AnnexReport of the Informal Working Group on International Tribunals for 2016*I. Introduction

1. The present report is to inform the Security Council of the work of the Informal Working Group on International Tribunals from 1 January to 31 December 2016.

II. Organizational matters

2. The Working Group was established on an informal basis in 2000 to consider matters relating to the United Nations and United Nations-assisted tribunals, in particular the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda. The Working Group consists of the legal advisers of the missions of the members of the Security Council and is assisted by the Office of the Legal Counsel of the Office of Legal Affairs and the Security Council Affairs Division of the Department of Political Affairs.

3. Until 2007, the Working Group's chairmanship followed the monthly rotation of the presidency of the Security Council and it met only on an ad hoc basis. At the end of 2007, given the intensive work relating to residual issues and the completion strategies of the Tribunals pursuant to resolutions 1503 \(2003\) and 1534 \(2004\), the Working Group decided to appoint a single Chair and started meeting on a regular basis. Subsequently, the Chair was held by Belgium (2008), Austria (2009 and 2010), Portugal (2011), Guatemala (2012 and 2013) and Chile (2014 and 2015). Uruguay had the honour of chairing the Working Group in 2016.

4. During the reporting period, the Working Group held three meetings, including with the Presidents and the Prosecutor of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the principals of the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals.

8. Following the exchange of views with the Presidents and the Prosecutor of the Tribunal and the Mechanism, the Security Council, in its resolution 2329 \(2016\), reaffirmed its determination to combat impunity for all those responsible for serious international crimes and the necessity of all persons indicted by the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia being brought to justice.

9. In the same resolution, the Security Council reiterated its request to the Tribunal to complete its work and facilitate its closure as expeditiously as possible with the aim of completing the transition to the Mechanism and, in the light of resolution 1966 \(2010\), to redouble its efforts to review its projected case completion dates with a view towards shortening them as appropriate and to prevent any additional delays. The Security Council also underlined that States should cooperate fully with the Tribunal and the Mechanism and reaffirmed that staff retention is essential for the most expeditious completion of the Tribunal's work.

The Working Group held further discussions on the evaluation report and the Tribunal's response at its meeting on 6 December 2016.

16. In resolution 2329 (2016), the Security Council commended the Office of Internal Oversight Services for the evaluation report of the Tribunal, and encouraged the Tribunal to include information on the progress towards implementation of the Tribunal's completion strategy in its next six-month report, without prejudice to the primacy given to the completion of its work. The Security Council also welcomed the adoption of the Code of Professional Conduct for the Judges of the Tribunal, which was one of the recommendations in the evaluation report and emphasized the importance of developing a disciplinary mechanism for judges.

IX. Conclusion

24. In 2016 Uruguay was honoured to assume the chairmanship of the Informal Working Group on International Tribunals, giving it the opportunity to reaffirm its firm commitment to the work of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, the successfully closed International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals.

25. Aside from the meetings previously referred to in the present report, the Working Group also held informal meetings, in March, October and December 2016, to discuss different issues.

26. The Chair recognizes the important role of the Working Group and thanks each of its members for their commitment in 2016 and for their efforts in supporting the work of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the Mechanism.

27. The Chair would like this positive attitude to continue in 2017 in order to resolve pending issues. Indeed, concluding the year 2016, some unsolved concerns remain. The Chair would like to highlight the concerns expressed by the President of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia about staffing, issues related to cooperation and arrest warrants and the concerns expressed by the President of the Mechanism about the detention of one Judge of the Mechanism and its consequences in a current case, the search for eight fugitives indicted by the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and the reintegration of persons who were acquitted or were released after serving their sentences.

28. The Chair is committed to following the developments in the above-mentioned situations in 2017 and calls upon all members of the Organization to actively contribute to resolving those situations, as we remain strong in our belief that international justice must prevail over circumstantial political and financial factors.

29. The Chair emphasizes its commitment to supporting the work of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the Mechanism, giving priority to the dialogue with the Tribunal and the Mechanism, as well as with the States concerned and the Secretariat, for the most expeditious completion of the work.

30. To conclude, the Chair extends its appreciation to the Office of Legal Affairs and the Security Council Affairs Division for their invaluable support during 2016. The Chair would also like to thank the Presidents and the Prosecutor for their commitment to working closely together in furtherance of the mandates and timelines established by the Council. The Chair values the excellent relationship built with all of them during 2016.
