Having established in its resolution of 5 November 1956 (A/3290) a United Nations Command for an emergency international force; having appointed the Chief of Staff of the United Nations Truce Supervision Organization as Chief of the Command with authorization to him to begin the recruitment of officers for the Command; and having invited the Secretary-General to take the administrative measures necessary for the prompt execution of that resolution,

Noting with appreciation the second and final Report of the Secretary-General on the plan for an emergency international United Nations Force (A/3302) as requested in the resolution adopted by the General Assembly on 4 November 1956 (A/3276), and having examined that plan,

2. Concurs in the definition of the functions of the Force as stated in paragraph 12 of the Secretary-General's report;
3. Invites the Secretary-General to continue discussions with Member Governments concerning offers of participation in the Force, toward the objective of its balanced composition;

4. Requests the Chief of Command, in consultation with the Secretary-General as regards size and composition, to proceed with the full organization of the Force;

5. Approves, provisionally, the basic rule concerning the financing of the Force laid down in paragraph 15 of the Secretary-General's report;

6. Establishes an Advisory Committee composed of one representative from each of the following countries: Brazil, Canada, Colombia, India, Iran, Norway and Pakistan, and requests this Committee, whose Chairman shall be the Secretary-General, to undertake the development of those aspects of the planning for the Force and its operation not already dealt with by the General Assembly and which do not fall within the area of the direct responsibility of the Chief of Command;

7. Authorizes the Secretary-General to issue all regulations and instructions which may be essential to the effective functioning of the Force, following consultation with the Advisory Committee aforementioned; and to take all other necessary administrative and executive actions;

8. Determines that, following the fulfilment of the immediate responsibilities defined for it in operative paragraphs 6 and 7 above, the Advisory Committee appointed by the General Assembly shall continue to assist the Secretary-General in the responsibilities falling to him under the present and other relevant resolutions;

9. Decides that the Advisory Committee, in the performance of its duties, shall be empowered to request the convening of the General Assembly and to report to it whenever matters arise which, in its opinion, are of such urgency and importance as to require their consideration by the General Assembly itself; and

10. Requests all Member States to afford assistance as necessary to the United Nations Command in the performance of its functions, including arrangements for passage to and from the area involved.
