PROBLEMS OF ASSISTANCE TO REFUGEES

Byelorussian Soviet Socialist Republic: draft resolution

The³ General Assembly

1. Notes the failure of the Governments of the United States of America, the United Kingdom, France and other countries to implement its resolution 8 (I) of ~~12~~ February 1946 on encouraging and assisting the early return of displaced persons to their countries of origin;
2. Condemns the policy which was pursued by the International Refugee Organization and is being continued by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, and which is designed to substitute for repatriation the forced resettlement of displaced persons in other countries;
3. Condemns as incompatible with the principles of the United Nations Charter and with the accepted practice of international law, the attempts by certain Member States, and primarily by the United States of America, to recruit displaced persons by all possible means for subversive and diversionary activities in the territory of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the people's democracies;
4. Recommends to the Governments of the above-mentioned countries, and to the Governments of other countries in whose territories there are still refugees and displaced persons, that they should take steps to implement the above-mentioned resolution so as to complete the repatriation of the displaced persons and refugees to their countries of origin during 1952;
5. Proposes to the Governments of States Members of the United Nations in whose territories there are refugees and displaced persons to submit to the Secretariat of the United Nations full information regarding the refugees and displaced persons in their territories.
