Deeply concerned because, despite the political will and flexibility demonstrated by the developing countries during the second session of the United Nations Conference on an International Code of Conduct on the Transfer of Technology, no agreement has been achieved on a number of fundamental issues of interest to the developing countries,

1. Decides to convene a third session of the United Nations Conference on an International Code of Conduct on the Transfer of Technology in the first half of 1980 and requests the Secretary-General of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development to undertake the necessary preparations;

2. Strongly urges the developed countries to display the necessary political will and flexibility at the third session of the Conference in order to complete negotiations and take all decisions necessary for the adoption of an international code of conduct on the transfer of technology, bearing in mind the interests and concerns of the developing countries.
