QUESTION OF NAMIBIA

United Nations Fund for Namibia

Report of the Secretary-General

Corrigendum

As a result of the approval by the United Nations Council for Namibia of the guidelines defining the purposes for which the United Nations Fund for Namibia may be used, paragraph 33 of the report should be replaced by the following:

33. The terms of reference of the Fund for Namibia have been redefined by the United Nations Council for Namibia, as proposed by the Committee of Trustees, in the form of guidelines containing the purposes for which the expenditure of funds for the Fund for Namibia may be made, as follows:

1. Education and training

The provision of scholarships and of a comprehensive educational and training programme for Namibians with particular regard to their future administrative responsibilities in Namibia.

Under this heading funds will be provided for the creation of a Namibia Institute, all ancillary steps towards its establishment and financing for an initial period of five years.

2. Social and medical assistance

To provide where necessary medical and other social assistance to Namibians in need of assistance.

3. Legal defence

To provide funds for:

(a) The legal defence of Namibians who are undergoing persecution;

- (b) The legal defence of Namibian interests, the protection of the natural resources of Namibia and the assertion of Namibian sovereignty.

4. International assertion of Namibia's sovereignty and right to complete independence

This includes the provision of funds, inter alia, for the following purposes:

- (a) To publish and disseminate material (including flags, photographs and booklets) and radio and television programmes in order to further the cause of Namibian liberation;
- (b) To facilitate the attendance of Namibian representatives at various international conferences, seminars and meetings to the extent not otherwise provided for from United Nations funds;
- (c) To ensure the proper and adequate representation of the people of Namibia at the United Nations.
