Ninth session

AGENDA OF THE NINTH REGULAR SESSION

Fourth report of the General Committee

The General Committee at its 96th meeting held on 19 October 1954, considered three requests for the inclusion of additional items in the agenda of the ninth regular session as follows:

1. Prohibition of propaganda in favour of a new war: item proposed by Czechoslovakia (A/2744)

The General Committee decided, by 13 votes to 1, to recommend to the General Assembly the inclusion of the item in the agenda. By 10 votes to none, with 4 abstentions, the Committee decided to recommend that the item be referred to the Ad Hoc Political Committee for consideration and report.

2. Acts of aggression against the People's Republic of China and responsibility of the United States Navy for those acts: item proposed by the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (A/2756)

The General Committee, at the suggestion of the President, approved without objection the addition of the words "Complaint of" at the beginning of the item. The Committee decided, by 12 votes to 2, to postpone for fourteen days its consideration of the question of including the item in the agenda of the session.

3. Violation of the freedom of navigation in the area of the China seas: item proposed by the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (A/2741 and Add.1)

The General Committee resumed its consideration of the question of including the item proposed by the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in the agenda of the session. The Committee, at the suggestion of the President, approved without objection the addition of the words "Complaint of" at the beginning of the item. The Committee decided by 7 votes to 5, with 2 abstentions, to postpone for fourteen days its consideration of the question of including the item in the agenda of the session.
