing situation and future needs

“5. In launching a national programme for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless and before the actual selection of specific demonstration projects, countries should undertake at least a preliminary assessment of the existing situation, taking into account the following questions:

“(a) What are the size, distribution and characteristics of the target group in quantitative (for example, those below the poverty line in urban and rural areas) and qualitative terms (for example, access to drinking water, sanitation services, transportation, food, education, energy)?

“(b) What previous and existing programmes, or parts of programmes, have successfully provided affordable improvements in the shelters and neighbourhoods of the poor, and how can they best be extended? Why have other programmes failed to do so?

“(c) What national and local resources (money, land, labour, materials) are available and needed to improve the shelters and neighbourhoods of the target group? Are there obstacles to the full use of local resources?

“(d) What changes are needed in existing programmes, policies and legal, institutional and financing arrangements in order to accelerate the provision of affordable shelter for the poor?

“6. Demonstration projects for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless should test and demonstrate new approaches to basic problems in urban and rural areas, such as providing or improving shelter; providing improved drinking water supply, sanitation and waste disposal; generating jobs in the formal or informal construction sector; improving environmental and health conditions and services; upgrading infrastructure and services for the poor, including roads, public transportation, energy and medical, social, educational and recreational facilities; and providing low-cost building techniques and materials, especially through more widespread use of indigenous methods, skills and construction materials.

“7. In addition to projects of a physical character, the national programme and project for the Year should include the review and strengthening of policy, legislative, organizational and financial measures to assist the poor in improving their shelter and neighbourhoods. Areas of special concern might be legislation on land and tenure; building codes and regulations; financing, including credit and loans for shelter for the poor; and institutional arrangements within and between national and local authorities.

“8. In order to meet the objectives for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless, countries should take the following guidelines into account in the design, selection, implementation and monitoring of demonstration projects for the Year:

"(a) Projects must explore, test and demonstrate existing or new ways and means of improving the shelter and neighbourhoods of the poor and disadvantaged, particularly those below the poverty line in urban and rural settlements;

"(b) Projects must contribute to or result in a clear and visible improvement in the shelter or neighbourhoods of at least some of the poor and disadvantaged before 1987;

"(c) Projects must be replicable, in order for them to reach many more of the poor and disadvantaged, leading to affordable improvements for many rather than major improvements for a few;

"(d) Projects must seek a practical balance between what is desirable (in terms, for example, of basic health requirements and structural safety), attainable (technically and administratively, and using local skills, methods and materials), and affordable by the poor themselves and the nation as a whole.

"D. Progress report

"9. In order that all countries are informed on the existing situation, priority concerns and activities and plans for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless in other countries, prior to the seventh session of the Commission on Human Settlements, in April 1984, the national focal points for the Year should submit to the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat):

Draft resolution III

INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF SHELTER FOR THE HOMELESS

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/221 of 20 December 1982, in which it proclaimed the year 1987 International Year of Shelter for the Homeless,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/233-E/1983/74 and Corr.1) concerning measures and activities to be undertaken prior to and during the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless,

Taking note also of Economic and Social Council decision 1983/169 of 25 July 1983,

Convinced that special efforts need to be made by States and the international community in order to reverse the chronic deterioration in the shelter and living conditions suffered by the majority of the poor in urban and rural settlements, especially in developing countries,

Convinced also that national programmes and demonstration projects for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless should be launched as soon as possible, since most of the action and resources for the Year will be required at the national and local levels,

Noting with appreciation the voluntary contributions and pledges that Governments have so far made for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless,

1. Welcomes and endorses the overall plans for activities before, during and after the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless and the priorities for national and international action during 1983-1984 contained in the report of the Executive Director of the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat)^o to the Commission on Human Settlements at its sixth session;

3. Endorses the proposals contained in the annex to the present resolution on national action needed before April 1984 in order to launch the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless quickly and effectively;

4. Urges all organizations and bodies of the United Nations system and other interested intergovernmental, non-governmental and national organizations to make special efforts through existing and new programmes, including those aimed at involving public-opinion leaders and large groups of the population, to help achieve the objectives of the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless;

5. Appeals to all Governments, especially those of developed countries and others in a position to do so, and to international financial institutions, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, to provide effective financial and other support for the programme for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless.

ANNEX

National action needed before April 1984 for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless

1. Most of the action and resources for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless will be required at the national and local levels. The programme for the Year must be launched quickly and effectively, so that most of the demonstration projects can be completed or be at a stage where results can be evaluated by late 1986.

2. The following national action should be undertaken by countries before the seventh session of the Commission on Human Settlements, to be held in April 1984:

- (a) Establish national focal points for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless;
- (b) Assess the existing situation and future needs;
- (c) Begin implementation of demonstration projects for the Year.

A. Establishment of national focal points for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless

3. All interested countries should designate, as soon as possible, a national focal point for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless. Although there should be a specific person as a contact point, the national focal point could be an existing agency or a new unit or national committee, including representatives of relevant agencies and non-governmental organizations, specifically established to stimulate and co-ordinate national and local action.

4. Although the functions of national focal points for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless will vary from country to country, they could include:

- (a) Receiving, producing and exchanging information on the programme and plans for the Year, on relevant activities in other countries and other programme support information;
- (b) Developing a national strategy and programme for the Year, including the identification and selection of appropriate demonstration projects;
- (c) Encouraging close working relationships with and among non-governmental and community organizations on their projects, plans and possibilities relevant to the Year;
- (d) Stimulating and co-ordinating local and national activities and projects for the Year;
- (e) Organizing relevant meetings, seminars and training courses;
- (f) Reporting periodically on the progress and achievements of activities and projects for the Year in the particular country.

B. Assessment of the existing situation and future needs

5. In launching a national programme for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless and before the actual selection of specific demonstration projects, countries should undertake at least a preliminary assessment of the existing situation, taking into account the following questions:

- (a) What are the size, distribution and characteristics of the target group in quantitative (for example, those below the poverty line in urban and rural areas) and qualitative terms (for example, access to drinking water, sanitation services, transportation, food, education, energy)?
- (b) What previous and existing programmes, or parts of programmes, have successfully provided affordable improvements in the shelter and neighbourhoods of the poor, and how can they best be extended? Why have other programmes failed to do so?
- (c) What national and local resources (money, land, labour, materials) are available and needed to improve the shelter and neighbourhoods of the target group? Are there obstacles to the full use of local resources?
- (d) What changes are needed in existing programmes, policies and legal, institutional and financing arrangements in order to accelerate the provision of affordable shelter for the poor?
- (e) What, based on the answers to the above questions, are the priorities within the national programme for demonstration projects during the Year?

C. Beginning of the implementation of demonstration projects for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless

6. Demonstration projects for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless should test and demonstrate new approaches to basic problems in urban and rural areas, such as providing or improving shelter; providing an improved drinking water supply, sanitation and waste disposal; generating jobs in the formal or informal construction sector; improving environmental and health conditions and services; upgrading infrastructure and services for the poor, including roads, public transportation, energy, and medical, social, educational and recreational facilities; and providing low-cost building techniques and materials, especially through more widespread use of indigenous methods, skills and construction materials.

7. In addition to projects of a physical character, the national programme and project for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless should include the review and strengthening of policy, legislative, organizational and financial measures to assist the poor in improving their shelter and neighbourhoods. Areas of special concern might be legislation on land and tenure; building codes and regulations; financing, including credit and loans for shelter for the poor; and institutional arrangements within and between national and local authorities.

8. In order to meet the objectives for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless, countries should take the following guidelines into account in the design, selection, implementation and monitoring of demonstration projects for the Year:

- (a) Projects must explore, test and demonstrate existing or new ways and means of improving the shelter and neighbourhoods of the poor and disadvantaged, particularly those below the poverty line in urban and rural settlements;
- (b) Projects must contribute to or result in a clear and visible improvement in the shelter or neighbourhoods of at least some of the poor and disadvantaged before 1987;
- (c) Projects must be replicable, in order for them to reach many more of the poor and disadvantaged, leading to affordable improvements for many rather than major improvements for a few;
- (d) Projects must seek a practical balance between what is desirable (in terms, for example, of basic health requirements and structural safety), attainable (technically and administratively, and using local skills, methods and materials), and affordable by the poor themselves and the nation as a whole.

D. Progress report

9. In order that all countries may be informed on the existing situation, priority concerns and activities and plans for the International Year of Shelter for the Homeless in other countries, prior to the seventh session of the Commission on Human Settlements, in April 1984, the national focal points for the Year should submit to the United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat):

- (a) A brief overview (maximum two pages in length) of their national plans, priorities and activities for the Year, including information responding to the questions in paragraph 5 above;
- (b) A one-page summary for each of the national demonstration projects for the Year launched to date, in a common format to be prepared by the United Nations Centre.

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December

Reaffirming that, while the primary responsibility for promoting the development and utilization of new and renewable sources of energy rests with individual countries, international co-operation is indispensable and should be directed to assisting and supporting the national efforts of developing countries, that developed countries should play a special role in contributing actively to this end and that other countries in a position to do so should also continue to promote efforts in this regard,

Aware that the present world energy situation should not reverse or halt the efforts of the international community to implement the Nairobi Programme of Action,

Recognizing the need to take urgent and concerted measures for the mobilization of additional and adequate resources necessary for the implementation of the Nairobi Programme of Action,

Having considered the report of the Committee on the Development and Utilization of New and Renewable Sources of Energy on its first session (A/38/44), held at United Nations Headquarters from 18 to 29 April 1983,

I

Nairobi Programme of Action for the Development and Utilization of New and Renewable Sources of Energy

1. Reaffirms the significance and importance of the Nairobi Programme of Action for the Development and Utilization of New and Renewable Sources of Energy as the basic framework of reference for action by the international community and renews its call for the early and effective implementation of the Programme;

2. Emphasizes the importance of the areas for priority action designated in section III.A of the Nairobi Programme of Action⁴⁴ and in section V.B of the report of the Committee on the Development and Utilization of New and Renewable Sources of Energy (ibid., paras. 67-74) and calls upon the Committee, at its second session, to make recommendations wherever urgent initiatives are required;

3. Endorses the recommendations contained in the report of the Committee on the Development and Utilization of New and Renewable Sources of Energy on its first session (ibid., sect. V);

II

“(d) The obligations of States under the Charter of the United Nations include the promotion of universal respect for, and observance of, human rights and fundamental freedoms,

“(e) The individual, having duties to other individuals and to the community to which he belongs, has a responsibility to promote and respect the rights of his fellow human beings,

“Stressing that the primary responsibility for the development of developing countries rests with them and that it will greatly facilitate their efforts to meet desired development goals under a just and equitable international economic order if economic and social disparities are reduced among peoples and nations,

“Recognizing that a contributing factor to the failure of development has been the lack of political will, co-operation and understanding and of a full appreciation of the reality of interdependence and common interest among peoples and States,

“Believing that all countries and peoples have to draw from the moral well-springs of equity, justice, mutual understanding and co-operation in the resolution of the economic and social ills that afflict mankind today,

“Recognizing that it is in the interest of all States members of the international community that the developing countries should be able to achieve their development goals, and that the developed countries have a moral responsibility to assist in facilitating that process,

“Realizing the need to promote the simultaneous attainment of economic and social goals and to create a condition of global growth and prosperity based on a new international human order which emphasizes the moral and humanistic approach to development,

“Reaffirming that human beings, as well as States, constitute the membership of the international community,

“Solemnly proclaim our common determination to establish and enhance the development and evolution of a new international human order, with emphasis on the moral aspects of development, based on the principles of equity, sovereign equality, common interest and co-operation among all States, regardless of their political and economic systems, and on the principles of equality, mutual respect and co-operation among all peoples;

“And to that end

“Declare that:

“I

“1. The growth and progress of societies, and the stability of Governments and States, are inextricably and inseparably linked to the growth, progress and stability of the human being;

“2. The growth and development of the human being is the fundamental goal of any society, Government or State;

“3. The development of a human being must consist in a balanced development of body and mind and of spiritual faculties;

“4. The human being—man, woman or child—is simultaneously the subject and the object of development;

“5. As the subject of development, the human being should be the ultimate beneficiary of the development process;

“6. The development process must aim at furthering the collective well-being and happiness of all humankind;

“7. Governments and States are in the best position to provide the environment that would ensure the balanced development of the human being and his self-realization;

“8. In order to provide for such an environment, development must, inter alia, aim towards the following goals:

“(a) Meeting the basic needs and wants of human beings, which are essential for the sustenance of life under acceptable standards of living;

“(b) Furthering the economic betterment of all peoples;

“(c) Improving their quality of life by providing the minimum elements in their pursuit of happiness and meaning beyond mere existence and subsistence;

“(d) Helping in the fulfilment of the human being in his wholeness and in the total realization of his economic, social and spiritual needs and aspirations;

“II

“1. In order to achieve a new international human order, development programmes should be designed and carried out at the level of the people, who are the principal instruments and beneficiaries of the development process; development should be carried out to the full extent of popular participation, the people who are the beneficiaries of development being fully involved so as to ensure that their interests are respected, and bearing in mind that popular participation is necessary for the success of development programmes;

“2. A new international human order also requires the strengthening and expansion of programmes of assistance to refugees, the disabled, the physically handicapped and the aged; the United Nations should similarly sustain and expand assistance to children; it should extend assistance programmes to human beings in the greatest need, regardless of sex, race or religion, bearing in mind that all humankind is the concern of the United Nations;

“3. States, in pursuit of the new international human order, should furthermore work towards the implementation of United Nations declarations on, inter alia, the peaceful settlement of international disputes, the granting of independence to colonial countries and peoples, the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons and the prohibition of the use of nuclear and thermonuclear weapons, international co-operation for disarmament, the suppression and punishment of the crime of apartheid and the elimination of all forms of racial discrimination, the protection of the human environment and the establishment of a new international economic order;

“4. It is in the interest of the international community if nations and peoples in a position to do so assist the less well-endowed among them, and that the former have a moral responsibility to facilitate the process of economic and social development of the latter;

"5. In order to achieve a new international human order, all States, Governments, governmental and non-governmental organizations and entities, as well as individuals, are called upon to use all efforts to apply the principles and to attain the goals set forth in the present Declaration."

"Recalling its resolution 37/246 of 21 December 1982 on an international year for the mobilization of financial and technological resources for food and agriculture in Africa,

"Noting with great alarm that, since the adoption of its resolutions 35/69 of 5 December 1980, 36/186 of 17 December 1981 and 37/246 of 21 December 1982, the situation of food and agriculture in Africa has worsened, as evidenced by a drastic decline in self-sufficiency in food,

"Recognizing the critical financial gap which seriously hinders the growth of the agricultural sector in African countries,

"Recognizing also that the technological gap in Africa has a direct relationship with declining agricultural productivity, which is aggravated by natural factors such as drought and desertification,

"Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the implications of declaring an international year for the mobilization of financial and technological resources for food and agriculture in Africa (A/38/277-E/1983/96),

"Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

"Recalling its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,

"Recalling also its resolutions 35/64 of 5 December 1980 and 36/180 of 17 December 1981, concerning the adoption of a wide range of special measures for the social and economic development of Africa in the 1980s,

"Recalling further section II of its resolution 36/182 of 17 December 1981, section II of its resolution 37/212 of 20 December 1982, on the Industrial Development Decade for Africa, and its resolutions 37/140 of 17 December 1982 on the Transport and Communications Decade in Africa and 37/245 of 21 December 1982 on the situation of food and agriculture in Africa,

*"Recalling its resolution 37/139 of 17 December 1982, in which it, inter alia, urged donor countries to provide substantial and sustained levels of resources for promoting the accelerated development of African countries and the effective implementation of the Lagos Plan of Action for the Implementation of the Monrovia Strategy for the Economic Development of Africa,"⁶⁴ and to contribute generously to the United Nations Trust Fund for African Development,*

"Deeply concerned at the devastating effects of the current world economic crisis on the economies of African countries, and by the scourges that ravage the African continent, which suffers mainly from inherent structural problems, including food deficiencies aggravated by chronic droughts, the lowest level of literacy and training, and rudimentary structures in the field of health and housing, as well as the extremely precarious living conditions of the largest number of refugees in the world, ⁶⁴ A/S-11/14, annex I.

"Expressing its deep concern at the extreme gravity of the food situation in Africa, the continued decrease in food self-reliance, and the continued increase in volume of the importations of food products in Africa, particularly in the Sahelian and southern regions,

"Recognizing that Africa is the least industrialized region in the world, and that this specific situation necessitates the full implementation of the objectives set out in the programme for the Industrial Development Decade for Africa, in order to reverse the deteriorating situation in this field,

"Recognizing equally that Africa is confronted with exceptionally serious economic and social problems, highlighted by the fact that it contains three quarters of the least developed countries and half of the landlocked countries in the world,

"Convinced of the need for a substantial increase of external resources to Africa on a predictable and continuous basis to support, in a co-ordinated manner, its economic and social development,

"Recalling that there is a need for a thorough evaluation of the application of special measures for the social and economic development of Africa during the mid-term review and appraisal of the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,

"Having considered the third report of the Secretary-General on special measures for the social and economic development of Africa in the 1980s (A/38/275-E/1983/88), which reviews special measures taken by the international community for the social and economic development of Africa in the 1980s,

"1. Takes note of the third report of the Secretary-General on special measures for the social and economic development of Africa in the 1980s;

"2. Expresses its regret that, despite efforts undertaken by the international community over the last three years, the resources thus far provided are not commensurate with African development requirements;

"3. Notes with regret the disappointing results of the Fourth Biennial Pledging Conference for the United Nations Trust Fund for African Development, held at Addis Ababa on 2 May 1983;

"4. Deeply regrets that, during that Conference, even projects aimed at assisting the least developed countries of Africa did not receive any support from donor countries and invited organizations;

"5. Expresses its gratitude to all countries which participated and made pledges during that Conference;

"6. Urges all donor countries to fulfil their commitments under the Substantial New Programme of Action for the 1980s for the Least Developed Countries,⁶⁵ in particular with respect to the doubling of the target of 0.15 per cent of their gross national product by 1985, so as to achieve the desired increase in resources for the development of the least developed countries, particularly in Africa;

"7. Expresses its concern at the decrease in real terms in the assistance given to the developing countries by United Nations organs, caused by the contraction of multilateral assistance which adversely affects the national and regional programmes of the United Nations Development Programme for Africa during the programme cycle 1982-1986;

"8. Further urges donor countries to provide substantial and sustained levels of resources for promoting the accelerated development of African countries and the effective implementation of the Lagos Plan of Action⁶⁴ and the Final Act of Lagos,⁶⁵ and to contribute generously to the United Nations Trust Fund for African Development;

"9. Calls once again upon donor countries and all international financial institutions, particularly the World Bank, the International Development Association and the International Fund for Agricultural Development, to continue actively to consider increasing substantially their development assistance to Africa and to make a special effort in support of Africa's social and economic development with the urgency it requires;

"10. Renews its call to the organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to examine measures to increase the resources for the execution of the programmes for the Industrial Development Decade for Africa and the Transport and Communications Decade in Africa and to apply the special measures in a comprehensive and co-ordinated manner;

"11. Stresses its deep concern at the gravity of the food situation in Africa and the continuing decline in the food self-reliance ratio, urgently calls upon the African countries to accord due priority to food and agricultural production in their national and sub-regional plans, and also urges donor countries and international agencies to increase their support for the implementation of the measures contained in the Lagos Plan of Action in the area of food and agriculture;

"12. Supports the urgent appeal launched by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations in favour of the twenty-two African countries threatened by food shortages, and urges the international community to respond generously to that appeal by providing the additional food aid required;

"13. Requests the Secretary-General to convene, in co-operation with the Executive Director of the Economic Commission for Africa, the Fifth Biennial Pledging Conference for the United Nations Trust Fund for African Development and to take the necessary measures to ensure its success and, in this regard, appeals to donor countries, relevant United Nations organs, international and regional financial institutions, and other interested public and private bodies to participate fully and contribute generously to the Fund;

"14. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to allocate the necessary resources to the Economic Commission for Africa, taking into account its role as the main economic and social development centre within the United Nations system for the African region, in accordance with General Assembly resolutions 32/197 of 20 December 1977 and 33/202 of 29 January 1979;

"15. Further requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, through the Economic and Social Council at its second regular session of 1984, a comprehensive report, prepared on a uniform basis and including figures, on the activities throughout the United Nations system in relation to Africa, and on the progress made in the implementation of the present resolution".

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

"Recalling also its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade, and in particular the policy measures envisaged in the Strategy,

"Recalling further its resolution 37/252 of 21 December 1982 on immediate measures in favour of the developing countries,

"Recalling the Programme of Immediate Measures in Areas of Critical Importance to Developing Countries, contained in the Economic Declaration of the Seventh Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries, held at New Delhi from 7 to 12 March 1983 (A/38/132-S/15675 and Corr.1 and 2, annex, sect. "Taking note of the Declaration of the Ministers for Foreign Affairs of the Group of 77 (see A/38/494 and Corr.1, annex), adopted in New York on 10 October 1983,

"Gravely concerned that the world economy continues to be engulfed in a serious economic crisis, with devastating effect on the developing countries and their development prospects,

"Reiterating that the present world economic crisis, which affects in particular the developing countries, makes it necessary for the international community to adopt and implement concrete immediate measures in areas of critical importance to developing countries,

"Aware that to surmount the crisis both the immediate and structural problems of the world economy and of the existing international economic order must be addressed fully and in an integrated manner,

"1. Decides that concrete immediate measures in favour of all developing countries should be taken to contribute to the easing of current economic problems, to promote the accelerated growth and development of the developing countries on a sustained basis and to promote the reactivation of the world economy; those measures would be continued within the framework of the global negotiations when launched;

Recommendation of the Second Committee

33. The Second Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of draft resolutions I to VI below:

Draft resolution I

CONFIDENCE-BUILDING IN INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC RELATIONS

The General Assembly,

Taking into account the Charter of the United Nations, article 32 of the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States⁹⁹ and General Assembly resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974 and 2625 (XXV) of 24 October 1970,

Concerned about the present deterioration in the conditions for the conduct and expansion of international economic relations, and about the increasing departure from the multilateral platform of economic exchanges and negotiations,

Convinced that international economic co-operation should be placed on a long-term stable basis, a basis of broad exchange of relevant information through the United Nations system, and that it should take due account of the principles of equal rights and sovereignty of States,

Conscious that confidence-building in international economic relations can be achieved only through the sustained development of the developing countries,

Convinced also that the protection of economic co-operation among States against the adverse impact of international political tensions, and the reinforcement of confidence among all States in their economic relations, would introduce into those relations desirable elements of stability and reliability, as a valuable contribution to efforts aimed at reviving world trade and consolidating economic recovery, developing peaceful international economic co-operation and establishing a new international economic order,

Requests the Secretary-General to consult all States, as well as the United Nations organizations and bodies concerned, especially the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development and the regional commissions, about the scope of possible confidence-building measures which would lead to the promotion and acceleration of international economic co-operation and to report on his findings to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session through the Economic and Social Council.

Draft resolution II

ECONOMIC MEASURES AS A MEANS OF POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC COERCION AGAINST DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

The General Assembly,

Recalling the relevant principles set forth in the Charter of the United Nations,

Recalling also its resolutions 2625 (XXV) of 24 October 1970, containing the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a

New International Economic Order, and 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States,

Recalling further article 32 of the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, which states that no State may use or encourage the use of economic, political or any other type of measures to coerce another State in order to obtain from it the subordination of the exercise of its sovereign rights,

Bearing in mind the general principles governing international trade relations and trade policies for development contained in its resolution 1995 (XIX) of 30 December 1964,

Recalling resolution 152 (VI) of 2 July 1983 of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, entitled "Rejection of coercive economic measures",⁶⁷

Bearing in mind the principles and rules of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade and paragraph 7 (iii) of the Ministerial Declaration adopted on 29 November 1982 by the Contracting Parties of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade at their thirty-eighth session,⁶⁷

Recognizing that some developed countries are resorting more and more frequently to threats or the application of coercive and restrictive measures of increasing scope as an instrument for exerting political pressure on some developing countries,

Recognizing also that these measures are at variance with the Charter of the United Nations, the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States and the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade,

Considering that coercive measures have a negative effect on the economies of the developing countries and their development efforts and do not help to create a climate of peace and friendly relations among States,

1. Deplores the adoption by certain developed countries, taking advantage of their predominant position in the international economy, of economic measures to exert coercion on the sovereign decisions of developing countries;

2. Urges those developed countries, therefore, to refrain from adopting measures aimed at exerting coercion or pressure in order to interfere in the exercise of the sovereign rights of the developing countries;

3. Reaffirms that developed countries should refrain from threatening or applying trade restrictions, blockades, embargoes and other economic sanctions, incompatible with the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations and in violation of undertakings contracted multilaterally or bilaterally, against developing countries as a form of political and economic coercion which affects their economic, political and social development;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to compile information provided by Governments on the adoption and effects of the economic measures mentioned in paragraph 3 above, taken by developed countries as a means of political and economic coercion against developing countries, and to submit that information to the General Assembly for consideration at its thirty-ninth session;

5. Appeals to Governments to provide the necessary information to the Secretary-General, as requested in paragraph 4 above.

⁶⁷ See General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, Basic instruments and Selected Documents, Supplement No. 29 (Sales No. GATT/1983-1), document L/5424.

Draft resolution III

INTERNATIONAL YEAR FOR THE MOBILIZATION OF FINANCIAL AND TECHNOLOGICAL RESOURCES TO INCREASE FOOD AND AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION IN AFRICA

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/246 of 21 December 1982 on an international year for the mobilization of financial and technological resources for food and agriculture in Africa,

Noting with great alarm that, since the adoption of its resolutions 35/69 of 5 December 1980, 36/186 of 17 December 1981 and 37/246 of 21 December 1982, the situation of food and agriculture in Africa has worsened, as evidenced by a drastic decline in self-reliance in food,

Recognizing the critical financial gap which seriously hinders the growth of the agricultural sector in African countries,

Recognizing also that the technological gap in Africa has a direct relationship with declining agricultural productivity, which is aggravated by natural factors such as drought and desertification,

Recognizing further that all countries of Africa should implement, in accordance with their national development programmes and priorities, measures to increase substantially their national food and agriculture programmes through, inter alia, national, subregional and regional measures, including economic and technical co-operation among developing countries,

Recognizing the role of food-sector strategies, which emerged from the World Food Council as a means for interested developing countries to adopt an integrated approach for increasing food production, improving consumption and attracting the necessary additional international resources,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the implications of declaring an international year for the mobilization of financial and technological resources for food and agriculture in Africa (A/38/277-E/1983/96),

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;

2. Notes that the year 1991 might be designated international year for the mobilization of financial and technological resources to increase food and agricultural production in Africa, bearing in mind the relevant criteria set forth in the annex to Economic and Social Council resolution 1980/67 of 25 July 1980;

3. Requests the Secretary-General, in consultation with the relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system, to elaborate action-oriented proposals in respect of the international year for the mobilization of financial and technological resources to increase food and agricultural production in Africa and to report on the implementation of the present resolution to the General Assembly at its fortieth session, through the Economic and Social Council.

Draft resolution IV

SPECIAL MEASURES FOR THE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF AFRICA IN THE 1980s

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September

1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

Recalling its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,

Recalling also its resolutions 35/64 of 5 December 1980 and 36/180 of 17 December 1981, concerning the adoption of a wide range of special measures for the social and economic development of Africa in the 1980s,

Recalling further section II of its resolution 36/182 of 17 December 1981 and section II of its resolution 37/212 of 20 December 1982, on the Industrial Development Decade for Africa, and its resolutions 37/140 of 17 December 1982 on the Transport and Communications Decade in Africa and 37/245 of 21 December 1982 on the situation of food and agriculture in Africa,

Recalling its resolution 37/139 of 17 December 1982, in which it, inter alia, urged donor countries to provide substantial and sustained levels of resources for promoting the accelerated development of African countries and the effective implementation of the Lagos Plan of Action for the Implementation of the Monrovia Strategy for the Economic Development of Africa,⁶⁴ and to contribute generously to the United Nations Trust Fund for African Development,

Deeply concerned at the negative effects of the current world economic crisis on the economies of African countries and at the scourges that ravage the African continent, which suffers mainly from structural problems, inter alia the lowest level of literacy and training and rudimentary structures in the field of health and housing, as well as the extremely precarious living conditions of the largest number of refugees in the world,

Expressing its deep concern at the extreme gravity of the food situation in Africa, which is aggravated by chronic droughts, the continued decrease in food self-reliance and the continued increase in volume of the imports of food products in Africa, particularly in the Sudano-Sahelian and southern regions, and noting that, among other factors, the rate of increase of food production in Africa continues to lag behind population growth,

Recognizing that Africa is the least industrialized region in the world, that this specific situation necessitates the full implementation of the objectives set out in the programme for the Industrial Development Decade for Africa and that, in order to reverse the existing situation, sustained efforts by the international community are required to achieve the effective implementation of the objectives of the Decade,

Recognizing also that Africa is confronted with exceptionally serious economic and social problems, highlighted, inter alia, by the fact that it contains three quarters of the least developed countries and half of the land-locked countries in the world,

Convinced of the need for increased and sustained external resources on a predictable and continuous basis in order to achieve in a co-ordinated manner the aims and objectives of the Lagos Plan of Action and the Final Act of Lagos,⁶⁵

Recalling that there is a need for a thorough evaluation of the implementation of special measures for the social and economic development of Africa during the mid-term review and appraisal of the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,

Having considered the third report of the Secretary-General on special measures for the social and economic development of Africa in the 1980s (A/38/275-E/1983/88), which reviews special measures taken by the international community to that end,

1. Takes note of the third report of the Secretary-General on special measures for the social and economic development of Africa in the 1980s;

2. Expresses its regret that, despite efforts undertaken by the international community over the last three years, the resources thus far provided are not commensurate with African development requirements;

3. Notes the disappointing results of the Fourth Biennial Pledging Conference for the United Nations Trust Fund for African Development, held at Addis Ababa on 2 May 1983, particularly for projects aimed at assisting the least developed countries of Africa (ibid., para. 7);

4. Expresses its gratitude to all countries which participated and made pledges during that conference;

5. Strongly urges all donor countries to implement their commitments, as contained in paragraphs 61 to 69 of the Substantial New Programme of Action for the 1980s for the Least Developed Countries, as adopted,⁵⁰ so as to achieve, in that regard, a substantial increase in resources for the development of the least developed countries, twenty-six of which are in Africa;

6. Welcomes the steps taken by a number of donor countries to increase their contributions to the United Nations Development Programme, expresses its concern at the decline in real terms in the United Nations Development Programme assistance given to the developing countries through the United Nations system, reflecting a general decrease in multilateral concessional assistance in real terms, which adversely affects the country and regional programmes for Africa of the Programme during the third programming cycle, 1982-1986, and urges all countries, particularly those that have not done so, to increase their annual contributions to the Programme;

7. Also urges donor countries to provide substantial and sustained levels of resources for promoting the accelerated development of African countries and the effective implementation of the Lagos Plan of Action for the Implementation of the Monrovia Strategy for the Economic Development of Africa and the Final Act of Lagos, and to contribute generously to the United Nations Trust Fund for African Development;

8. Recognizes the important contribution consultative groups and round-table meetings can make to African development by enhancing aid co-ordination and mobilizing additional resources and urges African and donor countries to continue to co-operate to that end;

9. Invites all international financial institutions, particularly the World Bank, the International Development Association and the International Fund for Agricultural Development, to continue actively to consider increasing substantially their development assistance to Africa and to treat the matter of making a special effort in support of African economic and social development with the urgency it requires;

10. Renews its call to the organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to examine measures to increase the resources for the execution of the programmes for the Industrial Development Decade for Africa and the Transport and Communications Decade in Africa and to apply the special measures in a comprehensive and co-ordinated manner;

11. Stresses its deep concern at the gravity of the food situation in Africa and the continuing decline in the food self-reliance ratio, urgently calls upon the African countries to accord due priority to food and agricultural production in their national and subregional plans and also urges donor countries and international agencies to increase their support for the implementation of the measures contained in the Lagos Plan of Action in the area of food and agriculture;

12. Supports the urgent appeal launched by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations in favour of the twenty-two African countries threatened by food shortages and urges the international community to respond generously to that appeal by providing the additional food aid and rehabilitation inputs required;

13. Requests the Secretary-General to convene, in co-operation with the Executive Secretary of the Economic Commission for Africa, the Fifth Biennial Pledging Conference for the United Nations Trust Fund for African Development and to take the necessary measures to ensure its success and, in this regard, appeals to donor countries, relevant United Nations organs, international and regional financial institutions and other interested public and private bodies to participate fully and contribute generously to the Fund;

14. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to allocate the necessary resources to the Economic Commission for Africa, taking into account its role as the main economic and social development centre within the United Nations system for the African region, in accordance with General Assembly resolutions 32/197 of 20 December 1977 and 33/202 of 29 January 1979;

15. Further requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, through the Economic and Social Council at its second regular session of 1984, a comprehensive report, prepared on a uniform basis and including figures, on the activities throughout the United Nations system in relation to Africa and on the progress made in the implementation of the present resolution.

Draft resolution V

IMMEDIATE MEASURES IN FAVOUR OF THE DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

Recalling also its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade, and in particular the policy measures envisaged in the Strategy,

Recalling further its resolution 37/252 of 21 December 1982 on immediate measures in favour of the developing countries,

Taking into account, inter alia, the immediate measures adopted by the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development at its sixth session⁶⁸ and noting related efforts in favour of developing countries by the relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system,

Taking note of the Programme of Immediate Measures in Areas of Critical Importance to Developing Countries, contained in section V of the Economic Declaration adopted by the Seventh Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries, held at New Delhi from 7 to 12 March 1983 (A/38/132-S/15675 and Corr.1 and 2, annex, sect. III), and the proposals contained in the Buenos Aires Platform, adopted at the Fifth Ministerial Meeting of the Group of 77, held from 28 March to 9 April 1983,⁶⁹

Taking note of the proposals on the immediate measures contained in the Declaration of the Ministers for Foreign Affairs of the Group of 77, adopted in New York on 10 October 1983 (see A/38/494 and Corr.1, annex),

Noting that while effective action by the international community is indispensable for the creation of an environment that is fully supportive of the national and collective efforts of the developing countries for the realization of their development goals, the primary responsibility for the development of developing countries rests with those countries themselves,

Aware that certain economic indicators point to the recovery of some major developed market-economy countries, but that, while the recovery of the developed market-economy countries could be potentially beneficial to the developing countries, by itself it would not be sufficient and could be aborted unless policy measures address both the revitalization of the world economy and the reactivation of the development process in the developing world,

Gravely concerned about the present world economic climate of crisis and its negative impact on the developing countries and their development prospects,

Reiterating, in that context, the need for the immediate adoption of concrete measures in areas of critical importance to the developing countries,

Also aware, in that context, that both immediate and structural problems must be addressed fully and in a coherent manner,

1. Agrees that concrete immediate measures in favour of the developing countries should be taken in order to contribute to the easing of current economic problems, to promote the accelerated growth and development of the developing countries on a sustained basis and to promote the reactivation of the world economy;

2. Agrees that immediate measures within the organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system should include measures directed, inter alia, at progress in the following areas:

(a) Food and agriculture, including special food aid measures as required for seriously affected food-deficit countries in Africa;

(b) Money and finance, transfer of resources, including official development assistance, indebtedness and multilateral development activities;

(c) Trade and raw materials, including access to markets for the exports of developing countries, and urgent appropriate action in the area of commodities;

(d) Development of the energy resources of the developing countries;

(e) Implementation of the Substantial New Programme of Action for the 1980s for the Least Developed Countries;⁷⁰

⁶⁸ Proceedings of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, Sixth Session, vol. I, Report and Annexes (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.93.II.D.6).

3. Urges all Governments, bearing in mind the particular contribution developed countries can make, to pursue effective negotiating efforts, within the organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system, with a view to the adoption of concrete measures in the areas described in paragraph 2 above;

4. Agrees that policy measures of an immediate nature should be taken into account in the review and appraisal of the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade;

5. Requests the relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system, in their areas of competence and in accordance with their decisions, to take the appropriate action necessary for the implementation of immediate measures in the areas referred to in paragraph 2 above;

6. Requests the Secretary-General, in co-operation with the executive heads of the organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system, to submit a report on the implementation of the present resolution to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

Draft resolution VI

LIQUIDATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS EMERGENCY OPERATION TRUST FUND AND ALLOCATION OF THE REMAINING BALANCE

The General Assembly,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General concerning the need for liquidation of the United Nations Emergency Operation Trust Fund (A/38/566),

Fully aware of the original objectives for which the Fund was created,

Deeply concerned about the exceptional situation faced by many developing countries, in particular African countries, which are afflicted by drought, famine and malnutrition,

Concerned also about the special plight of the Palestine refugees and the financial situation of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East,

Taking into account that developing countries, through the Caracas Programme of Action,⁶⁹ have taken it upon themselves to implement a series of actions in the field of economic and technical co-operation among developing countries, designed, inter alia, to help them face their critical development problems and attain their objectives, giving due regard to the special needs of the least developed among them,

1. Decides to liquidate the United Nations Emergency Operation Trust Fund and to allocate the remaining balance to existing funds and programmes of the United Nations as follows:

(a) Seventy per cent shall be channelled through United Nations Development Programme-administered funds to finance urgently needed projects, primarily in the food and agricultural sectors in countries afflicted by famine and malnutrition as a result, particularly, of severe or prolonged drought, with special emphasis on African countries;

(b) Eighteen per cent shall be channelled through the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East, especially to its educational programme;

(c) Twelve per cent shall be channelled through the United Nations Development Programme for the purpose of economic and technical co-operation among developing countries; these funds shall be allocated to activities in economic and technical co-operation among developing countries of critical importance to developing countries, according to the priorities set by them;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to take the necessary action to ensure that the funds are allocated in accordance with the present resolution as soon as possible;

3. Also requests the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme to report to the Governing Council at its thirty-first session on action taken to implement the present resolution;

4. Further requests the Secretary-General to monitor closely the implementation of the present resolution, to make available progress reports and to report fully to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

"Recalling further its resolutions 2688 (XXV) of 11 December 1970 on the capacity of the United Nations development system and 3405 (XXX) of 28 November 1975 on new dimensions in technical co-operation,

"Reiterating its resolutions 32/197 of 20 December 1977, 33/201 of 29 January 1979 and 35/81 of 5 Deember 1980 on a comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development, 36/199 of 17 December 1981 and 37/226 of 20 December 1982 on operational activities for development of the United Nations system,

"Reaffirming the exclusive responsibility of the Government of the recipient country in formulating its national development plan, priorities and objectives, as set out in the consensus contained in the annex to General Assembly resolution 2688 (XXV),

"Emphasizing the importance that developing countries, through their actions, including increased financial contributions, have attached to the operational activities of the United Nations system, in recognition of the role of those activities in their overall economic development,

"Expressing its concern about the increasing trend towards bilateralism at the expense of multilateral economic co-operation and the increased channelling of tied resources through multilateral programmes,

"Concerned at the increasingly high cost of experts and consultants and the financial effect on the programmes and projects being implemented, and convinced of the need, as far as possible, to use the services of national experts and consultants and those from other developing countries to implement programmes and projects in a cost-effective manner,

"Aware that a substantial part of world resources, material as well as human, continues to be diverted to armaments, with detrimental effect on international security and on efforts to achieve the new international economic order, including the operational activities for development of the United Nations system,

"Having examined the report of the Director-General for Development and International Economic Co-operation for 1983, on the comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system (A/38/258-E/1983/82 and Add.1 and Add.1/Corr.1, annex),

"1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Director-General for Development and International Economic Co-operation on the comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development;

"2. Reaffirms the important contribution that operational activities of the United Nations system make to the development of developing countries, and invites the relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to attach priority to the operational activities in their plans and programmes;

"3. Notes that, although the outcome of the 1983 United Nations Pledging Conference for Development Activities reflected a positive trend, the overall level of resources remains highly unsatisfactory, falling short of the targets set by the relevant intergovernmental bodies, thus hampering the ability of the system to respond to the growing needs of developing countries;

"4. Strongly reiterates the need for a substantial increase of the flow of resources in real terms for operational activities and other multilateral assistance on an increasingly predictable, continuous and assured basis, so as to enable the organizations of the system to increase the level of their operational programmes;

"5. Strongly urges all countries, particularly developed countries, to increase rapidly and substantially their voluntary contributions for operational activities for development, taking into account the targets that have been set by relevant intergovernmental bodies;

"6. Reaffirms that the operational activities of the United Nations system should be in accordance with the national plans, priorities and objectives of the recipient countries in order to enhance their impact and relevance to the national development process of those countries;

"7. Reaffirms also that the country activities carried out by the World Bank group should be in accordance with the national plans and priorities of recipient countries in order to promote the economic self-reliance of the developing countries;

"8. Emphasizes the need to maintain the multilateral character of the operational activities of the United Nations system, and urges all Governments to enhance their commitment in this regard;

"9. Calls upon all Governments, in the interests of preserving the multilateral principles of the system, to refrain from the practice of the tying of aid for operational activities of the United Nations system to procurement of goods and services from the donor countries;

"10. Requests the Director-General for Development and International Economic Co-operation to continue to examine, taking into account the information to be provided by the heads of the relevant organs, organizations and bodies, the extent and implications of the continuation of the practice of contributions being provided to organizations with conditions attached to their use;

"11. Invites the organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system dealing with the flows of multilateral resources to developing countries to pay greater attention, in their policy reviews, to the funding needs of the United Nations funds and programmes in support of the programmes formulated by the recipient Governments;

"12. Urges the international community to provide a substantial increase in financial resources to United Nations funds and programmes engaged in operational activities in order to enable them to contribute fully to the implementation of the Substantial New Programme of Action for the 1980s for the Least Developed Countries,¹ bearing in mind that those countries are heavily dependent on official development assistance from multilateral sources;

"13. Urges all Governments concerned to conclude negotiations regarding the seventh replenishment of the International Development Association, with a view to ensuring an appropriately substantial real increase in resources, and calls for those negotiations to be completed earlier so that the seventh replenishment may become effective not later than July 1984;

"14. Urges all Governments concerned to strengthen the International Fund for Agricultural Development, particularly by releasing their contributions according to agreed schedules and responding positively during the negotiations regarding the second replenishment;

"15. Welcomes the progress made towards the attainment of the 1983-1984 target for voluntary contributions to the World Food Programme, and urges Governments to make every effort to ensure the full

"17. Invites all organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system engaged in operational activities for development to adopt appropriate measures leading to a greater use of the capacities of developing countries by engaging local personnel and by utilizing local or regional sources for procurement of material, equipment and services, bearing in mind decision 81/28 of 30 June 1981 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme;²

"18. Decides that the guidelines on procurement to be issued pursuant to paragraph 7 of decision 81/28 and section II, paragraph 2, of decision 82/34 of 18 June 1982 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme³ should govern the procurement activities of organs and bodies under the authority of the General Assembly in their execution of projects financed by the Programme;

"19. Welcomes decision 82/8 of 18 June 1982 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme,³ designed to promote government execution of projects funded by the Programme, the savings that could result therefrom reverting to the indicative planning figure of the country concerned;

"20. Reiterates the set of principles which, in the programming of the resources at the disposal of the different organizations of the United Nations system, should be uniformly applied; those principles, as embodied in the consensus of 1970⁴ and decision 80/30 of 26 June 1980 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme,⁵ are as follows:

"(a) Equity, particularly in the distribution of resources among developing countries;

"(b) Assistance to be provided only in response to the express needs of the recipient countries;

"(c) Assistance to be integrated with the overall development objectives and priorities of the country concerned;

"(d) Programming to be seen as an integrated process, of which the different phases, such as programming, project formulation, assessment, approval, evaluation and so on constitute integral parts;

"21. Reaffirms that the main objective of operational activities for development of the United Nations system is to promote the economic self-reliance of developing countries;

"22. Emphasizes the important role of the United Nations system in assisting developing countries, upon request, in developing their evaluation capacity, and requests the Secretary-General, in consultation with the organs, organizations and bodies of the system, to elaborate, in the light of the conclusions and recommendations of the Joint Inspection Unit contained in its report (A/38/333, sect. IX; see also A/38/333/Add.1), proposals to promote the evaluation capacity of recipient Governments;

"23. Endorses and urges full implementation of the various recommendations embodied in the new dimensions in technical co-operation adopted by the Governing Council in 1975,⁶ which include, among others:

"(e) Undertaking programmes and projects in co-operation with capital assistance sources, etc.;

"(f) Equipment and other inputs of technical co-operation to be used in accordance with the needs established by the recipient country;

"24. Calls upon the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme, the United Nations Children's Fund and the governing bodies of other programmes, during their 1984 sessions, to study the effect of the cost of experts and consultants on the various programmes and projects and to propose appropriate solutions, in particular the possibility of using the services of national experts and consultants and those from other developing countries;

"25. Recommends improved coherence of action and co-ordination of the operational systems at the country level, under the overall responsibility of the resident co-ordinator and in consultation with the Governments concerned, in order to cut down expenses on administrative and support costs, minimize waste through avoidance of duplication of work and facilitate the task of the host country in co-ordinating external assistance;

"26. Invites the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme and the President of the World Bank, as well as the heads of regional development banks, to examine further possibilities of co-operation between the Programme and those institutions regarding the complementarity of their respective technical co-operation programmes, in order to enhance the implementation of the present resolution and, in so doing, ensure greater utilization of the facilities available in the various organizations of the United Nations system in the execution of projects financed by those funding agencies, and requests the Administrator to report thereon to the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme;

"(a) Full implementation of the decisions taken earlier;

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

“Recalling also its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,

“Stressing the urgent need to strengthen multilateral co-operation for development as the desirable and effective means for promoting mutually beneficial co-operation between developed and developing countries,

“Emphasizing the importance of multilateral technical co-operation in the economic and social development of developing countries and the urgent need to provide the necessary level of financial resources, in real terms, on an increasingly predictable, continuous and assured basis,

“Reiterating the unique and important role of the United Nations Development Programme in the field of technical co-operation for development,

“Reaffirming the exclusive responsibility of the Government of the recipient country in formulating its national development plan, priorities and objectives, as set out in the consensus contained in the annex to General Assembly resolution 2688 (XXV) of 11 December 1970,

“Stressing that the indicative planning figures established for the third programming cycle, 1982-1986, of the United Nations Development Programme must be maintained and financed through efforts to increase contributions by the international community,

“Having considered the difficult financial situation of the United Nations Development Programme, even in the light of the outcome of the 1983 United Nations Pledging Conference for Development Activities, and its serious impact on the level of technical assistance provided to developing countries through the Programme,

“Aware that, together with efforts to obtain additional voluntary contributions, steps are being taken to increase further the quality, efficiency and effectiveness of the United Nations Development Programme,

“Having considered the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme for the year 1983 (E/1983/20),

“1. Takes note of the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme for the year 1983 and the decisions contained therein (ibid., annex I);

“2. Endorses Economic and Social Council resolution 1982/53 of 29 July 1982, in which the Council, inter alia, took note of decision 82/5 of 18 June 1982 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme,⁷ by which the Governing Council reaffirmed its decisions 80/30 of 26 June 1980⁸ and 81/16 of 27 June 1981,⁹ including, in particular, those provisions relating to the indicative planning figures, the assumed overall average annual rate of growth of voluntary contributions and the level of resources envisaged for the third programming cycle, 1982-1986, for the purposes of forward planning;

“3. Takes note of decision 83/5 of 24 June 1983 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme (ibid.);

“4. Notes that, although the outcome of the 1983 United Nations Pledging Conference for Develop-

“5. Expresses its appreciation to those Governments, of both developed and developing countries, which, at the 1983 Pledging Conference, announced their voluntary contributions or their intention to contribute to the United Nations Development Programme for 1984 in amounts approaching, equalling or exceeding an average annual increase of 14 per cent in their contributions, and to those Governments which have consistently maintained their contributions at a high level;

“6. Urges all other Governments, especially those whose overall performance is not commensurate with their capacities, to renew their efforts to provide the United Nations Development Programme with the resources necessary to establish a sound financial basis for the implementation of its planned activities for the third programming cycle, 1982-1986, which, for the purpose of forward planning, would assume an overall average annual growth of resources of at least 14 per cent;

“7. Expresses its appreciation to the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme for his tireless efforts to obtain the necessary level of resources envisaged for the third programming cycle, 1982-1986, in order to secure the financial viability of the Programme and to improve further its quality, efficiency and effectiveness, and encourages the Administrator to continue those efforts, taking into account, inter alia, the need to restrain administrative expenditures in order to maximize programme delivery in accordance with paragraph 4 of Governing Council decision 81/16;

“9. Reiterates the exclusive responsibility of recipient Governments in the preparation of country programmes, as well as the authority of the Administrator to assist, upon request, those Governments in that process in order to submit the programmes, with his recommendations, to the Governing Council for its consideration and approval;

“10. Requests the Administrator to exercise the utmost vigilance over the financial management of the Programme so that most of the funds are channelled towards programme delivery, with the maximum reduction in expenditure of support and administrative costs, and requests the Administrator to report to the Governing Council in that regard.”

14. At its 56th meeting, on 14 December, the Committee had before it a draft resolution (A/C.2/38/L.117) submitted by Mr. Phillip Gibson (New Zealand), Vice-Chairman of the Committee, on the basis of informal consultations held on draft resolution A/C.2/38/

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

Recalling also its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,

Recalling further its resolutions 2688 (XXV) of 11 December 1970 on the capacity of the United Nations development system and 3405 (XXX) of 28 November 1975 on new dimensions in technical co-operation,

Reiterating its resolutions 32/197 of 20 December 1977, 33/201 of 29 January 1979 and 35/81 of 5 December 1980 on a comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development, 36/199 of 17 December 1981 and 37/226 of 20 December 1982 on operational activities for development of the United Nations system,

Reaffirming the exclusive responsibility of the Government of the recipient country in formulating its national development plan, priorities and objectives, as set out in the consensus contained in the annex to General Assembly resolution 2688 (XXV), and emphasizing that the integration of the operational activities of the United Nations system with national programmes would enhance the impact and relevance of those activities,

Emphasizing the importance that developing countries, through their actions, including increased financial contributions, have attached to the operational activities of the United Nations system, in recognition of the role of those activities in their overall economic development,

Expressing its deep concern about the increasing elements of bilateralism in multilateral economic co-operation and the increased channelling of tied resources through multilateral programmes,

Concerned at the increasingly high cost of experts and consultants and the financial effect on the programmes and projects being implemented, and convinced of the need, as far as possible, to use the services of national experts and consultants and to implement programmes and projects in a cost-effective manner,

Aware that a substantial part of world resources, material as well as human, continues to be diverted to armaments, with detrimental effect on international security and on efforts to achieve the new international economic order, including the operational activities for development of the United Nations system,

Reaffirming that one primary objective of operational activities for development of the United Nations system is to promote the economic self-reliance of developing countries,

Having examined the report of the Director-General for Development and International Economic Cooperation for 1983, on the comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system (A/38/258-E/1983/82 and Add.1 and Add.1/Corr.1, annex),

1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Director-General for Development and International Economic Co-operation on the comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system;

2. Reaffirms the important contribution that operational activities of the United Nations system make to the development of developing countries and urges the relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to continue to attach priority to operational activities in their plans and programmes;

3. Notes that, although the outcome of the 1983 United Nations Pledging Conference for Development Activities reflected a positive trend (see A/CONF.122/SR.1-3 and corrigendum), the overall level of resources remains unsatisfactory, falling short, in many cases, of the various types of targets set by the relevant inter-governmental bodies, thus hampering the ability of the system to respond to the growing needs of developing countries;

4. Strongly reiterates the need for a substantial and real increase in the flow of resources for operational activities on an increasingly predictable, continuous and assured basis, so as to enable the organizations of the system to maintain and, where possible, increase the level of their operational programmes, and, in that context, strongly urges all countries, particularly developed countries, whose overall performance is not commensurate with their capacities, to increase rapidly and substantially their voluntary contributions for operational activities for development, taking into account the targets that have been set by relevant intergovernmental bodies;

5. Reaffirms that the operational activities of the United Nations system should be in accordance with the national plans, priorities and objectives of the recipient countries in order to enhance their impact on and relevance to the national development process of those countries;

6. Invites the World Bank to continue to carry out its country activities in accordance with the national plans and priorities of recipient countries, in order to promote the economic self-reliance of developing countries;

7. Emphasizes the need to maintain the multilateral character of the operational activities of the United Nations system and urges all Governments to enhance their commitment in this regard;

8. Calls upon all Governments, in the interest of preserving the multilateral principles of the system, to refrain from the practice of tying aid for operational activities of the United Nations system to the procurement of goods and services from the donor countries, restricting it to those funds that have a mandate to accept it on an experimental basis;

9. Invites the organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system dealing with the flows of concessional resources to developing countries to pay greater attention, in their reviews of these issues, to the funding needs of the United Nations funds and programmes in support of the development plans formulated by the recipient Governments;

10. Urges the international community to provide a substantial increase in financial resources to United Nations funds and programmes engaged in operational activities in order to enhance their contributions to the implementation of the Substantial New Programme of Action for the 1980s for the Least Developed Countries,¹² bearing in mind the need of those countries for official development assistance from multilateral sources;

11. Urges all Governments concerned to conclude negotiations regarding the seventh replenishment of the International Development Association, with a view to ensuring an appropriate increase in resources, and calls for those negotiations to be completed as soon as possible so that the seventh replenishment may become effective in July 1984;

12. Urges all Governments concerned to strengthen the International Fund for Agricultural Development, particularly by releasing their contributions according to agreed schedules and responding positively during the negotiations regarding the second replenishment;

13. Welcomes the progress made towards the attainment of the 1983-1984 target for voluntary contributions to the World Food Programme and urges Governments to make every effort to ensure the full attainment of that target, as well as the proposed 1985-1986 target;

14. Takes note of the recommendations made in section III of the report of the Director-General for Development and International Economic Co-operation (see A/38/258-E/1983/82, annex), designed to enhance the responsiveness of operational activities to the needs and requirements of all developing countries in accordance with their objectives and priorities, as formulated in their national development plans and programmes, and their efforts to promote greater economic and technical co-operation among themselves;

15. Invites all organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system engaged in operational activities for development, with a view to achieving, inter alia, higher cost effectiveness, to make greater use of the capacities of developing countries by:

(a) Engaging national experts and personnel;

(b) Utilizing local or regional sources for the procurement of material, equipment and services;

16. Decides that the guidelines on procurement to be issued pursuant to paragraph 7 of decision 81/28 of 30 June 1981 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme¹³ and section II, paragraph 2, of decision 82/34 of 18 June 1982 of the Governing Council¹⁴ should govern the procurement activities of organs and bodies under the authority of the General Assembly in their execution of projects financed by the Programme;

17. Welcomes decision 82/8 of 18 June 1982 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme,¹⁴ designed to promote government execution of projects funded by the Programme, the support cost savings that could result therefrom becoming available for programmes and plans, on the basis of the illustrative indicative planning figure;

18. Reiterates the set of principles which, in the programming of the resources at the disposal of the different organizations of the United Nations system, should be uniformly applied; those principles, embodied in the consensus of 1970¹⁵ and decision 80/30 of 26 June 1980 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Devel-

(c) Assistance to be integrated with the overall development objectives and priorities of the country concerned;

(d) Programming to be seen as an integrated process, of which the different phases, such as programming, project formulation, assessment, approval and evaluation, constitute integral parts;

19. Emphasizes the important role of the United Nations system in assisting developing countries, upon request, in developing their evaluation capacity and requests the Secretary-General, in consultation with the organs, organizations and bodies of the system, to elaborate, in the light of the conclusions and recommendations of the Joint Inspection Unit contained in its report (see A/38/333, sect. IX), proposals to promote the evaluation capacity of recipient Governments;

20. Recognizes that, concerning operational activities for development of the United Nations system, evaluation is an important part of the programming process in order to achieve a rational and optimal utilization of the overall resources available;

21. Reaffirms the general guidelines embodied in the new dimensions in technical co-operation adopted by the Governing Council in 1975¹⁷ and urges their full application;

22. Recommends improved coherence of action and co-ordination of the operational systems at the country level, under the overall responsibility of the resident co-ordinator and in consultation with the Governments concerned, in order to cut down expenses on administrative and support costs, minimize waste through avoidance of duplication of work and facilitate the task of the host country in co-ordinating external assistance, and considers that further efforts should be undertaken in this regard;

23. Invites the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme and the President of the World Bank, as well as the heads of regional development banks, to examine further possibilities of co-operation between the Programme and those institutions regarding the complementarity of their respective technical co-operation programmes, in order to enhance the implementation of the present resolution and, in so doing, ensure greater utilization of the facilities available in the various organizations of the United Nations system regarding projects financed by those funding agencies, and requests the Administrator to report thereon to the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme;

24. Urges the relevant organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to increase their support for the process of technical co-operation among developing countries by orienting their programmes and projects, as appropriate, towards strengthening such co-operation;

25. Urges the Secretary-General and the executive heads of organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system, bearing in mind the need to maintain an appropriate level of support functions, to seek to minimize administrative and other support costs without affecting the field programmes and the network of United Nations Development Programme offices in developing countries, with a view to increasing the proportion of resources available to improve programme delivery to developing countries;

26. Requests the organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system receiving resources of an extrabudgetary nature to include information on those resources and their utilization in their budgets and reports and to make that information available to the Governments concerned and to the resident co-ordinator in the recipient country;

27. Recommends that, in accordance with its resolution 32/197, due consideration should be given to the technical expertise of the Department of Technical Co-operation for Development for its designation as an executing agency for the implementation of projects within its mandate, as well as its role in the execution of technical co-operation activities of the United Nations system, in order to reaffirm the role of the Department within the existing technical and administrative structures and to avoid duplication and accomplish economies of scale;

28. Urges all organs, organizations and bodies of the United Nations system, in the light of the recommendations contained in section V of the report of the Director-General for Development and International Economic Co-operation (see A/38/258-E/1983/82, annex), to take the necessary steps to ensure the harmonization of administrative, financial, personnel, planning and procurement procedures, and requests the Director-General for Development and International Economic Co-operation to report annually on specific action taken;

(b) An in-depth analysis of the subject mentioned in paragraph 22 above concerning improved coherence of action and co-ordination of the operational systems at the country level;

Recalling also its resolution 35/56 of 5 December 1980, the annex to which contains the International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade,

Stressing the urgent need to strengthen multilateral co-operation for development as a desirable and effective means for promoting mutually beneficial co-operation between developed and developing countries,

Emphasizing the importance of multilateral technical co-operation in the economic and social development of developing countries and the urgent need for a substantial and real increase in the level of financial resources on an increasingly predictable, continuous and assured basis,

Reiterating the unique and central role of the United Nations Development Programme in the field of technical co-operation for development,

Reaffirming the exclusive responsibility of the Government of the recipient country in formulating its national development plan, priorities and objectives, as set out in the consensus contained in the annex to General Assembly resolution 2688 (XXV) of 11 December 1970,

Stressing that the indicative planning figures established for the third programming cycle, 1982-1986, of the United Nations Development Programme should be maintained, to the extent possible, and financed through efforts to increase contributions by the international community,

Having considered the difficult financial situation of the United Nations Development Programme, even in the light of the encouraging outcome of the 1983 United Nations Pledging Conference for Development Activities (see A/CONF.122/SR.1-3 and corrigendum), and its serious impact on the level of technical assistance provided to developing countries through the Programme,

Aware that, together with efforts to obtain additional voluntary contributions, steps are being taken to increase further the quality, efficiency and effectiveness of the United Nations Development Programme,

Having considered the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme for the year 1983 (E/1983/20),

1. Takes note of the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme for the year 1983 and the decisions contained therein (ibid., annex I);

3. Welcomes the adoption by consensus of decision 83/5 of 24 June 1983 of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme (ibid.);

4. Notes that, although the outcome of the 1983 United Nations Pledging Conference for Development Activities has shown that there is a trend towards ending the erosion of the resources of the United Nations Development Programme, greater efforts remain necessary to strengthen that trend in order to lead to a process of growth of resources by increasing significantly the level of contributions on a more equitable basis;

5. Expresses its appreciation to those Governments, of both developed and developing countries, which, at the 1983 Pledging Conference, announced their voluntary contributions or their intention to contribute to the United Nations Development Programme for 1984 in amounts approaching, equalling or exceeding an average annual increase of 14 per cent in their contributions, and to those Governments that have consistently maintained their contributions at a high level;

6. Urges all other Governments, especially those whose overall performance is not commensurate with their capacities, to renew their efforts, consistent with paragraph 1 (c) of section I of decision 83/5 of the Gov-

7. Expresses its appreciation to the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme for his tireless efforts to obtain the necessary level of resources envisaged for the third programming cycle, 1982-1986, in order to secure the financial viability of the Programme and to improve further its quality, efficiency and effectiveness, and encourages the Administrator to continue those efforts, taking into account, inter alia, the need to restrain administrative expenditures in order to maximize programme delivery, in accordance with paragraph 4 of Governing Council decision 81/16;

8. Reaffirms the mandate of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme, reiterates its confidence in the authority of the Governing Council to consider and approve the programmes formulated by recipient Governments and requests the Governing Council, in accordance with the principles and objectives reflected in the consensus set forth in the annex to General Assembly resolution 2688 (XXV), to ensure full implementation, to the extent possible, of the planned activities of the Programme for the third programming cycle, 1982-1986, and beyond;

9. Reiterates the full responsibility of recipient Governments in the preparation of country programmes, as well as the authority of the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme to assist, upon request, those Governments in that process in order to submit the programmes, with his recommendations, to the Governing Council for its consideration and approval;

10. Requests the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme to exercise the utmost vigilance over the financial management of the Programme so that most of the funds are channelled towards programme delivery, with the maximum reduction in expenditure of support and administrative costs, and requests the Administrator to report to the Governing Council in that regard.

TARGET FOR WORLD FOOD PROGRAMME PLEDGES
FOR THE PERIOD 1985-1986

The General Assembly,

Recalling the provisions of its resolution 2095 (XX) of 20 December 1965 to the effect that the World Food Programme is to be reviewed before each pledging conference,

Recalling the provisions of paragraph 4 of its resolution 36/202 of 17 December 1981 specifying that, subject to the review mentioned above, the next pledging conference should be convened, at the latest, early in 1984, at which time Governments and appropriate donor organizations should be invited to pledge contributions for 1985 and 1986 with a view to reaching such a target as may then be recommended by the General Assembly and the Conference of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,

2. Urges States Members of the United Nations and members and associate members of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and appropriate donor organizations to make every effort to ensure the full attainment of the target;

3. Requests the Secretary-General, in co-operation with the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, to convene a pledging conference for this purpose at United Nations Headquarters early in 1984;

its major objectives, particularly in the maintenance of peace and security and the promotion of economic and social development,

Noting with satisfaction the emphasis being placed by the United Nations Institute for Training and Research on the revitalization of its programme, the dissemination of the results of its research, the continuing need for improvement of its management and on the mobilization of adequate resources to enable it to perform its functions satisfactorily,

4. Notes with satisfaction the efforts of the Executive Director to strengthen co-operation between the United Nations Institute for Training and Research and other institutions active in the Institute's field of competence;

5. Urges once again all States that have not yet contributed to the United Nations Institute for Training and Research to do so, and calls upon all donor countries, especially those that are not contributing at a level commensurate with their capacity, to increase their voluntary contributions in order to meet the urgent financial needs of the Institute;

At the 46th meeting, on 22 November, the representative of Kenya, on behalf of Jamaica, Kenya, Malawi, the Sudan and Tunisia, introduced a draft resolution (A/C.2/38/L.69) entitled "Strengthening the capacity of the United Nations system to respond to natural disasters and other disaster situations" and orally revised operative paragraph 9 by adding the phrase "with a normal ceiling of $50,000 per country in the case of any one disaster" at the end of the paragraph. Subsequently, Bangladesh, Benin, Bolivia, Chad, Ethiopia, the Gambia and Turkey joined as sponsors of the draft resolution, which read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"Recalling its resolutions 2816 (XXVI) of 14 December 1971, by which the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator was established, and 36/225 of 17 December 1981, by which it reaffirmed the mandate of the Office and, inter alia, called for the strengthening and improvement of the capacity and effectiveness of the Office,

"Recalling also its resolution 37/144 of 17 December 1982, in which the Assembly recognized that, in order to attain an effective co-ordination system of humanitarian and disaster relief assistance, it was essential to strengthen and improve the capacity and effectiveness of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator and of the United Nations system as a whole,

"Recalling further Economic and Social Council resolution 1983/47 of 28 July 1983,

"Recognizing that, as a result of those resolutions and other relevant resolutions and decisions, there is now in place a workable system to promote, facilitate and co-ordinate relief activities carried out by the United Nations system, in co-operation with Governments and voluntary agencies,

"Noting that the operation of that system has been much improved but that there remains a need for its full application,

"Noting further with appreciation the effective responses of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator to recent major disasters,

"Recognizing that shortage of resources has been a constraint on an effective response of the United Nations to disaster situations,

"Recognizing that the primary responsibility of administration, relief operations and disaster preparedness lies with the affected countries and that the major part of the material assistance and human effort in disaster relief comes from the Governments of those countries,

"1. Takes note with appreciation of the comprehensive report of the Secretary-General on strengthening the capacity of the United Nations system to respond to natural disasters and other disaster situations (A/38/202-E/1983/94), as well as of his report on the work of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator (A/38/201-E/1983/69 and Corr.1 and 2) and of the statement made by the Co-ordinator before the Second Committee on 10 November 1983;

"2. Notes with particular interest the observations and conclusions of the Secretary-General relating to the transportation, more rapid delivery and distribution of relief supplies, reconstruction and rehabilitation, and the need for evaluation procedures to assess the way in which the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator and the international community as a whole have dealt with the mobilization and provision of disaster relief in particular cases;

"3. Recognizes the importance of disaster preparedness and prevention activities, and calls upon the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator, Governments and agencies involved to ensure that due priority attention is given to them;

"4. Reaffirms the sovereignty of individual Member States, recognizes the primary role of each State in caring for the victims of disasters occurring in its territory, and stresses that all relief operations should be carried out and co-ordinated in a manner consistent with the priorities and needs of the countries concerned;

"5. Stresses that the quality and appropriateness of material and other assistance provided by the international community should meet the particular needs of the populations of disaster-affected areas;

"6. Repeats its call to all Governments and competent organs and organizations to co-operate with the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator and to improve in particular their flow of information on relief assistance, action, plans and needs;

"7. Requests the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator to continue and improve further the flow of information to Governments, organizations and agencies concerned, so that a more complete picture of relief activities assistance received and further requirements may be provided to all concerned;

"8. Stresses the need for the continuance and further strengthening of the relations between the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator and non-governmental organizations, including the International Red Cross and requests the Secretary-General to consider the establishment of a small consultative group composed of executives of major non-governmental relief organizations, in their individual capacity, to provide advice to the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator in the assessment of relief needs and in the preparation and execution of concerted relief programmes;

"9. Authorizes the Secretary-General to permit the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator to respond to requests for emergency disaster assistance up to a total of $600,000 in any one year, with a normal ceiling of $50,000 per country in the case of any one disaster;

"10. Once again urgently calls upon all Member States to respond positively and expeditiously to the Secretary-General's appeals for contributions to meet natural disasters and other disaster situations;

"11. Appeals to Governments for urgent voluntary contributions, channelled through the Trust Fund of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator, to enable the Office to cover, inter alia, unforeseen expenses in connection with disaster relief operations;

"12. Requests the Secretary-General, in consultation with Governments of both the donor and recipient countries, as well as with appropriate agencies, to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, through the Economic and Social Council at its second regular session of 1984, specific proposals to follow up conclusions and problems identified in his comprehensive report, as well as in the present resolution."

STRENGTHENING THE CAPACITY OF THE UNITED NATIONS SYSTEM TO RESPOND TO NATURAL DISASTERS AND OTHER DISASTER SITUATIONS

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 2816 (XXVI) of 14 December 1971, by which the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator was established, and 36/225 of 17 December 1981, by which it reaffirmed the mandate of the Office and, inter alia, called for the strengthening and improvement of its capacity and effectiveness,

Recalling also its resolution 37/144 of 17 December 1982, in which the Assembly recognized that, in order to attain an effective co-ordination system of humanitarian and disaster relief assistance, it was essential to strengthen and improve the capacity and effectiveness of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator and of the United Nations system as a whole,

Recalling further Economic and Social Council resolution 1983/47 of 28 July 1983,

Recognizing that, as a result of those resolutions and other relevant resolutions and decisions, there is now in place a workable system to promote, facilitate and co-ordinate relief activities carried out by the United Nations system, in co-operation with Governments and voluntary agencies,

Noting that the operation of that system has been much improved but that there remains a need for its full application,

Noting further with appreciation the effective response of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator to recent major disasters,

Recognizing that shortage of resources has been a constraint on an effective response of the United Nations to disaster situations,

Recognizing also that the primary responsibility for administration, relief operations and disaster preparedness lies with the affected countries and that the major part of the material assistance and human effort in disaster relief comes from the Governments of those countries,

Recognizing further the importance of the contribution of the International Committee of the Red Cross, the League of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies and appropriate voluntary organizations,

1. Takes note with appreciation of the comprehensive report of the Secretary-General on strengthening the capacity of the United Nations system to respond to natural disasters and other disaster situations (A/38/202-E/1983/94), as well as of his report on the work of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator (A/38/201-E/1983/69 and Corr.1 and 2) and of the statement made by the Co-ordinator on 10 November 1983 (A/C.2/38/SR.34, paras. 1-12);

2. Notes with particular interest the observations and conclusions of the Secretary-General relating to the transportation, more rapid delivery and distribution of relief supplies, reconstruction and rehabilitation and the need for more effective monitoring and evaluation procedures to assess the way in which the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator and the international community as a whole have dealt with the mobilization and provision of disaster relief in particular cases;

3. Recognizes the importance of disaster preparedness and prevention activities, and calls upon the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator, Governments and agencies involved to ensure that a high level of attention is given to them;

4. Reaffirms the sovereignty of individual Member States, recognizes the primary role of each State in caring for the victims of disasters occurring in its territory, and stresses that all relief operations should be carried out and co-ordinated in a manner consistent with the priorities and needs of the countries concerned;

5. Stresses that the quality and appropriateness of material and other assistance provided by the international community should meet the particular needs of the populations of disaster-affected areas;

6. Repeats its call to all Governments and competent organs and organizations to co-operate with the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator and to improve, in particular, their flow of information on relief assistance, action, plans and needs;

7. Requests the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator to continue and improve further the flow of information to Governments, organizations and agencies concerned, so that a more complete picture of relief activities, assistance received and further requirements may be provided to all concerned;

8. Stresses the need for the continuance and further strengthening of relations between the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator and appropriate voluntary organizations working in the area of disaster relief, including the International Committee of the Red Cross and the League of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, and requests the Secretary-General to consider the establishment of a small consultative group composed of executives of these major relief organizations, in their individual capacity, to provide advice, upon request, to the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator in the assessment of relief needs and in the preparation and execution of concerted relief programmes;

9. Authorizes the Secretary-General to permit the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator to respond to requests for emergency disaster assistance up to a total of $600,000 in any one year, with a normal ceiling of $50,000 per country in the case of any one disaster, within existing resources as far as possible;

10. Once again urgently calls upon all States to respond positively and expeditiously to the Secretary-General's appeals for contributions to meet natural disasters and other disaster situations;

11. Appeals to Governments for urgent voluntary contributions, channelled through the Trust Fund of the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator, to enable the Office to cover, inter alia, unforeseen expenses in connection with disaster relief operations;

12. Requests the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Governments of both donor and recipient countries, as well as with appropriate agencies, to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, through the Economic and Social Council at its second regular session of 1984, specific proposals to follow up the conclusions and problems identified in his comprehensive report, as well as in the present resolution.

Having considered the reports of the Secretary-General on assistance to Mozambique (A/38/216, sect. XIII; A/38/201-E/1983/69 and Corr.1 and 2, annex I, sect. E) and noting with concern that the economic and

Noting with deep concern the loss of life and the destruction of essential infrastructures such as roads, railways, bridges, petroleum facilities, electricity supply, schools and hospitals, as identified in the reports of the Secretary-General,

Recognizing that the food deficit of over 300,000 tonnes in 1982 has been further exacerbated by continued drought, poor rainfall, severe crop infestation and epidemics of animal diseases, as well as by chronic shortages of production inputs,

Bearing in mind the international appeal, launched by the Government and supported by the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator, for urgent food aid for central and southern Mozambique,

Recognizing that substantial international assistance is required for the implementation of a number of reconstruction and development projects,

11. Requests the appropriate organizations and programmes of the United Nations system—in particular the United Nations Development Programme, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the International Fund for Agricultural Development, the World Food Programme, the World Health Organiza-

12. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To continue his efforts to mobilize the necessary resources for an effective programme of financial, technical and material assistance to Mozambique;

Taking note of the special problems confronting the Comoros as a developing island country and as one of the least developed countries,

Noting that the Government of the Comoros has given priority to the questions of infrastructure, transport and telecommunications,

Noting also the economic difficulties arising from the country's scarcity of natural resources, compounded by the recent drought and cyclones,

Noting further the grave budgetary and balance-of-payments problems facing the Comoros,

Aware of the intention of the Government of the Comoros to convene a donors' conference at the end of the first quarter of 1984,

Having examined the summary report of the Secretary-General (A/38/216, sect. VII),

2. Notes with satisfaction the response by various Member States, organizations of the United Nations system and other organizations to its appeals and those of the Secretary-General for assistance to the Comoros;

¹⁰ A/37/128.

4. Appeals to those States and organizations invited to the donors' conference to be held in the Comoros early in 1984 to contribute generously to the programme of assistance that will be presented by the Government of the Comoros at that time;

5. Renews its appeal to Member States, the appropriate organs, programmes and organizations of the United Nations system, regional and international organizations and other intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, as well as international financial institutions, to provide the Comoros with assistance to enable it to cope with its difficult economic situation and pursue its development goals;

6. Requests the appropriate programmes and organizations of the United Nations system to increase their current programmes of assistance to the Comoros, to co-operate closely with the Secretary-General in organizing an effective international programme of assistance and to report periodically to him on the steps they have taken and the resources they have made available to help that country;

Draft resolution IX

SPECIAL ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TO BENIN

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 35/88 of 5 December 1980, 36/208 of 17 December 1981, and 37/151 of 17 December 1982, in which it appealed to the international community to provide effective and continuous financial, material and technical assistance to Benin so as to help that country overcome its financial and economic difficulties,

Recalling also Security Council resolution 419 (1977) of 24 November 1977, in which the Council appealed to all States and all appropriate international organizations, including the United Nations and the specialized agencies, to assist Benin,

Having heard the statement made by the representative of Benin on 10 November 1983 (see A/C.2/38/SR.35, paras. 52-54), describing his country's serious economic and financial situation and the measures adopted by his Government to address those difficulties,

Having considered the summary report of the Secretary-General (A/38/216, sect. III),

Noting from that report that despite a variety of adverse factors, Benin continues to make some progress in its development efforts as a result of the measures adopted by the Government and the assistance provided by the international community,

Deeply concerned, however, by the fact that Benin continues to experience serious economic and financial difficulties, characterized by a severe balance-of-payments disequilibrium, heavy burdens of external debt and a lack of resources to implement its planned economic and social development programme,

Noting also that continued unfavourable climatic conditions in the coastal and northern areas of Benin have entailed losses in agricultural and livestock production,

Having noted the efforts of the Government of Benin to mobilize international support for the country's development plan through the organization of a round-table conference held at Cotonou in March 1983 with the assistance of the United Nations Development Programme,

Bearing in mind that Benin is classified as one of the least developed countries,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General for the measures he has taken to organize and mobilize support for the international programme of economic assistance for Benin;

2. Reiterates its endorsement of the assessment and recommendations of the United Nations review mission dispatched to Benin in July 1982, contained in the annex to the report of the Secretary-General;¹¹

3. Notes with satisfaction the interest and support for the development plan of Benin expressed by the participants in the round-table Conference;

4. Appeals to Member States, international financial institutions, the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to respond generously and urgently to the needs of Benin, as set out in the country's development plan for 1983-1987;

5. Expresses its appreciation for the assistance already given or pledged to Benin by Member States, organizations of the United Nations system and regional, interregional and intergovernmental organizations;

6. Notes with appreciation the measures that are being taken by the Government of Benin to strengthen the country's economy through financial and administrative reforms;

7. Reiterates the appeal it has addressed to all Member States to provide substantial and appropriate assistance bilaterally and multilaterally, if possible in the form of grants-in-aid or loans granted on favourable terms, in order to enable Benin to carry out fully the recommended special programme of economic assistance;

8. Requests the appropriate bodies and programmes of the United Nations—in particular the United Nations Development Programme, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the International Fund for Agricultural Development and the United Nations Children's Fund—to maintain and expand their programmes of assistance to Benin, to co-operate closely with the Secretary-General in organizing an effective international programme of assistance and to report periodically to him on the measures they have taken and the resources they have made available to help that country;

9. Requests the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the World Food Programme, the International Fund for Agricultural Development, the United Nations Children's Fund and the World Health Organization to provide all possible assistance to help the Government of Benin to meet the critical humanitarian needs of the population through the provision of food aid, medicines and equipment for areas affected by drought;

10. Invites the United Nations Development Programme, the United Nations Children's Fund, the World Food Programme, the World Health Organization, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the World Bank and the International Fund for Agricultural Development to bring to the attention of their governing bodies, for their consideration, the special needs of Benin and to report the decisions of those bodies to the Secretary-General by 15 July 1984;

11. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To continue his efforts to mobilize the necessary resources for an effective programme of financial, technical and material assistance to Benin;

(b) To ensure that the necessary financial and budgetary arrangements are made to continue the organization of the international programme of assistance to Benin and the mobilization of that assistance;

(c) To keep the situation in Benin under constant review, to maintain close contact with Member States, the specialized agencies, regional and other intergovernmental organizations and the international financial institutions concerned and to apprise the Economic and Social Council, at its second regular session of 1984, of the status of the special programme of economic assistance for Benin;

(d) To arrange for a review of the economic situation in Benin and the status of the special programme of economic assistance and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

Draft resolution X

ASSISTANCE FOR THE RECONSTRUCTION, REHABILITATION AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 35/87 of 5 December 1980, 36/206 of 17 December 1981 and 37/145 of 17 December 1982, in which it affirmed the urgent need for international action to assist the Government of the Central African Republic in its reconstruction, rehabilitation and development efforts and invited the international community to provide sufficient resources to carry out the programme of assistance to the Central African Republic,

Noting the statement made by the Minister for Foreign Affairs and International Co-operation of the Central African Republic on 10 October 1983,¹² in which he described the serious economic and financial problems of the country and observed that the situation had not improved, owing to the insufficiency of financial resources, and that external assistance continued to be essential,

Noting also the statement made by the representative of the Central African Republic, on 10 November 1983 (see A/C.2/38/SR.34, paras. 13-17), according to which the response of the international community to the urgent appeal of the General Assembly had not been adequate to meet the needs of the situation,

Bearing in mind that the Central African Republic is land-locked and is classified as one of the least developed countries, ¹² See Official Records of the General Assembly, Thirty-eighth Session, Plenary Meetings, 26th meeting, paras. 223 to 270.

Recalling the Substantial New Programme of Action for the 1980s for the Least Developed Countries,¹³ which called for increased aid to these countries,

Particularly concerned that the Government of the Central African Republic is unable to provide the population with adequate health, educational and other essential social and public services because of an acute shortage of financial and material resources,

Taking account of the fact that the economic and social situation in the Central African Republic has been further aggravated by an unprecedented drought and a sharp and considerable decrease in export earnings,

Noting with satisfaction the considerable efforts exerted by the Government and people of the Central African Republic for national reconstruction, rehabilitation and development, despite the limitations confronting them,

Having examined the report of the Secretary-General,¹⁴ to which is annexed the report of the mission dispatched to the Central African Republic in June 1982 to carry out a study of the economic situation and the progress being made in organizing and carrying out the special programme of economic assistance for that country, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 36/206,

Having also examined the summary report of the Secretary-General (A/38/216, sect. VI),

Noting that, according to those reports, the budgetary situation of the Central African Republic continues to make it impossible for the Government to undertake a programme of reconstruction, rehabilitation and development, owing to inadequate external financial assistance,

1. Expresses its gratification to the Secretary-General for the efforts he has made to mobilize resources for carrying out the programme of assistance to the Central African Republic;

2. Expresses its appreciation to the States, the international, regional and interregional organizations and other intergovernmental organizations for their contribution to the programme of assistance to the Central African Republic;

3. Notes with concern, however, that the assistance provided under this heading continues to fall far short of the country's urgent needs;

4. Urgently draws the attention of the international community to table 6 of the annex to the Secretary-General's report,¹⁴ which indicates the projects for which financing is partially assured and those for which no financing has been forthcoming;

5. Reiterates its appeal to all States to contribute generously, through bilateral or multilateral channels, to the reconstruction, rehabilitation and development of the Central African Republic;

Draft resolution XI

ASSISTANCE TO THE GAMBIA

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/159 of 17 December 1982, in which it, inter alia, noted that the Gambia is a least developed country with acute economic and social problems arising from its weak economic infrastructure and that it also suffers from many of the serious problems common to countries of the Sahelian region, notably drought,

Having heard the statement made by the representative of the Gambia on 11 November 1983 (see A/C.2/38/SR.36, paras. 5-7) describing her country's serious economic and financial situation and the measures adopted by her Government to deal with these difficulties,

Having considered the summary report of the Secretary-General (A/38/216, sect. IX), in which the recent economic situation in the Gambia is described,

Concerned that the Gambia continues to encounter serious balance-of-payments and budgetary problems and noting that the lack of domestic resources is the most important constraint on development, since the Government lacks the funds to meet the counterpart costs of donor-assisted projects,

Noting that external assistance is still required to enable the Government of the Gambia to implement the six projects recommended by the Secretary-General in his report,¹⁵

Aware of the intention of the Government of the Gambia to organize, with the assistance of the United Nations Development Programme, a round-table conference of donors in November 1984 to discuss the country's development needs and to consider ways and means of helping the Government in its efforts to meet those needs,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General for the steps he has taken to mobilize assistance for the Gambia;

2. Expresses its appreciation also to those States and organizations that have provided assistance to the Gambia;

3. Draws the attention of the international community to the need for assistance for the projects and programmes identified by the Secretary-General in his reports;

4. Renews its urgent appeal to Member States, specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system, regional and interregional organizations and other intergovernmental and non-

5. Urges donors, as appropriate, to provide financial assistance to the Gambia to help meet the local counterpart costs of externally-assisted projects, bearing in mind that the Gambia is classified as a least developed country;

6. Urges Member States, organizations and programmes of the United Nations system, regional and interregional bodies, financial and development institutions and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to respond generously to the needs of the Gambia at the round-table conference to be held in November 1984;

7. Requests the appropriate organizations and programmes of the United Nations system—in particular the United Nations Development Programme, the United Nations Children's Fund, the World Food Programme, the World Health Organization, the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and the International Fund for Agricultural Development—to increase their current and future programmes of assistance to the Gambia, to co-operate closely with the Secretary-General in organizing an effective international programme of assistance and to report periodically to him on the steps they have taken and the resources they have made available to assist that country;

8. Invites the United Nations Development Programme, the United Nations Children's Fund, the World Food Programme, the World Health Organization, the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the World Bank and the International Fund for Agricultural Development to bring to the attention of their governing bodies, for their consideration, the special needs of the Gambia and to report the decisions of those bodies to the Secretary-General by 15 July 1984;

9. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To continue his efforts to mobilize the necessary resources for an effective programme of financial, technical and material assistance to the Gambia;

Draft resolution XIII

SPECIAL ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TO CHAD

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 37/155 of 17 December 1982 and its previous resolutions on the reconstruction, rehabilitation and development of Chad, emergency humanitarian assistance to Chad and special economic assistance to that country,

Having considered the reports of the Secretary-General on special economic assistance to Chad, relating, inter alia, to the economic and financial situation of Chad, the status of assistance provided for the rehabilitation and reconstruction of the country and the progress made in organizing and executing the special programme of economic assistance for that country,¹⁶

Noting that the stability of the situation in Chad enabled the Secretary-General to organize an International Conference on Assistance to Chad, in November 1982 at Geneva, in close co-operation with the Government of Chad,

Aware that the resumption of fighting in Chad has prevented the States and agencies that participated in the International Conference on Assistance to Chad from fully honouring their commitments,

Noting with concern that the resumption of fighting is aggravating the situation of dire need in Chad resulting from the systematic destruction of the economic and social infrastructure during seventeen years of war and from the effects of natural disasters,

Considering that Chad is included in the list of the least developed countries and is therefore entitled to the benefits provided for in the relevant General Assembly resolutions,

Recognizing the need for the provision by the international community of emergency humanitarian assistance, particularly in the areas of food and health, to the population of Chad,

1. Expresses its gratitude to the States and organizations that responded to the appeals of the Government of Chad and of the Secretary-General by furnishing assistance to Chad;

2. Also expresses its gratitude to the Secretary-General for his efforts to mobilize assistance to Chad;

3. Again appeals to the international community to provide, as a matter of urgency, the necessary assistance to the people of Chad, who have suffered from the war;

4. Renews the request made to States, appropriate organizations and programmes of the United Nations and international financial institutions to contribute to the rehabilitation and reconstruction of Chad through bilateral or multilateral channels;

5. Takes note of the desire of Chad to organize, as soon as circumstances permit, a conference of donors and contributors of funds to consider a general programme of reconstruction and development and to finance detailed projects in the areas of priority;

6. Requests the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme to give all the necessary assistance to Chad for the preparation and organization of the conference, in accordance with the arrangements agreed upon at the International Conference on Assistance to Chad held in November 1982;

7. Also requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To monitor, in close collaboration with the humanitarian agencies concerned, the humanitarian needs, particularly in the areas of food and health, of the people affected by the war and the drought;

(b) To mobilize the humanitarian assistance of the international community for persons who have suffered as a result of the war in Chad;

(c) To pursue his efforts to organize the programme of financial assistance to Chad;

(d) To apprise the Economic and Social Council, at its second regular session of 1984, of the situation and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

Draft resolution XIV

ASSISTANCE TO LESOTHO

The General Assembly,

Recalling Security Council resolution 402 (1976) of 22 December 1976, in which the Council, inter alia, expressed concern at the serious situation created by South Africa's closure of certain border posts between South Africa and Lesotho aimed at coercing Lesotho into according recognition to the bantustan of the Transkei,

Recalling also Security Council resolution 535 (1983) of 29 June 1983, in which the Council endorsed the report of the mission dispatched to Lesotho in response to resolution 527 (1982) of 15 December 1982,¹⁷

Commending the decision of the Government of Lesotho not to recognize the Transkei, in compliance with United Nations decisions, particularly General Assembly resolution 31/6 A of 26 October 1976,

Also commending the Government of Lesotho for its steadfast opposition to apartheid and its generosity to the South African refugees,

Fully aware that the decision of the Government of Lesotho not to recognize the Transkei and its acceptance of refugees from South Africa have imposed special economic burdens upon its people,

Strongly endorsing the appeals made in Security Council resolutions 402 (1976) of 22 December 1976, 407 (1977) of 25 May 1977 and 535 (1983) of 29 June 1983, in General Assembly resolutions 32/98 of 13 December 1977, 33/128 of 19 December 1978, 34/130 of 14 December 1979, 35/96 of 5 December 1980, 36/219 of 17 December 1981 and 37/160 of 17 December 1982, and by the Secretary-General, calling upon all States, regional and intergovernmental organizations and the appropriate organizations of the United Nations system to contribute generously to the international programme of assistance to enable Lesotho to carry out its economic development and enhance its capacity to implement fully the resolutions of the United Nations,

Having examined the summary report of the Secretary-General (ibid., sect. XI), prepared in response to General Assembly resolution 37/160, in which the economic situation was reviewed, as well as the progress in the implementation of the special programme of economic assistance for Lesotho,

Noting the priority which the Government of Lesotho accords to raising levels of food production through increased productivity, thus lessening the country's dependency on South Africa for food imports,

Aware that the high prices paid by Lesotho for its imports of petroleum products as a result of the oil embargo on South Africa have become a serious impediment to the development of the country,

Recognizing, in connection with such embargoes, the obligation of the international community to help countries such as Lesotho that act in support of the Charter of the United Nations and in compliance with General Assembly resolutions,

Recalling its resolutions 32/160 of 19 December 1977 and 33/197 of 29 January 1979 concerning the Transport and Communications Decade in Africa and, in this regard, noting Lesotho's geopolitical situation, which necessitates the urgent development of air and telecommunication links with neighbouring countries of Africa and the rest of the world,

Taking account of Lesotho's need for a national network of roads, both for its planned social and economic development and to lessen its dependence on the South African network, to reach various regions of the country affected by the imposition of travel restrictions by South Africa,

Taking note of Lesotho's special problems associated with the employment of large numbers of its able-bodied men in South Africa,

Taking note also of the priority which the Government of Lesotho has accorded to the problem of absorbing into the economy the young generation, as well as migrant workers returning from South Africa,

Welcoming the action taken by the Government of Lesotho to make more effective use of women in the development process by promoting their participation in the economic, social and cultural life of the country,

Taking account also of Lesotho's position as a least developed, most seriously affected and land-locked country,

Recalling its resolution 32/98, in which it, inter alia, recognized that the continuing influx of refugees from South Africa imposed an additional burden on Lesotho,

1. Expresses its concern at the difficulties that confront the Government of Lesotho as a result of its decision not to recognize the so-called independent Transkei, and of its rejection of apartheid and acceptance of refugees from apartheid oppression;

2. Endorses fully the assessment of the situation contained in the report of the mission to Lesotho, dispatched in response to Security Council resolution 527 (1982), and in the summary report of the Secretary-General;

3. Takes note of the requirements of Lesotho, as described in the reports of the mission to Lesotho and of the Secretary-General, to carry out the remainder of its development programme, to implement projects necessitated by the present political situation in the region and to lessen its dependence on South Africa;

4. Expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General for the measures he has taken to organize an international programme of economic assistance for Lesotho;

5. Notes with appreciation the response made thus far by the international community to the special programme of economic assistance for Lesotho, which has enabled it to proceed with the implementation of parts of the recommended programme;

6. Reiterates its appeal to Member States, regional and interregional organizations and other intergovernmental organizations to provide financial, material and technical assistance to Lesotho for the implementation of several projects and programmes that are still unfunded, as identified in the reports of the mission to Lesotho and of the Secretary-General;

7. Calls upon Member States and the appropriate agencies, organizations and financial institutions to provide assistance to Lesotho so as to enable it to achieve a greater degree of self-sufficiency in food production;

8. Also calls upon Member States to give all possible assistance to Lesotho to ensure an adequate and regular supply of oil to meet its national requirements;

9. Further calls upon Member States to assist Lesotho in developing its internal road and air systems and its air communications with the rest of the world;

10. Commends the efforts of the Government of Lesotho to integrate women more fully into development efforts, and requests the Secretary-General to consult with the Government on the type and amount of assistance it will require to achieve this objective;

11. Draws the attention of the international community to the meeting of donors held in Lesotho in November 1979, as well as the agricultural sector conference held in Lesotho in October 1980, and urges Member States and the appropriate agencies and organizations to provide assistance to Lesotho in accordance with the outcome of those meetings;

12. Also draws the attention of the international community to the special account which was established at United Nations Headquarters by the Secretary-General, in accordance with Security Council resolution 407 (1977), for the purpose of facilitating the channelling of contributions to Lesotho;

13. Invites the United Nations Development Programme, the United Nations Children's Fund, the World Health Organization, the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and the International Fund for Agricultural Development to bring further to the attention of their governing bodies the special needs of Lesotho and to report to the Secretary-General by 15 August 1984 on the steps they have taken;

14. Requests the appropriate specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to co-operate closely with the Secretary-General in organizing an effective international programme of assistance to Lesotho and to report periodically to him on the steps they have taken and the resources they have made available to assist that country;

15. Requests the Secretary-General:

(a) To continue his efforts to mobilize the necessary resources for an effective programme of financial, technical and material assistance to Lesotho;

intensive projects to deal with their absorption into the economy;

(c) To ensure that adequate financial and budgetary arrangements are made to continue the organization of the international programme of assistance to Lesotho and the mobilization of assistance;

(d) To keep the situation in Lesotho under constant review, to maintain close contact with Member States, the specialized agencies, regional and other intergovernmental organizations and international financial institutions concerned, and to apprise the Economic and Social Council, at its second regular session of 1984, of the current status of the special programme of economic assistance for Lesotho;

(e) To report on the progress made in the economic situation of Lesotho and in organizing and implementing the special programme of economic assistance for that country in time for the matter to be considered by the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

Draft resolution XV

ASSISTANCE TO THE DROUGHT-STRICKEN AREAS OF DJIBOUTI, ETHIOPIA, KENYA, SOMALIA, THE SUDAN AND UGANDA

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 35/90 and 35/91 of 5 December 1980, 36/221 of 17 December 1981 and 37/147 of 17 December 1982 and Economic and Social Council resolution 1983/46 of 28 July 1983,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General on assistance to the drought-stricken areas in Djibouti, Ethiopia, Kenya, Somalia, the Sudan and Uganda (A/38/214),

Deeply concerned at the intensity and the permanent and expanding nature of the drought in the subregion,

1. Reaffirms its resolutions 36/221 and 37/147 on assistance to the drought-stricken areas of Djibouti, Ethiopia, Kenya, Somalia, the Sudan and Uganda;

2. Takes note of the ongoing consultations between the Governments concerned on the establishment of an intergovernmental body to combat the effects of drought and other natural disasters and urges them to finalize, as soon as possible, the necessary arrangements for the establishment of that body;

3. Requests the Secretary-General, in close coordination with the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme and the appropriate specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system, to continue to extend all necessary assistance to those countries in their efforts to combat the effects of drought on the basis of the recommendations of various multi-agency missions, pending the establishment of the intergovernmental body;

4. Also requests the Secretary-General, in close coordination with the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme and the appropriate specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system, to assist the Governments of the region, at their request, in establishing or improving national machinery to combat the effects of drought and other natural disasters, to apprise the Economic and Social Council, at its second regular session of 1984, of the progress achieved in the implementation of the present resolution and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

Draft resolution XVI

SPECIAL ASSISTANCE TO ALLEVIATE THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL PROBLEMS FACED IN REGIONS OF HONDURAS AND NICARAGUA AS A RESULT OF THE MAY 1982 FLOODS AND OTHER SUBSEQUENT NATURAL DISASTERS

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 3440 (XXX) of 9 December 1975 on assistance in cases of natural disaster and other disaster situations and 37/144 of 17 December 1982 on the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator,

Taking note of resolution 419 (PLEN. 15) on international assistance to alleviate the economic and social problems faced by Honduras and Nicaragua as a result of the May 1982 floods,³ adopted by the Committee of the Whole of the Economic Commission for Latin America at its fifteenth special session, held in New York on 22 and 23 July 1982,

Taking into account Economic and Social Council decision 1982/168 of 29 July 1982, by which the Council endorsed resolution 419 (PLEN. 15) of the Economic Commission for Latin America,

Mindful that by its decision 37/433 of 17 December 1982, adopted in pursuance of Economic and Social Council decision 1982/168, it endorsed resolution 419 (PLEN. 15),

Bearing in mind that the damage caused by the May 1982 floods in Honduras and Nicaragua has still not been made good,

Bearing in mind also that, during 1983, weather conditions in the south-west regions of Honduras and the north-west region of Nicaragua have again been detrimental owing to a prolonged drought, which has caused heavy losses in the production of basic grains and other agricultural products, a phenomenon unprecedented in the past fifty years in Honduras, and which has affected thousands of rural families in those regions in both countries,

Considering that, because of the current drought and despite national efforts in both countries, the economic and social situation of those regions has worsened and the need for assistance from the international community is even greater,

1. Expresses its gratitude to the States Members, bodies and organizations of the United Nations system that have provided emergency aid to Honduras and Nicaragua, in order to enable them to cope with the disaster;

2. Appeals to the States Members, bodies and organizations of the United Nations system to continue to provide assistance to Honduras and Nicaragua, in order to counter the serious economic and social consequences of the natural disasters experienced during the past two years in the regions referred to above;

3. Makes an urgent appeal to the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator to take immediate steps to prevent the situation from becoming a state of emergency;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the progress made in the implementation of the present resolution.

Draft resolution XVII

ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE TO VANUATU

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 3421 (XXX) of 8 December 1975 on the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, in which it urged the specialized agencies and other organizations within the United Nations system to extend assistance to the newly independent and emerging States,

Recalling also its resolutions 31/156 of 21 December 1976, 32/185 of 19 December 1977, 34/205 of 19 December 1979, 35/61 of 5 December 1980 and 37/206 of 20 December 1982, in which it urged all Governments, in particular those of the developed countries, to lend their support, in the context of their assistance programmes, for the implementation of the specific action envisaged in favour of island developing countries, and in which it also called upon all organizations of the United Nations system to implement, within their respective spheres of competence, appropriate specific actions in favour of island developing countries,

Recalling further resolutions 98 (IV) of 31 May 1976,¹⁸ 111 (V) of 3 June 1979,¹⁹ and 138 (VI) of 2 July 1983,⁵ of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development concerning special action related to the particular needs and problems of island developing countries,

Recognizing the difficult problems faced by island developing countries, owing mainly to their smallness, remoteness, constraints in transport, great distances from market centres, highly limited internal markets, lack of natural resources, heavy dependence on a few commodities, shortage of administrative personnel and heavy financial burdens,

Taking into account the fact that Vanuatu is an island developing country and is small and archipelagic, which makes the provision of services difficult and entails very high overhead costs, because of inter-island distances,

Concerned at the severe constraints on the economic development of Vanuatu, particularly those ensuing from its geographical isolation,

Concerned also at the continued structural imbalances in the economy of the country, particularly its overwhelming dependence on imports,

Noting that the disadvantageous demographic and geographic features of Vanuatu, such as its physical remoteness, small area and small population, pose special development problems,

Noting also that, without good transport and communications links, any development will be difficult,

1. Calls the attention of the international community to the special problems confronting Vanuatu as an island developing country with a small population;

2. Appeals to Member States, regional and inter-regional organizations and other intergovernmental organizations, to provide financial, material and technical assistance to Vanuatu to enable it to establish the social and economic infrastructure that is essential for the well-being of its people;

3. Invites the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, the United Nations Industrial Development Organization, the United Nations Children's Fund, the United Nations Development Programme, the World Food Programme, the International Labour Organisation, the Food and Agriculture

Organization of the United Nations, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the International Civil Aviation Organization, the World Health Organization, the World Bank, the International Telecommunication Union, the World Meteorological Organization, the International Maritime Organization and the International Fund for Agricultural Development to bring to the attention of their governing bodies, for their consideration, the special needs of Vanuatu and to report the decisions of those bodies to the Secretary-General by 15 July 1984;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to mobilize the financial, technical and economic assistance of the international community, in particular the developed countries and the appropriate organizations of the United Nations system, with a view to meeting the short-term and long-term development needs of Vanuatu;

5. Requests the appropriate organizations and programmes of the United Nations system to maintain and increase their current and future programmes of assistance to Vanuatu, to co-operate closely with the Secretary-General in organizing an effective international programme of assistance and to report periodically to him on the steps they have taken and the resources they have made available to help that country;

6. Requests the Committee for Development Planning at its twentieth session, as a matter of priority, to give due consideration to the question of the inclusion of Vanuatu in the list of the least developed countries and to submit its conclusions to the Economic and Social Council at its second regular session of 1984;

7. Calls upon Member States, pending consideration by the Committee for Development Planning at its twentieth session of the report submitted to it and in view of the critical economic situation of Vanuatu, to accord Vanuatu special measures and, as a matter of priority, to give special consideration to the early inclusion of Vanuatu in their programmes of development assistance;

8. Also requests the Secretary-General to keep this matter under review and to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the implementation of the present resolution.

Convinced of the need to take continuing and reinforced international measures for the elimination of racism and racial discrimination and the total eradication of apartheid in South Africa,

Noting that, in order to attain these objectives, it is imperative, in accordance with the recommendation of the Second World Conference (ibid., chap. II, para. 66), to declare a second decade at the end of the present Decade, which expires in December 1983,

ANNEX

Programme of Action for the Second Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination

A. Action to combat apartheid

1. The Conference calls upon all States, United Nations organs and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to ensure the full and universal implementation of mandatory Security Council resolutions and to make efforts to implement other United Nations resolutions. Particular attention should be paid to specific measures, including those contained in the present Programme of Action, designed to ensure the implementation of the provisions relating to apartheid.

2. The Conference reaffirms that the system of apartheid in South Africa is the most extreme form of institutionalized racism, a crime against humanity and an affront to the conscience and dignity of mankind, and that South Africa's policies and practices constitute serious breaches of and threats to regional stability and to international peace and security. The Conference calls upon all States, international organizations, private institutions and non-governmental organizations to render increased political and material assistance to the oppressed peoples of South Africa and Namibia, and to accelerate greatly campaigns for obtaining the release of all political prisoners imprisoned for their activities against apartheid.

3. The Conference further reaffirms the legitimacy of the struggle of the oppressed peoples of South Africa and Namibia and their national liberation movements for the elimination of apartheid by all available means, including armed struggle, and the special responsibility of the United Nations and the international community to provide them with moral, political and material assistance in the realization of their quest to exercise their right to self-determination.

4. The Conference reiterates the commitment of the United Nations to the total eradication of apartheid and to the establishment of a democratic society in which all the people of South Africa as a whole, irrespective of race, colour, sex or creed, will enjoy equal and full human rights and fundamental freedoms and participate freely in the determination of their destiny.

5. The Conference reaffirms the international community's rejection of the "bantustanization" policy and similar measures which are an integral part of the discriminatory apartheid system and which deny the black majority their legitimate rights to their land and to their citizenship of South Africa.

6. The Conference further confirms the international community's rejection of the régime's so-called reforms, especially the limited parliamentary representation for the Coloureds and Asians designed to split the black alliance and buttress the apartheid system.

7. The Conference calls upon all States to implement strictly the embargo on the sale and transfer of arms and related military materials imposed against South Africa under Security Council resolution 418 (1977) of 4 November 1977. The Conference further urges the Security Council to adopt urgent measures to strengthen the arms embargo, in accordance with the recommendations of the Council's committee established under its resolution 421 (1977) of 9 December 1977.

8. The Conference calls upon the Security Council to consider urgently the imposition of mandatory sanctions, under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, against the apartheid régime of South Africa, and in particular:

(a) The cessation of all collaboration with South Africa in the nuclear field, as such collaboration would enhance South Africa's capacity to develop nuclear weapons;

(b) The prohibition of all technological assistance or collaboration in the manufacture of arms in South Africa and the provision of military supplies to South Africa;

(c) The cessation of foreign investments in, and financial loans to, South Africa;

(d) An embargo on the supply of petroleum, petroleum products and other strategic commodities that would enable South Africa to continue implementing its apartheid policy;

(e) The interruption of trade relations with South Africa.

9. The Conference strongly condemns the racist régime of South Africa for its systematic oppression of and discrimination against the overwhelming majority of the population of South Africa and for its continuing illegal occupation of Namibia. The Conference also condemns acts of military aggression and acts of political and economic destabilization perpetrated by South Africa against the independent neighbouring States of Angola, Botswana, Lesotho, Mozambique, Seychelles, Swaziland, Zambia and Zimbabwe, as well as South Africa's activities to recruit, train, finance and arm mercenaries for aggression against and destabilization of the neighbouring States, creating instability in this part of the world.

10. The Conference calls for increased international assistance and support to the front-line States and other independent States in the subregion that are subjected to threats and acts of aggression and destabilization by the apartheid régime of South Africa, in order to enable them to strengthen their defence capacity, defend their sovereignty and territorial integrity, fight the adverse South African and other propaganda that undermines racial harmony and peace in the subregion, and peacefully rebuild and develop their countries.

11. The Conference calls upon States to sever all sporting, cultural and scientific links with the racist régime and with organizations or institutions in South Africa which practise apartheid and to discourage their nationals from having any such contacts.

12. The Conference calls upon all States that have not yet done so:

(a) To refrain from any relations with the apartheid régime which could contribute to the continuance of the apartheid policy;

(b) To discourage or prevent all business enterprises, including transnational corporations, in so far as they are under their jurisdiction or control, from collaborating in any way with the racist régime of South Africa, as such collaboration may contribute towards the continuance of its apartheid policy.

13. The Conference, reaffirming the direct responsibility of the United Nations for Namibia pending its achievement of genuine self-determination, national independence and territorial integrity, demands the immediate and unconditional implementation of Security Council resolution 435 (1978) of 29 September 1978 and calls upon all States, intergovernmental organizations, private institutions and non-governmental organizations to make an active contribution to this aim. The Conference further calls upon all Governments and transnational corporations to implement Decree No. 1 for the Protection of the Natural Resources of Namibia,⁷ enacted by the United Nations Council for Namibia on 27 September 1974, and also calls for the implementation of the measures referred to in General Assembly resolution 37/233 C of 20 December 1982 on Namibia.

14. The Conference calls upon all States, intergovernmental organizations, private institutions and non-governmental organizations to continue to take all necessary measures to ensure the termination of all economic and financial collaboration with the racist régime of South Africa, as such assistance will contribute to the continuance of the policies of apartheid, and to refrain from taking any action that might imply recognition of or support for the illegal occupation of the Namibian territory by that régime. In this connection, the Conference cautions against unilateral attempts to relax the application of the sanctions already imposed by the Security Council.

15. The Conference urges the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund, as well as similar institutions, to refrain from extending any credits to the racist régime of South Africa.

⁷ Official Records of the General Assembly, Thirty-fifth Session, Supplement No. 24, vol. I, annex II.

B. Education, teaching and training

16. The Conference calls upon all States to use effectively education, teaching and training to create a favourable atmosphere for the eradication of racism and racial discrimination. These media should serve as channels for exposing the myths and fallacies of theories, philosophies, ideas and attitudes that are inherent in discriminatory actions based on differences of race, colour, descent and national or ethnic origin. It is imperative for all States to apply strictly the principle of non-discrimination and equality in the matter of education as set forth in the Convention against Discrimination in Education, adopted by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.⁷ The Conference invites States:

(a) To examine history, geography and social studies textbooks with a view to correcting any erroneous assessment of historical and social data, or their unbalanced presentation, which would give rise to racial prejudice;

(b) To ensure that teachers are made conscious of the degree to which they may reflect the prejudices of their society and are instructed to avoid such prejudices;

(c) To provide adequate opportunities in schools and institutions of higher learning for the study of the activities of the United Nations in combating racism, racial discrimination and apartheid;

(d) To provide pupils and students at all levels with access to literature and documentation on racism, racial discrimination and apartheid;

(e) To ensure that the composition of the teaching staff of institutions reflects, as far as possible, the racial and ethnic composition of the community; affirmative action programmes should be instituted to facilitate the hiring of teachers who represent the racial, ethnic and linguistic composition of the community;

(f) To make available the resources of schools and of teaching and training facilities to persons belonging to all population groups;

(g) To take remedial measures in instances where particular racial, ethnic, linguistic or other groups have had a history of being placed at a disadvantage because of their origin and where such a situation has contributed to a lower level of education and a lower standard of living for persons belonging to various population groups; this is the responsibility of society; it might necessitate special educational programmes at all levels of society;

(h) To make law enforcement agents aware in their training of the possibility that they may reflect the prejudices of their society;

(i) To ensure that school curricula promote a dialogue between persons belonging to the various groups of the society; the curricula should be responsive to the needs and backgrounds of all these persons and foster, where possible, an interchange of cultural experience; in this regard, persons belonging to minority ethnic and racial groups should be allowed to introduce students to the practices and values of the respective cultures; efforts should also be made to allow the topic of human rights to permeate the curricula.

17. National institutions should inform the general public of the nature of their human rights as provided for in the existing international instruments directed towards combating racism, racial discrimination and apartheid, as well as in other instruments based on the principles contained in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights or as otherwise covered in national legislation. The general public should be advised by the national institutions on the means of enforcing their rights in accordance with national law. National institutions should ensure that persons are made aware of their own rights and those of others and should assist them in the matter of protecting and enforcing their rights. These institutions should mobilize public opinion in their countries against violations of human rights, especially gross and massive violations, in particular against the practice of apartheid, racism and genocide.

18. One of the fundamental objectives of programmes of education and scientific research undertaken in national institutions should be the elimination of racial discrimination and prejudice.

19. It is imperative that all States apply strictly the principle of non-discrimination and equality in the matter of education and adhere to the principles set forth in the Convention against Discrimination in Education.⁸ It is important that the right to enter any school should be guaranteed to every child. The availability of special or supplementary education for children belonging to disadvantaged racial and ethnic groups may be appropriate in some cases for their development.

20. International agencies such as the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization should continue their work in the field of human rights education and promote such programmes on a continuing basis as guidelines for textbook analysis, teacher training, curriculum development and other undertakings and, in particular, should develop materials explaining how discrimination inherent in the system and institutionalized can be addressed through remedial programmes such as affirmative action plans.

21. As was recommended by the International Conference on Apartheid and Health, held at Brazzaville from 16 to 20 November 1981,⁸ the World Health Organization should continue to implement the Plan of Action in favour of the victims of apartheid, in particular in the fields of health, education and training.

C. Dissemination of information and the role of the mass media in combating racism and racial discrimination

22. The mass media should play a vital role in disseminating information on methods and techniques used in combating racism, racial discrimination and apartheid. Taking into account the Declaration on fundamental principles concerning the contribution of the mass media to strengthening peace and international understanding, to the promotion of human rights and to countering racialism, apartheid and incitement to war, adopted by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization on 28 November 1978,⁹ the mass media should regard it as their task, by disseminating information on the aims, aspirations, cultures and needs of all peoples, to contribute to eliminating ignorance and misunderstanding between peoples, to making nationals of a country sensitive to the needs and desires of others, to ensuring respect for the rights and dignity of all nations, all peoples and all individuals without distinction as to race, sex, language, religion or nationality and in that way to contribute to protecting them against the influence of any propaganda supporting racism and racist régimes.

23. The mass media should contribute to making the peoples more aware of the close link between the struggle against apartheid and all forms of racism and racial discrimination and the struggle for international peace and security, in conformity with the provisions of the above-mentioned Declaration.

24. Lack of self-expression through the mass media for persons belonging to racial and ethnic minorities in society can often cause the mass media to become one-sided or distorted. Media of all kinds—radio, television, films, the press, advertising, booklets and public meetings—as well as traditional forms such as drama and story-telling could play a vital role.

25. Events and activities aimed at combating racism and racial discrimination should be given broad coverage by the media. Mention may be made of such activities as the coverage of conferences, seminars, workshops and round-tables, as well as of meetings of United Nations organs dealing with a particular question, and the publication and wide distribution of pertinent resolutions and decisions of such bodies. Success stories in combating racial discrimination through legislation, executive action or community action programmes should be given publicity, and the negative and evil side of racism and racial discrimination highlighted. Comic strips, films and magazines for children and adults should be screened with a view to eliminating any form of racial stereotyping, whether favourable or unfavourable. Events having a racial aspect should be presented in their economic and social, cultural and political context; they should not be treated as mere news items.

26. The negative and positive influences exercised by the media in their role as information-conveyors, entertainers, educators and advertisers should be studied. In addition, the media should seek to raise public consciousness about the positive roles and achievements of racial and ethnic groups from all walks of life throughout history. Efforts should be made to produce radio and television programmes depicting the evils of racial discrimination in a vivid way—for example, by illustrating the plight of individual victims of racial discrimination. Such audio and visual presentations are likely to have great impact, particularly in areas where literacy is not widespread.

27. There should be adequate opportunity within the mass media for persons belonging to groups which are victims of discrimination to express their own points of view, particularly by producing programmes or reports themselves. In addition, persons belonging to such groups should have equal access to the professions within the mass media, especially journalism.

28. National institutions should publicize widely basic texts on the elimination of racism, racial discrimination and apartheid, as well as other human rights texts.

D. Measures for the promotion and protection of the human rights of persons belonging to minority groups, indigenous populations and peoples and migrant workers who are subjected to racial discrimination

29. Throughout the various regions of the world there is a diversity of peoples, cultures, traditions and religions that encompasses, in many instances, various minority groups. There is a need for constant effort and continued vigilance on the part of all Governments to obviate any form of discrimination based on race, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin, in accordance with article 1 of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination.²

30. National and local institutions, as adapted to the needs and conditions of each country, can play an important role in the promotion and protection of human rights, in the prevention of discrimination and the protection of the rights of persons belonging to national and ethnic minorities, of indigenous populations and of refugees. Such national and local institutions could be of varying types, including judicial, administrative, conciliatory, social and educational. Any or all of these types of institutions could be utilized by individual countries according to their own circumstances and needs.

31. In the area of legislation, Governments should abolish and prohibit any discrimination within their jurisdiction. Such legislation should seek to promote and protect the human rights of persons belonging to minority groups, in accordance with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,¹ the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights,¹⁰ the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination² and other relevant international instruments. Persons belonging to minorities should enjoy all human rights and fundamental freedoms without any discrimination as to national or ethnic origin, language, religion or sex.

32. Governments should create favourable conditions and take measures that will enable persons belonging to national or ethnic minorities within their jurisdiction to express their characteristics freely and to develop their education, culture, language, traditions and customs and to participate on a non-discriminatory and equitable basis in the cultural, social, economic and political life of the country in which they live. In maintaining their culture and traditions such persons should be in a position to develop the necessary contacts inside and outside their country with due respect for the sovereignty, territorial integrity and political independence of the States concerned and for the principle of non-interference by one State in the internal affairs of another State.

33. States should undertake to combat the causes of inter-group antagonism by adopting concrete measures designed to promote understanding, co-operation and harmonious relations among members of population groups. Where tension and friction exist, their elimination cannot be achieved if the realities of political, economic, cultural, religious and linguistic differences between the various components of the society concerned are not taken into account.

34. With respect to indigenous populations, Governments should recognize and respect the basic rights of such populations:

(a) To call themselves by their proper name and to express freely their own identity;

(b) To have official status and to form their own representative organizations;

(c) To maintain within the areas where they live their traditional economic structure and way of life; this should in no way affect their right to participate freely on an equal basis in the economic, social and political development of the country;

(d) To maintain and use their own language, wherever possible, for administration and education;

(e) To enjoy freedom of religion or belief;

(f) To have access to land and natural resources, particularly in the light of the fundamental importance of rights to land and natural resources to their traditions and aspirations;

(g) To structure, conduct and control their own educational systems.

35. Indigenous populations should be free to manage their own affairs to the fullest practicable extent, and should be consulted in all matters concerning their interests and welfare, wherever possible through formal consultative arrangements. Special measures should be taken to remedy past dispossession, dispersal and systematic discrimination.

36. Funds should be made available by the national authorities for investments, the uses of which are to be determined with the participation of the indigenous populations themselves, in the economic life of the areas concerned, as well as in all spheres of cultural activity.

37. Governments should allow indigenous populations within their territories to develop cultural and social links with related or similar populations, taking into account the important role of international organizations or associations of indigenous populations, and with due respect for the sovereignty, territorial integrity and political independence of the countries in which indigenous populations live.

38. The Conference further urges States to facilitate and support the establishment of representative non-governmental international organizations for indigenous populations, through which they can share experiences and promote common interests. The Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities should ensure that the urgent work being carried out by its Working Group on Indigenous Populations is continued so that the complex issues involved can be analysed and appropriate measures taken at the international and national levels.

39. In view of the vulnerability of indigenous populations to discrimination and violations of their human rights, and of the gravity of the threat faced by indigenous populations in some parts of the world, Governments should pay close attention to situations in which the rights of indigenous populations may be violated or denied, in order to prevent such violations, which should be widely publicized as soon as they are detected.

40. States receiving migrant workers should eliminate all discriminatory practices against such workers and their families by giving them treatment no less favourable than that accorded to their own nationals. Host countries should eliminate from their legislation any type of legal or other provisions which may discriminate against migrant workers on the basis of their nationality. This should pertain, inter alia, to vocational training, the type of posts that migrants may occupy, the type of contracts accorded to migrant workers, their right to seek employment in any part of the country, regulations governing working conditions, trade-union activity and access to judicial and administrative tribunals to air grievances concerning discrimination. With a view to combating xenophobia, host countries should develop information campaigns in order to disseminate the idea of equality between nationals and migrant workers.

41. The following measures could also be undertaken by Governments to protect the rights of migrant workers:

(a) The General Assembly should complete, as soon as possible, the elaboration of an international convention on the protection of the rights of all migrant workers and their families; the Conference considers that the conclusion of this convention by the United Nations would constitute an important contribution to its endeavours to protect fundamental human rights, because the convention would be added to the other instruments protecting these rights; the Conference recommends, pending the conclusions of the above-mentioned convention, that a joint consultative mechanism should be established in host countries with a view to contributing to good relations and mutual understanding;

(b) States should ratify, accede to and implement the international instruments aimed at protecting migrant workers from discrimination, including the relevant conventions of the International Labour Organisation;

(c) Migrant workers and members of their families should have the same rights as nationals of the State concerned as regards access to and treatment by the courts and tribunals;

(d) All migrant workers should enjoy treatment no less favourable than that accorded to nationals of the host State in respect of remuneration;

(e) Migrant workers should be ensured equal treatment with national workers in the field of social security, including the right to a retirement pension and similar social rights, while they have lawful residence in the host country;

(f) Host countries should be invited to co-operate with countries of origin to provide migrant workers and their families with the necessary facilities in the fields of education and information to safeguard their cultural identity;

(g) The children of migrant workers should be enabled to receive education in their mother tongue and on different aspects of their cultural heritage with a view to preserving their national identity;

(h) The State of origin and the State of employment should co-operate, as far as possible, with a view to helping to create new job opportunities for migrant workers returning to the State of origin.

E. Recourse procedures for victims of racial discrimination

42. The Conference invites States to take into account, within their domestic recourse procedures, the following considerations:

(a) Access to such procedures should be as broad as possible;

(b) Existing recourse procedures should be publicized within their respective jurisdictions, and victims of racial discrimination should be assisted in utilizing the procedures where appropriate;

(c) In each jurisdiction the rules relating to the initiation of complaints should be made simple and flexible and capable of being entertained in the language of the complainant;

(d) Complaints of racial discrimination should be dealt with as expeditiously as possible and there should be a reasonable time-limit with regard to the length of investigations;

(e) Indigent victims of racial discrimination should receive legal aid and assistance in prosecuting their complaint in civil or criminal proceedings, with the help of an interpreter when necessary.

43. Victims of racial discrimination should have the right to seek from tribunals just and adequate reparation or satisfaction for any damage suffered as a result of such discrimination.

F. Implementation of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination and other related international instruments

44. The Conference urges States which have not yet become parties to the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination² to do so as part of their contribution to the objectives of the Decade for Action to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination and until such States ratify the Convention they should utilize its provisions as guidelines in combating racial discrimination and in securing the realization of the principles of equality at both the national and international levels. The Conference calls upon States parties to the Convention to consider the possibility of making the Declaration provided for in article 14 of the Convention.

45. Those States should enact, as a matter of the highest priority, appropriate legislation and other suitable measures to prohibit and bring to an end racial discrimination, to abrogate, amend, rescind or nullify any policies or regulations that have the effect of creating or perpetuating racial hatred and to declare the dissemination of ideas based on racial superiority and hatred to be an offence punishable by law, taking duly into account the provisions of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination.

46. The Conference also appeals to States which have not yet done so to consider ratifying or acceding to as soon as possible, other relevant international instruments adopted under the aegis of the United Nations and of the specialized agencies, such as the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide,¹¹ the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights,¹⁰ the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights,¹⁰ the Convention on the Non-Applicability of Statutory Limitations to War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity,¹² the International Convention on the Suppression and Punishment of the Crime of *Apartheid*³ the Convention concerning Discrimination in Respect of Employment and Occupation adopted by the International Labour Organisation on 25 June 1958,¹³ the Convention against Discrimination in Education adopted by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization⁴ and the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women;⁴ States are urged to comply with the reporting requirements called for by the relevant conventions.

G. National legislation and institutions

47. The Conference suggests that States that have not already done so should consider the urgent enactment, as a matter of the highest priority, of appropriate legislation and other suitable measures to prohibit and bring to an end racial discrimination, to abrogate, amend, rescind or nullify any policies or regulations that have the effect of creating or perpetuating racial hatred and, with due regard to the principles embodied in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,¹ the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination,¹⁴ the Declaration on Fundamental Principles concerning the Contribution of the Mass Media to Strengthening Peace and International Understanding, to the Promotion of Human Rights and to Countering Racism, Apartheid and Incitement to War,⁹ the Declaration on Race and Racial Prejudice adopted by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization on 27 November 1978,¹⁵ and the rights set forth in the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination,² to declare the dissemination of ideas based on racial superiority and hatred to be an offence punishable by law.

¹¹ Resolution 260 A (III).

48. The Conference calls upon all States that have not yet done so to take effective legislative and other measures, including in the field of penal law, to prevent the recruitment, use, financing and training, transit and transport of mercenaries, in particular when they are aimed at assisting racist régimes, and to punish such mercenaries as common criminals. The Conference urges the Ad Hoc Committee on the Drafting of an International Convention against the Recruitment, Use, Financing and Training of Mercenaries, established by the General Assembly at its thirty-fifth session,¹⁶ to complete, as soon as possible, the draft international convention.

49. The Conference urges all States to adopt strict legislation to declare any dissemination of ideas based on racial superiority or hatred to be an offence punishable by law and to prohibit organizations based on racial prejudice and hatred, including neo-Nazi and Fascist organizations, and private clubs and institutions established on the basis of racial criteria or propagating ideas of racial discrimination and apartheid.

50. With regard to national legislation, the Conference recommends that:

(a) Governments should, where necessary, guarantee non-discrimination on grounds of race and equal rights for all individuals in their constitutions and legislation;

(b) Governments should, where necessary, undertake to review and update all national legislation and remove from it any discriminatory provisions;

(c) Legislation should be consistent with international standards embodied in relevant international instruments;

(d) Victims of discrimination should be informed and advised of their rights, by all possible means, and given assistance in securing those rights;

(e) Governments should, where necessary, establish appropriate and effective mechanisms, including conciliation and mediation procedures and national commissions, to ensure that such legislation is enforced effectively, and thereby to promote equality of opportunity and good race relations.

51. A system of regular review and appraisal should be continued to enable Member States, all organizations of the United Nations system, including relevant regional bodies, and non-governmental organizations, to assess the measures taken towards achieving the aims and objectives of the Decade.

52. Within the framework of their national legislation and policy, and according to their means, States should set up national institutions for the promotion and protection of human rights. Those institutions should study legal developments and review the laws and policies of the Government with a view to ensuring the elimination of all discriminatory laws, prejudices and practices based on race, sex, colour, descent and national and ethnic origin.

H. Seminars and studies

53. The Conference recommends that, in the context of future activities to combat racism and racial discrimination, consideration should be given to the organization of international and regional seminars on such subjects as:

¹⁴ Resolution 1904 (XVIII).

¹⁶ See resolution 35/48.

- (a) Political, historical, economic, social and cultural factors leading to racism, racial discrimination and apartheid;
- (b) International assistance and support to peoples and movements struggling against colonialism, racism, racial discrimination and apartheid;
- (c) Ways and means of denying support to racist régimes with a view to making them change their policies;
- (d) The historical and current dimensions of tribalism;
- (e) Main obstacles to the full eradication of racism, racial discrimination and apartheid;
- (f) The human rights of persons belonging to ethnic groups in countries of immigration;
- (g) Equality of treatment for persons belonging to ethnic and racial minorities and disadvantaged groups, such as indigenous populations;
- (h) Community relations commissions and their functions.

54. The Conference also recommends that studies should be continued regarding ways and means of ensuring implementation of United Nations resolutions on apartheid, racism and racial discrimination. In particular, the Conference strongly encourages the United Nations Institute for Training and Research to continue to research, study and conduct seminars on racism and racial discrimination.

I. Action by non-governmental organizations

55. By virtue of their independent status, non-governmental organizations, individually and collectively, have an important contribution to make to the achievement of the objectives of the Decade for Action to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination. Through various activities sponsored by them, non-governmental organizations can be effective in identifying and publicizing areas of racial discrimination which otherwise might not come to light, and in helping to create greater practical understanding among young people of the importance of actively combating all forms of discrimination, in their own countries as well as in the international community.

56. Non-governmental organizations have the opportunity to create and sustain awareness among their members and in society at large of the evils of racism and racial discrimination. Such awareness can be transmitted from a national to an international organization with all the added benefits of the concrete experience of a particular country. Governments should therefore ensure that, non-governmental organizations shall be enabled to function freely and openly within their societies and thus make an effective contribution to the elimination of racism and racial discrimination throughout the world.

J. International co-operation

57. In order to obtain the full promotion and protection of the human rights of individuals and peoples, it is necessary to intensify national, regional and international action aimed at combating and eliminating the causes of the policies and practices of racism, racial discrimination and apartheid.

58. The Conference underlines that the maintenance and strengthening of international co-operation and peace, the implementation of human rights and the combating of apartheid and racial discrimination are clearly linked. In order to improve mutual understanding among peoples, exchange visits should be increased and educational, cultural and scientific exchange programmes should be expanded. The free flow of information and ideas with respect to combating racism and racial discrimination should be ensured. The Conference calls on States to exchange information and ideas with respect to combating racism and racial discrimination.

59. The Conference calls upon the World Conference to Review and Appraise the Achievements of the United Nations Decade for Women, to be held in 1985, to contribute to the struggle against racism, racial discrimination and apartheid by recommending the adoption of measures aimed at ensuring the active participation of women in the struggle against those evils.

60. The Conference recommends that, in the context of International Youth Year, in 1985, the United Nations and the specialized agencies should undertake activities to encourage the effective contribution of youth to the struggle against racism, racial discrimination and apartheid.

61. The Conference calls upon all Governments and international organizations to make every effort to change the economic, political and social conditions on which policies and practices of racism, racial discrimination and apartheid are based and to give all their support to the victims of racism, racial discrimination and apartheid, and declares that the struggle against the remnants of colonialism and support of the liberation movements recognized by the regional organizations are worthy of particular attention.

62. Article 28 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights¹ establishes that everyone is entitled to a social and international order in which the rights and freedoms set forth in the Declaration can be fully realized. For this purpose, it is necessary to work for the establishment of a just and fair international order. The establishment of a new international economic order would be an important means of combating the causes which generate racism and racial discrimination.

63. National, regional and international action to combat and eliminate the causes of the policies and practices of racism, racial discrimination and apartheid should include measures aimed at improving the conditions of life of peoples and individuals in the economic, political, social and cultural spheres, in order that the great inequalities now existing in the fields of employment, nutrition, health, housing and education, among others, may disappear. International development co-operation has an important role to play in securing the resources required by the developing countries to realize these objectives.

64. The Conference urges Governments, with the co-operation of the relevant international organizations, to consider adopting measures to guarantee, through special conventions or other provisions, asylum and transit facilities to those who desert from the armed forces of the racist régime in southern Africa on grounds of conscience or who are forced to leave because of their opposition to apartheid.

65. The Conference proclaims that the elimination of all forms of racial discrimination is a matter of high priority to the United Nations and the international community. It proclaims that racism and racial discrimination in all their manifestations are crimes against the conscience and dignity of mankind and must be eradicated by effective and concerted international action. The Conference pays tribute to the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization for its activities during the Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination and recommends that, within the framework of its Second Medium-term Plan (1984-1989), that organization should continue:

- (a) Its work (studies and research) on the factors of influence in the maintenance, transmission and alteration of prejudices and on the causes and effects of the various forms of racism and racial and ethnic discrimination;

- (b) Its efforts to ensure that all groups which suffer from discrimination in the fields of education, science, culture and information shall enjoy equal opportunities with others and that the members of such groups shall have full representation and shall be able to exercise their rights in those fields;

- (c) Its programme on the appreciation of differing cultures and the promotion and recognition of the equality of cultures and peoples;

- (d) Its research and studies on apartheid, and the widest possible dissemination of the results of its work.

66. In spite of the efforts of the international community during the Decade, at the national, regional and international levels, racism, racial discrimination and apartheid continue unabated and have shown no sign of diminishing. With a view to reaffirming its unalterable determination to mobilize maximum international pressure to attain the objectives of the Decade, the Conference strongly recommends that the General Assembly declare a Second Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination at the end of the current Decade in December 1983.

Draft resolution I

UNIVERSAL REALIZATION OF THE RIGHT OF PEOPLES TO SELF-DETERMINATION

The General Assembly,

Welcoming the progressive exercise of the right to self-determination by peoples under colonial, foreign or alien occupation and their emergence into sovereign statehood and independence,

Deeply concerned at the continuation of acts or threats of foreign military intervention and occupation, which are threatening to suppress, or have already suppressed, the right to self-determination of an increasing number of sovereign peoples and nations,

Further expressing grave concern that, as a consequence of the persistence of such actions, millions of people have been and are being uprooted from their homes as refugees and displaced persons, and emphasizing the urgent need for concerted international action to alleviate their conditions,

Recalling the relevant resolutions regarding the violation of the right of peoples to self-determination and other human rights as a result of foreign military intervention, aggression and occupation, adopted by the Commission on Human Rights at its thirty-sixth,¹⁸ thirty-seventh,¹⁹ thirty-eighth²⁰ and thirty-ninth (see E/1983/13 and Corr.1, chap. XXVII, sect. A) sessions, dom fighters of South Africa and Security Council resolution 533 (1983) of 7 June 1983 concerning the sentencing to death by South Africa of the three patriots of the African National Congress of South Africa,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/447 and Add.1 and 2),

Reaffirming that the system of apartheid imposed on the South African people constitutes a violation of the fundamental rights of that people, a crime against humanity and a constant threat to international peace and security,

Gravely concerned at the continuation of the illegal occupation of Namibia by South Africa and the continued violations of the human rights of the people in the territory and of the other peoples still under colonial domination and alien subjugation,

Recognizing that the so-called proposals for constitutional reform are an integral part of the policy of “bantustanization”, which is incompatible with genuine independence, national unity and sovereignty and has the effect of perpetuating the power of the white minority and the racist system of apartheid in South Africa,

Deeply concerned at the continued terrorist acts of aggression committed by the Pretoria régime against independent African States in the region, in particular Angola, Botswana, Lesotho, Mozambique, Seychelles, Swaziland, Zambia and Zimbabwe,

Deeply indignant at the occupation of part of the territory of Angola by the troops of the racist régime of South Africa,

Recalling the Geneva Declaration on Palestine and the Programme of Action for the Achievement of Palestinian Rights, adopted by the International Conference on the Question of Palestine, held at Geneva from 29 August to 7 September 1983,²⁴

Considering that the denial of the inalienable rights of the Palestinian people to self-determination, sovereignty, independence and return to Palestine and the repeated acts of aggression by Israel against the people of the region constitute a serious threat to international peace and security,

Deeply shocked and alarmed at the deplorable consequences of the Israeli invasion of Lebanon and recalling all the relevant resolutions of the Security Council, in particular resolutions 508 (1982) of 5 June 1982, 509 (1982) of 6 June 1982, 520 (1982) of 17 September 1982 and 521 (1982) of 19 September 1982,

8. Requests the Secretary-General to distribute the above-mentioned list among all States parties to the Convention and all Member States and to bring such facts to the attention of the public by all means of mass communication;

11. Requests the Secretary-General to include in his next annual report under General Assembly resolution 3380 (XXX) of 10 November 1975 a special section concerning the implementation of the Convention.

Recalling also its resolution 34/151 of 17 December 1979, by which it decided to designate 1985 as International Youth Year: Participation, Development, Peace,

Report of the Third Committee on agenda item 90

[Original: English/French]
[10 November 1983]

1. At its 4th plenary meeting, on 23 September 1983, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include in the agenda of its thirty-eighth session, as item 90, the item entitled "World Programme of Action concerning Disabled Persons: report of the Secretary-General" and to allocate it to the Third Committee for consideration and report.

2. The Third Committee considered the item jointly with items 84, 85, 88 and 89 at its 18th to 20th, 22nd to 29th and 31st to 33rd meetings, from 21 October to 4 November 1983. An account of the Committee's discussion is contained in the relevant summary records (A/C.3/38/SR.18-20, 22-29 and 31-33).

3. For its consideration of the item, the Committee had before it the following documentation:

(a) Report of the Secretary-General on the World Programme of Action concerning Disabled Persons (A/38/506);

(b) Chapter V, section B, on social development, of the report of the Economic and Social Council for the year 1983 (see A/38/3 (part I)).

4. At the 18th meeting, on 21 October, the Under-Secretary-General for International Economic and Social Affairs and the Assistant Secretary-General for Social Development and Humanitarian Affairs made introductory statements.

5. At the 31st meeting, on 2 November, the representative of the Philippines introduced a draft resolution (A/C.3/38/L.18) entitled "World Programme of Action concerning Disabled Persons", sponsored by Algeria, Argentina, Bangladesh, Belgium, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Germany, Federal Republic of, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Morocco, Nepal, Nigeria, Pakistan, the Philippines, Romania, Uruguay and Yugoslavia, as well as Chile, Costa Rica, France, Madagascar, Malta, Oman, Peru, Qatar, the Sudan and the United States of America, later joined by Colombia, Iraq, Jordan, Malaysia, Mali, Senegal, the United Republic of Cameroon and Zaire. In introducing the draft resolution, the representative of the Philippines orally revised operative paragraph 2, which had read:

"2. Decides that the Trust Fund should continue its activities pending a report by the Secretary-General to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, which should include recommendations for the further implementation of the World Programme of Action concerning Disabled Persons, the funding of such activities by voluntary contributions, the possible terms of reference of a trust fund for the United Nations Decade of Disabled Persons and the implementation of the provisions contained in Assembly resolution 36/77 concerning the organization of support services for technical co-operation in favor of disabled persons;"

6. At its 32nd meeting, on 3 November, the Committee adopted the draft resolution, as orally revised, without a vote (see para. 7 below).

Recommendation of the Third Committee

7. The Third Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

WORLD PROGRAMME OF ACTION CONCERNING DISABLED PERSONS

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 32/133 of 16 December 1977 and 34/154 of 17 December 1979, in which it appealed to Member States to make generous voluntary contributions to the International Year of Disabled Persons,

Recalling also its resolution 36/77 of 8 December 1981, in which it welcomed the contributions made by Governments and private sources to the United Nations Trust Fund for the International Year of Disabled Persons and appealed for further voluntary contributions which would facilitate the follow-up to the Year,

Deeply concerned that no less than five hundred million persons are estimated to suffer from disability of one form or another, of whom four hundred million are estimated to be in developing countries,

Convinced that the International Year of Disabled Persons gave a genuine and meaningful impetus to activities related to the equalization of opportunities for disabled persons, as well as prevention and rehabilitation at all levels,

Noting the emergence of organizations of disabled persons in all parts of the world and their positive influence on the image and condition of persons with a disability,

Desirous of ensuring effective follow-up to the International Year of Disabled Persons and aware that, if this is to be achieved, Member States, organs, organizations and agencies of the United Nations system, non-governmental organizations and organizations of disabled persons must therefore be encouraged to continue the activities already undertaken and to initiate new programmes and activities,

Stressing that the primary responsibility for promoting effective measures for the prevention of disability, for rehabilitation and for the realization of the goals of "full participation" of disabled persons in social life and development and of "equality" rests with individual countries and that international action should be directed towards assisting and supporting national efforts in this regard, such as consultative services in designing national plans and programmes in the field of disability prevention, rehabilitation and the equalization of opportunities for persons with disabilities,

Reiterating its appreciation to the Advisory Committee for the International Year of Disabled Persons for its work, in particular for its contribution to the formulation of the World Programme of Action concerning Disabled Persons,¹⁰

Recalling its resolution 37/52 of 3 December 1982, by which it adopted the World Programme of Action concerning Disabled Persons,¹¹ which, in paragraph 157, states that the Trust Fund established by the General Assembly for the International Year of Disabled Persons should be used to meet requests for assistance from developing countries and organizations of disabled persons and to further the implementation of the World Programme of Action, and, in paragraph 158, indicates that, in general, there is a need to increase the flow of resources to developing countries to implement the objectives of the World Programme of Action, that, therefore, the Secretary-General should explore new ways and means of raising funds and take the necessary follow-up measures for mobilizing resources, and that voluntary contributions from Governments and from private sources should be encouraged,

Recalling further its resolution 37/53 of 3 December 1982, by which it proclaimed the period 1983-1992 United Nations Decade of Disabled Persons as a long-term plan of action, on the understanding that no additional resources from the United Nations system would be needed for this purpose, and encouraged Member States to utilize this period as one of the means to implement the World Programme of Action concerning Disabled Persons,

Concerned that developing countries are experiencing increasing difficulties in mobilizing adequate resources for meeting pressing needs in the field of disability prevention, rehabilitation and equalization of opportunities for the millions of persons with disabilities in the face of pressing demands from other high-priority sectors concerned with basic needs,

Convinced that the United Nations Decade of Disabled Persons should give a strong impetus to the implementation of the World Programme of Action and to a broader understanding of its importance,

Taking note of Economic and Social Council resolution 1983/19 of 26 May 1983, in which the Secretary-General was requested to monitor and support the implementation of the World Programme of Action concerning Disabled Persons by enlisting extra-budgetary resources,

Noting with great appreciation the many generous voluntary contributions and pledges already made by Governments, organizations and individuals,

Taking note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General on the results achieved so far by the United Nations Trust Fund for the International Year of Disabled Persons during the Year and its follow-up activities (A/38/506),

Recognizing that the Trust Fund is an important instrument for the implementation of the World Programme of Action,

1. Recognizes the desirability of the continuation of the United Nations Trust Fund for the International Year of Disabled Persons throughout the United Nations Decade of Disabled Persons for the benefit of disabled persons, particularly those in developing countries;

2. Decides that the Trust Fund should continue its activities pending a report by the Secretary-General to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, which should include recommendations for the further implementation of the World Programme of Action concerning Disabled Persons, the funding of such activities by voluntary contributions, the possible terms of reference of a trust fund for the United Nations Decade of Disabled Persons, the implementation of the provisions contained in Assembly resolution 36/77 concerning the organization of support services for technical co-operation in favour of disabled persons, as well as the organization of task forces mentioned in Assembly resolution 37/53;

3. Stresses the need for the administration of the Trust Fund to continue to be carried out as an integral part of the substantive responsibilities for disability matters discharged by the Secretariat;

4. Recommends that the resources of the Trust Fund should be geared, within the framework of the United Nations Decade of Disabled Persons, towards the implementation of the World Programme of Action and towards helping persons with disabilities to organize themselves, towards assisting in implementing support and consultative services for technical co-operation and inter-organizational task forces, as mentioned in resolutions 36/77 and 37/53, and towards strengthening the activities of the regional commissions in the field of disability prevention and the advancement of persons with disabilities;

¹⁰ A/37/351/Add.1 and Corr.1, annex.

¹¹ Ibid., sect. VIII, recommendation 1 (IV).

5. Requests the Secretary-General to take the necessary steps to strengthen the Trust Fund and, to this effect, to enlist extrabudgetary resources as indicated in paragraph 158 of the World Programme of Action;

6. Appeals to Governments and private sources for continuing generous voluntary contributions to the Trust Fund;

7. Calls upon all Member States, all non-governmental organizations concerned and organizations of disabled persons and also calls upon all organs, organizations and agencies of the United Nations system, through a reallocation of existing resources, to continue to ensure the early implementation of the World Programme of Action;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to include in his reports to the General Assembly on the implementation of the World Programme of Action a section on the activities of the Trust Fund.

ACTION TAKEN BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Draft resolution IV

PREVENTION OF PROSTITUTION

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming the objectives of the United Nations Decade for Women: Equality, Development and Peace,

Recommendation of the Third Committee

13. The Third Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of draft resolutions I to III below.

Draft resolution I

IMPLICATIONS OF SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENTS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 33/53 of 14 December 1978, in which it requested the Commission on Human Rights to urge the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities to undertake, as a matter of priority, a study of the question of the protection of those detained on the grounds of mental ill-health, with a view to formulating guidelines,

Recalling also its resolutions 35/130 B of 11 December 1980, 36/56 B of 25 November 1981 and 37/188 of 18 December 1982, in which it noted with satisfaction the progress made by the Sub-Commission and urged the Commission on Human Rights and the Sub-Commission to continue and expedite their consideration of this question, so that the Commission could submit its views and recommendations to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, through the Economic and Social Council,

Recalling further Economic and Social Council resolution 1983/37 of 27 May 1983 and Commission on Human Rights resolution 1983/44 of 9 March 1983 (see E/1983/13 and Corr.1, chap. XXVII, sect. A),

Noting that the Commission on Human Rights will not be in a position to submit a report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session through the Economic and Social Council, as requested in Assembly resolution 37/188, because it was impossible for the Sub-Commission to conclude at its thirty-sixth session its consideration of the draft body of guidelines, principles and guarantees (see E/CN.4/1984/3-E/CN.4/Sub.2/1983/43 and Corr.1 and 2, chap. XVII),

Reaffirming its conviction that detention of persons in mental institutions on account of their political views or on other non-medical grounds is a violation of their human rights,

Noting with satisfaction the progress made by the Sub-Commission in its consideration of the draft body of guidelines, principles and guarantees submitted to it,

Again urges the Commission on Human Rights and, through it, the Sub-Commission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities to expedite their consideration of the draft body of guidelines, principles and guarantees, so that the Commission can submit its views and recommendations, including a draft body of guidelines, principles and guarantees, to the General Assembly at its fortieth session, through the Economic and Social Council.

Draft resolution II

HUMAN RIGHTS AND SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENTS

The General Assembly,

Noting that scientific and technological progress is one of the important factors in the development of human society,

Noting once again the great importance of the Declaration on the Use of Scientific and Technological Progress in the Interests of Peace and for the Benefit of Mankind, adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution 3384 (XXX) of 10 November 1975,

Considering that implementation of the said Declaration will contribute to the strengthening of international peace and the security of peoples and to their economic and social development, as well as to international co-operation in the field of human rights,

Seriously concerned that the results of scientific and technological progress could be used for the arms race, to the detriment of international peace and security and social progress, human rights and fundamental freedoms and the dignity of the human person,

Recognizing that the establishment of the new international economic order calls in particular for an important contribution to be made by science and technology to economic and social progress,

Bearing in mind that the exchange and transfer of scientific and technological knowledge is one of the important ways to accelerate the social and economic development of the developing countries,

Taking note with satisfaction of the report of the Secretary-General on human rights and scientific and technological developments (A/38/195),

1. Stresses the importance of the implementation by all States of the provisions and principles contained in the Declaration on the Use of Scientific and Technological Progress in the Interests of Peace and for the Benefit of Mankind in order to promote human rights and fundamental freedoms;

2. Calls upon all States to make every effort to use the achievements of science and technology in order to promote peaceful social, economic and cultural development and progress;

3. Requests the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to take into account in their programmes and activities the provisions of the Declaration;

4. Invites those Member States, specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system that have not yet done so to submit their information pursuant to General Assembly resolution 35/130 A of 11 December 1980;

5. Requests the Commission on Human Rights to pay special attention, in its consideration of the item entitled "Human rights and scientific and technological developments", to the question of the implementation of the provisions of the Declaration, taking into consideration the information submitted by Member States, specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system, pursuant to General Assembly resolution 35/130 A;

6. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Human rights and scientific and technological developments".

Draft resolution III

HUMAN RIGHTS AND USE OF SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNOLOGICAL DEVELOPMENTS

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming the determination of the peoples of the United Nations to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, to reaffirm faith in the dignity and worth of the human person, to maintain international peace and security and to develop friendly relations among peoples and international co-operation in promoting and encouraging universal respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Recalling its resolutions 37/197 of 18 December 1982, entitled "International Conference on Assistance to Refugees in Africa", and 38/5 of 28 October 1983 on co-operation between the United Nations and the Organization of African Unity,

Bearing in mind resolution AHG/Res.114 (XIX) on the Second Conference, adopted by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity at its nineteenth ordinary session, held at Addis Ababa from 6 to 12 June 1983 (see A/38/312, annex),

Gravely concerned at the persistent and serious problem of large numbers of refugees on the African continent,

Aware of the economic and social burden borne by African countries of asylum on account of the presence of these refugees and its consequences for their national development and of the heavy sacrifices made by them, despite their limited resources,

Recognizing the universal collective responsibility of sharing the urgent and overwhelming burden of the problem of African refugees through effective mobilization of resources to meet the urgent and long-term needs of the refugees and to strengthen the capacity of countries of asylum to provide adequately for the refugees while they remain in those countries, as well as to assist the countries of origin in the rehabilitation of voluntary returnees,

Recognizing that the achievement of durable solutions to refugee problems, in particular voluntary repatriation and local integration, calls for generous humanitarian and developmental assistance to the affected countries, as well as for efforts to address the causes of refugee situations,

1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General on preparations for the Second International Conference on Assistance to Refugees in Africa;

2. Approves the proposed Conference arrangements contained in paragraph 17 of the report of the Secretary-General;

4. Appeals to the international community, all States, specialized agencies and regional intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to provide the utmost support for the Conference with a view to offering maximum financial and material assistance to refugees in Africa and to ensuring the success of the Conference;

5. Expresses its deep appreciation to the countries of asylum for the generous contribution and sacrifices that they are making to alleviate the plight of refugees;

6. Commends those countries that are supporting programmes for refugees and returnees for their continued assistance and calls upon them as well as other States and international organizations to assist and co-operate with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in the promotion of durable solutions;

7. Requests the Secretary-General, in close co-operation with the Organization of African Unity and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, to ensure that, in the period leading up to the Conference, all appropriate measures are taken so that Member States, in particular principal donors, are kept fully informed of the priority needs of the affected countries and that contacts are established in the capitals concerned to mobilize the necessary support and resources;

8. Notes with satisfaction the action taken by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to initiate public information programmes to increase public awareness of the refugee situation in Africa and the objectives of the Conference;

9. Requests the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat and other competent bodies of the United Nations system to co-operate closely with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to ensure that the maximum amount of publicity is given to the refugee situation in Africa as well as to the Conference and its objectives;

10. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the implementation of the present resolution.

Draft resolution II

REPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR REFUGEES

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees on the activities of his Office (A/38/12 and Corr.1), as well as the report of the Executive Committee of the Programme of the High Commissioner on its thirty-fourth session (A/38/12/Add.1), and having heard the statement made by the High Commissioner before the Third Committee on 14 November 1983 (see A/C.3/38/SR.42),

Recalling its resolution 37/195 of 18 December 1982,

Reaffirming the eminently humanitarian and non-political character of the activities of the Office of the High Commissioner,

Noting with deep concern that problems of refugees and displaced persons of concern to the High Commissioner remain acute in all parts of the world, notably in Africa, Asia and Latin America,

Stressing the fundamental importance of the High Commissioner's international protection function and the need for States to co-operate with the High Commissioner in the exercise of this essential function,

Expressing serious concern over the difficulties encountered by the High Commissioner in the exercise of his international protection function in the face of continued violations of the basic rights of persons of concern to his Office,

Deeply concerned that in various regions the safety and welfare of refugees and asylum-seekers have been seriously jeopardized on account of military or armed attacks, acts of piracy and other forms of brutality,

Acknowledging with appreciation the note of the Executive Committee on the strengthening of the management policy of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, submitted by the High Commissioner¹ and the High Commissioner's efforts to strengthen the management of his Office,

Noting that the Executive Committee has requested the High Commissioner to undertake a comprehensive study of the full financial and practical implications of the inclusion of Arabic, Chinese and Spanish among the official and working languages of the Executive Committee,

Noting with deep appreciation the valuable support extended by many Governments to the High Commissioner in carrying out his duties,

Welcoming the increasing number of accessions by States to the 1951 Convention² and the 1967 Protocol³ relating to the Status of Refugees,

Emphasizing that voluntary repatriation is the most desirable durable solution to problems of refugees and displaced persons of concern to the High Commissioner,

1. Commends the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and his staff for the valuable work they perform on behalf of refugees, returnees and displaced persons of concern to the Office of the High Commissioner;

2. Reaffirms the fundamental nature of the High Commissioner's function to provide international protection and the need for Governments to co-operate fully with him to facilitate the effective exercise of this essential function, in particular by acceding to and fully implementing the relevant international and regional instruments and by scrupulously observing the principles of asylum and non-refoulement;

3. Deplores all violations of the rights and safety of refugees and asylum-seekers, in particular through military or armed attacks against refugee camps and settlements, other forms of brutality and failure to rescue asylum-seekers in distress at sea;

4. Urges States, in co-operation with the Office of the High Commissioner and other competent international bodies, to take all measures necessary to ensure the safety of refugees and asylum-seekers;

5. Reaffirms the principle of international solidarity and burden-sharing in responding to the refugee problem, particularly in view of the heavy burden borne by receiving countries on account of the presence of large numbers of refugees and asylum-seekers;

6. Expresses its deep appreciation for the valuable material and humanitarian response of receiving countries, in particular of many developing countries which give asylum to or accept on a temporary basis large numbers of refugees;

7. Commends all States which facilitate the attainment of durable solutions, accept refugees for resettlement and contribute generously to the High Commissioner's programmes;

8. Urges all States to support the High Commissioner in his efforts to find durable solutions to refugee problems, primarily through voluntary repatriation, including assistance to returnees as appropriate, or, wherever appropriate, through integration in countries of asylum or resettlement in third countries;

9. Notes with appreciation the continuing support given to the High Commissioner by agencies of the United Nations system, as well as intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, in carrying out his humanitarian task and requests the High Commissioner to continue to co-ordinate his efforts with those agencies and organizations;

INTERNATIONAL CAMPAIGN AGAINST TRAFFIC IN DRUGS

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 36/132 of 14 December 1981, 36/168 of 16 December 1981, 37/168 of 17 December 1982, 37/198 of 18 December 1982 and 38/98 of 16 December 1983,

Recalling also Economic and Social Council resolutions 1982/8 and 1982/9 of 30 April 1982,

Reaffirming the need to improve and maintain regional and interregional co-operation and co-ordination, particularly in the field of law enforcement to counter drug trafficking and drug abuse,

Noting the growing interest in the development of regional and interregional co-ordination, as indicated by the holding of three meetings in the Bahamas, Greece and India during 1983,

Conscious that while many countries, both developed and developing, continue to divert substantial human, financial and other resources to combat the illicit traffic, the developing countries encounter particular hardships in so doing,

Acknowledging that the illicit production of, demand for and traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances constitute a serious threat to the development and security of many countries, especially developing countries,

Recognizing, in particular, the dilemma of transit States, which have no control over the production of and demand for illicit narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances yet are seriously affected, both at the domestic and the international levels, by the movement of illicit drugs,

Noting that the international drug control treaties include provisions for the development of effective countermeasures to combat the illicit supply of, demand for and traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances,

Considering the important role of the United Nations Fund for Drug Abuse Control in supporting various drug control programmes in developing countries, and the necessity of increasing contributions to the Fund to permit it to continue its most valuable work,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/478),

1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary General;

2. Calls upon Member States that have not yet done so to ratify the international drug control treaties and, until such time, to endeavour to abide by the provisions thereof;

3. Encourages Member States to contribute, or to continue to contribute, to the United Nations Fund for Drug Abuse Control to enable it to expand its support for programmes in the field of drug abuse control;

4. Urges organizations and programmes within the United Nations system, as well as Member States with available resources and expertise, to continue to grant technical and other forms of assistance, especially in the area of training of law enforcement professionals, to countries most affected by the illicit production of and traffic in drugs and drug abuse and, in this regard, to give appropriate priority to providing the resources and assistance needed to ensure rapid, secure and accurate means of communication and exchange of information;

5. Expresses its appreciation to the Governments of the Bahamas, Greece and India for acting as hosts to regional and interregional meetings during 1983;

6. Requests the Secretary-General, through the Commission on Narcotic Drugs, to explore all avenues leading to a further improvement of regional and interregional co-ordination of activities against drug trafficking and drug abuse, in particular:

(a) To continue to pursue efforts and initiatives with a view to establishing, on a continuing basis, co-ordination mechanisms for drug law enforcement in regions where these do not yet exist;

(b) To give appropriate priority to measures designed to alleviate the special problems of transit States through co-operative regional and interregional efforts and, in this regard, to bring the present resolution to the attention of all regional and interregional meetings concerned with drug trafficking and drug abuse;

(c) To make every effort to convene, within the resources that may be made available to him, the interregional meeting of heads of national drug law enforcement agencies proposed in paragraph 5 (c) of General Assembly resolution 37/198;

7. Also requests the Secretary-General to prepare a report, for review by the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session, on the progress achieved in the implementation of the present resolution;

8. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "International campaign against traffic in drugs".

The General Assembly,

Recommendations of the Fourth Committee

9. The Fourth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

ACTIVITIES OF FOREIGN ECONOMIC AND OTHER INTERESTS WHICH ARE IMPEDING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DECLARATION ON THE GRANTING OF INDEPENDENCE TO COLONIAL COUNTRIES AND PEOPLES IN NAMIBIA AND IN ALL OTHER TERRITORIES UNDER COLONIAL DOMINATION AND EFFORTS TO ELIMINATE COLONIALISM, apartheid AND RACIAL DISCRIMINATION IN SOUTHERN AFRICA

The General Assembly,

Having considered the item entitled "Activities of foreign economic and other interests which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples in Namibia and in all other Territories under colonial domination and efforts to eliminate colonialism, apartheid and racial discrimination in southern Africa",

Having examined the chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples relating to this question (A/38/23 (Part III), chap. V),

Taking into consideration the relevant chapter of the report of the United Nations Council for Namibia (A/38/24 (Part I), part two, chap. IV),

Having considered the report of the United Nations Centre on Transnational Corporations (A/38/444, annex), relating to the preparation of a register indicating the profits that transnational corporations derive from their activities in colonial Territories, submitted in pursuance of General Assembly resolution 37/31 of 23 November 1982,

Recalling its resolutions 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, containing the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, 2621 (XXV) of 12 October 1970, containing the programme of action for the full implementation of the Declaration, and 35/118 of 11 December 1980, the annex to which contains the Plan of Action for the Full Implementation of the Declaration, as well as all other resolutions of the United Nations relating to the item,

Reaffirming the solemn obligation of the administering Powers under the Charter of the United Nations to promote the political, economic, social and educational advancement of the inhabitants of the Territories under their administration and to protect the human and natural resources of those Territories against abuses,

Taking into account the relevant provisions of the Paris Declaration on Namibia and the Programme of Action on Namibia (see A/CONF.120/13, paras. 165-195 and 220-242), adopted at the International Conference in Support of the Struggle of the Namibian People for Independence, held in Paris from 25 to 29 April 1983,

Reaffirming that any economic or other activity which impedes the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples and obstructs efforts aimed at the elimination of colonialism, apartheid and racial discrimination in southern Africa and other colonial Territories is in direct violation of the rights of the inhabitants and of the principles of the Charter and all relevant resolutions of the United Nations,

Reaffirming that the natural resources of all Territories under colonial and racist domination are the heritage of the peoples of those Territories and that the exploitation and depletion of those resources by foreign economic interests, in particular in Namibia, in association with the occupying régime of South Africa, constitute a direct violation of the rights of the peoples and of the principles of the Charter and all relevant resolutions of the United Nations,

Bearing in mind the relevant provisions of the Economic Declaration and other documents of the Seventh Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries, held at New Delhi from 7 to 12 March 1983 (see A/38/132-S/15675 and Corr.1 and 2, annex),

Taking into account the relevant provisions of the Arusha Declaration and Programme of Action on Namibia,⁵ adopted by the United Nations Council for Namibia on 13 May 1982 at its extraordinary plenary meeting held at Arusha, United Republic of Tanzania,

Noting with profound concern that the colonial Powers and certain States, through their activities in the colonial Territories, have continued to disregard United Nations decisions relating to the item and that they have failed to implement in particular the relevant provisions of General Assembly resolutions 2621 (XXV) and 37/31, by which the Assembly called upon all Governments that had not yet done so to take legislative, administrative or other measures in respect of their nationals and the bodies corporate under their jurisdiction that own and operate enterprises in colonial Territories, particularly in Africa, which are detrimental to the interests of the inhabitants of those Territories, in order to put an end to such enterprises and to prevent new investments that run counter to the interests of the inhabitants of those Territories,

Condemning the intensified activities of those foreign economic, financial and other interests which continue to exploit the natural and human resources of the colonial Territories and to accumulate and repatriate huge profits to the detriment of the interests of the inhabitants, particularly in the case of Namibia, thereby impeding the realization by the peoples of the Territories of their legitimate aspirations for self-determination and independence,

Strongly condemning the support which the racist minority régime of South Africa continues to receive from those foreign economic, financial and other interests which are collaborating with it in the exploitation of the natural and human resources of the international Territory of Namibia, in the further entrenchment of its illegal racist domination over the Territory and in the strengthening of its system of apartheid,

⁵ Official Records of the General Assembly, Thirty-seventh Session, Supplement No. 24, para. 767.

Strongly condemning the investment of foreign capital in the production of uranium and the collaboration of certain Western States and other States with the racist minority régime of South Africa in the nuclear field which, by providing that régime with nuclear equipment and technology, enable it to develop nuclear and military capabilities and to become a nuclear Power, thereby promoting South Africa's continued illegal occupation of Namibia,

Reaffirming that the resources of Namibia are the inalienable heritage of the Namibian people and that the exploitation of those resources by foreign economic interests under the protection of the illegal colonial administration, in violation of the Charter, of the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly and the Security Council and of Decree No. 1 for the Protection of the Natural Resources of Namibia,⁶ enacted by the United Nations Council for Namibia on 27 September 1974, and in disregard of the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice of 21 June 1971,⁷ is illegal and contributes to the maintenance of the illegal occupation régime,

Concerned about the conditions in other colonial Territories, including certain Territories in the Caribbean and the Pacific regions, where foreign economic, financial and other interests continue to deprive the indigenous populations of their rights over the wealth of their countries, and where the inhabitants of those Territories continue to suffer from a loss of land ownership as a result of the failure of the administering Powers concerned to restrict the sale of land to foreigners, despite the repeated appeals of the General Assembly,

Conscious of the continuing need to mobilize world public opinion against the involvement of foreign economic, financial and other interests in the exploitation of natural and human resources, which impedes the independence of colonial Territories and the elimination of racism, particularly in southern Africa,

1. Reaffirms the inalienable right of the peoples of dependent Territories to self-determination and independence and to the enjoyment of the natural resources of their Territories, as well as their right to dispose of those resources in their best interests;

2. Reiterates that any administering or occupying Power that deprives the colonial peoples of the exercise of their legitimate rights over their natural resources or subordinates the rights and interests of those peoples to foreign economic and financial interests violates the solemn obligations it has assumed under the Charter of the United Nations;

3. Reaffirms that, by their depletive exploitation of natural resources, the continued accumulation and repatriation of huge profits and the use of those profits for the enrichment of foreign settlers and the entrenchment of colonial domination and racial discrimination in the Territories, the activities of foreign economic, financial and other interests operating at present in the colonial Territories, particularly in southern Africa, constitute a major obstacle to political independence and racial equality as well as to the enjoyment of the natural resources of those Territories by the indigenous inhabitants;

4. Condemns the activities of foreign economic and other interests in the colonial Territories impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV), and the efforts to eliminate colonialism, apartheid and racial discrimination;

5. Condemns the policies of Governments that continue to support or collaborate with those foreign economic and other interests engaged in exploiting the natural and human resources of the Territories, including in particular illegally exploiting Namibia's marine resources, violating the political, economic and social rights and interests of the indigenous peoples and thus obstructing the full and speedy implementation of the Declaration in respect of those Territories;

6. Strongly condemns the collusion of the Governments of certain Western States and other States with the racist minority régime of South Africa in the nuclear field and calls upon those and all other Governments to refrain from supplying that régime, directly or indirectly, with installations that might enable it to produce uranium, plutonium and other nuclear materials, reactors or military equipment;

7. Requests the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples to continue to monitor closely the situation in other Non-Self-Governing Territories so as to ensure that all economic activities in those Territories are aimed at strengthening and diversifying their economies in the interests of the indigenous peoples and their speedy accession to independence and that those peoples are not exploited for political, military and other purposes detrimental to their interests;

8. Strongly condemns those Western States and all other States, as well as the transnational corporations, which continue their investments in, and supply of armaments and oil and nuclear technology to, the racist régime of South Africa, thus buttressing it and aggravating the threat to world peace;

9. Calls upon all States, in particular certain Western States, to take urgent, effective measures to terminate all collaboration with South Africa in the political, diplomatic, economic, trade, military and nuclear fields and to refrain from entering into other relations with the racist régime of South Africa in violation of the relevant resolutions of the United Nations and of the Organization of African Unity;

10. Calls once again upon all Governments that have not yet done so to take legislative, administrative or other measures in respect of their nationals and the bodies corporate under their jurisdiction that own and operate enterprises in colonial Territories, particularly in Africa, which are detrimental to the interests of the inhabitants of those Territories, in order to put an end to such enterprises and to prevent new investments that run counter to the interests of the inhabitants of those Territories;

11. Calls upon all States to terminate, or cause to have terminated, any investments in Namibia or loans to the racist minority régime of South Africa and to refrain from any agreements or measures to promote trade or other economic relations with that régime;

12. Requests all States that have not yet done so to take effective measures to end the supply of funds and other forms of assistance, including military supplies and equipment, to the racist minority régime of South Africa, which uses such assistance to repress the people of Namibia and their national liberation movement;

13. Strongly condemns South Africa for its continued exploitation and plundering of the natural resources of Namibia, in complete disregard of the legitimate interests of the Namibian people, for the creation in the Territory of an economic structure dependent essentially upon its mineral resources and for its illegal extension of the territorial sea and its proclamation of an economic zone off the coast of Namibia;

14. Calls upon those oil-producing and oil-exporting countries that have not yet done so to take effective measures against the oil companies concerned so as to terminate the supply of crude oil and petroleum products to the racist régime of South Africa;

15. Reiterates that the exploitation and plundering of the natural resources of Namibia by South African and other foreign economic interests, including the activities of those transnational corporations which are engaged in the exploitation and export of the Territory's uranium ores and other resources, in violation of the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly and the Security Council and of Decree No. 1 for the Protection of the Natural Resources of Namibia, are illegal and contribute to the maintenance of the illegal occupation régime;

16. Calls upon the Governments of all States, particularly those whose corporations are involved in the mining and processing of Namibian uranium, to take all appropriate measures in compliance with the provisions of Decree No. 1 for the Protection of the Natural Resources of Namibia, including the practice of requiring negative certificates of origin, to prohibit and prevent State-owned and other corporations, together with their subsidiaries, from dealing in Namibia uranium and from engaging in uranium prospecting activities in Namibia;

17. Requests all States to take legislative, administrative and other measures, as appropriate, in order effectively to isolate South Africa politically, economically, militarily and culturally, in accordance with General Assembly resolutions ES-8/2 of 14 September 1981, 36/121 B of 10 December 1981 and 37/233 A of 20 December 1982;

18. Calls once again upon all States to discontinue all economic, financial and trade relations with the racist minority régime of South Africa concerning Namibia and to refrain from entering into any relations with South Africa, purporting to act on behalf of or concerning Namibia, which may lend support to its continued illegal occupation of that Territory;

19. Invites all Governments and organizations of the United Nations system, having regard to the relevant provisions of the Declaration on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, contained in General Assembly resolution 3201 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, and of the Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States, contained in Assembly resolution 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, to ensure, in particular, that the permanent sovereignty of the colonial Territories over their natural resources is fully respected and safeguarded;

20. Calls upon the administering Powers to abolish all discriminatory and unjust wage systems and working conditions prevailing in the Territories under their administration and to apply in each Territory a uniform system of wages to all the inhabitants without any discrimination;

21. Requests the Secretary-General to continue, through the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat, a sustained and broad campaign with a view to informing world public opinion of the facts concerning the pillaging of natural resources in colonial Territories and the exploitation of their indigenous populations by foreign monopolies and, in respect of Namibia, the support they render to the racist minority régime of South Africa;

22. Appeals to all non-governmental organizations to continue their campaign to mobilize international public opinion for the enforcement of economic and other sanctions against the Pretoria régime;

23. Takes note of the register prepared by the United Nations Centre on Transnational Corporations and requests the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples to take due account of the register in connection with its consideration of the related items;

24. Requests the Special Committee to continue to examine this question and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

10. The Fourth Committee also recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft decision:

MILITARY ACTIVITIES AND ARRANGEMENTS BY COLONIAL POWERS IN TERRITORIES UNDER THEIR ADMINISTRATION WHICH MIGHT BE IMPEDING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DECLARATION ON THE GRANTING OF INDEPENDENCE TO COLONIAL COUNTRIES AND PEOPLES

1. The General Assembly, having considered the chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples relating to an item on the Special Committee's agenda entitled "Military activities and arrangements by colonial Powers in Territories under their administration which might be impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples" (A/38/23 (Part III), chap. IV), and recalling its decision 37/420 of 23 November 1982 on this subject, deplors the fact that the colonial Powers concerned have taken no steps to implement the requests repeatedly addressed to them by the Assembly, most recently in paragraph 10 of its resolution 37/35 of 23 November 1982, to withdraw immediately and unconditionally their military bases and installations from colonial Territories and to refrain from establishing new ones.

2. The General Assembly, in reaffirming the inalienable right of the peoples of all colonial and dependent Territories to self-determination and independence in accordance with the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in its resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, reiterates its conviction that military activities and arrangements in the Territories concerned constitute, in a great number of instances, a serious impediment to the full and speedy implementation of the Declaration with respect to those Territories.

3. The General Assembly deplors the fact that South Africa and the colonial Powers continue to engage in activities and dispositions of a military character and to establish and maintain bases and other military installations in Namibia and other colonial Territories in violation of the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and of Assembly resolution 1514 (XV).

4. The General Assembly condemns all military activities and arrangements in colonial Territories which deny the peoples concerned their right to self-determination and independence.

5. The General Assembly notes that, in southern Africa in general and in and around Namibia in particular, an extremely serious situation continues to prevail as a result of South Africa's continued illegal occupation of the Territory. The illegal occupying régime has resorted to desperate measures in order to suppress by force the legitimate aspirations of the people and to maintain its control over the Territory. In its escalating war against the people of Namibia and their national liberation movement, the South West Africa People's Organization, struggling for freedom and independence, the régime has repeatedly committed acts of armed aggression against the neighbouring independent African countries, particularly Angola and Zambia, which have caused extensive loss of human life and destruction of the economic infrastructure.

6. The General Assembly, noting that in Namibia the South African Government has continued to expand its network of military bases and carried out a massive buildup of its military forces, condemns the continuing co-operation of certain Western States and other States with South Africa in supplying it with arms and military equipment as well as technology, including technology and equipment in the nuclear field capable of being utilized for military purposes. The Assembly condemns South Africa for its massive military buildup in Namibia, its introduction of compulsory military service for Namibians, its recruitment and training of Namibians for tribal armies and its recruitment of mercenaries and other foreign agents in order to carry out its policies of internal repression and its military attacks against independent African States. In this connection, the Assembly calls upon all States to co-operate in taking effective measures to prevent the recruitment, training and transit of mercenaries for service in Namibia. The Assembly is particularly mindful in that regard of the relevant resolutions of the Organization of African Unity, the Political Declaration adopted by the Seventh Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries, held at New Delhi from 7 to 12 March 1983 (see A/38/132-S/15675 and Corr.1 and 2, annex), and the Declaration adopted at the International Conference in Solidarity with the Front-line States, held at Lisbon from 25 to 27 March 1983.

7. The General Assembly, accordingly, demands the immediate cessation of the war of oppression waged by the racist minority régime against the people of Namibia and their national liberation movement, as well as the urgent dismantling of all military bases in the Territory. Reaffirming the legitimacy of the struggle of the people of Namibia to achieve their freedom and independence, the Assembly appeals to all States to render sustained and increased moral and political support, as well as financial, military and other material assistance, to the South West Africa People's Organization to enable it to intensify its struggle for the liberation of Namibia.

8. The General Assembly condemns the continued military collaboration and support which certain Western States and other States render to the Government of South Africa, and calls upon all States to cease such collaboration and support to that Government, particularly the sale of weapons and other matériel, which increases South Africa's capacity to wage wars against neighbouring African States. In particular, the Assembly calls upon all Governments to comply strictly with the provisions of Security Council resolution 418 (1977) of 4 November 1977, by which the Council, acting under Chapter VII of the Charter, decided to apply specific sanctions against South Africa. In this connection, the Assembly draws particular attention to the relevant provisions of its resolution 37/233 of 20 December 1982, the Paris Declaration on Namibia and the Programme of Action on Namibia (see A/CONF.120/13, paras. 165-195 and 220-242), adopted at the International Conference in Support of the Struggle of the Namibian People for Independence, held in Paris from 25 to 29 April 1983, and the Declaration adopted at the International Conference in Solidarity with the Front-line States.

9. The General Assembly considers that the acquisition of nuclear weapons capability by the racist régime of South Africa, with its record of violence and aggression, constitutes a further effort on its part to terrorize and intimidate independent States in the region into submission while also posing a danger to all mankind. The continuing assistance rendered to the South African régime by certain Western countries and other States in the military and nuclear fields belies their stated opposition to the racist practice of the South African régime and makes them willing partners of its hegemonistic and criminal policies. The Assembly accordingly condemns the continued nuclear co-operation by certain Western States and other States with South Africa. It calls upon the States concerned to end all such co-operation and, in particular, to halt the supply to South Africa of equipment, technology, nuclear materials and related training, which increases its nuclear capability.

10. The General Assembly, noting that the militarization of Namibia has led to the forced conscription of Namibians, to a greatly intensified flow of refugees and to a tragic disorganization of the family life of the Namibian people, strongly condemns the forcible and wholesale displacement of Namibians from their homes for military and political purposes and the introduction of compulsory military service for Namibians and declares that all measures by the illegal occupation régime to enforce military conscription in Namibia are null and void. In this connection, the Assembly urges all Governments, the specialized agencies and other intergovernmental organizations to provide increased material assistance to the thousands of refugees who have been forced by the apartheid régime's oppressive policies in Namibia and South Africa to flee into the neighbouring front-line States.

11. The General Assembly recalls its resolution ES-8/2 of 14 September 1981, by which it strongly urged

States to cease forthwith, individually and collectively, all dealings with South Africa in order totally to isolate it politically, economically, militarily and culturally.

12. The General Assembly strongly deprecates the establishment and maintenance by colonial Powers and their allies of military bases and other installations in the colonial Territories under their administration which impede the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples and which are incompatible with the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and of Assembly resolution 1514 (XV).

13. The General Assembly reiterates its condemnation of all military activities and arrangements by colonial Powers in Territories under their administration which are detrimental to the interests and rights of the colonial peoples concerned, especially their right to self-determination and independence. The Assembly once again calls upon the colonial Powers concerned to terminate such activities and eliminate such military bases in compliance with its relevant resolutions and in particular with paragraph 9 of the annex to its resolution 35/118 of 11 December 1980, containing the Plan of Action for the Full Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples.

14. The General Assembly deprecates the continued alienation of land in colonial Territories for military installations. While it has been argued that the servicing of such installations creates employment, nevertheless, the large-scale utilization of local economic and manpower resources for this purpose diverts resources which could be more beneficially utilized in promoting the economic development of the Territories concerned and is thus contrary to the interests of their populations.

15. The General Assembly requests the Secretary-General to continue, through the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat, an intensified campaign of publicity with a view to informing world public opinion of the facts concerning the military activities and arrangements in colonial Territories which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in Assembly resolution 1514 (XV).

16. The General Assembly requests the Special Committee to continue its consideration of the item and to report thereon to the Assembly at its thirty-ninth session.

DOCUMENT A/38/609

Report of the Fourth Committee

[Original: English]
[29 November 1983]

1. At its 3rd plenary meeting, on 23 September 1983, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include in the agenda of its thirty-eighth session, as items 104 and 12, the following items:

“104. Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples by the specialized agencies and the international institutions associated with the United Nations:

“(a) Report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples;

At its 4th plenary meeting, on the same day, the General Assembly decided to allocate to the Fourth Committee, for consideration and report, agenda item 104, together with chapter I and chapter VI, section E, of the report of the Economic and Social Council, contained in document A/38/3 (Part II), which dealt with the item.

2. At its 2nd meeting, on 29 September 1983, the Fourth Committee decided to hold a general debate covering agenda items 18, 102, 104 and 12, 105 and 106, on the understanding that individual proposals on matters covered by those items would be considered separately. The Committee held the general debate on these items at its 10th to 18th meetings, between 3 and 17 November 1983.

3. The Committee considered item 104 and relevant aspects of item 12 at its 8th and 10th to 19th meetings, between 1 and 17 November. An account of the Committee's consideration of the item is contained in the relevant summary records (A/C.4/38/SR.8 and 10-19).

4. At the 8th meeting, on 1 November, the Rapporteur of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples made a statement in which he gave an account of the relevant activities of the Special Committee during 1983 and drew the attention of the Fourth Committee to chapter VI of the report of that Committee, contained in document A/38/23 (Part IV) and relating to item 104. That chapter contained, in paragraph 14, the related draft resolution submitted by that Committee for the consideration of the Fourth Committee.

5. “(a) In the sixth preambular paragraph, delete the word ‘Western’ and the words ‘especially the United States of America and Israel’.

Recommendation of the Fourth Committee

9. The Fourth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

² The delegation of Liberia subsequently informed the Secretariat that it had intended to abstain in the vote on the draft resolution.

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DECLARATION ON THE GRANTING OF INDEPENDENCE TO COLONIAL COUNTRIES AND PEOPLES BY THE SPECIALIZED AGENCIES AND THE INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONS ASSOCIATED WITH THE UNITED NATIONS

The General Assembly,

Having examined the item entitled "Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples by the specialized agencies and the international institutions associated with the United Nations",

Recalling the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in its resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, and the Plan of Action for the Full Implementation of the Declaration, contained in the annex to its resolution 35/118 of 11 December 1980, as well as all other relevant resolutions adopted by the General Assembly on this subject, in particular resolution 36/52 of 24 November 1981 on the item and 37/233 of 20 December 1982 on the question of Namibia,

Having examined the reports submitted on the item by the Secretary-General (A/38/111 and Add.1-2, Add.3 and Corr.1 and Add.4), the Economic and Social Council (A/38/3 (Part II), chap. VI, sect. E) and the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples (A/38/23 (Part IV), chap. VI),

Taking into account the relevant provisions of the Paris Declaration on Namibia and the Programme of Action on Namibia (see A/CONF/120/13, paras. 165-195 and 220-242), adopted by the International Conference in Support of the Struggle of the Namibian People for Independence, held in Paris from 25 to 29 April 1983,

Bearing in mind the relevant provisions of the Political Declaration of the Seventh Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries, held at New Delhi from 7 to 12 March 1983 (see A/38/132-S/15675 and Corr.1 and 2, annex), and other documents of the Co-ordinating Bureau of the Non-Aligned Countries,

Aware that the struggle of the people of Namibia for self-determination and independence is in its crucial stage and has sharply intensified as a consequence of the stepped-up aggression by the illegal colonialist régime of Pretoria against the people of the Territory and the increased general support rendered to that régime by certain Western countries, especially the United States of America and Israel, coupled with efforts to deprive the Namibian people of their hard-won victories in the liberation struggle, and that it is therefore incumbent upon the entire international community decisively to intensify concerted action in support of the people of Namibia and their sole and authentic representative, the South West Africa People's Organization, for the attainment of their goal,

Deeply conscious of the critical need of the Namibian people and their national liberation movement, the South West Africa People's Organization, and of the peoples of other colonial Territories for concrete assistance from the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system in their struggle for liberation from colonial rule and in their efforts to achieve and consolidate their national independence,

Reaffirming the responsibility of the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to take all the necessary measures, within their respective spheres of competence, to ensure the full and speedy implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples and other relevant resolutions of the United Nations, particularly those relating to the provision of moral and material assistance, on a priority basis, to the peoples of the colonial Territories and their national liberation movements,

Deeply concerned that, although there has been progress in the extension of assistance to refugees from Namibia, the actions taken hitherto by the organizations concerned in providing assistance to the people of the Territory through their national liberation movement, the South West Africa People's Organization, still remain inadequate to meet the urgent and growing needs of the Namibian people,

Expressing its confident hope that closer contacts and consultations between the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system and the Organization of African Unity and the national liberation movement concerned will help to overcome procedural and other difficulties which have impeded or delayed the implementation of some assistance programmes,

Recalling its resolution 37/233 C of 20 December 1982, requesting all specialized agencies and other organizations and conferences of the United Nations system to grant full membership to the United Nations Council for Namibia as the legal Administering Authority for Namibia,

Expressing its appreciation to the General Secretariat of the Organization of African Unity for the continued co-operation and assistance extended by it to the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system in connection with the implementation of the relevant resolutions of the United Nations,

Expressing its appreciation also to the Governments of the front-line States for the steadfast support extended to the people of Namibia and their national liberation movement, the South West Africa People's Organization, in their just and legitimate struggle for the attainment of freedom and independence despite increased armed attacks by the forces of the racist régime of South Africa, and aware of the particular needs of those Governments for assistance in that connection,

Noting the efforts of the United Nations Development Programme in the extension of assistance to the national liberation movements and commending its initiative in establishing channels for closer periodic contacts and consultations between the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system and the Organization of African Unity and the national liberation movements in the formulation of assistance programmes,

Noting also the support given by the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to the implementation of the Nationhood Programme for Namibia, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 32/9 A of 4 November 1977,

Deploring the continued links with and assistance rendered to South Africa by certain specialized agencies in the financial, economic, technical and other fields in contravention of the relevant resolutions of the United Nations,

Gravely concerned, in particular, at the continued collaboration between the International Monetary Fund and the Government of South Africa in disregard of relevant General Assembly resolutions, especially resolution 37/2 of 21 October 1982,

Bearing in mind the importance of the activities of non-governmental organizations aimed at putting an end to the assistance which is still being rendered to South Africa by some specialized agencies,

Mindful of the necessity of keeping under continuous review the activities of the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system in the implementation of the various United Nations decisions relating to decolonization,

1. Approves the chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples relating to the question (A/38/23 (Part IV), chap. VI);

2. Reaffirms that the specialized agencies and other organizations and institutions of the United Nations system should continue to be guided by the relevant resolutions of the United Nations in their efforts to contribute, within their spheres of competence, to the full and speedy implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV);

3. Reaffirms also that the recognition by the General Assembly, the Security Council and other United Nations organs of the legitimacy of the struggle of colonial peoples to exercise their right to self-determination and independence entails, as a corollary, the extension by the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system of all the necessary moral and material assistance to those peoples and their national liberation movements;

4. Expresses its appreciation to those specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system which have continued to co-operate in varying degrees with the United Nations and the Organization of African Unity in the implementation of the Declaration and other relevant resolutions of the United Nations, and urges all the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to accelerate the full and speedy implementation of the relevant provisions of those resolutions;

5. Expresses its concern that the assistance extended thus far by certain specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to the colonial peoples, particularly the people of Namibia and their national liberation movement, the South West Africa People's Organization, is far from adequate in relation to the actual needs of the peoples concerned;

6. Requests all specialized agencies and other organizations and bodies of the United Nations system, in accordance with the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly and the Security Council, to take all necessary measures to withhold from the racist régime of South Africa any form of co-operation and assistance in the financial, economic, technical and other fields and to discontinue all support to that régime until the people of Namibia have exercised fully their inalienable right to self-determination, freedom and national independence in a united Namibia and until the inhuman system of apartheid has been totally eradicated;

7. Reiterates its conviction that the specialized agencies and other organizations and bodies of the United Nations system should refrain from taking any action which might imply recognition of, or support for, the legitimacy of the domination of the Territory by the racist régime of South Africa;

8. Regrets, notwithstanding the statement of the representative of the World Bank of 8 June 1983 that the Bank has terminated business relations with the South African régime (see A/AC.109/L.1487/Add.1, para. 146), that the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund continue to maintain links with the racist régime of Pretoria as exemplified by the continued membership of South Africa in both agencies, and expresses the view that the two agencies should put an end to all links with the racist régime;

9. Strongly condemns the persistent collaboration between the International Monetary Fund and South Africa in disregard of repeated resolutions to the contrary by the General Assembly, in particular the granting of a loan of $US 1.1 billion to South Africa in November 1982 in defiance of General Assembly resolution 37/2, and calls upon the International Monetary Fund to rescind the loan and to put an end to such collaboration;

10. Commends those non-governmental organizations which, by their activities, as exemplified by the co-operation between the Center for International Policy and the United Nations Council for Namibia, are helping to inform public opinion, in the United States of America and elsewhere, and mobilize it against the assistance rendered by the International Monetary Fund to South Africa, and calls upon all non-governmental organizations to redouble their efforts in this respect;

11. Urges the executive heads of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund to draw the particular attention of their governing bodies to the present resolution with a view to formulating specific programmes beneficial to the peoples of the colonial Territories, particularly Namibia;

12. Requests the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to render or continue to render, as a matter of urgency, all possible moral and material assistance to the colonial peoples struggling for liberation from colonial rule, bearing in mind that such assistance should not only meet their immediate needs but also create conditions for development after they have exercised their right to self-determination and independence;

13. Requests once again the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to continue to provide all moral and material assistance to the newly independent and emerging States;

14. Reiterates its recommendation that the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system should initiate or broaden contacts and co-operation with the colonial peoples and their national liberation movements directly or, where appropriate, through the Organization of African Unity, and review and introduce greater flexibility in their procedures with respect to the formulation and preparation of assistance programmes and projects so as to be able to extend the necessary assistance without delay to help the colonial peoples and their national liberation movements in their struggle to exercise their inalienable right to self-determination and independence in accordance with General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV);

20. Urges the specialized agencies and other organizations and institutions of the United Nations system to assist in accelerating progress in all sectors of the national life of the small Territories, particularly in the development of their economies;

25. Urges the executive heads of the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system, having regard to the provisions of paragraphs 14 and 24 above, to formulate, with the active co-operation of the Organization of African Unity where appropriate, and to submit, as a matter of priority, to their governing and legislative organs concrete proposals for the full implementation of the relevant United Nations decisions, in particular specific programmes of assistance to the peoples of the colonial Territories and their national liberation movements;

Report of the Fifth Committee

[Original: Spanish]
[19 December 1983]

1. At its 3rd plenary meeting, on 23 September 1983, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include in the agenda of its thirty-eighth session, as item 108, the item entitled "Programme budget for the biennium 1982-1983". At its 4th plenary meeting, on the same day, the Assembly decided to allocate the item to the Fifth Committee for consideration and report.

2. The Committee considered this item at its 22nd, 61st, 69th and 73rd meetings, on 31 October and 12, 16 and 19 December 1983. It had before it the following documents:

(a) Report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions on the Office of the United Nations Disaster Relief Co-ordinator: grants for emergency disaster assistance (A/38/476);

(b) Twenty-first report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions on the administrative and financial implications of draft resolution I submitted by the Second Committee in document A/38/704 (A/38/7/Add.20);

(c) Report of the Secretary-General on the programme budget performance of the United Nations for the biennium 1982-1983 (A/C.5/38/49 and Add.1-4, Add.5 (Parts I and II) and Add.6-33) and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/38/748).

3. At its 61st meeting, on 12 December, the Committee approved, without a vote, an additional appropriation of $240,000 under section 22 of the programme budget for the biennium 1982-1983.

4. At its 69th meeting, on 16 December, the Committee decided that the advance to the United Nations Institute for Training and Research provided for in draft resolution I submitted by the Second Committee in document A/38/704 should be financed by an additional appropriation of $886,000 under a temporary section 33 of the programme budget for the biennium 1982-1983.¹

5. At its 73rd meeting, on 19 December, the Committee decided, inter alia, to authorize the Secretary-General to enter into commitments of up to $1 million for 1984, and that the resources required to initiate the activities called for in section II, paragraph 5, of draft resolution I submitted by the Second Committee in document A/38/702/Add.3 should be drawn from savings in the 1982-1983 programme budget.

6. At the same meeting, the Committee decided, by 58 votes to 13, with 8 abstentions, to recommend that the General Assembly approve the revised estimates for the biennium 1982-1983 in the amounts shown under the revised estimates columns in tables 1 and 2 of annex I to document A/C.5/38/49, except that the amount for section 22 would be increased by $240,000, that an amount of $886,000 would be included under a temporary section 33 entitled "Advance to the United Nations Institute for Training and Research", and that the total for the expenditure sections would be increased accordingly.

7. At the same meeting, the Committee decided, without objection, to request the Rapporteur to reflect the decisions taken by the Committee under agenda item 108 in the form of draft resolutions to be presented for approval by the General Assembly.

8. Comments and observations made in the course of the discussion of this question are reflected in the summary records of the meetings (A/C.5/38/SR.22, 61, 69 and 73).

¹ For the report of the Fifth Committee on the administrative and financial implications of the draft resolution in question, see annex fascicle, agenda item 109, document A/38/754.

At its 71st and 73rd meetings, on 18 and 19 December 1983, the Fifth Committee, pursuant to rule 153 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, considered the statement by the Secretary-General (A/C.5/38/93) on the administrative and financial implications of draft resolution I submitted by the Second Committee in its report (A/38/702/Add.3, para. 18). The recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions were presented orally by its Chairman (see A/38/7/Add.1-23, annex, paras. 91-94).

2. Statements and comments made in the course of the Fifth Committee's consideration of this question are reflected in the summary records of the meetings (A/C.5/38/SR.71 and 73).

3. At the 71st meeting, the Chairman, on the basis of informal consultations, proposed that, in respect of section II, operative paragraph 5, of the draft resolution, the Fifth Committee should recommend to the General Assembly:

(a) That the Secretary-General should be authorized to enter into financial commitments of up to $1 million during 1984;

(b) That the resources needed to initiate the activities called for in that paragraph should be drawn from savings in the 1982-1983 programme budget;

(c) That the Secretary-General should be requested to report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the implementation of the resolution, including the question of reimbursement.

4. At the same meeting, the representative of the United States of America orally submitted the following amendments to the above-mentioned proposals:

(a) In subparagraph (b) of the Chairman's proposal, replacement of "1982-1983" by "1984-1985" and insertion after the words "programme budget", of the words "or through redeployment";

(b) Replacement of subparagraph (c) of the Chairman's proposal by the following:

"(c) That the Committee for Programme and Coordination should be requested to identify programmes from which the redeployment needed to provide the resources to implement that paragraph of the resolution could be undertaken and to report the results to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session for approval."

5. At the 73rd meeting, the Chairman, on the basis of further consultations relating to section II, operative paragraph 5, of the draft resolution, revised subparagraph (c) of his initial proposal (see para. 3 above) to read as follows:

"(c) The Secretary-General should be requested to submit proposals to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session through the appropriate institutions and according to established procedures to achieve reimbursement of funds referred to in subparagraph (b) above (see para. 3 above) through savings in the programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985 or through redeployment, on the understanding that funds used from savings in the 1982-1983 biennium would be credited to the Member States once reimbursements have been made."

Decisions of the Committee

6. At its 71st meeting, the Fifth Committee decided, without objection, to inform the General Assembly that should it adopt draft resolution I of the Second Committee, an additional appropriation of $1 million would be required under section 17 of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985 in respect of section I, operative paragraph 5, of the draft resolution. In addition, the sum of $242,100 would be required under section 31 (Staff assessment), to be offset by an increase in the same amount under income section 1 (Income from staff assessment).

7. At its 73rd meeting, the Committee adopted by consensus the Chairman's proposals, as revised, relating to section II, operative paragraph 5, of the draft resolution.

8. At the same meeting, still on the subject of draft resolution I of the Second Committee, the Fifth Committee decided, without a vote, to inform the General Assembly that should it adopt the draft resolution:

(a) With regard to the implementation of section II, operative paragraph 5, of the draft resolution:

- (i) The Secretary-General should be authorized to enter into financial commitments of up to $1 million during 1984;
 - (ii) The resources needed to initiate the activities called for in that paragraph should be drawn from savings in the programme budget for the biennium 1982-1983;¹
 - (iii) The Secretary-General should be requested to submit proposals to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session through the appropriate institutions and according to established procedures to achieve reimbursement of funds referred to in sub-paragraph (ii) above through savings in the programme budget for 1984-1985 or through redeployment, on the understanding that funds used from savings in the programme budget for the biennium 1982-1983 would be credited to the Member States once reimbursements have been made;
- (b) No additional appropriations would be required for the implementation of section III, operative paragraph 1, of the draft resolution.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE FIFTH COMMITTEE	153

Introduction

1. Under agenda item 109, the Fifth Committee considered the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985.³ The Committee recommends a gross appropriation of $1,587,159,800 and an estimate for income (other than income derived from staff assessment) of $57,141,400. The net expenditure for the biennium 1984-1985 is thus estimated at $1,530,018,400.⁴

2. With regard to the Working Capital Fund, the Committee recommends that the Fund should be maintained at the level of $100 million.

3. The Committee also recommends an estimate of $224,869,600 as staff assessment for transfer in the course of the biennium 1984-1985 to the Tax Equalization Fund, from which credits are distributed to Member States in accordance with General Assembly resolution 973 (X) of 15 December 1955.

4. For its examination of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985, the Committee had before it, as basic documents, the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985 submitted by the Secretary-General (A/38/6 and Corr.1), the first report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions on the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985 (A/38/7 and Corr.1) and the report of the Committee for Programme and Coordination (CPC) on the work of its twenty-third session (A/38/38, Parts I and II). Revised estimates for various appropriation sections were considered on the basis of subsequent reports of the Secretary-General and of the Advisory Committee.

5. At its 12th to 18th and 22d meetings, between 17 and 31 October 1983, the Fifth Committee held a general debate on the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1984-1985 which is reflected in the summary records of the meetings (A/C.5/38/SR.12 to 18 and 22).

6. At the 7th meeting, on 7 October, statements were made by the Secretary-General, the Chairman of the Advisory Committee and one of the Vice-Chairmen of CPC on behalf of its Chairman (see A/C.5/38/SR.7).

7. The reservations expressed by delegations with respect to certain items of expenditure included in the budget estimates are reflected in the summary records of the meetings indicated in paragraph 5 above.

8. The Committee considered individual sections of the proposed programme budget in first reading during the meetings indicated below:

Report of the Fifth Committee

[Original: Spanish]
[22 November 1983]

1. At its 3rd plenary meeting, on 23 September 1983, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include in the agenda of its thirty-eighth session, as item 114, the item entitled:

“Pattern of conferences:

- “(a) Report of the Committee on Conferences;
“(b) Reports of the Secretary-General.”

At its 4th plenary meeting, on the same day, the Assembly decided to allocate the question to the Fifth Committee for consideration and report.

2. The Fifth Committee considered this item at its 4th, 8th, 9th, 25th and 46th meetings, between 30 September and 23 November 1983. Comments and observations made in the course of the discussion of the item and replies to queries raised are reflected in the summary records of the meetings (A/C.5/38/SR.4, 8, 9, 25 and 46).

3. For its consideration, the Committee had before it the report of the Committee on Conferences (A/38/32) containing, in paragraph 4, five draft resolutions, A to E, recommended to the General Assembly for adoption.

CONSIDERATION OF PROPOSALS

4. At the 9th meeting, on 12 October, after a number of suggestions for modification of the recommendations of the Committee on Conferences had been considered, the Chairman of the Fifth Committee entrusted Mr. Tommo Monthe (United Republic of Cameroon), Vice-Chairman, with the task of conducting informal consultations on the subject.

5. At its 25th meeting, on 2 November, the Committee considered a document (A/C.5/38/L.6), submitted on behalf of the Chairman, containing proposed amendments to the draft resolutions recommended by the Committee on Conferences in paragraph 4 of its report (A/38/32). The representative of the United Republic of Cameroon, Vice-Chairman, indicated that minor drafting changes should be made to the said amendments and a new amendment should be inserted in the amendments to draft resolution E to delete, in the preamble, the letters “A, C and D” between “36/117” and “of 10 December 1981”. The revised amendments read as follows:

“1. Draft resolution A

“(a) Delete paragraph 3;

“(b) Insert new paragraph 3 reading as follows:

“3. Requests the Secretary-General to take all appropriate measures with a view to achieving maximum efficiency and effectiveness in the use of conference resources when implementing the calendar of conferences and meetings for 1984-1985.”

“2. Draft resolution C

“Replace draft resolution C by the following:

conferences”, including the text of all amendments proposed to draft resolution C recommended by the Committee on Conferences in paragraph 4 of its report (A/38/32).’

“3. Draft resolution D

“(a) Replace paragraph 4 by the following:

“4. Requests United Nations organs, especially those which have over the past few years underutilized the meeting time allocated to them, to consider at their organizational sessions the question of improving the organization of their work in order to secure a more effective use of conference resources and to put forward concrete proposals on this matter, including, where feasible, the shortening of sessions;’

“(b) Insert a new paragraph 5, reading as follows:

“5. Invites United Nations organs to hold informal consultations with the aim of reaching agreement on organizational questions as well as on the composition of the bureaux before the opening of their substantive sessions.’

“4. Draft resolution E

“(a) Delete the letters ‘A, C and D’ between ‘36/117’ and ‘of 10 December 1981’ in the preambular paragraph;

“(b) Replace paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 with the following:

“1. Recommends to Member States that they take into consideration the aim of limiting to a minimum requests for the preparation of reports or the circulation of documents;

“2. Recommends to Member States and specialized agencies that, when preparing their replies to questionnaires or submissions of organizations and programmes of the United Nations system, they take into consideration the aim of achieving maximum brevity in setting out their positions;

“1. Requests the Secretary-General to provide the Committee on Conferences with data in summary form on:

“(a) The physical and human conference-servicing resources for United Nations Headquarters and United Nations offices generally, including rooms available and documentation, interpretation and translation capacity, in a format enabling comparison of the demand and the conference-servicing capacity for all categories of meetings of United Nations organs – scheduled, anticipated to the extent possible, and held – grouped according to subject-matter;

“(b) External conference servicing available to the United Nations in case of urgent or unforeseen demands on the calendar;

“2. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to all United Nations bodies the relevant information requested under paragraph 1 as supplementary data for their implementation of the present resolution.”

DECISIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

6. At the 25th meeting, the Fifth Committee considered the question of the venue of the regular sessions in 1984 of the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA), the Economic Commission for Latin America (ECLA) and the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP). The Committee had before it a statement by the Secretary-General (A/C.5/38/31) on the administrative and financial implications of draft resolution A recommended by the Committee on Conferences in paragraph 4 of its report (A/38/32).¹

7. On the proposal of the Chairman, the Committee decided, by 65 votes to 18, with 14 abstentions, to approve the venue of the regular sessions in 1984 of ECA, ECLA and ESCAP as proposed by the Commissions concerned and endorsed by the Economic and Social Council, and as reflected in the report of the Committee on Conferences.

8. At the same meeting, on the proposal of the representative of Kenya, the Committee decided, without a vote, to change the entry under the column heading “Location” for item 98 of the draft calendar of conferences for 1985 (World Conference to Review and Appraise the Achievements of the United Nations Decade for Women) to read “Nairobi/To be determined” (see annex II B of the report of the Committee on Conferences).

9. The Committee then adopted, without a vote, the amendments in document A/C.5/38/L.6, as orally revised, and the draft resolutions recommended by the Committee on Conferences, as amended (for the text of the draft resolutions, see para. 11 below, draft resolutions A to F).

10. The representatives of Austria, Egypt, Iran (Islamic Republic of), New Zealand, Thailand, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America made statements in explanation of position after the adoption of the various decisions.

Report of the Fifth Committee

[Original: Spanish]
[18 December 1983]

1. At its 3rd plenary meeting, on 23 September 1983, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include in the agenda of its thirty-eighth session, as item 118, the item entitled "United Nations pension system: report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board". At its 4th plenary meeting, on the same day, the Assembly decided to allocate the item to the Fifth Committee for consideration and report.

2. The Committee considered the item at its 28th, 33rd, 36th, 38th, 45th and 68th meetings, from 4 November to 16 December 1983. Comments made in the course of the discussion on this item are reflected in the summary records of the meetings (A/C.5/38/SR.28, 33, 36, 38, 45 and 68).

3. For its consideration, the Committee had before it the following documents:

(a) Report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board for 1983 (A/38/9 and Corr.2 and Add.1 and Corr.1 and 2), including the report of the Board of Auditors on the accounts of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund for the year ended 31 December 1982 (A/38/9 and Corr.2, annex III), and containing a draft resolution proposed for adoption by the General Assembly (ibid., annex X);

(b) Report of the International Civil Service Commission (ICSC) (A/38/30 and Add.1);

(c) Report of the Secretary-General on investments of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund (A/C.5/38/19);

(d) Report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/38/547).

4. The above-mentioned reports of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board, of ICSC and of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions were introduced by the respective Chairmen at the 28th meeting of the Fifth Committee, on 4 November¹ (see A/C.5/38/SR.28, paras. 61-69, 34-55 and 78 and 79 respectively).

CONSIDERATION OF PROPOSALS

A. Report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board

5. At the 68th meeting, on 16 December, Mr. Henrik Amnéus (Sweden), Vice-Chairman of the Committee, introduced a draft resolution (A/C.5/38/L.24) elaborated following informal consultations. The Committee also had before it a document (A/C.5/38/L.25) containing statistical information on the evolution since 1971 of the levels of pensionable remuneration and retirement benefits of staff in the Professional and higher categories under the United Nations system and those of the comparator, the United States federal civil service.

6. The Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.5/38/L.24 by 78 votes to 9, with 2 abstentions (for the text, see para. 9 below).

7. The Committee decided, without objection, that the statistical data contained in document A/C.5/38/L.25 should be appended to its report (see below, annex to the report).

B. Investments of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund

8. At the same meeting, the Committee decided, without objection, to recommend to the General Assembly that it take note of the report of the Secretary-General on the investments of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund (A/C.5/38/19) (see para. 10 below).

¹ The report of ICSC was submitted in the context of the discussion of agenda item 117.

Recommendations of the Fifth Committee

9. The Fifth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

REPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS JOINT STAFF PENSION BOARD

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board for 1983 to the General Assembly and to the member organizations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund (A/38/9 and Corr.2 and Add.1 and Corr.1 and 2), and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/38/547),

Welcoming the improvement in the actuarial situation of the Fund as a result of the economy measures applied with effect from 1 January 1983,

Concerned at the continuing actuarial imbalance of the Fund and the mounting cost of the pension system,

Desirous of bringing about a further improvement in the actuarial situation of the Fund,

Concerned at the different evolution over the years of the levels of pensionable remuneration for staff in the Professional and higher categories and those of the comparator civil service,

Recalling its resolutions 3526 (XXX) of 16 December 1975, 31/196 of 22 December 1976, 33/120 of 19 December 1978, 34/221 of 20 December 1979, 35/215 of 17 December 1980, 36/118 of 10 December 1981 and 37/131 of 17 December 1982,

Bearing in mind earlier General Assembly resolutions which stated, inter alia, that changes in the pension adjustment system should not lead to increases in the liabilities of Member States,

Conscious that a number of factors have combined to make necessary the consideration and adoption of significant remedial actions on the problem of the actuarial imbalance, including the raising of the rate of contributions hereinafter referred to,

Mindful of the social aspects of the pension system,

Aware that a co-operative effort by member organizations, participants and beneficiaries is required if the actuarial imbalance is to be reduced or eliminated, thereby securing an adequate level of benefits under the Fund,

I

Amendment of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund

1. Decides that, with effect from 1 January 1984, the rate of contributions shall be raised from 21 to 21.75 per cent of pensionable remuneration, of which the employing member organization shall pay 14.5 per cent and the participant 7.25 per cent;

2. Amends the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, without retroactive effect, as set forth in the annex to the present resolution;

II

Measures to improve the actuarial balance of the Fund

Requests the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board, with the assistance of the Committee of Actuaries, to consider, early in 1984, the various proposals discussed at the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly with a view to reducing or eliminating the actuarial imbalance of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, including the following measures:

(a) Increasing to a realistic level the interest rate used to calculate the amount of the lump-sum commutation;

(b) Determination of the lump sum in net equivalent terms, subject to the reimbursement of any taxes payable thereon;

(c) Re-examination of the early retirement provisions, taking into account, inter alia, the observations made by the Committee of Actuaries;

(d) Imposition of a ceiling on the highest levels of pensions;

(e) Review of the two-track system followed to determine the initial amount of the pension and its subsequent adjustment;

(f) Re-examination of the survivor benefits under the Regulations of the Fund, together with alternative ways of financing them; and to submit its findings and recommendations thereon and on such other measures as may be deemed appropriate, through the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions, to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

III

Pensionable remuneration for the Professional and higher categories

1. Decides to review at its thirty-ninth session the pensionable remuneration for the Professional and higher categories;

2. Requests the International Civil Service Commission, in co-operation with the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board, to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session recommendations on the appropriate level of pensionable remuneration for the Professional and higher categories;

3. Further requests the International Civil Service Commission, in examining the comparative levels of pensionable remuneration in co-operation with the Board, to compare the levels of pension entitlements in the light of all the factors it brought to the attention of the General Assembly in its fifth annual report,² as part of the total compensation comparisons to be carried out within the framework of the Noblemaire principle, and to report thereon to the Assembly by the beginning of its thirty-ninth session on the basis of the latest data available in 1984;

4. Decides that the implementation of any adjustment which may become due in 1984 on the basis of article 54 (b) of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund shall be deferred until the General Assembly, at its thirty-ninth session, has considered the recommendations of the International Civil Service Commission and the Board on the level of pensionable remuneration;

5. Decides further that, if the General Assembly is unable to take a decision on the level of pensionable remuneration at its thirty-ninth session, it will re-examine at that session the question of the deferment of implementation of adjustments which become due under article 54 (b) of the Regulations of the Fund;

6. Requests the Board, in the light of the recommendations on the level of pensionable remuneration, to recommend to the General Assembly, at its thirty-ninth session, consequential amendments to article 54 (b) of the Regulations of the Fund;

IV

Complementary Pension Scheme of the International Labour Organisation

Draws the attention of the International Labour Organisation to the strong concern expressed during the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly about the need to maintain the unity, cohesion and integrity of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension system and to avoid any action which may have an adverse effect on the said system;

V

Emergency Fund

Authorizes the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board to supplement the voluntary contributions to the Emergency Fund, for a further period of one year, by an amount not exceeding $100,000;

VI

Administrative expenses

Approves expenses, chargeable directly to the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, totalling $6,723,100 (net) for 1984 and additional expenses of $17,700 (net) for 1983 for the administration of the Fund.

Subparagraphs (i) and (ii) remain unchanged.

Article 21 (b)
(PARTICIPATION)

(b) Participation shall cease when the organization by which the participant is employed ceases to be a member organization, or when he dies or separates from such member organization, except that participation shall not be deemed to have ceased where a participant resumes his contributory service with a member organization within 12 months after separation, without a benefit having been paid to him.

Article 22 (a)

(a) Contributory service shall accrue to a participant in pay status from the date of commencement to the date of cessation of his participation. For purposes of each of the articles 28 (b), 28 (c) and 29 (b) separate periods of contributory service shall be aggregated except that in such aggregation no account shall be taken of periods of service in respect of which a withdrawal settlement was paid and which were not subsequently restored.

Article 25 (a), (b) and (c)
(CONTRIBUTIONS)

(a) Contributions by the participant and by the employing member organization shall be payable to the Fund concurrently with the accrual of contributory service under article 22 (a), at the percentage rates of pensionable remuneration specified below:

Before 1984	7.00	14.00
As from 1984	7.25	14.50

(b) (i) Contributions for the purpose of article 22 (b) in respect of a period of leave without pay shall be at a percentage rate of the pensionable remuneration of the participant equal to the applicable rates specified in (a) above payable by the participant and by the employing member organization, combined. Such contributions shall be payable concurrently with such leave, by the participant in full or by the organization in full, or in part by the participant and in part by the organization;

Subparagraph (ii) remains unchanged.

(c) Contributions for the purpose of validation under article 23 shall be payable, with interest, by the participant and the organization in the amounts which would have been payable respectively by each, had service during the period been contributory.

Article 28 (b) and (c)
(RETIREMENT BENEFIT)

(b) The benefit shall, subject to (d) and (e) below, in respect of a period or periods of participation commencing on or after 1 January 1983, be payable at the standard rate obtained by multiplying:

Subparagraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) remain unchanged.

However, in respect of a participant with a prior period of contributory service of five years or longer ending between 1 January 1978 and 31 December 1982, the standard annual rate specified above shall be calculated by taking into account as periods of contributory service for the purpose of subparagraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) above the period of contributory service before 1 January 1983.

(c) The benefit shall, subject to (d) and (e) below, in respect of any period of participation commencing prior to 1 January 1983, be payable at the standard annual rate obtained by multiplying:

- (ii) The years of his contributory service in excess of 30, but not exceeding 5, by 1 per cent of his final average remuneration.

Article 32 (a)
(DEFERMENT OF PAYMENT OR CHOICE OF BENEFIT)

(a) The payment to a participant of a withdrawal settlement, or the exercise by a participant of a choice available to him between one benefit and another, or between a form of benefit involving payment in a lump sum and another form, may be deferred at his request at the time of separation for a period of 12 months.

Article 40 (b), (c) and (d)
(EFFECT OF RE-ENTRY INTO PARTICIPATION)

(b) Such a participant, who again becomes a participant and is again separated after at least five years of additional contributory service, shall also be entitled, at the time of such subsequent separation, in respect of such service and subject to paragraph (d) below, to a retirement, early retirement or deferred retirement benefit, or a withdrawal settlement under articles 28, 29, 30 or 31, as the case may be.

(c) Such a participant, who again becomes a participant and is again separated after less than five years of additional contributory service, shall, in respect of such service, become entitled to:

- (i) A withdrawal settlement under article 31; or
- (ii) If he is at least age 55 at such separation, and subject to (d) below, a retirement, early retirement or deferred retirement benefit, as the case may be, under articles 28, 29 or 30, based on the length of such additional contributory service; provided, however, that such benefit may not be commuted into a lump sum, in whole or in part, and shall not be subject to any minimum provisions.

(d) Payment of benefits under (b) or (c) (ii) above shall commence on the date of the resumption or commencement, as the case may be, of payment of benefits suspended under (a) above. In no event shall the total benefits payable to or on account of a former participant in respect of separate periods of contributory service exceed the benefits which would have been payable had his participation in the Fund been continuous.

FINANCING OF THE UNITED NATIONS DISENGAGEMENT OBSERVER FORCE

A

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the financing of the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force (A/38/472 and Corr.1), as well as the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/38/588),

Bearing in mind Security Council resolutions 350 (1974) of 31 May 1974, 363 (1974) of 29 November 1974, 369 (1975) of 28 May 1975, 381 (1975) of 30 November 1975, 390 (1976) of 28 May 1976, 398 (1976) of 30 November 1976, 408 (1977) of 26 May 1977, 420 (1977) of 30 November 1977, 429 (1978) of 31 May 1978, 441 (1978) of 30 November 1978, 449 (1979) of 30 May 1979,

456 (1979) of 30 November 1979, 470 (1980) of 30 May 1980, 481 (1980) of 26 November 1980, 485 (1981) of 22 May 1981, 493 (1981) of 23 November 1981, 506 (1982) of 26 May 1982, 524 (1982) of 29 November 1982, 531 (1983) of 26 May 1983 and 543 (1983) of 29 November 1983,

Recalling its resolutions 3101 (XXVIII) of 11 December 1973, 3211 B (XXIX) of 29 November 1974, 3374 C (XXX) of 2 December 1975, 31/5 D of 22 December 1976, 32/4 C of 2 December 1977, 33/13 D of 8 December 1978, 34/7 C of 3 December 1979, 35/44 of 1 December 1980, 35/45 A of 1 December 1980, 36/66 A of 30 November 1981 and 37/38 A of 30 November 1982,

Reaffirming its previous decisions regarding the fact that, in order to meet the expenditures caused by such operations, a different procedure is required from that applied to meet expenditures of the regular budget of the United Nations,

Taking into account the fact that the economically more developed countries are in a position to make relatively larger contributions and that the economically less developed countries have a relatively limited capacity to contribute towards peace-keeping operations involving heavy expenditures,

Bearing in mind the special responsibilities of the States permanent members of the Security Council in the financing of such operations, as indicated in General Assembly resolution 1874 (S-IV) of 27 June 1963 and other resolutions of the Assembly,

I

Decides to appropriate to the Special Account referred to in section II, paragraph 1, of General Assembly resolution 3211 B (XXIX) the amount of $17,186,496 gross ($16,983,996 net) authorized and apportioned by section III of Assembly resolution 37/38 A for the operation of the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force for the period from 1 June to 30 November 1983, inclusive;

II

1. Decides to appropriate to the Special Account an amount of $17,489,500 for the operation of the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force for the period from 1 December 1983 to 31 May 1984, inclusive;

2. Decides further, as an ad hoc arrangement, without prejudice to the positions of principle that may be taken by Member States in any consideration by the General Assembly of arrangements for the financing of peace-keeping operations, to apportion the amount of $17,489,500 among Member States in accordance with the scheme set out in Assembly resolution 3101 (XXVIII) and the provisions of section II, paragraphs 2 (b) and 2 (c), and section V, paragraph 1, of resolution 3374 C (XXX), section V, paragraph 1, of resolution 31/5 D, section V, paragraph 1, of resolution 32/4 C, section V, paragraph 1, of resolution 33/13 D, section V, paragraph 1, of resolution 34/7 C, section V, paragraph 1, of resolution 35/45 A, section V, paragraph 1, of resolution 36/66 A and section V, paragraph 1, of resolution 37/38 A, in the proportions determined by the scale of assessments for the years 1983, 1984 and 1985;

3. Decides that there shall be set off against the apportionment among Member States, as provided in paragraph 2 above, their respective share in the estimated income of $10,000 other than staff assessment income approved for the period from 1 December 1983 to 31 May 1984, inclusive;

4. Decides that, in accordance with the provisions of its resolution 973 (X) of 15 December 1955, there shall be set off against the apportionment among Member States, as provided for in paragraph 2 above, their respective share in the Tax Equalization Fund of the estimated staff assessment income of $199,500 approved for the period from 1 December 1983 to 31 May 1984, inclusive;

III

Authorizes the Secretary-General to enter into commitments for the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force at a rate not to exceed $2,914,916 gross ($2,880,000 net) per month for the period from 1 June to 30 November 1984 inclusive, should the Security Council decide to continue the Force beyond the period of six months authorized under its resolution 543 (1983), the said amount to be apportioned among Member States in accordance with the scheme set out in the present resolution;

IV

1. Stresses the need for voluntary contributions to the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force, both in cash and in the form of services and supplies acceptable to the Secretary-General;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to take all necessary action to ensure that the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force is conducted with a maximum of efficiency and economy.

B

The General Assembly,

Having regard to the financial position of the Special Account for the United Nations Emergency Force and the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force, as set forth in the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/472 and Corr.1), and referring to paragraph 5 of the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/38/588),

Mindful of the fact that it is essential to provide the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force with the necessary financial resources to enable it to fulfil its responsibilities under the relevant resolutions of the Security Council,

Concerned that the Secretary-General is continuing to face growing difficulties in meeting the obligations of the Forces on a current basis, particularly those due to the Governments of troop-contributing States,

Recalling its resolutions 33/13 E of 14 December 1978, 34/7 D of 17 December 1979, 35/45 B of 1 December 1980, 36/66 B of 30 November 1981 and 37/38 B of 30 November 1982,

Recognizing that, in consequence of the withholding of contributions by certain Member States, the surplus balances in the Special Account for the United Nations Emergency Force and the United Nations Disengagement Observer Force have, in effect, been drawn upon to the full extent to supplement the income received from contributions for meeting expenses of the Forces,

Concerned that the application of the provisions of regulations 5.2 (b), 5.2 (d), 4.3 and 4.4 of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations would aggravate the already difficult financial situation of the Forces,

Decides that the provisions of regulations 5.2 (b), 5.2 (d), 4.3 and 4.4 of the Financial Regulations of the United Nations shall be suspended in respect of the amount of $5,191,637, which otherwise would have to be surrendered pursuant to those provisions, this amount to be entered into the account referred to in the operative part of General Assembly resolution 33/13 E and held in suspense until a further decision is taken by the Assembly.

Report of the Sixth Committee

[Original: English]
[14 December 1983]

1. The item entitled "Consideration of the draft articles on most-favoured-nation clauses: report of the Secretary-General" was included in the provisional agenda of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly pursuant to paragraph 3 of Assembly resolution 36/111 of 10 December 1981.

APPRECIATION OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The General Assembly,

Noting with appreciation the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law (A/38/546) and the recommendations made to the Secretary-General by the Advisory Committee on the United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law, which are contained in that report,

Considering that international law should occupy an appropriate place in the teaching of legal disciplines at all universities,

Noting with appreciation the efforts made by States at the bilateral level to provide assistance in the teaching and study of international law,

Convinced, nevertheless, that States, international organizations and institutions should be encouraged to give further support to the Programme and to increase their activities to promote the teaching, study, dissemination and wider appreciation of international law, in particular those activities which are of special benefit to persons from developing countries,

Recalling that, in the conduct of the Programme, it is desirable to use as far as possible the resources and facilities made available by Member States, international organizations and others,

Noting that, following the request for voluntary contributions made to Member States by the Assembly in its resolution 36/108 of 10 December 1981, the fund of the Hamilton Shirley Amerasinghe Fellowship on the Law of the Sea has not yet become operational and consequently no fellowships have yet been awarded,

(c) Assistance in the form of a travel grant for one participant from each developing country who will be invited to the regional courses to be organized in 1984 and 1985;

and to finance the above activities from provisions in the regular budget and also voluntary financial contributions which would be received as a result of the requests set out in paragraphs 9 and 10 below;

2. Expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General for his constructive efforts to promote training and assistance in international law within the framework of the United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law in 1982 and 1983;

5. Expresses its appreciation to the States which provided host facilities for the regional training and refresher courses held in 1982 and 1983;

6. Expresses its appreciation to the Hague Academy of International Law for its valuable contributions to the Programme by enabling international law fellows under the sponsorship of the United Nations and the United Nations Institute for Training and Research to attend its annual international law courses and providing facilities for seminars organized by the Institute in conjunction with the Academy courses, and for its constructive efforts in organizing the regional training and refresher courses held at Tunis in 1982;

7. Notes with appreciation the contributions made by the Hague Academy of International Law to the teaching, study, dissemination and wider appreciation of international law and calls upon Member States and interested organizations to give favourable consideration to the appeal of the Academy for a continuation of and, if possible, an increase in their financial contributions in order to enable the Academy to go on with the above-mentioned activities;

8. Urges all Governments to encourage the inclusion of courses on international law in the programmes of legal studies offered at institutions of higher learning;

10. Reiterates its request to Member States and to interested organizations and individuals to make voluntary contributions towards the financing of the Programme and expresses its appreciation to those Member States that have made voluntary contributions for this purpose;

11. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its fortieth session on the implementation of the Programme during 1984 and 1985 and, following consultations with the Advisory Committee on the United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law, to submit recommendations regarding the execution of the Programme in subsequent years;

PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES BETWEEN STATES

The General Assembly,

Having examined the item entitled "Peaceful settlement of disputes between States",

Recalling its resolution 37/10 of 15 November 1982, by which it approved the Manila Declaration on the Peaceful Settlement of International Disputes, annexed thereto,

Deeply concerned at the continuation of conflict situations and the emergence of new sources of disputes and tension in international life, and especially at the growing tendency to resort to force or the threat of force and to intervention in internal affairs, and at the escalation of the arms race, which gravely endanger the independence and security of States as well as international peace and security,

Taking into account the need to exert utmost efforts in order to settle any situations and disputes between States exclusively by peaceful means and to avoid any military action and hostilities against other States, which can only make more difficult the solution of existing problems,

Considering that the question of the peaceful settlement of disputes should represent one of the central concerns for States and for the United Nations, and that efforts for strengthening the process of peaceful settlement of disputes should be continued,

Taking note of the working paper on the establishment of a permanent commission on good offices, mediation and conciliation for the settlement of disputes and the prevention of conflicts among States (A/38/343, annex), submitted to the General Assembly by Nigeria, the Philippines and Romania,

1. Again urges all States to observe and promote in good faith the provisions of the Manila Declaration on the Peaceful Settlement of International Disputes in the settlement of their international disputes;

2. Stresses the need to continue efforts to strengthen the process of the peaceful settlement of disputes through progressive development and codification of international law and through enhancing the effectiveness of the United Nations in this field;

3. Requests the Special Committee on the Charter of the United Nations and on the Strengthening of the Role of the Organization, during its session in 1984, to continue its work on the question of the peaceful settlement of disputes between States and in this context:

(a) To consider the proposal contained in the above-mentioned working paper;

(b) To continue, in conformity with the agreement reached by the Special Committee, consideration of the proposal concerning the elaboration of a handbook on the peaceful settlement of disputes between States;

4. Requests the Secretary-General, in the light of the report of the Special Committee (see A/38/33, paras. 109 and 110), to prepare a preliminary outline on the possible content of a handbook on the peaceful settlement of disputes between States, which will comprise all existing means and mechanisms available for the purpose, and to submit this outline to the Special Committee at its session in 1984;

5. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Peaceful settlement of disputes between States".

ACTION TAKEN BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

At its 101st plenary meeting, on 19 December 1983, the General Assembly adopted the draft resolution submitted by the Sixth Committee in its report (A/38/664, para. 10). For the final text, see resolution 38/131.¹

Draft resolution II

UNIFORM RULES ON CONTRACT CLAUSES FOR AN AGREED SUM DUE UPON FAILURE OF PERFORMANCE ADOPTED BY THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION ON INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW

The General Assembly,

Recognizing that a wide range of international trade contracts contain clauses obligating a party that fails to perform an obligation under the contract to pay an agreed sum to the other party,

Noting that the effect and validity of such clauses are often uncertain owing to disparities in the treatment of such clauses in various legal systems,

Believing that these uncertainties constitute an obstacle to the flow of international trade,

Being of the opinion that it would be desirable for the legal rules applicable to such clauses to be harmonized so as to reduce or eliminate the uncertainties concerning such clauses and remove these uncertainties as a barrier to the flow of international trade,

Noting that the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law has adopted Uniform Rules on Contract Clauses for an Agreed Sum Due upon Failure of Performance (see A/38/17, paras. 11-78 and annex I),

Recognizing that there are various ways in which the Uniform Rules on Contract Clauses for an Agreed Sum Due upon Failure of Performance could be implemented by States, and being of the opinion that a recommendation by the General Assembly to States that they should implement the Uniform Rules in an appropriate manner would not prejudice the Assembly from making a further recommendation or taking further action with respect to the Uniform Rules if circumstances so warrant, Recommends that States should give serious consideration to the Uniform Rules on Contract Clauses for an Agreed Sum Due upon Failure of Performance adopted by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law and, where appropriate, implement them in the form of either a model law or a convention.

ACTION TAKEN BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Report of the Sixth Committee

[Original: English]
[14 December 1983]

1. The item entitled "Consideration of effective measures to enhance the protection, security and safety of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives: report of the Secretary-General" was included in the provisional agenda of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly pursuant to paragraph 12 of Assembly resolution 37/108 of 16 December 1982.

2. At its 3rd plenary meeting, on 23 September 1983, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include the item in the agenda of its thirty-eighth session as item 128. At its 4th plenary meeting, on the same day, the Assembly decided to allocate the item to the Sixth Committee for consideration and report.

3. For its consideration of the item, the Sixth Committee had before it a report of the Secretary-General (A/38/379 and Corr.1 and Add.1 and 2) submitted pursuant to paragraph 11 of resolution 37/108, containing the reports and the views presented by States under paragraphs 7 and 9, respectively, of that resolution. After the Sixth Committee had concluded its consideration of the item, additional reports and views submitted under paragraphs 7 and 9 of the same resolution were circulated in document A/38/379/Add.3.

4. The Committee considered the item at its 8th to 11th, 53rd and 56th meetings, held from 7 to 11 October and on 25 and 28 November 1983. The summary records of those meetings (A/C.6/38/SR.8-11, 53 and 56) reflect the views of representatives who spoke during the consideration of the item.

5. At the 56th meeting, on 28 November, the representative of Norway introduced a draft resolution (A/C.6/38/L.13) sponsored by Argentina, Australia, Austria, Canada, Denmark, Ecuador, Finland, Germany, Federal Republic of, Iceland, Japan, Nigeria, Norway, the Philippines, Sierra Leone, Sweden, Turkey and Uruguay, subsequently joined by the Ivory Coast.

6. At the same meeting, the Committee adopted the draft resolution (see para. 8 below) without a vote.

7. Also at the same meeting, the representative of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics made a statement in explanation of the position of his delegation.

Recommendation of the Sixth Committee

8. The Sixth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

CONSIDERATION OF EFFECTIVE MEASURES TO ENHANCE THE PROTECTION, SECURITY AND SAFETY OF DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR MISSIONS AND REPRESENTATIVES

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General (A/38/379 and Corr.1 and Add.1-3),

Emphasizing the important role of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives, as well as of missions and representatives to international intergovernmental organizations and officials of such organizations, in the maintenance of international peace and the promotion of friendly relations among States,

Emphasizing also the duty of States to take all appropriate steps, as required by international law:

(a) To protect the premises of diplomatic and consular missions, as well as of missions to international intergovernmental organizations,

(b) To prevent any attacks on diplomatic and consular representatives, as well as on representatives to international intergovernmental organizations and officials of such organizations,

(c) To bring the offenders to justice,

Deeply concerned about the continued large number of failures to respect the inviolability of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives, and about the serious threat presented by such violations to the maintenance of normal and peaceful international relations, which are necessary for co-operation among States,

Expressing its sympathy for the victims of illegal acts against diplomatic and consular representatives and missions as well as against representatives and missions to international intergovernmental organizations and officials of such organizations,

Convinced that respect for the principles and rules of international law governing diplomatic and consular relations, in particular those aimed at ensuring the inviolability of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives, is a basic prerequisite for the normal conduct of relations among States and for the fulfilment of the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations,

Noting that only a small number of States have so far, in response to the call by the General Assembly at its thirty-fifth, thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh sessions, become parties to the relevant conventions concerning the inviolability of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives,

Convinced that the reporting procedures established under General Assembly resolution 35/168 of 15 December 1980 and further elaborated in Assembly resolutions 36/33 of 13 November 1981 and 37/108 of 16 December 1982 are important steps in the efforts to enhance the protection, security and safety of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives,

Desiring to maintain and further strengthen those reporting procedures,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;
2. Strongly condemns acts of violence against diplomatic and consular missions and representatives, as well as against missions and representatives to international intergovernmental organizations and officials of such organizations;
3. Emphasizes the importance of enhanced awareness throughout the world of the necessity of ensuring the protection, security and safety of such missions, representatives and officials, as well as of the role of the United Nations in this regard;
4. Urges States to observe and to implement the principles and rules of international law governing diplomatic and consular relations and, in particular, to take all necessary measures in conformity with their international obligations to ensure effectively the protection, security and safety of all diplomatic and consular missions and representatives officially present in territory under their jurisdiction, including practicable measures to prohibit in their territories illegal activities of persons, groups and organizations that encourage, instigate, organize or engage in the perpetration of acts against the security and safety of such missions and representatives;
5. Recommends that States should co-operate closely through, inter alia, contacts between the diplomatic and consular missions and the receiving State, with regard to practical measures designed to enhance the protection, security and safety of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives and with regard to exchange of information on the circumstances of all serious violations thereof;

6. Calls upon States that have not yet done so to consider becoming parties to the instruments relevant to the protection, security and safety of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives;

7. Calls upon States, in cases where a dispute arises in connection with a violation of the principles and rules of international law concerning the inviolability of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives, to make use of the means for peaceful settlement of disputes, including the good offices of the Secretary-General;

8. Requests:

(a) All States to report to the Secretary-General as promptly as possible serious violations of the protection, security and safety of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives;

(b) The State in which the violation took place – and, to the extent applicable, the State where the alleged offender is present – to report as promptly as possible on measures taken to bring the offender to justice and eventually to communicate, in accordance with its laws, the final outcome of the proceedings against the offender, and on measures adopted with a view to preventing a repetition of such violations;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to circulate to all States, upon receipt, the reports received by him pursuant to paragraph 8 above, unless the reporting State requests otherwise;

10. Requests the Secretary-General to invite States to inform him of their views with respect to any measures needed to enhance the protection, security and safety of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives;

11. Also requests the Secretary-General, when a serious violation has been reported pursuant to paragraph 8 (a) above, to draw the attention, when appropriate, of the States directly concerned to the reporting procedures provided for in paragraph 8 above;

12. Further requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session a report on the state of ratification of, and accessions to, the instruments referred to in paragraph 6 above, as well as the reports received and views expressed pursuant to paragraphs 8 and 10 above, and invites him to submit any views he may wish to express on these matters;

13. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled “Consideration of effective measures to enhance the protection, security and safety of diplomatic and consular missions and representatives: report of the Secretary-General”.

ACTION TAKEN BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

At its 101st plenary meeting, on 19 December 1983, the General Assembly adopted the draft resolution submitted by the Sixth Committee in its report (A/38/668, para. 8). For the final text, see resolution 38/136.¹

6. At the 60th meeting, on 1 December, the representative of Nigeria introduced a draft resolution (A/C.6/38/L.5) sponsored by Algeria, Angola, Bangladesh, Barbados, Benin, Burundi, China, Cuba, Democratic Yemen, Egypt, Equatorial Guinea, Ethiopia, the German Democratic Republic, Ghana, Iraq, Jamaica, the Lao People's Democratic Republic, Liberia, the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Madagascar, Malawi, Mali, Mauritania, Mexico, Morocco, Mozambique, Nicaragua,

Recommendation of the Sixth Committee

12. The Sixth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

DRAFTING OF AN INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION AGAINST THE RECRUITMENT, USE, FINANCING AND TRAINING OF MERCENARIES

The General Assembly,

Bearing in mind the need for strict observance of the principles of sovereign equality, political independence, territorial integrity of States and self-determination of peoples, as enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations and developed in the Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations,¹

Recalling its resolutions, particularly resolutions 2395 (XXIII) of 29 November 1968, 2465 (XXIII) of 20 December 1968, 2548 (XXIV) of 11 December 1969, 2708 (XXV) of 14 December 1970, 3103 (XXVIII) of 12 December 1973 and its resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, as well as Security Council resolutions 405 (1977) of 14 April 1977, 419 (1977) of 24 November 1977, 496 (1981) of 15 December 1981 and 507 (1982) of 28 May 1982, in which the United Nations denounced the practice of using mercenaries, in particular against developing countries and national liberation movements,

Recalling in particular its resolution 37/109 of 16 December 1982, by which it renewed the mandate of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Drafting of an International Convention against the Recruitment, Use, Financing and Training of Mercenaries, composed of thirty-five Member States,

Having considered the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on its third session (A/38/43),

Recognizing that the activities of mercenaries are contrary to fundamental principles of international law, such as non-interference in the internal affairs of States, territorial integrity and independence, and seriously impede the process of self-determination of peoples struggling against colonialism, racism and apartheid and all forms of foreign domination,

Bearing in mind the pernicious impact that the activities of mercenaries have on international peace and security,

Considering that the progressive development and codification of the rules of international law on mercenaries would contribute immensely to the implementation of the purposes and principles of the Charter,

Taking account of the fact that, although the Ad Hoc Committee has made substantial progress, it has not yet fulfilled its mandate,

Reaffirming the need for the elaboration, at the earliest possible date, of an international convention against the recruitment, use, financing and training of mercenaries,

1. Takes note of the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Drafting of an International Convention against the Recruitment, Use, Financing and Training of Mercenaries and the progress made by the Ad Hoc Committee, especially during its third session;

2. Decides that the Ad Hoc Committee shall continue its work, with the goal of drafting, at the earliest possible date, an international convention against the recruitment, use, financing and training of mercenaries;

3. Requests the Ad Hoc Committee, in the fulfilment of its mandate, to consider the suggestions and proposals of Member States, bearing in mind the views and comments submitted to the Secretary-General and those expressed at the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly during the debate in the Sixth Committee devoted to the consideration of the report of the Ad Hoc Committee, including the various views expressed on the definition of the term “mercenary”;

4. Invites the Ad Hoc Committee to take into account the draft articles contained in paragraph 56 of its report (A/38/43) for the elaboration of the provisions relating to the scope of the convention, the definition of the term “mercenary” and the obligations of States, as well as the proposals which have been made and which may be submitted at its next session;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to make available to the Ad Hoc Committee at its fourth session any up-to-date and relevant documentation on the subject;

6. Also requests the Secretary-General to provide the Ad Hoc Committee with any assistance and facilities it may require for the performance of its work, such as preparing a topical summary of the discussions that have taken place in the Sixth Committee during the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly;

7. Decides that the Ad Hoc Committee shall hold its fourth session for four weeks, from 30 July to 24 August 1984;

8. Requests the Ad Hoc Committee to make every effort to complete its mandate at its fourth session;

9. Also requests the Ad Hoc Committee to submit its report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session;

10. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Report of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Drafting of an International Convention against the Recruitment, Use, Financing and Training of Mercenaries".

ACTION TAKEN BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

At its 101st plenary meeting, on 19 December 1983, the General Assembly adopted the draft resolution submitted by the Sixth Committee in its report (A/38/669, para. 12). For the final text, see resolution 38/137.²

Iraq: request for the inclusion of a supplementary item in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session

[Original: Arabic]
[2 August 1983]

LETTER DATED 29 JULY 1983 TO THE
SECRETARY-GENERAL

On instructions from my Government, I have the honour to request, in accordance with rule 14 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, the inclusion in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly of a supplementary item entitled "Consequences of the prolongation of the armed conflict between Iran and Iraq".

You will find enclosed an explanatory memorandum, in accordance with rule 20 of the rules of procedure.

In view of the importance of the subject, my Government requests that the item be discussed by the General Assembly in plenary meeting.

(Signed) Riyadh S. AL-QAYSI
Permanent Representative of Iraq to the United Nations

Explanatory memorandum

1. On 22 October 1982, the General Assembly adopted resolution 37/3 concerning the consequences of the prolongation of the armed conflict between Iran and Iraq. In that resolution, the Assembly considered that the prolongation of the conflict constituted a violation of the obligations of Member States under the Charter of the United Nations. The Assembly further considered that the conflict and its prolongation and escalation, resulting in heavy losses in human lives and considerable material damage in a politically and economically strategic region, endangered international peace and security. It affirmed the necessity of achieving an immediate cease-fire and withdrawal of forces to internationally recognized boundaries as a preliminary step towards the settlement of the dispute by peaceful means in conformity with the principles of justice and international law, and called upon all other States to abstain from all actions which could contribute to the continuation of the conflict and to facilitate the implementation of the resolution in question.

2. Iran has stood alone against the will of the international community, which has widely endorsed the above-mentioned principles. It has wilfully persisted in its policy aimed at prolonging and widening the conflict, without regard for the clear international obligations which devolve upon it under the Charter of the United Nations.

3. Accordingly, the General Assembly must, indubitably, as the sole international body encompassing all members of the international community, express its view once again and take the necessary steps, on the basis of the Charter of the United Nations, with regard to the consequences of the Iranian policy aimed at the prolongation of the armed conflict with Iraq and rejection of its settlement by peaceful means. The international community cannot stand by passively in the face of such a vital matter of principle which is closely bound up with the authority of the United Nations and those purposes and principles of its Charter which relate to the maintenance of international peace and security.

ACTION TAKEN BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

At its 104th plenary meeting, on 20 December 1983, the General Assembly decided to resume its thirty-eighth session, at a date to be announced, for the sole purpose of considering six agenda items, including agenda item 138 on the consequences of the prolongation of the armed conflict between Iran and Iraq (see decision 38/456).¹

At its 106th plenary meeting, on 17 September 1984, the General Assembly decided to include in the draft agenda of its thirty-ninth session the item entitled "Consequences of the prolongation of the armed conflict between Iran and Iraq" (see decision 38/460).²

1. Antarctica constitutes approximately 8.9 per cent of the earth's land surface, covering six million square miles of land mass, ice and water. It is the last undeveloped continent, unsettled, with no original inhabitants. It lies in unique isolation in a triangle formed by the geographical extension of the southernmost part of South America,

Africa, Asia and Australia. Surrounded by the three largest oceans—the Pacific, the Indian and the Atlantic—the continent was, according to Rarotogan legends, first discovered by a Polynesian, Ui-te-Rangoria, around A.D. 650.

2. Early interest in Antarctica was mainly for frontier claims and colonization through discovery, occupation and propinquity. Later, scientific and environmental co-operation was initiated, leading to the signing in 1959 of the Antarctic Treaty,^a which attempts to manage the conflicting territorial claims on the continent and to promote other objectives such as seeking to guarantee that Antarctica, in the interest of science and progress of all mankind, be used exclusively for peaceful purposes and not become the scene or object of international discord.

3. Antarctica is of considerable environmental, climatic and scientific significance to the world. This has prompted scientists of various disciplines and from many nations within the framework of the Antarctic Treaty to collaborate and carry out important studies and research, inter alia, in magnetic fields, weather systems, distribution of earthquakes, effects of solar flares and the preservation of whales, seals and marine living resources, with a view to promoting international co-operation in environmental conservation and preservation of the world's ecosystem. Antarctica could also have considerable economic potential in terms of living and non-living resources.

4. Despite the progress made in these collaborative scientific efforts, there is need to examine the possibility of a wider and more positive international concert through a truly universal framework of international co-operation through the United Nations to ensure that activities carried out in Antarctica are for the benefit and in the interest of mankind as a whole.

5. It is for this purpose that, in the Economic Declaration adopted at the Seventh Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries, held at New Delhi from 7 to 12 March 1983, it was agreed that:

"The Heads of State or Government noted that the continent of Antarctica has considerable environmental, climatic, scientific and potential economic significance to the world. They expressed their conviction that, in the interest of all mankind, Antarctica should continue forever to be used exclusively for peaceful purposes, should not become the scene or object of international discord and should be accessible to all nations. They agreed that the exploration of the area and the exploitation of its resources shall be carried out for the benefit of all mankind, and in a manner consistent with the protection of the environment of Antarctica.

"The Heads of State or Government, while noting that relevant provisions of the Antarctic Treaty of 1959 related to international co-operation in the area, considered that in view of increasing international interest in Antarctica, the United Nations, at the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly, should undertake a comprehensive study on Antarctica, taking into account all relevant factors, including the Antarctic Treaty, with a view to widening international co-operation in the area."^b

Nicaragua: request for the inclusion of an additional item in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session

[Original: Spanish]
[28 September 1983]

LETTER DATED 28 SEPTEMBER 1983 FROM THE MINISTER FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF NICARAGUA TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

I have the honour to address you in order to convey to you the following considerations and the request of the Government of Nicaragua.

Central America is one of the areas of greatest tension in the world. The prevailing situation constitutes a threat to peace and security which transcends the boundaries of the region.

Despite the various declarations, initiatives and resolutions, such as those emanating from the movement of non-aligned countries, from the Contadora Group and from the Security Council, this situation is rapidly deteriorating and foreign intervention is being publicly discussed as if it were a legitimate option and even a right of those who regard Central America as their strategic reserve.

It is the inescapable duty of the Organization to require and ensure respect for the principles of the Charter which should govern relations between sovereign States.

Faithful to its vocation of peace, and in fulfilment of its commitment to advocate the peaceful solution of situations which threaten international peace and security, Nicaragua proposes the inclusion in the agenda of the thirty-eighth regular session of the General Assembly, for consideration in plenary meeting, of an important and urgent item entitled "The situation in Central America: threats to international peace and security and peace initiatives".

I request you to consider this letter as the memorandum provided for in rule 20 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly.

(Signed) Miguel D'ESCOTO BROCKMANN

Congo, Ethiopia, Guyana, Nicaragua, Sao Tome and Principe and Upper Volta: draft resolution

[Original: Spanish]
[9 November 1983]

The General Assembly,

Recalling Security Council resolution 530 (1983) of 19 May 1983 in which the Council encouraged the efforts of the Contadora Group and appealed urgently to all interested States in and outside the region to co-operate fully with the Group, through a frank and constructive dialogue, so as to resolve their differences,

Reaffirming the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations relating to the duty of all States to refrain from the threat or use of force against the sovereignty, territorial integrity and political independence of any State,

Also reaffirming the inalienable right of all peoples to decide on their own form of government and to choose their own economic, political and social system free from all foreign intervention, coercion or limitation,

Considering that the internal conflicts in the countries of Central America stem from the economic, political and social conditions obtaining in each of those countries and that they should not, therefore, be placed in the context of East-West confrontation,

Deeply concerned at the worsening of tensions and conflicts in Central America and the increase in outside interference and acts of aggression against the countries of the region, which endanger international peace and security,

Mindful of the necessity of promoting the achievement of peace on a sound basis, which would make possible a genuine democratic process, respect for human rights, and economic and social development,

Noting with deep concern that in recent weeks armed incidents, border clashes, acts of terrorism and sabotage, traffic in arms and destabilizing actions in and against countries of the region have increased in number and intensity,

Noting with great concern the military presence of countries from outside the region, the carrying out of overt and covert actions, and the use of neighbouring territories to engage in destabilizing actions, which have served to heighten tensions in the region,

Deeply concerned at the prolongation of the armed conflict in countries of Central America, which has been aggravated by increasing foreign intervention,

Bearing in mind the progress achieved in the meetings that the Ministers for Foreign Affairs of the Contadora Group have held with the Foreign Ministers of Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua, in identifying issues of concern and proposing appropriate procedures for the consideration of those issues,

Recalling the Cancún Declaration on Peace in Central America issued by the presidents of Colombia, Mexico, Panama and Venezuela on 17 July 1983 (A/38/303-S/15877, annex), which contains an appeal for political commitments on the part of countries situated in and outside the region with the aim of achieving lasting peace in the area,

Bearing in mind the Cancún Declaration and the endorsement by the States of Central America of a Document of Objectives,¹ which provides a basis for an agreement on the negotiations, that should be initiated at the earliest possible date with the aim of drawing up agreements and adopting the necessary procedures for formalizing the commitments and ensuring appropriate systems of control and verification, ¹ See Official Records of the Security Council, Thirty-seventh Year, Supplement for October, November and December 1983, document S/16041, annex.

Appreciating the broad international support expressed for the efforts of the Contadora Group to secure a peaceful and negotiated settlement of the conflicts affecting the region,

1. Reaffirms the right of all the countries of the region to live in peace and to decide their own future, free from all outside interference or intervention, whatever pretext may be adduced or whatever the circumstances in which they may be committed;

2. Affirms that respect for the sovereignty and independence of all States of the region is essential to ensure the security and peaceful coexistence of the Central American States;

3. Condemns the acts of aggression against the sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity of the States of the region, which have caused the loss of human life, an increase in the number of refugees and irreparable damage to their economies, thereby preventing them from meeting the economic and social development needs of their peoples, and, in particular, the indiscriminate attacks against Nicaragua, financed, directed and launched from outside that country, such as the bombing of civilian airports and ports, energy storage facilities, and border posts and settlements, jeopardizing the lives of thousands of persons and causing massive displacements of the population;

4. Urges the States of the region and other States to desist from or to refrain from initiating military actions or manœuvres intended to exert political pressure, which aggravate the situation in the region and hamper the efforts of the Contadora Group to promote negotiations with the agreement of the Governments of Central America;

5. Expresses its firmest support for the Contadora Group and urges it to persevere in its efforts, which enjoy the effective support of the international community and the forthright co-operation of the interested countries in or outside the region;

6. Welcomes with satisfaction the Cancún Declaration of the Presidents of Colombia, Mexico, Panama and Venezuela and the Document of Objectives endorsed by the Governments of Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua, which contains the basis for the start of negotiations to ensure harmonious coexistence in Central America;

7. Requests the Secretary-General, in pursuance of Security Council resolution 530 (1983), to keep the Council regularly informed of the development of the situation and of the implementation of that resolution;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report to the General Assembly at its thirty-ninth session on the implementation of the present resolution;

9. Decides to keep under review the situation in Central America, threats to security which may occur in the region and the progress of peace initiatives.

The General Assembly,

[Same text as draft resolution A/38/L.13 above, with the exception of paragraphs 3 and 4, and the insertion of a new paragraph 5 and the renumbering of the subsequent paragraphs.]

3. Condemns the acts of aggression against the sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity of the States of the region, which have caused losses in human life and irreparable damage to their economies, thereby preventing them from meeting the economic and social development needs of their peoples; especially serious in this context are:

(a) The attacks launched from outside Nicaragua against that country's strategic installations, such as airports and seaports, energy storage facilities and other targets whose destruction seriously affects the country's economic life and endangers densely populated areas;

(b) The continued loss of human life in El Salvador and Honduras, the destruction of important public works and losses in production;

(c) The increase in the number of refugees in several countries of the region;

4. Urges the States of the region and other States to desist from or to refrain from initiating military operations intended to exert political pressure, which aggravate the situation in the region and hamper the efforts of the Contadora Group to promote negotiations with the agreement of the Governments of Central America;

5. Takes note with satisfaction of the fact that the countries of the region have agreed to take measures leading to the establishment and, where appropriate, the improvement of democratic, representative and pluralistic systems which will guarantee effective popular participation in decision-making and ensure the free access of various currents of opinion to honest and periodic electoral processes based on the full observance of civil rights, emphasizing that the strengthening of democratic institutions is closely linked to evolution and advances made in the sphere of economic development and social justice;

2. Immediately afterwards, insert the following new paragraph:

"6. Urges the countries to halt the arms race in all its forms, to commence negotiations on the control and reduction of armaments and to establish machinery to prevent the traffic of arms in the region;"

Renumber existing paragraphs 5 to 9 of the draft resolution accordingly.

LETTER DATED 31 OCTOBER 1983 TO THE
SECRETARY-GENERAL

In conformity with rule 15 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, I have the honour to request that the item entitled "The situation in Grenada" be included as an additional item in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session of the General Assembly and be considered with priority because of its important and urgent character.

ANNEX I

Explanatory memorandum

1. On 25 October 1983 the Republic of Grenada was invaded by United States armed forces together with token forces from Jamaica, Barbados, Saint Lucia, Dominica, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines and Antigua and Barbuda, in a clear violation of the Charter of the United Nations and international law.

2. The Governments of the States involved in the invasion have tried to justify their illegal action by invoking Article 8 of the Treaty establishing the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States, an organization of which Grenada itself is a founding member and which is committed to promoting "unity and solidarity among the member States and to defend their sovereignty, territorial integrity and independence".

3. There is no question but that the invasion of Grenada by these forces constitutes naked armed aggression, does not conform with the letter nor the spirit of the Treaty invoked and should be deplored by the international community.

4. The examination of this question by the Security Council on 25, 26, 27 and 28 October 1983 unequivocally showed that the majority of the Members of the Organization rejected the military invasion of Grenada and demanded the immediate and unconditional withdrawal of all foreign troops from its territory.

5. The General Assembly should, therefore, adopt the draft resolution submitted by Guyana, Nicaragua and Zimbabwe to the Security Council¹ which the Council failed to adopt because of the negative vote of one of its permanent members and which is now introduced in a revised form.

Agenda item 146: Commemoration of the fortieth anniversary of the United Nations in 1985*

DOCUMENT A/38/246

Secretary-General: request for the inclusion of an additional item in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session

[Original: English]
[12 December 1983]

NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Secretary-General has the honour to request, under rule 15 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, the inclusion in the agenda of the thirty-eighth session of the Assembly of an additional item entitled "Commemoration of the fortieth anniversary of the United Nations in 1985".

An explanatory memorandum is herewith submitted in accordance with rule 20 of the rules of procedure.

ANNEX

Explanatory memorandum

1. 1985 will mark the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the United Nations. It will be recalled that the Charter was signed at San Francisco on 26 June 1945 and came into force on 24 October 1945.

2. On the occasion of the tenth, twentieth and twenty-fifth anniversaries of the United Nations, the General Assembly decided to undertake commemorative activities and to encourage Member States and other organizations to do likewise at the national and local levels.

3. At previous sessions, the General Assembly established preparatory committees, composed of members appointed by the President of the Assembly on the basis of equitable geographical distribution, for the purpose of drawing up and co-ordinating plans for the anniversary, organizing suitable activities and considering proposals and suggestions for increasing the effectiveness of the United Nations.

4. The Secretary-General considers it appropriate and timely that the occasion of the fortieth anniversary of the United Nations in 1985 should be used not only to review the performance of the Organization over the past four decades but, above all, to encourage a re-dedication of Member States to the principles and purposes of the Charter, to promote interest and support for the Organization and to re-invigorate international co-operation in all fields of human endeavour.

5. In view of the importance of the occasion, adequate time must be allowed for the preparation of thoughtful and productive proposals in connection with the commemoration. Following consultations and having heard the views of representatives of all regions, the Secretary-General therefore recommends that, at its thirty-eighth session, the General Assembly should decide to commemorate the fortieth anniversary of the United Nations in 1985 and establish an appropriate mechanism to consider and recommend at the thirty-ninth session proposals for suitable action and activities.

ACTION TAKEN BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

At its 104th plenary meeting, on 20 December 1983, the General Assembly decided to establish a Preparatory Committee for the Fortieth Anniversary of the United Nations and entrusted the Preparatory Committee with the task of considering and recommending to the Assembly at its thirty-ninth session proposals for suitable activities in connection with the observance of the fortieth anniversary of the United Nations (see decision 38/455¹).
