IMPLEMENTATION OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION 3079 (XXVIII) CONCERNING THE SIGNATURE AND RATIFICATION OF ADDITIONAL PROTOCOL II OF THE TREATY FOR THE PROHIBITION OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS IN LATIN AMERICA (TREATY OF TLATELOLCO)

Report of the Secretary-General

1. By resolution 3079 (XXVIII) of 6 December 1973, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to inform it, at its twenty-ninth session, of any measure adopted by the nuclear-weapon States in regard to the signature and ratification of Protocol II of the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America (Treaty of Tlatelolco).
2. Pursuant to this decision, the Secretary-General, by a note verbale dated 19 February 1974, transmitted the text of General Assembly resolution 3079 (XXVIII) to the nuclear-weapon States, and requested them to inform him before 31 August 1974 of any measures adopted by them in regard to its implementation.
3. The Secretary-General received from the Permanent Representative of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics the following communication, dated 9 July 1974:

"The position of the Soviet Union with regard to the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America is well known and has been expounded repeatedly in the relevant statements by the Soviet representatives on United Nations organs, including the statements made at the twenty-eighth session of the General Assembly."

4. The Secretary-General received from the Permanent Representative of China the following communication, dated 30 August 1974 (A/9718):

"Entrusted by the Chinese Government, Mr. Yao Kuang, Chinese Ambassador to Mexico, delivered to the Government of the United States of Mexico, the depository country of the Treaty for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America, on 11 June 1974, the instrument of ratification of Protocol II to the Treaty which was signed by Acting Chairman of the People's Republic of China, Tung Piwu, on 23 April 1974."
