COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS
Fortieth session
Item 12 of the provisional agenda

QUESTION OF THE VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOMS
IN ANY PART OF THE WORLD, WITH PARTICULAR REFERENCE TO COLONIAL AND OTHER DEPENDENT COUNTRIES AND TERRITORIES

Final report on the situation of human rights in El Salvador, submitted to the Commission on Human Rights by Professor José Antonio Pastor Ridruejo in fulfilment of the mandate conferred under Commission resolution 1983/29

Corrigendum

Paragraph 7

1. The last preambular paragraph of General Assembly resolution 38/101 should read as follows:

Noting with satisfaction that the Peace Commission, officials and special envoys of other Governments within and outside the region as well as the representative political forces have initiated conversations in the search for a negotiated comprehensive political solution,

2. Operative paragraph 6 should read as follows:

6. Calls upon the Government and other political forces to intensify their conversations and work for a comprehensive negotiated political solution which will put an end to the internal armed conflict and establish a lasting peace which will allow the full exercise both of civil and political rights and of economic, social and cultural rights by all Salvadorians;

3. Operative paragraph 11 should read as follows:

11. Reiterates its urgent appeal to the Government of El Salvador to fulfil its obligations towards its citizens and to assume its international responsibilities in this regard by taking the necessary steps to ensure that all its agencies, including its security forces and other armed organizations operating under its authority, fully respect human rights and fundamental freedoms;
